Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1818.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the administration of the Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty's Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if Her Majesty the Queen should depart this life during the time that the care of His Majesty's Royal Person should be committed to Her Majesty, according to the provisions of the said Act, the Regent should forthwith order and direct a Proclamation, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be issued and published declaring the same: and whereas by another Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to alter and amend certain of the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the administration of the Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty's Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if the case should happen in which it was enacted by the said Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty, that the Regent should forthwith order and direct such Proclamation to be issued and published as aforesaid, and the same should happen upon or after the day appointed by any Writ of Summons then issued, for calling and assembling a new Parliament, and before such new Parliament should have met and sat as a Parliament, then, and in such case, the Regent should forthwith cause such a Proclamation as aforesaid to be issued and published, declaring that such case had happened, and requiring the new Parliament either to convene and sit at Westminster immediately after such Proclamation should have been published, or upon some day to be mentioned in such Proclamation, and being within sixty days to be computed from the date of the said Proclamation; and in such case the Parliament so convening and sitting should be, and be deemed a Parliament to all intents and purposes, under the provisions of the said last mentioned Acts: and whereas the Parliament which was summoned to meet at Westminster on the fourth day of August last, hath not yet met and sat as a Parliament, but stands prorogued to the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing: and whereas Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, during the time that the care of His Majesty's Royal Person was committed to Her Majesty: now we do hereby by this Proclamation (ordered and directed to be issued and published, and issued and published under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland), declare, that Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, and We do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, publish, declare, and require, that the new Parliament shall be held, convene, and sit, at Westminster, on the fourteenth day of January now next ensuing, for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly on the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We do hereby further publish and declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the said Parliament shall on the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing, be further prorogued to the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We have, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, given Order to the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Writ Patent, under the Great

Seal of the United Kingdom, for proroguing the same accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this nineteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 18th of November 1818,

PRESENT,

Archbishop of Canterbury,
Lord President,
Duke of Montrose,
Lord Steward,
Earl Bathurst,
Earl of Liverpool,
Viscount Melville,
Viscount Sidmouth,
Bishop of London,
Lord St. Helens,
Sir William Scott,
Sir John Nicholl,
Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer,
Lord Chief Baron.

WHEREAS in the Act of Uniformity, which establishes the Liturgy of the Church of England, provision is made for such alterations in the Prayers for the Royal Family, as from time to time shall become necessary, and be directed by lawful authority: it is thereupon this day Ordered in Council, that in the Morning and Evening Prayers, in the Litany, and in all other parts of the Public Service, as well in the occasional Offices as in the Book of Common Prayer, where the Royal Family is appointed to be particularly prayed for, the following form and order shall be observed, viz.

Their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

And it is further ordered, that no edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth printed, but with this amendment; and that in the mean time, till copies of such edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, within this Realm, do (for preventing of mistakes) with the pen, correct and amend all such prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing direction; and for the better notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several Parishes; and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

Chetwynd.

In pursuance of an Act passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, and of another Act passed in the thirty-second year of His present Majesty, wherein provision is made for praying for the Royal Family in that part of Great Britain called Scotland; it is hereby Ordered in Council, that henceforth every Minister and Preacher shall in his respective Church, Congregation, or Assembly, pray in express words,

For His Most Sacred Majesty King George, their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

Of which all persons concerned are hereby required to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or laden any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty, to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Leith has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Leith is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that a proper and sufficient number of pilots of the Cinque Ports, not less than eighteen at any one time, and in succession from time to time without intermission or any unnecessary delay, shall at all seasonable times, by day and night, constantly ply at sea, or be afloat between the South Foreland and Dungeness, to take charge of all ships and vessels coming from the westward:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England, and for the regulation of boatmen employed in supplying vessels with pilots, licensed under the said Act, so far as relates to the coast of Kent; within the limits of the Cinque Ports," after reciting, amongst other things, the said Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, in Council, by any Order or Orders made for that purpose, and published by Proclamation in the Gazette, to suspend so much of the said therein-recited Act as directs the Cinque Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances in the said therein-recited Act specified, either for any period His Majesty shall think proper, and to be in such case specified, in such Order or Orders and Proclamation, or until any further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said therein-recited Act into effect and execution, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures, in relation to such specified number of pilots constantly plying at sea, and clauses and regulations for enforcing the same, shall, upon the issuing of such Proclamation, remain and continue so suspended:

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has deemed it expedient to suspend the carrying into execution the said part of the said first recited Act, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said first recited Act, as directs the Cinque Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances in the said first recited Act specified, shall be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, until further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said first recited Act into effect and execution.

Jas. Buller.

Foreign-Office, November 28, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint William Gray, Esq. to be His Majesty's Consul for the State of Virginia.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Oxford.

Bullington Troop of Oxfordshire Yeomanry.

Sir Henry Willoughby, Bart. to be Cornet. Dated 3d November 1818.

Oxford Troop of Yeomanry.

Theophilus Wharton, Gent. to be Cornet. Dated 14th November 1818.

Whitehall, November 25, 1818.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Henry Langworthy, of the city of Exeter, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, November 23, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of the 5th of November instant, a mare, the property of Mr. John Cridge, of the parish of Bratton, in the county of Devon, being in his field, was there feloniously and maliciously attacked by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and her bowels torn out by some weapon, in consequence of which she died;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward to be paid on application to Mr. Samuel Brenridge, Clerk to the Magistrates at Barnstaple, in the said county.

Whitehall, October 31, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the house of Mr. John Chapman, of Holyfield Hall, in the parish of Waltham Holy Cross, in the county of Essex, Farmer, was feloniously entered on the night of Monday the 26th instant, by several persons, armed and disguised, who stole therefrom 73l. or 74l. in Bank of England notes, four watches, and other property, belonging to the said Mr. John Chapman;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons, who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the said Mr. John Chapman;

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Overseers of the Poor of the said parish of Waltham Holy Cross;

And the sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Nazing, in the said county.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about nine o'clock on the night of Sunday the 6th instant, as Mr. George Harrison, Coroner of the borough of Holt, in the county of Denbigh, was returning home, accompanied by his wife, he was fired at with a gun or pistol, by some evil-disposed person unknown, which caused his immediate death;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, by the Right Honourable Lord Kenyon, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid by P. Parry, Esq. Solicitor, Wrexham, Denbighshire.

Whitehall, September 15, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Wednesday the 2d instant, violent and riotous attacks were made upon the mill of Messrs. Gray and Co. called Ancoats Mill, in Pollard-street, Manchester; and that there is reason to believe the same had been preconcerted, and was the result of a wicked determination to destroy the property of the said Messrs. Gray and Co.;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in planning and advising the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Constables of Manchester, to any person or persons who shall give evidence against the planners and advisers of the said riotous attacks, in order that they may be brought to justice, which reward will be paid on conviction of the parties accused.

ATKINS, MAYOR.

A Common Council, holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Thursday the 26th day of November 1818,

Resolved unanimously,

THAT this Court, impressed with sentiments of unfeigned loyalty and attachment to the Person and Government of our revered Sovereign, do most sincerely and humbly offer to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and to every Member of his august House, their dutiful sympathy and condolence upon the lamented decease of Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

That this Court do most gracefully record their high admiration of the distinguished virtues which dignified and adorned the conduct of Her late Majesty in every relation of life, by which, during a period of nearly sixty years (as the Consort of our beloved Sovereign), she presented an eminent example to the British Court, and to all orders of the people of the United Kingdom.

Woodthorpe.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
August 29, 1818.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 6th day of March next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farms will be let on leases, to commence on the 12th day of May next, that is to say, Gairshield Farm, in the parish of Hexham, for the term of eleven years; and Grindon-Hill Farm, in the parish of Warden, for the term of fourteen years.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking either of the said farms, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Friday the 6th day of March next, otherwise they will be returned as inadmissible.

Mr. William Sample, of Low Brunton, near Hexham, will shew Gairshield Farm; and Mr. William Coats, of Haydon-Bridge, will shew Grindon-Hill Farm.

Messrs. Forster and Wailes, at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give such farther information as may be required.

Hinckley, November 26, 1818.

The children of John Lawrance, Michael Lawrance, and Mary Burton, brothers and sister of Joseph Lawrance, formerly of Shelford, in the County of Warwick, Grazier, deceased, and the issue of such of the said children as are dead, are requested to leave at our Office, in Hinckley, in the County of Leicester, within one month from the date hereof, their respective names and places of abode, and such particulars as may be necessary to establish their claims to any benefit arising under the will of the said Joseph Lawrance, in order that the Executors may examine and investigate the same.

By order of the Executors,
KING and SCULTHORPE, their Attornies.

The Creditors of Searles Wade, late of Woodbridge, in the County of Suffolk, Wine and Brandy-Merchant, deceased, are requested to meet on Monday the 11th day of January 1819, at the Crown Inn, Woodbridge, at Twelve at Noon, to advise on the statement of his affairs to be laid before them, to declare a dividend of the money already received; and to determine on legal measures to be taken for getting in the outstanding debts due to the estate of the deceased.—Woodbridge, November 25, 1818.

Whereas Thomas Moore Evans, of the City of Bristol, hath, by Indenture of Assignment, dated the 5th day of January 1811, duly assigned all his estate and effects unto us the undersigned, upon trust for the benefit of his Creditors, who should come in and execute the same, we hereby give notice, that in pursuance of the trusts and authorities of the said indenture we intend to proceed to make a dividend of the estate and effects to and amongst the said Creditors who shall be entitled to receive the same; and that the said Indenture is left at the Office of Mr. William Taylor, Accountant, No. 12, Corn-Street, Bristol, where the Creditors of the said Thomas Moore Evans, who have not already executed the said Indenture, are required to come in and execute the same, on or before the 21st day of December next coming, otherwise all such Creditors will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend.—Dated the 23d day of November 1818.

GEO. EDDIE SANDERS.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. William Henry Saunders, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against George Proctor and William Proctor, of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, and of Sheffield, in the County of York, Opticians, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, at the house of Mr. William Wright, the King's Head Inn, in Sheffield aforesaid, on Wednesday the 16th day of December next, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon;

All that very valuable freehold estate in and fronting to Market-Street, one of the most desirable situations in the Town of Sheffield aforesaid, consisting of two excellent dwelling-houses, with private courts, back kitchens, a stable, a well of water, and other conveniences attached and belonging thereto, and of an extensive range of buildings at the back of the houses lately used as warehouses and workshops; one of the houses contains on the ground floor a shop 24 feet by 18, a breakfast-room 12 feet square, a kitchen 15 feet by 12, and a store-room 6 feet square; on the first floor a drawing-room of the same dimensions as the shop, and two lodging-rooms with a convenient dressing-room attached to each; on the second floor three lodging-rooms, to one of which is attached a dressing-room, and in the basement story good arched cellars extending the whole length and breadth of the building; it also contains spacious staircases with stone steps and iron balustrades.

The other house corresponds with that before described in every respect, except that the room which was originally a shop, has been converted into a drawing-room.

Further Particulars may be had on application to the Auctioneer, or to Messrs. Rimington and Wilson, Solicitors, in Sheffield.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Punnett against White, it was, amongst other things, ordered, that it should be referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether Thomas Serle, named in the will of Sarah Jones, deceased (the testatrix therein named), was dead, and if dead, whether he died in the lifetime of the said testatrix, Sarah Jones, and if he died afterwards, who was his personal representative; the said Thomas Serle if living, or if dead, the personal representative of the said Thomas Serle, in case he survived the said testatrix, Sarah Jones (who died on the 26th day of July 1804), is to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, for the purposes of the said inquiry.—The said Thomas Serle left London near thirty years ago, and went to Exeter, in the County of Devon, and corresponded with his relations and friends up to the year 1790, since which time he has not been heard of by any of them, and he is supposed to have died about that time.—The said testatrix, Sarah Jones, was formerly resident at Hoxton, in the County of Middlesex, and was heretofore the wife of Robert Jones, late of Birchin-Lane, and afterwards of Nicholas-Lane, London, Hatter, deceased; and the said Thomas Serle, who was the nephew of the said testatrix, was, if living at the time of her death, entitled to certain property under the will of the said testatrix.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery bearing date the 29th day of August 1814, made in a Cause wherein Elizabeth Clark, widow, and the Reverend Charles Wallington are plaintiffs, and George Henry Elliott and others are defendants, it was, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether there are any mortgages or incumbrances that affect the estates of the Reverend George Henry Glasse, deceased, other than the mortgages and incumbrances of the plaintiffs, Elizabeth Clark and Charles Wallington, and the defendants, William Veal, Edward Forster, George Henry Elliott, William Hoare Hume, John Glasse, and the said defendant, George Henry Elliott (as the Executor of the Reverend Doctor Samuel Glasse, deceased).—All or any persons or person, claiming to be mortgagees or incumbrancers upon the said estates (other and besides the persons before named), are forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out and establish their claims, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Govett against Temlett, the Creditors of Edward Govett, late of Wivelscombe, in the County of Somerset, Shopkeeper, deceased (who died in or about the month of December 1810), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Nolan against Pratt, the Creditors of James Bonus, late of Tower-Hill, London, Slopeller, deceased (who died on or about the 20th day of August 1804), are by their Solicitors forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Nolan against Pratt, the next of kin of James Bonus, late of Tower-Hill, London, Slopeller, deceased, who were living at his death (which happened on or about the 20th day of August 1804), and are now living, and the personal representative or representatives of such of them as have since died, are forthwith to come in before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove such kindred or representation, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Saint John Jane Stokes, spinster, and others are plaintiffs, and Villiers William Villiers, Esq. is defendant, the Creditors of Patrick Lewis, late of King's-Bench-Walks, in the Inner-Temple, Gentleman, deceased (who died in or about the month of April 1813), are forthwith by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof, they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Sturges against Brown, the Creditors of James Coombs, late of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, Ironmonger and Banker, deceased (who died on or about the 1st day of October 1813), are by their Solicitors, on or before the 24th day of December 1818, to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be preemptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to an Order made by the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of John Heys, late of Lincoln's-Inn, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. Barrister at Law, a Innatic, the Creditors of the said John Heys are by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Holmes against Gale, the Creditors of Robert Gale, formerly of Boswell-Court, Carey-Street, Lincoln's-Inn, but late of Limsfield, in the County of Surrey, Gentleman (who died some time in the year 1816), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Marriott against White, the Creditors of John Marriott, late of Champions, in the Parish of Finch- ingfield, in County of Essex, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the month of February 1808), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Charles Thomson, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in South- ampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Marriott against White, the Creditors of Richard Marriott, late of Abbotts-Hall, in the Parish of Shalford, in the County of Essex, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the month of August 1813), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Charles Thomson, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Bradshaw against Bradshaw, the Creditors of Charlotte Mary Bradshaw, late of Yate, in the County of Gloucester, Widow, (who died in the year 1817), are forth- with to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Bradshaw against Bradshaw, the Credi- tors of John Bradshaw, late of Yate, in the County of Gloucester, Esq. (who died in the month of January 1816), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 23d day of July 1818, made in cer- tain Causes there depending intituled Hodder against Ruffin, the Creditors of John Troy, the son of Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, formerly of Chatham, in the County of Kent, Distiller and Wine-Merchant, deceased (which said John Troy died in or about the year 1801) are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 7th of March 1818, made in a Cause wherein William Mortimer and others (on behalf of them- selves and all other the simple contract Creditors of Charles Fitzmaurice Hill, late of Saint Boniface, in the Isle of Wight, in the County of Southampton, Esq. deceased), are plain- tiffs, and Alexander Shearer and others are defendants, the Creditors of the said Charles Fitzmaurice Hill (who died in or about the month of June 1811), are, on or before the 24th day of December 1818, to come in and prove their debts before Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chan- cery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremp- torily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Charles Hale Munro (an in- fant) by James Munro, his father and next friend, is plaintiff, and Frances Nutcombe, spinster, and others, are defendants, whereby it was, amongst other things, referred to William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who was the heir at law of Charles Hale, formerly of Ingsdon, in the Parish of Islington, in the County of Devon, Esq. deceased, the restator named in the pleadings, in the said cause (who died in or about the month of October 1795),
