TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1818.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do issue writs for proroguing the Parliament, which was appointed to meet on Tuesday the fourth day of this instant August, to Friday the second day of October next; and also for proroguing the Convocations of Canterbury and York, which were appointed to meet on Wednesday the fifth day of this instant August, to Saturday the third day of October next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, chap. 25, intituled "An Act to permit, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, the importation of tobacco into Great Britain from any place whatever," and which has been revived and continued by subsequent Acts, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, by Order in Council, to permit the importation into Great Britain (as provided in the said Act) of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, or of any of the Spanish or Portuguese colonies or plantations in South America, packed in any sort of packages whatsoever, upon such conditions, and under such regulations and restrictions as shall be imposed and provided in any such Order; and whereas it is expedient to allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March next, the importation into Great Britain of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in such packages, and under and subject to such regulations and restrictions as are hereinafter mentioned; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is therefore pleased, in pursuance of the said Act, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the third day of this instant August, and until the twenty-fifth day of March next, any unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, which shall be imported from any of the British territories or possessions in the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in any British ship or vessel, armed, navigated, and registered according to law, into any of the ports of Great Britain where tobacco can now by law be imported, may be imported and brought, packed in legal packages, or packed in bags or packages within any hogshead, cask, chest, or case, provided every such hogshead, cask, chest, or case does not weigh less than one hundred pounds net; and provided that the master, or other person having the charge or command of the ship or vessel importing the said tobacco, shall have on board a manifest or manifests, content or contents, in writing, made out and signed by such master or other person, in the same manner as is directed by an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 36, intituled "An Act to repeal the duties of Customs payable on goods, wares, and merchandises imported into Great Britain from any port or place within the limits of the charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, and to establish further regulations for the better security of the revenue on goods so imported, and to alter the periods

“ of making up and presenting certain accounts “ of the said Company to Parliament; to con“ tinue in force until the tenth day of April one “ thousand eight hundred and nineteen.” And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th
 of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act “ to allow for three years, and until six weeks “ after the commencement of the then next ses“ sion of Parliament, the importation into ports “ specially appointed by His Majesty within the “ provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, “ of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-“ exportation thereof from such ports,” it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into, and export from, such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, and during the continuance of the Act above recited, until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and the port of Saint John, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort, bread, biscuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort, pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said ports any of the said articles either to the United Kingdom or to any other of His Majesty's possessions:

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the ports of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and Saint John, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grind-stones, or other produce or manufacture of the said provinces, and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever, which shall have been legally imported into the said provinces; provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the ports above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th
 of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the tenth of October last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May;
 and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of this instant May), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port, or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jus. Buller.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour-Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [the name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the _____ at the _____ this day of _____ one thousand eight hundred and _____ Licence to import bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, into the Island of Newfoundland.

Foreign-Office, September 8, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to approve of Mr. Peter Emanuel Schow as His Danish Majesty's Consul at Plymouth, and for the ports in the counties of Devon and Cornwall.

Whitehall, September 7, 1818.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Charles Robert Haddelsey, of Kirton Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

. The Index to the London Gazette, for the first six months of the year 1818, is now ready for delivery.

Whitehall, August 25, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th day of July last, the mills and manufactory called the New Mills, near Witney, in the county of Oxford, were destroyed by fire, and that there is reason to suppose the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said mills on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Charles Leake, Attorney at Law, Witney.

Whitehall, August 8, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday morning last, about five o'clock, Ely Cox, gamekeeper to James Tessier, Esq. at Woodcot-Park, Epsom, Surrey, was most inhumanly murdered in the said park by some person or persons at present unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof. The said reward to be paid by Mr. John Everest, Clerk to the Bench of Magistrates at Epsom.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to be passed into an Act, to make and maintain a navigable canal from Evenwood-Bridge, in the county of Durham, to the River Tees, at or near Port-rack, in the said county, with reservoirs, cuts, and channels for supplying the said canal with water; which said canal, reservoirs, cuts, and channels.

Clarke and Grey, Solicitors.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament for an Act, for the purpose of making a rail-way or tram-road from the Prison of War, in the forest of Dartmoor, in the parish of Lydford, in the county of Devon, to a certain place called Crabtree, in the parish of Egg-Buckland, in the county of Devon; and which said rail-way or tram-road is intended to be made and pass through the several parishes of Lydford, Walkampton, Meavy, Buckland Monachorum, Bickleigh, Tamerton-Folliot, and Egg-Buckland, all in the county of Devon.

Given under my hand, at Plymouth, in the county of Devon, the 5th day of September 1818, George Hunt, Solicitor.

Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering and amending the laws now in force relating to the poor rates and to the maintenance and employment of the poor, and to the workhouse, in the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, by altering, amending, or repealing an Act, made and passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing an Act, made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for better governing, maintaining, and employing the poor of the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, for providing a new workhouse for the use of the said parish, for appointing collectors of the rates, and for other purposes therein mentioned; and for making more effectual provision for those and other purposes;" and by appointing a select vestry for the said parish, with such powers, authorities, controul, and jurisdiction within the said parish as shall be necessary; and also for better regulating, conducting, and managing the poor's rates, and the rates for repairing the highways, and the expenditure of them, and each of them, and all appeals and other matters relating thereto or connected therewith, and all other matters and things which are now under the jurisdiction and controul of the open vestry, and of the directors of the poor in the said parish.— Dated the 31st day of August 1818.

Tims and Scadding, Solicitors, Upper Charlotte-Street, Fitzroy-Square.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made by the Trustees of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for repairing and altering the parish church of St. George the Martyr, in the county of Middlesex, and for making further provision for the Rector of the said parish," for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and explain the said Act in several respects, and in particular to authorise the said Trustees to borrow a further sum of money to defray the extraordinary expence incurred in the late repairs of the church, and in passing the former Act, and to be incurred in altering and improving the burial-ground of the said parish, and repairing the vestry-house, and to consolidate the select vestry of the said parish with the Trustees of the said Act, and for other purposes.

By order of the Trustees,

John Thomas Church, No. 58, Chancery-Lane, London, Clerk to the said Trustees, and Vestry Clerk of the said parish.

Parish of St. James, Westminster, 19th August 1818.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for incorporating the optional streets of the parish of St. James, within the city and liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, with the parochial streets thereof; and for altering and amending the laws now in force relative to the paving, cleansing, and lighting the said parish, by altering, amending, or repealing such and such parts as may be necessary, of the six several Acts of Parliament following, that is to say; an Act, made and passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, chap. 21, intituled "An Act for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes within the city and liberty of Westminster, the parishes of St. Giles in the Fields, St. George the Martyr, St. George, Bloomsbury, that part of the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, which lies in the county of Middlesex, the several liberties of the Rolls and Savoy, and that part of the duchy of Lancaster which lies in the county of Middlesex, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and also another Act, made and passed in the third year of the reign of His said Majesty, chap. 23, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled An Act for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes within the city and liberty of Westminster, the parishes of St. Giles in the Fields, St. George the Martyr, St. George, Bloomsbury, that part of the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, which lies in the county of Middlesex, the several liberties of the Rolls and Savoy, and that part of the duchy of Lancaster which lies in the county of Middlesex, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also another Act, made and passed in the fourth year of the reign of His said Majesty, chap. 39, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual two several Acts of Parliament, made in the second and third years of His present Majesty, for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes within the city and liberty of Westminster, and other places therein mentioned, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned; and also another Act, made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of His said Majesty, chap. 50, intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of, and to render more effectual the several Acts passed in the second, third, and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, for paving, cleansing, lighting, and otherwise regulating the squares, streets, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster, and other parts in the said Acts mentioned, and for extending the provisions of the said Acts to the Surrey side of Westminster Bridge, and for enlarging the powers of the said Acts with respect to squares;" and also another Act, made and passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said Majesty, chap. 22, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual several Acts made relating to paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster, and parts adjacent;" and also another Act, made and passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His said Majesty, chap. 53, intituled "An Act to alter, explain, amend, and render more effectual several Acts made for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster, and parts adjacent, and for putting certain streets therein mentioned, commonly called optional streets, under the management of Parochial Committees, subject to the controul of the Commissioners appointed by or in pursuance of the said several Acts, and for removing and preventing nuisances, annoyances, obstructions, and encroachments in the said streets and other places, and for other purposes;" so far as the same relate to or concern the said parish; and that by such intended Act of Parliament it is proposed to obtain powers for increasing, altering, or regulating the rates or assessments, in respect of the said optional streets, in order that the rates or assessments of the said parish may be equalized, and that the inhabitants of the said optional streets may in future be rated and assessed in like manner and proportion, in every respect, as the inhabitants of the said parochial streets.

James Wingfield, Clerk to the Committee for Paving, Cleansing, and Lighting the said Parish.

Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the better cleansing, lighting, and watching of a certain street or lane called Long-Lane, in the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey, and the streets, courts, alleys, walks, and passages adjoining or contiguous thereto, not comprised in or under any other Act.—Dated this 22d day of August 1818.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND DEBTORS.

The late Mr. ADAM MAIBEN'S Estate.

Brighton, September 4, 1818.
ALL persons having any demand on the estate of the late Mr. Adam Maiben, of Brighton, Saddler, are requested to deliver an account thereof to Mr. George Grantham, of Lewes, or Mr. Edward Martin, of North-Street, Brighton, the Executors, in order that such accounts may be immediately discharged; and all persons indebted to the estate are desired to take notice, that if their debts are not paid within fourteen days from this time, the Executors will proceed against the then respective debtors, without further notice.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Wigan v. Furnell, with the approbation of Joseph Jekyll, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, on Thursday the 15th day of October 1818, at the Bear-Inn, situate in the Town of Devizes, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot

The copyhold estate late of John Furnell, of the City of Bristol, Merchant and Insurance-Broker.

Particulars of the estate to be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Vizard and Blower, Solicitors, No. 44, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; of Messrs. Leman, Solicitors, Bristol; and at the Bear Inn, Devizes.

TO be sold by private contract, pursuant to an Order of the Court of Chancery for the County Palatine of Lancaster, and made in a Cause Wood and another versus Sumner, before Thomas Starkie Shuttleworth, Esq. Deputy-Registrar of the said Court, or whom he shall appoint;

The inheritance, in fee-simple, of and in all that substantial elegant and newly-erected messuage or dwelling-house, called Brunswick-Grove, situate at Pendleton, near Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, the present residence of Mr. Joseph Robinson, Cotton-Merchant, consisting of lofty and well proportioned dining, drawing, and sitting rooms, spacious lobby, large kitchen and pantry, on the ground-floor, nine airy and pleasant lodging-rooms, finished in a superior style, with cellars under the whole premises.

The out-buildings are at a suitable distance from the house, and comprise a capital three-stalled stable, coach-house, back-kitchen, and other buildings, with a convenient yard, and two pumps on the premises.

The house is pleasantly situated, commanding a beautiful prospect, with a large garden in front, tastefully laid out, and well stocked with choice fruit trees, in full bearing, containing in the whole 2709 square yards, or thereabouts.

And also, all that compact and newly-erected brewery, in Pendleton aforesaid, adjoining the above-mentioned premises, commonly called and known by the name of Pendleton Brewery, late in the occupation of William Sumner, deceased, consisting of a very convenient brew-house, malt-room, and cellars, together with a capital stable for three horses, cart-house, and two piggeries.

Also a very genteel messuage or dwelling-house, adjoining the said brewery, consisting of a parlour, sitting-room, kitchen and pantry, on the ground-floor, four excellent lodging-rooms, convenient yard and pump, from which there is a communication into the brewery, and a well stocked garden, containing in the whole 1104 square yards, or thereabouts.

And also all that vacant plot of land, in Pendleton aforesaid, fronting the turnpike road leading from Pendleton to Manchester aforesaid, and also fronting Brunswick-Street, containing 1216 square yards, or thereabouts, and is a very desirable plot for building upon.

The whole of the above premises are subject to a yearly chief or ground-rent of 56l. 19s. 6d. payable to John Leaf, Esq. his heirs and assigns, for ever.

A plan of the premises may be seen, and further information obtained, by applying to Mr. Charles Wood, Solicitor, Manchester.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Taylor, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Chymist and Druggist, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 16th day of September instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. James Murray, Solicitor, Marshall-Street, Lord-Street, Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, shop-fittings, household furniture, estate and effects, at such price or prices, and upon such terms and conditions, and either for ready-money or for payment at a future day, and upon such securities as the said Assignee shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing with any person or persons, any matter or thing relating thereto; and upon other special affairs.
