Vienna, July 12.

TWO days since we received Letters from Hungary, which gave an account, that the Troops of Count Tockley were on their March in order to their Encampiing in a Body near Serrenz, and that it was believed the Turks and Transilvians would joyn them there; at the same time that we have these advices from Hungary, we are told here that the Palatine of Hungary is going to Marry with the Emperor's leave, with the Sister of Count Tockley, and that great Preparations are making for the solemnizing the Marriage at Eysenstadt in Hungary. The Imperial Troops in the meantime are on their March towards the Theis, and Count Caprara, who is to Command them, will part from hence in few days. The Emperor has declared Count Strafoido Lieutenant-General of his Forces in Hungary; he is at present Posted with a Body of Men near the Berg-Towns, to secure them against the attempts of the Turks, who have set several small places under Contribution, and Plundered and burnt some that refused it. As to the affairs of Germany, we cannot at present write much from hence, things seeming to be at stand upon these motions in Hungary. The Duke of Lorraine recovers his strength but slowly; wherefore his Physicians have advised him to go to Baden to use the Bath, which his Highness intends to do, and, as we are informed, will be accompanied by the Empress Dowager, and his Wife the Queen of Pols.

Strasbourg, July 17. Our Bishop parted from hence some days since for France, whither he will stay about six Weeks, and expect the Pope's Bulls to confirm him in this See. The French Troops, Encamped near Lindax, increase daily, and they have now there between seven and eight thousand Men. The new Forts on the Rhine are almost finished; and they begin to furnish them with Cannon and Ammunition. From Frankfort they write, That Count Waldeck will very suddenly have a Body of 6000 Men together, and that he will Post himself with them on the Rhine; and at the same time the French give out, That if the Imperial Troops take the field, they will quickly have an Army together to make head against them. However, the general opinion here is, that things will not come to extremities, and that the Peace will be maintained.

Hamburg, July 21. We have Letters from Helmstedt, which say, That the Elector of Brandenburg was sending an Envoy to Vienna, and another to Stockholm, but upon what Commission was not known. From Copenhagen of the 14th Instant they write, That Monsieur Bazin, Ambassador from France, was arrived there in his way to Sweden; That the King of Denmark intended to part from thence the 23 Instant, for Holsteyn; and we have other Letters which tell us that the King is expected in Oldenburg about the latter end of this Month, to be present at a general Review of his Troops, which is appointed to be held there.

Cologne, July 21. The Emperor has again written to our Elector, to advise him to accommodate matters with the City of Liege, before a third Party does concern himself therein: and his Electoral Highness, as we are informed, has answered that he is very desirous of a Composure, but that he expects the City of Liege should treat him with that Submission and Reip Et as becomes Subjects to their Prince. From Vienna we have advice, That an Express was arrived from Count Caprara, the Imperial Minister at Constantinople, and that it was said, he had not yet made any great advance in his Negotiation.

Brussels, July 22. His Excellency the Marquis de Grana is now at Bruges, where the States of Flanders are assembled; it is not doubted, but he will settle matters to his satisfaction, those States shewing a great disposition to do to the utmost of their power for the assisting his Excellency, who, since his coming to this Government, has so zealously employed himself for the putting these Countries into a posture of defence and security. His Excellency is expected here again the latter end of this Week, or the beginning of the next, and soon after it's believed he will go and visit the Province of Haymanr. The Sieurs de Prado and Afferden, late Secretaries to the Prince of Parma, are kept under very close confinement, and it's said that in few days Sentence will be given against them.

Hague, July 24. The States of Holland are now assembled, but we do not hear that they have any matters of great moment before them. Our Letters from Hamburg tell us, That the King of Denmark is expected again in Oldenburg about the end of this Month, or the beginning of the next, and that his Majesty will have in that Countrey, and in Holstein, 12 or 14 thousand Men and that the Elector of Brandenburg was sending Ministers to the Emperor's Court, and to Sweden. The Commissioners of our West-India Company have been at Hamburg, to Treat with those of Denmark for the adjusting the differences concerning the Ship Corneliza, which was formerly taken on the Coast of Guinea, and having had several Conferences, are come back to make report to their Principals.

Whitehal, July 26. The Address which follows has been Presented to His Majesty, who received it very graciously:

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan, whose Names are hereunto Subscribed, retaining great and due apprehensions of the happiness we enjoy under Your Majesties most excellent Government; and Your Gracious Com-

mandance
