Genoua; July 14. HE roth Instant Sailed from hence for Legborne the Genoua-Merchant; the 12th, departed the Swallow Frigat, for Aijcant and Cadiz, and yesterdey arrived here the George, Captain Hazelwood, in 38 days from the Downs, being bound for L ghorne, and from thence to Scandaroon: in her company came the Rose, bound for Marseilles, the Loyalty for Legborne, and the Sicilian for Palermo. and Messina. The Genoud-Convoy having been met by the French on the Coast of Spain, was Visited by them, which is much talked of here, and upon the first news of it, it was proposed in the Senate, That another Man of War should be immediately sent out to bring home the Commander of the said Convoy a Prisoner, for suffering himself to be Vifited; but nothing was done in it. Here is arrived the Charles from Leghorne.

Brussels, July 22. The States of Luxemburg have sent their Agent hither, to give his Excellency an account of the condition that Province is at present in, and by him we understand, that the City of Luxemburg is very plentifully furnished with Men, Money, and Provisions; That the French Troops which were Quartered in several places within that Province, are marched towards Thionville, That the Sieur Lambert is Encamped with 1500 Horse near Luxemburg, which is all the Force the French have in that Province, except their Troops at Arlon, and Marche, which places they are fortifying with all possible diligence. We are told from Lille, that Monsieur d'Humieres, and Monficur Morebee, who lately fought upon a Quarrel they had, are removed fro n thence to the Cittadel of Toursay, in order to their Trial. The preparations in the Empire go on very flowly; and the troubles at Liege Itill continue.

· Hague, July 28. The 25th Instant the States Anfwer to the late Memorial presented to them by the Sieur Dieft, the Brandenbirg Minister, was put into his hands, and as we are informed is to this effect : That they (the States) are much pleased to find his Electoral Highness in a resolution to contribute his utmost for the Preserving the Peace of Europe; That they can with great truth and fincerity say that they have the same Intentions. and that they labour for nothing more earnestly than to maintain the general Peace and Tranquility, and that they had hoped that his Electoral Highaels would have concurred with them in the Alliance they lately Concluded with the King of Sweden, seeing the sole end and scope thereof was to preserve the Peace and Repose of Christendom.
On Thursday last the Danish Minister presented a Memorial to the States, wherein he tells them of the King his Masters endeavours to maintain the Peace, and defires this State to joyn with him therein; and that for that purpose they will declare their approbation of the conditions proposed by the French Ambassadors at Francfort, as a ground upon which a fure and latting Peace may be eftablished in Germany. The States, of Holland have resolved to repair the Dikes on the Frontiers of will cost them 60000 Florins. From Germany we have advice, That the States of the Lower Saxony have made choice of the Duke of Hanouer to be General of the Forces of that Circle, which will consist in about 12000 Men, and to these that Duke will joyn 8000 of his own, which will not only render him very confiderable in the Empire, but likewise to Foreign Princes. From Cadiz and other places in Spain, we have an account of the feizure of the effects of the Subjects of the City of Hamburg.

Paris, Aug. 1. By Order of the Council, the Churches which the Protestants had at Bois-le-Roy, near Fontainbleau, at Chifé, at Civray, at Lusignamin Poitou, and several others in Xaimongs, have been Demolished; and those at orge, in the Diocess of Orleans, and at Champague-Mouton in Poison, have been shut up, with a Prohibition to the Protestants to make use of them for the exercise of their Religion. The Bishop of Straburg arrived here the last Week; he went immediately to wait upon the King at Versailles, by whom he was very kindly received. We formerly gave you an account that the Parliament, upon the Sorbonnes refuling to Register the Kings late Edist upon the Declaration of the Clergy, had commanded them not to meet again till farther Order, and we must now inform you that about 150 Ductors of the Faculty have ligned a Petition to the Parliament, demanding the re-establishment of their Assemblies: what it will produce we shall see in few days. From Pienna we have Letters which affure us, That Count Ckprara, the Emperor's Minister at Constantinople, auvances very fuccessfully in his Negotiation, and that it was not doubted but he would very suddenly bring it to a conclusion, to the Emperor's fatis-faction. From Spain we have advice of the selfaction. From Spain we have advice at the zure of all the Effects of the Subjects of Hamburg. The Indisposition of the Duke of Sauor will, it's fome time his Voyage for Windfor, July 23. Yesteday an humble Address was presented to His Majesty from the City of Oxford, by Henry Bertie Efq; and several other Gentlemen of Oxford, which was very graciously received by His Majesty.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty. Dread Sovereign,

J. E Your Majesties most Obedient and Loyal Subject, the Grand Inquest for the Body of this Your antient City of Oxon, do out of a deep sense of our Duty, humbly beg leave to present this our unfeigned, though late acknowledgment of those many Blef-sings we enjoy under Your Majesties most gracious Reign, and to manifest our just Detestation of all Traiterous Combinations against Your Majesties Sacred Person, our Religion by Law Established, and the Legal Descent of the Crown; And we do particularly declare vur Abbot-rence of that Treasonable ASSOCIATION, found in the Earl of SHAFTSBURY's Closet, abe Contrevance of which was malicious, the Design bloody, and the effects without doubt had been deplorable; had it not, by the Providence of Almighty God, and Tour Majestate great Wisdom, been timely discovered, whose Vigilance Zealand, which were broken through by the late and Goodness does constantly takes more care to preserve great Floods: the doing of which, it's reckoned, our bappiness, than the Midite of our Enemies can de
