Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 4, 1818.

The Lord Chamberlain has appointed James Wardrop, Esq. Surgeon Extraordinary to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about nine o'clock on the night of Sunday the 6th instant, as Mr. George Harrison, Coroner of the borough of Holt, in the county of Denbigh, was returning home, accompanied by his wife, he was fired at with a gun or pistol, by some evil-disposed person unknown, which caused his immediate death;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, by the Right Honourable Lord Kenyon, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid by P. Parry, Esq. Solicitor, Wrexham, Denbighshire.

Whitehall, September 13, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Wednesday the 2d instant, violent and riotous attacks were made upon the mill of Messrs. Gray and Co. called Ancoats Mill, in Pollardstreet, Manchester; and that there is reason to believe the same had been preconcerted, and was the result of a wicked determination to destroy the property of the said Messrs. Gray and Co.;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in planning and advising the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Constables of Manchester, to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice, which reward will be paid on conviction of the parties accused.

Admiralty-Office, September 14, 1818.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity established for the relief of poor widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 17th and 30th of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the Pension List, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 10th of November.

All letters from widows respecting their pensions, must state the rank their husbands held in the Royal Navy.

J. W. CROKER.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers given in and by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, improving, and keeping in repair, the road leading from Paddington to Harrow on the Hill, in the county of Middlesex;" and to prolong the term for which the said Act was granted; and to alter, increase, and vary the tolls thereby authorised to be taken.
