

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1818.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of September 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council was this day pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Friday the second day of October next, should be further prorogued to Thursday the twelfth day of November following; and that the Convocations of Canterbury and York, which stand prorogued to Saturday the third day of October next, should be further prorogued to Friday the thirteenth day of November following.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, chap. 25, intituled "An Act to permit, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, the importation of tobacco into Great Britain from any place whatever," and which has been revived and continued by subsequent Acts, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, by Order in Council, to permit the importation into Great Britain (as provided in the said Act) of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, or of any of the Spanish or Portuguese colonies or plantations in South America, packed in any sort of packages whatsoever, upon such conditions, and under such regulations and restrictions as shall be imposed and provided in any such Order; and whereas it is expedient to allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March next, the importation into Great Britain of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in such packages, and under and subject to such regulations and restrictions as are hereinafter mentioned; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is therefore pleased, in pursuance of the said Act, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the third day of this instant August, and until the twenty-fifth day of March next, any unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, which shall be imported from any of the British territories or possessions in the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in any British ship or vessel, armed, navigated, and registered according to law, into any of the ports of Great Britain where tobacco can now by law be imported, may be imported and brought, packed in legal packages, or packed in bags or packages within any hogshead, cask, chest, or case, provided every such hogshead, cask, chest, or case does not weigh less than one hundred pounds net; and provided that the master, or other person having the charge or command of the ship or vessel importing the said tobacco, shall have on board a manifest or manifests, content or contents, in writing, made out and signed by such master or other person, in the same manner as is directed by an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 36, intituled "An Act to repeal the duties of Customs payable on goods, wares, and merchandises imported into Great Britain from any port or place within the limits of the charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, and to establish further regulations for the better security of the revenue on goods so imported, and to alter the periods

" of making up and presenting certain accounts " of the said Company to Parliament; to con" tinue in force until the tenth day of April one " thousand eight hundred and nineteen." And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th
of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled " An Act
" to allow for three years, and until six weeks
" after the commencement of the then next ses" sion of Parliament, the importation into ports " specially appointed by His Majesty within the " provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick,
" of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-
" exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into, and export from, such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, and during the continuance of the Act above recited, until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and the port of Saint John, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort, bread, biscuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort, pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said ports any of the said articles either to the United Kingdom or to any other of His Majesty's possessions:

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the ports of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and Saint John, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grind-stones, or other produce or manufacture of the said provinces, and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever, which shall have been legally imported into the said provinces; provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the ports above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th
of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the tenth of October last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May;
and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of this instant May), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Ashton Nicholas Every Mosley, Gent. to be Cornet.
Dated 15th August 1818.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about nine o'clock on the night of Sunday the 6th instant, as Mr. George Harrison, Coroner of the borough of Holt, in the county of Denbigh, was returning home, accompanied by his wife, he was fired at with a gun or pistol, by some evil-disposed person unknown, which caused his immediate death;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, by the Right Honourable Lord Kenyon, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid by P. Parry, Esq. Solicitor, Wrexham, Denbighshire.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Wednesday the 2d instant, violent and riotous attacks were made upon the mill of Messrs. Gray and Co. called Ancoats Mill, in Pollard-street, Manchester; and that there is reason to believe the same had been preconcerted, and was the result of a wicked determination to destroy the property of the said Messrs. Gray and Co.;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in planning and advising the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Constables of Manchester, to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice, which reward will be paid on conviction of the parties accused.

Whitehall, August 25, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th day of July last, the mills and manufactory called the New Mills, near Witney, in the county of Oxford, were destroyed by fire, and that there is reason to suppose the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said mills on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Charles Leake, Attorney at Law, Witney.

Whitehall, August 8, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday morning last, about five o'clock, Ely Cox, gamekeeper to James Tessier, Esq. at Woodcot-Park, Epsom, Surrey, was most inhumanly murdered in the said park by some person or persons at present unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof. The said reward to be paid by Mr. John Everest, Clerk to the Bench of Magistrates at Epsom.

Whitehall, June 23, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Tuesday the 26th and Saturday the 30th days of May last, the woods belonging to Sir Thomas Edward Winnington, Bart. in the manor of Bewdley, in the county of Worcester, called the Yard Coppice and Hitterell Coppice, were maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said woods), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by Mr. Bury, Solicitor, in Bewdley; and

The like sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods and Forests.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed marked (C), which shall be legally imported or brought into the port of London, to land any such goods without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandise, of the duties of Customs due on the importation thereof; and such goods may be lodged and secured at or in such places, and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, upon the said importer, proprietor, or consignee entering into bond to His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, with one sufficient surety, to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the said port of London, in double the amount of the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise, with condition that such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be either duly exported in the manner and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions, so far as the same are applicable thereto, as by this Act are directed in respect of goods, wares, and merchandise secured in warehouses as aforesaid, and exported directly from thence, or that the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be paid to the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Customs, within the space of twelve months from the date of the first entry of such goods; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and shall cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such foreign linseed should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked (C); and that such foreign linseed should be lodged and secured at or in such places as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such foreign linseed in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act marked (C), at the time of the passing the same Act.

By the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

RULES, ORDERS, AND REGULATIONS,

For the preservation of His Majesty's Moorings, and for the Mooring, Anchoring, and placing of all Private Ships of War, Transports, and all other Private and Merchant Ships and Vessels, Lighters, Barges, Boats, and other Craft whatsoever, in the Harbour or Haven of Milford, in the County of Pembroke, for the purpose of insuring Free and Safe Ingress, Egress, and Regress, unto, into, to, and from His Majesty's Docks, Dock Yards, Arsenals, Wharfs, and Moorings therein, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Fifty-Fourth Year of His Majesty King George the Third, and intituled " An Act for the better Regulation of " the Several Ports, Harbours, Roadsteads,

" Sounds, Channels, Bays, and Navigable " Rivers in the United Kingdom, and of His " Majesty's Docks, Dock Yards, Arsenals,
" Wharfs, Moorings, and Stores therein, and " for repealing several Acts passed for that " purpose."

I.

IT is hereby ordered, that no owner, master, or other commanding officer, of any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, nor any pilot, or other person, employed by either of them, shall anchor or moor, or cause to be anchored or moored, any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, in the fair way or channel between the King's moorings in the said harbour, within fifty fathoms of the centres of any of the said moorings, or of His Majesty's ships, floating magazines, and hulks lying thereat, or in the front or abreast of His Majesty's dock-yard, or even to drop an anchor within such space and situations, except in case of necessity to prevent damage to herself, or that of the King's ships which may be at the contiguous mooring, and then to remove as soon as possible thereafter: except also in cases where any of the said ships, vessels, or craft, may be consigned to the dock-yard, and must, therefore, necessarily anchor contiguous thereto, till they can come to the cranes and wharfs for delivery of their cargoes, and then to be placed in such situations as His Majesty's Officers, or King's Pilots by whom they are conducted, shall direct.

Nor shall any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, be made fast to, or be moored or secured by any of the mooring anchors or chains to which access can be had when the tide is out, or be made fast to any of the buoys or piles of His Majesty within the said harbour, in the fronts of the said dock-yard, or other premises belonging to it, nor anchor or moor so as to swing within any of the said buoys or piles, upon pain of the penalties for such offences, and all other prohibitions and restrictions herein contained, as the said Act of Parliament directs.

II.

All private ships of war, transports, and other private ships or vessels, lighters, barges, boats, and other craft, are hereby expressly prohibited, under the penalties of the said Act, from being breamed in any part of the said harbour or haven of Milford, except on the shores at Pembroke, or to the westward of the Pennar Mouth, and eastward of Pembroke Ferry: and from coming or entering into the said harbour above Milford, being laden with, or having on board, any quantity of gunpowder exceeding five pounds weight in the whole. And all such gunpowder is hereby appointed to be left and deposited at a depôt established for that purpose at Haking, in the said harbour, where the same will be taken and received according to the provisions of the said Act.

III.

And it is hereby ordered, that no person or persons shall take any ballast, or shingle, from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks between Pennarmouth, to a distance of one mile to the eastward of Pembroke Ferry, on any account or pretence whatsoever, without being duly authorised by us, or other sufficient authority of His Majesty's Government, upon pain of the penalties in this Act mentioned: observing, however, that this regulation is not meant to restrict the raising of the sea sand for agricultural or other purposes, in the shoal water to the eastward of Pembroke Ferry, by the barges and craft which have hitherto been employed thereon or any other.

By command of their Lordships,

JOHN BARROW.

IN obedience to an Order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 13th day of October 1818, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the City of London, to the opposite side, in the County of Surrey, and for other purposes therein mentioned ;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-second year of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act for increasing the Fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars' Bridge ;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two of the clock in the afternoon, on the 13th day of April next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, I will pay to the several persons hereinafter named, the several principal sums, in discharge and annihilation of so much money due to them, by virtue of a former Act of Parliament, made in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled " An Act for the relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London," or such part thereof as by virtue of the said Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen they may be entitled to receive, together with all interest due in respect thereof, to the 13th day of April next; and I desire that the said several persons will attend at the time and place above-mentioned, to receive the said principal sums, with interest for the same, as aforesaid; for, from and after the said 13th day of April next, the interest or annual sums of money payable in respect thereof, will cease and determine. And, in obedience to the said Order, I do hereby further give notice, that if the said several persons, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 13th day of April, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing, under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, I will, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration in writing, at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, pay to the said several persons the said principal sums, together with all interest as shall on the day, severally specified in such said declaration for the payment thereof, have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine; viz.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

London, October 24, 1818.

ALL persons to whom the late Mrs. Ann Grove, of Vineyard-Walk, Clerkenwell, stood indebted, are requested to send in their accounts, within fourteen days from the date hereof, to Mr. Starr, Smithfield-Bars, or to Mr. Swan, 70, Fleet-Street, that the same may be discharged; and all persons who stand indebted to the estate and effects of the deceased are desired to pay the same immediately, as above.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 12th day of June 1818, made in a Cause wherein Alexander Begbie and others are plaintiffs, and David Hunter and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire into the facts and circumstances, of the claims on the personal estate of James Begbie, late of York-Street, Portman-Square, in the County of Middlesex, and of the Old South Sea-House, Broad-Street, London, Esq. deceased, by or on behalf of persons interested in or connected with the Honourable East India Company's ship Walpole, which ship was lost off Margate, on the 18th day of December 1808; all or any person or persons having any claims or claim on the personal estate of the said James Begbie in respect of the said ship, are between the 1st day of November 1818, and the 23d day of December 1818, to come in and make out their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 12th day of June 1818, made in a Cause wherein Alexander Begbie and others are plaintiffs, and David Hunter and others are defendants, the Creditors of James Begbie, late of York-Street, Portman-Square, in the County of Middlesex, and of the Old South Sea-House, Broad-Street, London, Esq. deceased, are between the 1st day of November 1818, and the 23d day of December 1818, to come in and make out their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Jonathan Wakefield, of the City Road, in the County of Middlesex, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 30th day of October instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Carter, in the Lord Mayor's Court-Office, over the Royal Exchange, to take in consideration the propriety of adopting certain proceedings against a person, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Bruford, of Galway-Street, in the Parish of Saint Luke, in the County of Middlesex, Cabinet-Maker, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 30th day of October instant, at the Office of Mr. Samuel Reynolds, Solicitor, 33, Hertford-Street, Fitzroy-Square, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking an assignment from one Catherine Bewley, of all her interest in a bond given by one Charles Henry Merckle to her, conditioned for payment of 300l. in the event therein mentioned, and by her given to the said Charles Bruford before he became Bankrupt, as and in full discharge of a debt due from said Catherine Bewley to the said Charles Bruford previous to his becoming Bankrupt, and which said Charles Bruford verbally agreed to accept from said Catherine Bewley, in full discharge of her said debt so due as aforesaid, but which said bond has never been assigned to the said Charles Bruford, nor to the said Assignees of the effects of said Bankrupt; and to assent to or dissent from said Assignees releasing the said Catherine Bewley from such debt so due as aforesaid to said Charles Bruford as aforesaid, previous to his becoming Bankrupt, in consideration of her assigning all her interest in said bond to the Assignees of the estate and effects of said Bankrupt, in trust for the benefit of the Creditors of said Bankrupt.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Robert Ball, of the City of Exeter, Perfumer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 31st day of October instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Chiche's New London Inn, in the said City of Exeter, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by public auction or private contract, all and singular the household goods and furniture, stock in trade, and other the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof respectively, to any person or persons, and giving such credit, and accepting such security for payment of the same as the said Assignees shall think fit; and also on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Corran, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Liquor-Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 18th of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Archibald Keightley, Solicitor, in Wood-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, to take into consideration the differences which subsist between the Assignees of this estate, and the representatives of the Bankrupt's late father and mother respectively, and his brother and sisters, and those who represent them respectively, relative to a division of the said estates, and ascertaining the respective interests of each therein, and in respect of a claim made by the said Assignees against the estate of his late father and mother, for monies alleged to have been received by them or one of them on account of the said Bankrupt; and as to the propriety of proceeding to enforce payment of what may be thought due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting the matters aforesaid, or any of them to arbitration, or to their compounding or otherwise agreeing the same, and to join such powers and authorities to the said Assignees respecting the same as they shall think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Morand, late of Broad-Street, in the City of London, but now of Dean-Street, Finsbury-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 4th day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at John's Coffee-House, Cornhill, in order to consider what remuneration shall be made to Mr. Morand for his exertions for the benefit of the estate since his bankruptcy.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Vincent, Joseph Tanner, John Barnes, and Samuel Hancock, of Newbury, in the County of Berks, Bankers and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 31st day of October instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Town-Hall, in Newbury aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting a composition or compositions on a debt of 670l. and upwards due to the late firm of Vincent, Baily, and Vincent, from the estate of George Masters, a Bankrupt; and also on a debt of 880l. and upwards due to the separate estate of the said Joseph Tanner from Mary Mortimer, of Newbury, in the said County of Berks, widow; and also on certain debts of 80l., 620l., and 100l. claimed to be due to the separate estate of the said Joseph Tanner from the Trustees of the Methodist chapels at Chilton, in the County of Wilts, and Kintbury and Westbrook, in the said County of Berks; and also on a debt of 50l. and upwards due to the joint estate of the said Bankrupts from William Buckeridge, late of Ham-Mill, in the Parish of Thatcham, in the said County of Berks, Mealman; or to the said Assignees submitting the same debts or any of them to arbitration, or taking such proceedings for the recovery of the same, or making such arrangements relative thereto as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking such legal or other proceedings as they shall think proper, for recovering a debt of 413l. due to the separate estate of the said Joseph Tanner, from the Parish of West Shefford, Berks, for monies expended by the said Joseph Tanner in making, repairing, or amending the highways and bridges within the said Parish; or to the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, or compounding the said last mentioned debt as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of certain cottages and hereditaments the remaining estates of the said Joseph Tanner, either by public sale or private contract, or otherwise as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to allow and confirm the proceedings which have been taken by the said Assignees in commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity still depending against the real and personal representatives of Osman Vincent and Richard Baily, late of Newbury aforesaid, Bankers, deceased, touching the said Bankrupts' estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on such suit, and adopting such proceedings for that purpose as they may think proper; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any other suit or suits against the real and personal representatives of the said Osman Vincent and Richard Baily, or any or either of them, touching the said Bankrupts' estate, and making such persons parties to such suit or suits as the said Assignees shall think proper.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Griffiths, of the City of Bristol, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 3d day of November next, at the Offices of Messrs. Bevan and Brittan, No. 2, Clare-Street, Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's leasehold premises, goodwill, stock in trade, fixtures, plate, household furniture, and other effects, either by public auction or private contract, and by the value of one or more person or persons, or otherwise, and to accept and take such security for all or any part of the purchase-money, payable at such time or times as the said Assignee shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the completion and carrying into effect a certain agreement or treaty for the sale of the lease and goodwill of the Bankrupt's premises at a sum, which will be mentioned at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.
