nuance of it, notwithstanding the daily Provocations offerred You from an unworthy Generation of men, whom no Favours can oblige, nor the greatest Concessions, or bighest Pledges of Royal Faith, satisfie; we cannot be t look upon ourselves bound to give Your Majesty and all the World an assurance, That we do from our hearts de-test and abbor all such ill Returns and Treasonable Revivings of all or any of those once-experienced Devilist Projects, which under a Mask of Religion, would defiroy the Church, and out of pretence of maintaining ile sifety of Tour Majesties Royal Person, extirpate Monarchy; and in particular of that Mystery of Iniquity and Truas mable ASSOCIATION, Published in the proceeding at the Old-Bailey against the Earl of SHAF ISBLIRY, and of all other Pop th and Republican Plots, and Seditious Confederacies of like nature what-foever. And we do affure Your Majesty, That we will beready upon all occasions uninimously to add the Teslimony of our Lives and Fortunes to the Truth of thu our Abborrence, in the Obediant Service of Your sacred Majely and Your Lawful Successors, whenever soreq ired. And we humbly befeech Tour Majesty to be-lieve, that though we have not been amongst the first in thu Declaration of our Duty, yet that we will not be bekind any of Your Loyal and true Subjects in the real Performance of it, nor cease to pray for the long centinuance of Your Majesties happy Reign over us, and that God would daily proceed to Bless Your Majesty with a dutiful, consented thankful People, as some return to Him and You for the exceeding Mercy of so Graclous and acceptable a Government. So Pray,

Dread Sovereign

Your Du iful and most Doyal Subjects.

At the Guild-ball, under the Common-Seal o. the said Town, th. 26th day of June, Anno Domini, 1682.

It is unanimously desired by all the Subscrib rs, That this Address be humbly Presented to His Majelly by Sir Edward Stradling Baronet, Mayor there, who is a Person of great Honour and Loyalty.

Deal Juy 22. The Ambassador from the King of Bantam lay the last night in this Town. He is o go on board the Kempthorne one of the East-India Companies Ships, which is to carry him home.

London, July 20. This day the Renegado, who came over as an Interpreter with the Morocco Ambaffador, having some of his Exc llency's Money in his hand, got out at the Back door in an E glish Habit, and absented himself just when the Barges were ready for the Ambassadors departure, which hindred his going for that time.

The 21. 'earch being made for him, he was found, and carried before Judge Raymond, who after Examination sent him to Mr. Secretary Fenkins, before whom, and tome of the Lords of His Majellies Pri. vy Council, he pretended to be returned to the Chri im Religion, (though the reality thereof wa not believ d by any that knew him, because he had done the like at Tangier, in Colonel Norwood's t me. where by he got his Liberty, and made escape from thence to the Moors again:) but he was, by their Lordships remanded to Judge Raymond, to pro-on his Moorish Cloaths and Religion again, and reu. n.d to the 'Ambaffador, who with him in his company (though after another attempt to escape) was the next morning con uch d by he Mafter of the Ceremonies, in the King's Barge, he Tide ser-ing early, on Board His Maj sties Yacht the Mary, which is to carry him to the Wolwich Frigat, lying ready for him in the Downs.

London, July 22. His Majesty having by His Leters Patents, Dat d the 24th of June, 1680. authorized ir Henry St. George Kt. Clarenceux King of Arms, by himself or his Deputies, to visit his Province, and to Register the Pedegrees and Arms of all the Nobility and Gentry therein, according to ancient usage; the said Clarenceux hath thereupon constituted Thomas May Esq: Chester-Herald, and Gregory King, Rougedragon, Office s of his D pu ies for the Counties of Northampton, Leisester, Warwick, Worcester, Glocester, and City of Briftol, who will accordingly visit the fame this prefint Vacation, having appointed their places of Sellion in manner following.

July 26, at Northampton. Aug. 24. at Henley.

29. Stow. 25. Stratford upon Avon. 31. Cirencester. 26. Shiffton. Aug. 2 Tetbury. 28. Kineton. 3. Sodbury. 29. Southam. 4. Briftol. 8. Dursley. 30. Warwick. 31. Coventry 9. Michel-Dean. Sept. 1. Colesbill. 2. Atherston 4. Hinckley. 10. Glocester. 12. Tewkesbury. 14. Chett nham. 5. Lutterworth. 15. Campden. 6. harberough, 8. Leicelter. 16. Evesham. 9. Meiton-Moubray. 17. Pershore. 18. Worcester. 11. Loughborough. 12. Asi by de la Zouct. 21. Beaudley. 22. Sturbridge. 13. Bosworth.

Advertisements.

23. Bromsgrove.

The Novels of Gio. Francisco Loredano,

The Novels of Gio. Francisco Loredano, a Nobleman of Venice; Translated into English Sold by Thomas Fax and Hinty Lord, in Westminster-hall.

N Friday the 21 Instant in the Evening sour Bersons were Robbed within a Mile of Clapham; and these was taken from them, besides other things, a little bright bay Nag, with a brack List down his back, and a round hole in his off Ear, his Main new shorn, near 13 hands high, and all his Paces; a bay Mare above 14 hands, with a small blaze in her face, her feet behind white, fore of her hind Legs; a black Nag, about fourteen transh high, burnt on the Shoulder, and on the Hip with I. C. a Star in his Forebead, and all his Paces: a nother black Nag, about 15 hards high, burnt with a T. on the near Shoulder, with Saddle-spots on his oack, and all his Paces. Moverer gives Notice of them to Mr. Meriden, Sword-cutler at the curner of Bartholomew-Lane, or to Mr. Ostorn, at the Unicorn in Gracechurch-street, shall be well Rewarded. iball be well Rewarded.

hali be well Rewarded.

Tolen or S rayed out of the Grounds of Mrs. Pampbir, of Maddenham, in the I'le of Bly, on Thurlday the fixth Instant at night, a Sorrel Gelding, with a Blaze down his Face, a cut Tail, a notch on one of his fore-hoofs, a crack in one of his hinder hoofs, about ten years old. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Have of fron ivall, a Grocer, next dore to Barnardy-Inn in Holborn, or to Mr. Rob i Sterring at the Eagle and Child in Cambridge, shall have a Guinea for a Reward ward

The 22. the Ambassador writhin a Letter, promising him p room and safety, if he would return; which, to avoid being lent to Newgate he chose rather to do; and so laying aside his pretence of the room. I feet Boll, at the Plower de-Luce and Bell, in Pager. Christianity, with his English Habit, he fairly put