Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1818:

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition; on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council was this day pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the twelfth day of November next, should be further prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-ninth day of December following; and that the Convocations of Canterbury and York, which stand prorogued to Friday the thirteenth day of November next, should be further prorogued to Wednesday the thirtieth day of December following.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Leith has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Leith is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that a proper and sufficient number of pilots of the Cinque Ports, not less than eighteen at any one time, and in succession from time to time without intermission or any unnecessary delay, shall at all seasonable times, by day and night, constantly ply at sea, or be afloat between the South Foreland and Dungeness, to take charge of all ships and vessels coming from the westward:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England, and for the regulation of boatmen employed in supplying vessels with pilots, licensed under the said Act, so far as relates to the coast of Kent, within the limits of the Cinque Ports," after reciting, amongst other things, the said Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by any Order or Orders made for that purpose, and published by Proclamation in the Gazette, to suspend so much of the said therein-recited Act as directs the Cinque Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances in the said therein-recited Act specified, either for any period His Majesty shall think proper, and to be in such case specified in such Order or Orders and Proclamation, or until any further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said therein-recited Act into effect and execution, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures, in relation to such specified number of pilots constantly plying at sea, and clauses and regulations for enforcing the same, shall, upon the issuing of such Proclamation, remain and continue so suspended:

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has deemed it expedient to suspend the carrying into execution the said part of the said first recited Act, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said first recited Act, as directs the Cinque Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances in the said first recited Act specified, shall be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, until further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said first recited Act into effect and execution.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, chap. 25, intituled "An Act to permit, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, the importation of tobacco into Great Britain from any place whatever," and which has been revived and continued by subsequent Acts, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, by Order in Council, to permit the importation into Great Britain (as provided in the said Act) of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, or of any of the Spanish or Portuguese colonies or plantations in South America, packed in any sort of packages whatsoever, upon such conditions, and under such regulations and restrictions as shall be imposed and provided in any such Order; and whereas it is expedient to allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March next, the importation into Great Britain of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in such packages, and under and subject to such regulations and restrictions as are hereinafter mentioned; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is therefore pleased, in pursuance of the said Act, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the third day of this instant August, and until the twenty-fifth day of March next, any unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, which shall be imported from any of the British territories or possessions in the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in any British ship or vessel, armed, navigated, and registered according to law, into any of the ports of Great Britain where tobacco can now by law be imported, may be imported and brought, packed in legal packages, or packed in bags or packages within any hogshead, cask, chest, or case, provided every such hogshead, cask, chest, or case does not weigh less than one hundred pounds net; and provided that the master, or other person having the charge or command of the ship or vessel importing the said tobacco, shall have on board a manifest or manifests, content or contents, in writing, made out and signed by such master or other person, in the same manner as is directed by an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 36, intituled "An Act to repeal the duties of Customs "payable on goods, wares, and merchandises imported into Great Britain from any port or place within the limits of the charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, and to establish further regulations for the better security of the revenue on goods so imported, and to alter the periods of making up and presenting certain accounts of the said Company to Parliament; to continue in force until the tenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen." And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into, and export from, such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, and during the continuance of the Act above recited, until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and the port of Saint John, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort, bread, biscuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort, pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said ports any of the said articles either to the United Kingdom or to any other of His Majesty's possessions:

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the ports of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and Saint John, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grind-stones, or other produce or manufacture of the said provinces, and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever, which shall have been legally imported into the said provinces; provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the ports above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, November 7, 1818.

MEMORANDUM.

The nomination of Major John Ford, 2d Native Infantry, Madras Establishment, as published in the Gazette of the 13th ultimo, to be a Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, does not take effect; it appearing that the rank held by him is official and temporary, and that his permanent rank is only that of Captain.

Whitehall, November 6, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto John Coode, Esq. Post Captain in the Royal Navy, and Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Commander of the Royal Sicilian Order of St Ferdinand and of Merit, which His Majesty the King of the Two Sicilies has been pleased to confer upon him, as a mark of His royal approbation of the highly distinguished gallantry and able conduct displayed by that Officer as Captain of His Majesty's ship the Albion, in the memorable attack upon the town and shipping of Algiers, on the 27th day of August 1816, upon which occasion he was severely wounded; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 8, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Thomas Hudson, of the Middle Temple, London, Esq. only surviving son and heir apparent of Richard Hudson, of Hipperholme, in the west riding of the county of York, Clerk, by Elizabeth his wife, deceased, daughter of Richard Harrison, late of Poole Bank, in the county of Westmorland, deceased, by Mary his wife, daughter of William Bateman, late of Halton-Park, in the county palatine of Lancaster, Esq. deceased, and sister to Thomas Bateman, also of Halton-Park aforesaid, Esq. deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may (in compliance with a clause in the last will and testament of his great uncle the said Thomas Bateman) henceforth use, assume, and take the surname of Bateman only, instead of his present surname of Hudson, and that he may also bear the arms of Bateman; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 24, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto the Reverend Peplow-William Ward, Clerk, M.A. Vicar of Winston, in the county of Suffolk; the Reverend James Ward, M.A.; and Charles Ward, Esq. sons of the Reverend Peplow Ward, D.D. Prebendary of Ely, by Sarah his wife, sister of Charles Hamilton, late of the city of Chester, Esq. deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that they may assume and use the surname of Hamilton only, and also bear the arms of Hamilton, pursuant to a request contained in the last will and testament of their said maternal uncle; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

In the Gazette of August 1, in the list of Members returned to serve in the new Parliament, borough of Grampound, for John Innes, Esq. read John Innes, Esq.

Whitehall, October 31, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the house of Mr. John Chapman, of Holyfield Hall, in the parish of Waltham Holy Cross, in the county of Essex, Farmer, was feloniously entered on the night of Monday the 26th instant; by several persons, armed and disguised, who stole therefrom 23l. or 74l. in Bank of England notes, four watches, and other property, belonging to the said Mr. John Chapman;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons, who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the said Mr. John Chapman;
The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Overseers of the Poor of the said parish of Waltham Holy Cross;

And the sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Nazing, in the said county.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about nine o'clock on the night of Sunday the 6th instant, as Mr. George Harrison, Coroner of the borough of Holt, in the county of Denbigh, was returning home, accompanied by his wife, he was fired at with a gun or pistol, by some evil-disposed person unknown, which caused his immediate death;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, by the Right Honourable Lord Kenyon, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid by P. Parry, Esq. Solicitor, Wrexham, Denbighshire.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Wednesday the 2d instant, violent and riotous attacks were made upon the mill of Messrs. Gray and Co. called Ancoats Mill, in Pollard-street, Manchester; and that there is reason to believe the same had been preconcerted, and was the result of a wicked determination to destroy the property of the said Messrs. Gray and Co.;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in planning and advising the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Constables of Manchester, to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice, which reward will be paid on conviction of the parties accused.

Whitehall, August 25, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th day of July last, the mills and manufactory called the New Mills, near Witney, in the county of Oxford, were destroyed by fire, and that there is reason to suppose the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said mills on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Charles Leake, Attorney at Law, Witney.

Whitehall, August 8, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday morning last, about five o'clock, Ely Cox, gamekeeper to James Tessier, Esq. at Woodcot-Park, Epsom, Surrey, was most inhumanly murdered in the said park by some person or persons at present unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof. The said reward to be paid by Mr. John Everest, Clerk to the Bench of Magistrates at Epsom.

Whitehall, June 23, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Tuesday the 26th and Saturday the 30th days of May last, the woods belonging to Sir Thomas Edward Winnington, Bart. in the manor of Bewdley, in the county of Worcester, called the Yard Coppice and Hitterell Coppice, were maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said woods), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by Mr. Bury, Solicitor, in Bewdley; and

The like sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods and Forests.

NOTICE.

THE Earl of Bessborough has, by written notice, dated the second day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, demanded of the principal occupier of the lands of Ballylinch Bog and the Waste Bog, in the barony of Iffa and Offa, and county of Tipperary, and from all persons known to him to be interested therein, the renewal fines due out of said lands, under a covenant for renewal, contained in a lease of said lands, dated on or about the tenth day of April one thousand seven hundred; and in said notice declared, that if said renewal fines shall not be paid within three calendar months from the date thereof, he, his heirs, and assigns, will for ever after refuse to renew said lease; of which all persons concerned are hereby required to take notice.—Dated this 7th day of September 1818.

Bessborough.
