Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1818.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, chap. 25, intituled "An Act to permit, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, the importation of tobacco into Great Britain from any place whatever," and which has been revived and continued by subsequent Acts, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, by Order in Council, to permit the importation into Great Britain (as provided in the said Act) of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, or of any of the Spanish or Portuguese colonies or plantations in South America, packed in any sort of packages whatsoever, upon such conditions, and under such regulations and restrictions as shall be imposed and provided in any such Order; and whereas it is expedient to allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March next, the importation into Great Britain of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in such packages, and under and subject to such regulations and restrictions as are hereinafter mentioned; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is therefore pleased, in pursuance of the said Act, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the third day of this instant August, and until the twenty-fifth day of March next, any unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, which shall be imported from any of the British territories or possessions in the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in any British ship or vessel, armed, navigated, and registered according to law, into any of the ports of Great Britain where tobacco can now by law be imported, may be imported and brought, packed in legal packages, or packed in bags or packages within any hogshead, cask, chest, or case, provided every such hogshead, cask, chest, or case does not weigh less than one hundred pounds net; and provided that the master, or other person having the charge or command of the ship or vessel importing the said tobacco, shall have on board a manifest or manifests, content or contents, in writing, made out and signed by such master or other person, in the same manner as is directed by an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 36, intituled "An Act to repeal the duties of Customs payable on goods, wares, and merchandises imported into Great Britain from any port or place within the limits of the charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, and to establish further regulations for the better security of the revenue on goods so imported, and to alter the periods of making up and presenting certain accounts of the said Company to Parliament; to continue in force until the tenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen." And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the

"provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into, and export from, such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated; any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, and during the continuance of the Act above recited, until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and the port of Saint John, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort, bread, biscuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort, pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said ports any of the said articles either to the United Kingdom or to any other of His Majesty's possessions;

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the ports of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and Saint John, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grind-stones, or other produce or manufacture of the said provinces, and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever, which shall have been legally imported into the said provinces; provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the ports above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the tenth of October last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of this instant May), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America); or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

MEMORANDUM.

The nomination of Lieutenant-Colonel William Morrison, Artillery Madras Establishment, to be a Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, as published in the Gazette of the 17th instant, does not take effect; it appearing that the rank held by him is official and temporary, and that his permanent rank is only that of Captain.

+ Whitehall, September 8, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Thomas Hudson, of the Middle Temple, London, Esq. only surviving son and heir apparent of Richard Hudson, of Hipperholme, in the west riding of the county of York, Clerk, by Elizabeth his wife, deceased, daughter of Richard Harrison, late of Poole Bank, in the county of Westmorland, deceased, by Mary his wife, daughter of William Bateman, late of Halton-Park, in the county palatine of Lancaster, Esq. deceased, and sister to Thomas Bateman, also of Halton-Park aforesaid, Esq. deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may (in compliance with a clause in the last will and testament of his great uncle the said Thomas Bateman) henceforth use, assume, and take the surname of Bateman only, instead of his present surname of Hudson:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

+ Whitehall, October 31, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Sir John Acland, of Fairfield, in the county of Somerset, and of Newhouse, in the county of Devon, Bart. His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may, from grateful and affectionate regard to the memory of his kinsman, Peregrine Palmer, late of Fairfield aforesaid, Esq. deceased, take and use the surname of Palmer, in addition to and before that of Acland, and also bear the arms of Palmer, quarterly with those of Acland; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

+ Whitehall, October 31, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Frederick-Anne Hervey-Bathurst (heretofore Frederick-Anne Hervey), of Clarendon-Park, in the county of Wilts, Esq. second son of Felton Lionel Hervey, late of Englefield-Green, in the county of Surrey, Esq. deceased, by Selina-Mary his wife, only child of Sir John Elwill, Bart. deceased, niece of Peter Bathurst, late of Clarendon-Park aforesaid, and of Lainston, in the county of Southampton, a General in the Army, deceased (and which Selina-Mary is now the wife of William-Henry Fremantle, Esq. one of the Representatives in Parliament for Buckingham), His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may (in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of the said late General Bathurst) continue to use the said surname of Bathurst, in addition to and after that of Hervey; that he may bear the arms of Bathurst, quarterly with those of Hervey; and that the said surname and arms of Hervey and Bathurst may, in like manner, be borne and used by his issue; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

+ Whitehall, October 31, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Captain Richard Cust, of the 31st (or Huntingdonshire) Regiment of Foot, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Sicilian Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, which His Majesty the King of the Two Sicilies has been pleased to confer upon him, as a mark of His royal approbation of the distinguished intrepidity displayed by that Officer in several actions with the enemy; particularly in the memorable and glorious victory achieved over the French forces on the plains of Maida, on the 4th July 1806 (upon which occasion he served as a Major of Brigade to the Forces), and subsequently at the siege and capture of Ischia and Procida; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 31, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the house of Mr. John Chapman, of Holyfield Hall, in the parish of Waltham Holy Cross, in the county of Essex, Farmer, was feloniously entered on the night of Monday the 26th instant, by several persons, armed and disguised, who stole therefrom 73l. or 74l. in Bank of England notes, four watches, and other property, belonging to the said Mr. John Chapman;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons, who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the said Mr. John Chapman;

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Overseers of the Poor of the said parish of Waltham Holy Cross;

And the sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Nazing, in the said county.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about nine o'clock on the night of Sunday the 6th instant, as Mr. George Harrison, Coroner of the borough of Holt, in the county of Denbigh, was returning home, accompanied by his wife, he was fired at with a gun or pistol, by some evil-disposed person unknown, which caused his immediate death;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, by the Right Honourable Lord Kenyon, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid by P. Parry, Esq. Solicitor, Wrexham, Denbighshire.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Wednesday the 2d instant, violent and riotous attacks were made upon the mill of Messrs. Gray and Co. called Ancoats Mill, in Pollard-street, Manchester; and that there is reason to believe the same had been preconcerted, and was the result of a wicked determination to destroy the property of the said Messrs. Gray and Co.;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in planning and advising the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Constables of Manchester, to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice, which reward will be paid on conviction of the parties accused.

Whitehall, August 25, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th day of July last, the mills and manufactory called the New Mills, near Witney, in the county of Oxford, were destroyed by fire, and that there is reason to suppose the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said mills on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Charles Leake, Attorney at Law, Witney.

Navy-Office, October 30, 1818.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st July to the 30th September 1818, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 9th, 10th, and 11th of November, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 12th, 13th, 16th, 17th, and 18th of November, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 19th and 20th of November, to Masters, Surgeons, and Purasers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditions Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th September 1818, will commence paying on the 9th November; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

NOTICE.

THE Earl of Bessborough has, by written notice, dated the second day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, demanded of the principal occupier of the lands of Ballylinch Bog and the Waste Bog, in the barony of Iffa and Offa, and county of Tipperary, and from all persons known to him to be interested therein, the renewal fines due out of said lands, under a covenant for renewal, contained in a lease of said lands, dated on or about the tenth day of April one thousand seven hundred; and in said notice declared, that if said renewal fines shall not be paid within three calendar months from the date thereof, he, his heirs, and assigns, will for ever after refuse to renew said lease; of which all persons concerned are hereby required to take notice.—Dated this 7th day of September 1818.

Bessborough.

Is Forty-seven Shillings and Nine Pence Halfpenny per Hundred Weight,

Exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

Grocers' Hall,
October 31, 1818.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Payment of Prizes, Fifth Lottery 1817.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
October 31, 1818.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the fifth lottery 1817, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Monday the 9th day of November next, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets of the said lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for better dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the benefit tickets numbered from No. 1 to No. 4000, at one seat, and the benefit tickets numbered from No. 4001 to No. 8000, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Monday the 16th day of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to take notice, that they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give notice, that tickets brought to this Office for payment, the checks of which are torn or destroyed, will not be entered for payment without a bond being given to indemnify the said Commissioners for granting certificates for the same.

Cutting the Tickets of First Lottery 1818.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
October 31, 1818.

THE Managers and Directors of the lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby give notice, that they will cut off the tickets of the first of those lotteries for 1818, into their respective boxes A and B, on Tuesday the 17th of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at this Office, beginning first with the benefits and blanks, which are to be cut into box B, and continuing until all the said tickets for each of the said boxes are completely cut therein.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby also give notice, that they will attend and oversee the drawing of the tickets of the said first lottery for 1818, on Tuesday the 24th day of November, and Thursday the 3d, and Tuesday the 15th days of December next, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
August 29, 1818.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 6th day of March next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farms will be let on leases, to commence on the 12th day of May next, that is to say, Gairshield Farm, in the parish of Hexham, for the term of eleven years; and Grindon-Hill Farm, in the parish of Warden, for the term of fourteen years.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking either of the said farms, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Friday the 6th day of March next, otherwise they will be returned as inadmissible.

Mr. William Sample, of Low Brunton, near Hexham, will shew Gairshield Farm; and Mr. William Coats, of Haydon-Bridge, will shew Grindon-Hill Farm.

Messrs. Forster and Wailes, at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give such farther information as may be required.

East India-House, October 28, 1818.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a Quarterly General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 16th December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of declaring a dividend from Midsummer last to Christmas next:

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

East India-House, October 28, 1818.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the transfer-books of the said Company's stock will be shut on Tuesday the 1st December next, at three o'clock, and opened again on Tuesday the 19th January following:

And that the dividend warrants on the said stock, due on the 5th January, will be ready to be delivered on Wednesday the 6th of the same month.

THE sold by auction, free of duty, by John King, without reserve, on Saturday November the 7th 1818, at Four in the Afternoon, at the Golden Lion Inn, Ipswich, by order of the Assignees of William Keary, of Ipswich, a Bankrupt,
Lot 1. A new built freehold dwelling-house and premises, in the occupation of Mr. Cornelius Chisnall, pleasantly situated near the turnpike road Hemingstone, Suffolk, comprising an entrance hall, parlour, keeping-room, store-room, and pantry, back-house, buttery, three chambers, and a neat garden.
Lot 2. The right and interest of the said Bankrupt in a mortgage on six copyhold tenements, situated in East Bergholt, in Suffolk, by which the sum of 300*l.* with lawful interest is secured to the said Bankrupt, and which principal sum is still due thereon. For further particulars apply to Messrs. Brame and Notcutt, or to the Auctioneer, Ipswich.

THE sold by auction, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against William Hamblin and James Caddy Hamblin, of Wotton-under-Edge, in the County of Gloucester, Clothiers and Partners, Dealers and Chapman, by Mr. Josiah Wade, at the Star Inn, Wotton-under-Edge, in the County of Gloucester aforesaid, on Friday the 20th of November 1818, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, the following very valuable freehold and leasehold property, situate in and contiguous to the manufacturing Town of Wotton-under-Edge, in lots, viz.

Lot 1. A freehold. A newly erected stone built mill six stories high, together with a steam engine of twelve horse power, on Bolton and Watt's principle, newly erected stocks and gig of the best construction, with a coal yard enclosed, a large yard for carts, also a new oak teazel house, stone built stable, and out houses, with three several tenements near the same and adjoining each other.

Lot 2. A leasehold dwelling house and garden, situate in Bradley-Street, with commodious workshops adjoining, now and for many years past in the occupation of the Bankrupt William Hamblin, wherein he has carried on an extensive clothing business, held under the Trustees of Wotton Grammar School for three lives renewable.

Lot 3. A leasehold dwelling house, in the occupation of John Rose, with two cottages and a garden, situated near lot two, held under the same tenure for three lives, only one of which is now living.

Lot 4. A freehold garden, situate at Wotton-under-Edge aforesaid, containing by estimation 20P. be the same more or less, in the occupation of Samuel Hamblin as tenant thereof.

Lot 5. A freehold wood and woodland ground, at North Nibley, distant from Wotton-under-Edge about one mile, containing by estimation 1A. be the same more or less.

From the flourishing state of the clothing business, and the desirable situation of the premises, this sale will be well worth the attention of any person about to embark in that line; the mill is the only one in the Town, and is capable of manufacturing twenty ends per week. Lot 5 is situated near the preserves of Colonel Berkeley, and abounds with game.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Isaac Cooke, Solicitor, Bristol, or to Mr. Thomas Neal, Clothier, Wotton-under-Edge, who will shew the property.

THE Creditors of Quintin Dick and Jeremiah Dick, of Great Winchester-Street, Merchants, Bankrupts, as well those who have not as those who have proved their debts, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts, at the Office of Messrs. Wadson and Son, in Austin-Friars, London, on Friday the 6th day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, to take into consideration an offer made for compromising a large debt due to the Bankrupt's estate of mortgage of a plantation in Demerary; and on other special affairs.
