The Ladies to wear black silk, fringed or plain linen or muslin, white gloves, black and white shoes, fans and tippets, white necklaces and earrings, no diamonds.

Undress—White or grey lustrings, tabbies or damasks.

The Gentlemen to wear black, full trimmed, plain or fringed linen, black swords and buckles.

Undress—Grey frocks.

The Court to change the mourning further on Sunday the 24th of January next, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets.

The Gentlemen to continue in black, to wear coloured swords and buckles.

And on Sunday the 14th of February next, the Court to go out of mourning.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, in Common Hall assembled, humbly offer to your Royal Highness the expression of our unfeigned sorrow at the afflicting event of the death of Her Majesty Queen Charlotte; a Princess conspicuously eminent for the exercise of those qualities which dignify and adorn the female character.

The tender attachment and incessant attentions of Her late Majesty to our revered Monarch, and her bright example of every conjugal, parental, and religious virtue, have not only reflected peculiar lustre on the Throne of these Realms, during a reign of unexampled duration, but will ever embalm the memory of this excellent Queen in the affectionate recollections of a grateful people.

Although we share in the sentiment of universal regret, for the loss of a Queen so long and so dearly associated with our highest idea of a splendid example of religious and moral excellence, we are peculiarly excited to manifest our profound affliction, who have so recently enjoyed the august presence of Her Majesty, and been honoured with marks of her affability and condescension.

Under this heavy dispensation of Providence, it will be a source of the greatest consolation to your Royal Highness to reflect, that your unceasing attentions must have materially tended to soothe the affliction of a parent, so deservedly the object of your Royal Highness's dutiful and affectionate regards.

Given, under the common seal of the said City, the 4th day of December, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

[Transmitted by the Marquess Camden, K. G., the Recorder, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Nottingham, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, sincerely offering our tribute of deep condolence upon the loss which your Royal Highness has recently sustained by the decease of your much lamented Parent, Her Most Excellent Majesty Queen Charlotte.

Long has the nation admired and venerated the high qualities so brilliantly and so eminently displayed by our revered King and his Royal Consort. The influence of their example has, doubtless, mainly contributed to save this country from the ruin which has been brought upon others by their crimes and immoralities. Amidst the various duties of Her departed Majesty's exalted station, religion was cherished by her habitual piety, virtue was encouraged by her illustrious example, and vice was awed by her manifest disapprobation.

Whilst we all feelingly sympathized in the sufferings which Her Majesty so piously endured, we contemplated with respect, and appreciate as we ought, your Royal Highness's unremitting filial attentions.

Renewing our expressions of deep condolence, reiterating to your Royal Highness those assurances of attachment to your Royal House, which we have declared on many former occasions, we pray for the Divine protection of our beloved Sovereign, for the health and happiness of your Royal Highness, and that you may long be a witness of the glory, honour, and prosperity of this much favoured country.

In the name and on the behalf of the Meeting,
Henry Walker, Sheriff and Chairman.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT
of the United Kingdom.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter, in Exeter, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with expressions of unfeigned sorrow, and to offer our sincere condolence on the great loss which your Royal Highness, the rest of the Royal Family, and the whole nation, have recently sustained by the death of your Royal Mother, our late Most Gracious Queen.

During the trying scenes of a long and eventful reign, in the season of national prosperity, as well as that of common danger and distress, in all the varying changes of domestic life, and under the pressure of the heaviest family affliction, and lastly, during the sufferings and severe trials of a protracted illness, Her late Majesty has ever exhibited to the nation an illustrious example of every Christian virtue, and her memory, we trust, will always be held dear, both by those who have witnessed, and those who shall hereafter read the record of her virtues.

That your Royal Highness may long live in the affections of your people, and be blessed with the protection of Divine Providence, will ever be our earnest prayer.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Exeter, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT,
&c. &c. &c.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop of Oxford, the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the expression of our unfeigned sorrow for an event, which, whilst it has called forth from your Royal Highness the exercise of the best feelings which can actuate the heart of man, has left upon our minds an indelible impression of grief, for the loss which the community at large has sustained, by the death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty your august and venerated Mother.

But when we humbly request your Royal Highness to accept the tribute of our condolence on this sad occasion, it is not that we entertain a presumptuous hope of consoling your Royal Highness by any suggestion of ours for your irreparable loss. We are well aware how feeble must be any topics of consolation which we can suggest, when compared with those which your Royal Highness will have derived from the reflections of your own heart. Your Royal Highness indeed possesses the best and truest sources of comfort, in the conscious discharge of every filial duty, in the recollection that the sufferings of your august and beloved Parent were soothed and alleviated by your unremitting attention and constant sollicitude, and in the confident hope, which your Royal Highness may well entertain, that a life passed in the undeviating practice of virtue and genuine piety, and nearly protracted to the period at which it is pronounced by divine authority to be "But labour and sorrow," has at length, been exchanged for fullness of joy, and pleasures "For evermore."

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply for the County of Edinburgh.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Edinburgh, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness on the present melancholy occasion, to express the deep sense we have of the severe loss which your Royal Highness and the whole empire have sustained, by the death of Her late Majesty the Queen.

The exemplary conduct of that excellent and pious Princess, during the whole course of her life, has made her justly dear to the whole British nation, and she will long live in their hearts, as being not more distinguished by the dignity and grace with which she filled the exalted situation in which she was placed, than by the display of all those domestic virtues which add the greatest lustre to the female character. We cannot on the present occasion refrain from humbly expressing the deep interest with which we have witnessed the bright example of filial piety which has been displayed by your Royal Highness and the other branches of your august Family, during the whole course of Her Majesty's severe illness, and which must have proved the most efficacious balm to soothe and alleviate her long protracted sufferings.

We humbly beg leave to avail ourselves of the present opportunity, to renew our assurances of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness, and to the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment,
Lothian, President.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Vice Chancellor, Principal, and Professors of the University of Glasgow, in Senate assembled, prompted by sentiments of loyalty and affection, humbly approach your august person to testify our most sincere condolence with your Royal Highness on the afflicting occasion of the demise of your illustrious Mother, Her Majesty Queen Charlotte.

Contemplating that profound reverence for Religion, and that strict propriety of conduct, which during a long reign uniformly adorned her exalted station, and gave a happy tone to the public manners, while Her Majesty's consummate prudence and kindly attentions in domestic life, not only soothed the mind of Her beloved Consort, our venerable King, but commanded the regard of the numerous Family of your Royal House, and served to bind them together in bonds of mutual affection, we in common with all His Majesty's dutiful subjects, feel ourselves constrained to express our deep regret for the national loss by the removal of a Queen whose high sense of purity of character, and her possession of every public and private virtue, shed a lustre around the Throne.

Grateful to the Supreme Disposer of Events for prolonging Her Majesty's days to good old age, we now desire reverently and submissively to bow to the Divine Will, assured that her exemplary piety and virtue will be long remembered and imitated by our Princes and Nobles and persons of every rank. And it is our earnest prayer to the Almighty, that he may impart His Divine Consolations to our beloved afflicted Sovereign. That he may continue to prosper your Royal Highness in the administration of the Government of this widely extended empire—and that he may bless and comfort all the Royal Family under their present griefs, and render His Providential Dispensations conducive to their final happiness.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, having the University Seal affixed, at Glasgow, the 7th day of December 1818, by William Taylor, Vice-Chancellor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Southampton, deeply afflicted at the awful calamity which has befallen your Royal House, humbly offer our sincere condolence to your Royal Highness, on the much lamented death of our late Most Excellent Queen.

Justly impressed with the utmost admiration of that uniform and distinguished course of exalted virtue, which adorned the life of this most illustrious Princess, we cannot but severely deplore her loss; yet fully relying on His Almighty Goodness, who so long blessed us with such an example, we continue to hope that its great and good effect will still be felt, as her memory must be cherished and revered, by all who consider, that to the Throne itself we have been indebted for the brightest examples of every Christian duty.

And we fervently implore the Gracious Giver of all Good, that your Royal Highness may long enjoy, in the hearts of a grateful and sympathizing people, the highest testimony of their esteem and veneration for those virtues, to which you have in your royal person given such endearing and most exemplary effect, by the pious, affectionate, and dutiful attention with which you soothed the sufferings, and watched over the last moments of your most justly revered and lamented Parent.

W. R. Smith, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Christchurch, in the County of Southampton, and its Neighbourhood.

THE grief occasioned by the awful event with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict your Royal Highness and this nation, by the death of Her Majesty the Queen, has been deeply felt by us, and we cannot resist, at a time when we have the strongest sense of the public loss, thus conveying to your Royal Highness the most lively assurances of our deep sorrow for your sufferings, which can be assuaged only by resignation to the Divine Will, and by the consciousness of a pious discharge of duty towards the august Parent whom your Royal Highness has lost.

Wm. Smith, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Charles Harbin, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our sincere and hearty condolence on the death of your Royal Highness's august Mother, our late Gracious Queen.

The relation which has happily subsisted between Her Majesty and the people of this kingdom, for more than half a century, could not be dissolved without leaving a painful void in every loyal breast. We dwell with grateful recollection on those eminent virtues, which gave its chief lustre to her Crown, and diffused their kindly influence through the people; on the affectionate regard ever evinced by Her Majesty for the public interests; on the tender solicitude with which she participated in the cares of our beloved Sovereign; and on that nice regard to character and moral conduct which repelled the licentious from the Royal Presence, and discountenanced immorality in all classes of the community. And we feel confident in the assertion, that to the united example displayed upon the Throne, we owe, in a great degree, the superior purity of character and correctness of conduct, which adorn the British females; and that outward homage to virtue, which tends greatly to check the spread of vice and immorality among the people.

We beg leave also to express our fervent admiration of the filial piety which has ever shone conspicuous in your Royal Highness's character; which has been strikingly portrayed in the distinguishing features of your Royal Highness's Regency, and which has been further illustrated by the anxious discharge of pious duties and painful watchings over the sick bed of your late Royal Parent.

That the Almighty may keep our beloved and venerable Sovereign under His especial protection; that He may bless and prosper your Royal Highness and the whole Royal Family, is the prayer of a loyal and devoted people.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, this 9th day of December, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg to approach your Royal Person in terms of unfeigned condolence on the death of your Royal Parent, our much revered and late Most Gracious Majesty Queen Charlotte.

In reviewing the long period during which she shared with our most venerable Sovereign the resplendent honours of this empire, we cannot but recall to mind the many blessings by which, under Divine Providence, that period has been distinguished; more especially are we bound to appreciate the effects of those high and lofty principles of religion and morality, in the personal exercise of which, Her late Majesty, while she adorned the Court over which she presided, so eminently contributed to refine and exalt the moral character of the British population.

Such we presume to be the effect of those retired and domestic virtues which first gained her the esteem of the nation, and of which future ages, we trust, will feel the beneficial influence, especially in forming the female mind to this standard of purity and excellence.

May her example, now that it has ceased to overawe, by the dignity of her rank, not fail to encourage an imitation of her virtues in all classes of society. May we be permitted also to express our feelings of gratitude to the Almighty, that we beheld His Dispensations towards her so tempered with mercy, in supporting her during a long and painful illness, and in the last hours of suffering, by the consolations of religion, by a spirit of resignation on her own part, and by the overflowing and vigilant tenderness of her royal and affectionate family.

Given, under our common seal at Berwick-upon-Tweed aforesaid, the 8th day of December, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1818.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and other Members of the Town Council of the City of Perth, in Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with our expressions of condolence, at the late Dispensation of Providence, which has deprived the British nation of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, and your Royal Highness of a Parent. While, with our fellow subjects of the British empire, we lament Her Most Gracious Majesty's demise, it is great consolation to us to reflect, that throughout the period of her reign, in duration unequalled in the annals of our country, she set a conspicuous example of piety and virtue highly conducive to the best interests of its people, and which must endear her name to succeeding generations. The remembrance of the uniformly conscientious manner in which she fulfilled the relative duties of domestic and public life, furnishes the best eulogy to her memory; and must contribute, together with her maturity of years, the usual reward of a well spent life, to alleviate your Royal Highness's grief at an event which is the certain lot of humanity, however exalted in station. It will also, we hope, be a constant source of solacing reflection to your Royal Highness, that you were enabled, in the illness which terminated Her Majesty's life, to pay to her such filial attentions, as are alike honourable to yourself as they must have been soothing to her. That your Royal Highness may long enjoy the cordial and merited regards of a loyal and dutiful people, is our ardent prayer.

Signed, in name, in presence, and by appointment of the Council, and the common seal of the city appended hereto, at Perth, the 7th day of December 1818.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Lynington and its Neighbourhood, beg to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of deep commiseration on the afflicting calamity, which your Royal Highness, your august House, and the nation at large, have recently sustained in the death of our beloved and amiable Queen.

Whilst however we deplore the awful change which has involved His Majesty's subjects in sorrow, we bow with pious resignation to the inscrutable Decrees of Heaven; and with lively emotions of gratitude we draw an heartfelt consolation from this mournful event, when, as an illustrious example of undeviating piety, we contemplate those exalted merits which, amidst the turmoil of contending nations, and the baneful influence of domestic immorality, have endeared her sacred character,—the model of every female virtue that could adorn the English Throne, to the hearts of the humblest subjects in His Majesty's realms.

That your Royal Highness, and every branch of the Royal Family, may long enjoy the affections of His Majesty's subjects, is the earnest prayer of your Royal Highnesses most loyal and dutiful servants, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, of the Town and Borough of Lynington and its Neighbourhood.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the loyal and dutiful subjects of His Majesty, your illustrious Father, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dundee, desire permission to intrude on the privacy of your sorrow, and to present our humble but affectionate address of condolence on the loss which your Royal Highness and the nation at large have sustained, in the death of our late most gracious Queen, the Mother of your Royal Highness, and the Consort of our much afflicted but still beloved Sovereign. We have long esteemed the endearing graces which so much distinguished Her late Majesty; we have been accustomed to look up to her as the pattern of every domestic virtue; and we have beheld with the sincerest pleasure the happiness, which during a long and prosperous union, she conferred on our most gracious Sovereign, and the tenderness with which she endeavoured to soothe and lessen the distresses of his declining years. We lament her loss as a great public calamity, and shall ever hold her memory in the highest estimation. May we hope that the affliction of your Royal Highness and your illustrious Family, will be in some measure diminished by the assurance that it is shared by all classes of His Majesty's subjects, and that to the public expression of national sorrow are added the tears of those who were relieved by her bounty and edified by her example.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, beg leave, with all humility and respect, to approach your Royal Highness, and to present the sincere expressions of our sympathy and condolence upon the recent melancholy event which has afflicted the Royal Family and the British nation, by the lamented decease of our venerable Queen Charlotte.

We sincerely participate on this afflicting occasion, in the sorrow of the Royal Family and of our fellow subjects, and deeply deplore that the benefit and example of her virtues are removed from the British people, and that your Royal Highness and the Royal Family are again so soon placed in circumstances of mourning.

The recollection of Her Majesty's religious and moral character, inspires us with the solacing hope, that, through the Redeemer's merits, she has exchanged a terrestrial for a celestial crown of glory, and transitory splendour for everlasting happiness.

May the God of Comfort inspire your Royal Highness and the other branches of the Royal Family, with resignation to the Divine Will, support you under His afflicting dispensations, and enable you to derive from them that Christian fortitude and patience which they are calculated to convey.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Moderator and remanent Members of the Presbytery of Caithness, beg leave to express to your Royal Highness, our most sincere sentiments of sympathy and condolence on the sorrowful event of the demise of our most Gracious Queen.

While we bow with submission to the Will of Heaven, we lament the loss which your Royal Family, and the nations, have thus sustained. We pray that the Divine Majesty may console and support our most gracious Sovereign under this increased affliction in his declining years!

May your Royal Highness, and all the members of the Royal Family, be comforted and supported under this trying dispensation of Providence; and, (with the grateful remembrance and conscious feeling of Divine Consolation, and favour, and trust), amid the cares of Government, may the sense of human frailty and mortality lead your Royal Highness to the vigorous and successful discharge of all Royal and Christian duties, and prepare you at last, in affectionate imitation of parental piety, for the reception of an unfading Crown of Glory in the Kingdom of Heaven!

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, in the County of York, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, dutifully to express our feelings on the lamented death of Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

For more than half a century has the mild, beneficent, and dignified Consort of our revered Sovereign adorned the Throne of these kingdoms; but, alas! her star is set, and sincerely do we condole with your Royal Highness on this most melancholy occasion.

We are thankful, Sir, to that Providence which has been pleased to extend so far the life of your royal Parent, but we trust it may be permitted us to lament the loss of excellence so rare and perfect. To lament the loss of her who nearly throughout the period of a generation has been endeared to her people; their all-accomplished Queen, exalted by the possession and the practice of every domestic virtue.

We are anxious, Sir, to assure you of our firm attachment to your Royal Highness and the illustrious House of Brunswick; and we pray that the Almighty may grant to your Royal Highness his powerful protection under your severe affliction.

Thomas Horton, Chairman.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Blackburn, in the County of Lancaster, beg leave to present our sentiments of unfeigned and heartfelt condolence on the demise of Her late Majesty, an event not more disastrous to the Royal Family than to the nation at large.

The termination of a long life and royal dignity, spent in the exercise of every domestic virtue, and diffusing through every subordinate rank in society, the salutary effect of public example, cannot but be regarded as an irreparable loss to this country, by all who feel for the interests of decorum, morality, and religion.

But, Sir, beside our expression of these sentiments, in which the heart of every good man participates, we cannot forbear to signify the deepest regret that at a season of recent sorrow, when the feelings of the meanest individuals are held sacred by common humanity, symptoms of a disposition peculiar to the licence of this age and country, should have been permitted to manifest themselves on an occasion at once so awful and calamitous, by which neither the memory of the venerated dead, nor the hearts of the illustrious survivors, have been spared by the shafts of calumny and detraction.

That the lives of your Royal Highness and of every member of your august House may long be continued in health and honour, is the sincere prayer of your Royal Highness's dutiful and devoted servants.

Signed, on behalf of the Inhabitants, assembled at a public Meeting, held on the 7th day of December 1818.

Joseph Fielden, Chairman.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bolton-le-Moors, in the County of Lancaster, beg leave to sympathise with your Royal Highness on the mournful event which has recently taken place in your Royal Highness's family,—an event which we have long been contemplating with gloomy anticipation.

The severe and protracted sufferings of our late venerable Queen filled us, in common with the nation at large, with anxious and affectionate concern; and the christian fortitude and resignation with which those sufferings were endured, cannot fail to have inspired all ranks of the people with admiration and esteem.

We derive moreover satisfaction from the assurance that Her Majesty's distressful malady received every alleviation which human care and attention could bestow; and, doubtless, the greatest earthly comfort with which an afflicted Parent can be blessed, is that of filial tenderness and love.

Our regret on this solemn and painful occasion cannot but be materially increased by a recollection of the many splendid virtues which distinguished Her Majesty's character; her active and extensive benevolence; her dignified and persevering discharge of moral obligation; her devoted attachment to all the best interests of religion, were not only an ornament to her Family and her Court, but produced a most beneficial effect upon the order and discipline of social life; and we have now to express our hope, that these royal qualities have left an impression upon the minds of her people, never to be forgotten.

Fervently do we desire that future ages may do justice to Her Majesty's memory, by an imitation of her bright example; and humbly do we trust, that Her Majesty has been removed from her terrestrial Throne to shine in a better kingdom—that she has exchanged a corruptible Crown for a Crown of Glory that fadeth not away.

We entreat your Royal Highness most graciously to accept these sentiments as a melancholy token of our loyal and dutiful regard.

Signed, on behalf of the meeting.

REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor and Aldermen, the Magistrates, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle and its vicinity, humbly offer to your Royal Highness our tribute of duty and condolence on the lamented death of Her Majesty, your august and revered Mother.

Her reign of fifty-seven years, uniformly distinguished by the utmost propriety of manners, as well in public as in private life, by every act which was exemplary in a Queen, a Wife, and a Parent, cannot be remembered without respect and admiration, nor its termination witnessed without heartfelt sorrow and regret. Yet as the exercise of so many virtues endeared Her late Majesty to us while living, so must the remembrance of those virtues be gratifying to us now that she is no more.

In the grief which at present pervades your illustrious House, we humbly beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of our most sincere and lively sympathy; and in the death of a Queen, whose affectionate cares were extended to all her subjects, we contemplate not only a domestic, but a national loss.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, in the County of Wilts, with sentiments of the greatest concern, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the melancholy event, which has deprived the nation of a most excellent and respected Queen, and your Royal Highness of an amiable and affectionate Mother.

Deeply as your Royal Highness must deplore the loss of an august Parent, we yet trust it will be some alleviation to your Royal Highness's grief to reflect, that Her Majesty received every consolation and comfort, in her long protracted illness, which the most filial affection, and unremitting kindness and attention, from your Royal Highness, and the other branches of your august Family could bestow, and to know that the people of this nation sincerely sympathize in your Royal Highness's affliction; and that, on all occasions, whether of sorrow or joy, the feelings of His Majesty's subjects are in unison with those of their Prince.

That her late Majesty has added dignity and splendour to His Majesty's reign, by the uniform practice of public and private duties, by unremitting conjugal and maternal attachment, and by the constant observance of all the virtues which adorn and ennoble the highest station, is fully impressed on the minds of His Majesty's afflicted subjects.

At this period of sorrow, we derive great consolation in reflecting that those amiable qualities, which were so conspicuous in the conduct of your Royal Highness's illustrious Mother, and those acts of beneficence which have invariably flowed from the happy administration of the House of Brunswick, do not less adorn the character and Government of your Royal Highness. That your Royal Highness may long continue to reign in the hearts and affections of His Majesty's subjects, is the fervent prayer of your Royal Highness's faithful and devoted servants.

Signed, on behalf of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Marlborough, at the unanimous request of a meeting of the said Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, held this 7th day of December 1818.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and with the most profound and unfeigned respect, to offer to your Royal Highness, and to every Member of your august Family, our dutiful condolence and sympathy on the lamented death of Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

We humbly beg to assure your Royal Highness of our high esteem and veneration for the many great and exemplary qualities which so eminently distinguished and adorned Her Majesty, exhibiting at once, to the British Court, and to all ranks of His Majesty's subjects the brightest example of female excellence and virtue, the memory of which (worthy the emulation of after ages), we trust will long remain productive of the happiest effects.

To this testimony of our estimation of the virtues of the Parent, we must be allowed to add our respectful admiration of the affection and duty of the Son. We have witnessed with heartfelt gratification the filial solicitude and unremitting attentions of your Royal Highness during Her Majesty's protracted illness, and they afford us an additional test that the amiable example of Her Majesty will not lose any of its lustre in the person of your Royal Highness.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the administration of the Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty's Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if Her Majesty the Queen should depart this life during the time that the care of His Majesty's Royal Person should be committed to Her Majesty, according to the provisions of the said Act, the Regent should forthwith order and direct a Proclamation, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be issued and published declaring the same: and whereas by another Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to alter and amend certain of the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the administration of the Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty's Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if the case should happen in which it was enacted by the said Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty, that the Regent should forthwith order and direct such Proclamation to be issued and published as aforesaid, and the same should happen upon or after the day appointed by any Writ of Summons then issued, for calling and assembling a new Parliament, and before such new Parliament should have met and sat as a Parliament, then, and in such case, the Regent should forthwith cause such a Proclamation as aforesaid to be issued and published, declaring that such case had happened, and requiring the new Parliament either to convene and sit at Westminster immediately after such Proclamation should have been published, or upon some day to be mentioned in such Proclamation, and being within sixty days to be computed from the date of the said Proclamation; and in such case the Parliament so convening and sitting should be, and be deemed a Parliament to all intents and purposes, under the provisions of the said last mentioned Acts: and whereas the Parliament which was summoned to meet at Westminster on the fourth day of August last, hath not yet met and sat as a Parliament, but stands prorogued to the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing: and whereas Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, during the time that the care of His Majesty's Royal Person was committed to Her Majesty: now we do hereby by this Proclamation (ordered and directed to be issued and published, and issued and published under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland), declare, that Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, and We do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, publish, declare, and require, that the new Parliament shall be held, convene, and sit, at Westminster, on the fourteenth day of January now next ensuing, for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly on the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We do hereby further publish and declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the said Parliament shall on the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing, be further prorogued to the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We have, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, given Order to the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Writ Patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, for proroguing the same accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this nineteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 18th of November 1818,

PRESENT,

Archbishop of Canterbury,
Lord President,
Duke of Montrose,
Lord Steward,
Earl Bathurst,
Earl of Liverpool,
Viscount Melville,
Viscount Sidmoult,
Bishop of London,
Lord St. Helens,
Sir William Scott,
Sir John Nicholl,

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer,
Lord Chief Baron.

WHEREAS in the Act of Uniformity, which establishes the Liturgy of the Church of England, provision is made for such alterations in the Prayers for the Royal Family, as from time to time shall become necessary, and be directed by lawful authority: it is thereupon this day Ordered in Council, that in the Morning and Evening Prayers, in the Litany, and in all other parts of the Public Service, as well in the occasional Offices as in the Book of Common Prayer, where the Royal Family is appointed to be particularly prayed for, the following form and order shall be observed, viz.

Their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

And it is further ordered, that no edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth printed, but with this amendment; and that in the mean time, till copies of such edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, within this Realm, do (for preventing of mistakes) with the pen, correct and amend all such prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing direction; and for the better notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several Parishes; and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly. Chetwynd.

In pursuance of an Act passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, and of another Act passed in the thirty-second year of His present Majesty, wherein provision is made for praying for the Royal Family in that part of Great Britain called Scotland; it is hereby Ordered in Council, that henceforth every Minister and Preacher shall in his respective Church, Congregation, or Assembly, pray in express words,

For His Most Sacred Majesty King George, their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

Of which all persons concerned are hereby required to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

No 17431.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Bullar.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Leith has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Leith is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that a proper and sufficient number of pilots of the Cinque Ports, not less than eighteen at any one time, and in succession from time to time without intermission or any unnecessary delay, shall at all seasonable times, by day and night, constantly ply at sea, or be afloat between the South Foreland and Dungeness, to take charge of all ships and vessels coming from the westward:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England, and for the regulation of boatmen employed in supplying vessels with pilots, licensed under the said Act, so far as relates to the coast of Kent, within the limits of the Cinque Ports," after reciting, amongst other things, the said Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign; it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by any Order or Orders made for that purpose, and published by Proclamation in the Gazette, to suspend so much of the said therein-recited Act as directs the Cinque Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances in the said therein-recited Act specified, either for any period His Majesty shall think proper, and to be in such case specified in such Order or Orders and Proclamation, or until any further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said therein-recited Act into effect and execution, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures, in relation to such specified number of pilots constantly plying at sea, and clauses and regulations for enforcing the same, shall, upon the issuing of such Proclamation, remain and continue so suspended:

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has deemed it expedient to suspend the carrying into execution the said part of the said first recited Act, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said first recited Act, as directs the Cinque Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances in the said first recited Act specified, shall be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, until further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said first recited Act into effect and execution.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, February 16, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Arthur Goodall Wavell, Esq. Colonel in the Spanish service, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the supernumerary cross of the royal and distinguished Order of Charles the Third, and the cross of the royal and distinguished Military Order of San Fernando, first class, which His Majesty Ferdinand the Seventh, King of Spain, hath been pleased to confer upon that Officer, in testimony of the sense which His Catholic Majesty entertains of the distinguished intrepidity displayed by him in action with the enemy, more especially on the night of the 16th of June 1811, during the siege of Tarragona, in an assault against the trenches occupied by the enemy; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 14, 1818.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Ford Sevier, of the city of Bristol, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 7, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a stack of oats belonging to Mr. Thomas Hobson, of the Parish of Great Glenn, in the county of Leicester, was maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons, on the evening of Thursday the 3d instant, at a field barn in the said parish;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said oat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the same. The said reward to be paid immediately after such conviction by the Constable of Great Glenn.

Whitehall, November 23, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of the 5th of November instant, a mare, the property of Mr. John Cridge, of the parish of Bratton, in the county of Devon, being in his field, was there feloniously and maliciously attacked by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and her bowels torn out by some weapon, in consequence of which she died;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward to be paid on application to Mr. Samuel Bremridge, Clerk to the Magistrates at Barnstaple, in the said county.

Admiralty-Office, December 8, 1818.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 11th day of January next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

J. BARROW.

REVOCATION OF A LICENCE.

Navy Pay-Office, London,
December 14, 1818.

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth of His present Majesty, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to

Mr. Isaac Aaron, of High-Street, Chatham, on the 2d July 1817, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me, on the ground of not having duly accounted to John Briggs, late of His Majesty's ship Caledonia, for prize-money received, after being repeatedly called upon so to do.

Frederick John Robinson.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.

Dock-Office, Liverpool,
November 27, 1818.

(In Equity.)

In suit Mary S. Ward, Executrix of John Ward, deceased, versus Ann Maxwell Goodyn, Executrix of William, Thomas, and Charles Goodyn, and Heirs and Representatives of Mary Rogers.

THE defendants, in the above suit, or their representatives are expressly requested to make answer or answers to the bill of interpleader filed in the above suit in the Registry of the Court of Equity for the District of Charleston, on or before the 1st day of February next 1819, otherwise they will be excluded from the benefit of the Decree to be issued touching the subject matter of the said suit.

By order of the Court,
WM. HASELL GIBBES, Master in Equity.

DEMERY AND ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in his capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises by these presents, for the first, second, and third times, that he will, by virtue of a certain sentence of the said Honourable Court, and the subsequent execution, expose and sell, at public execution sale, in the month of June 1819, in behalf of J. J. L. Moliere, as having been appointed by the Honourable Court of Justice the Representative of G. A. W. Raysch, plaintiff, versus the Representative or Representatives of Charles Hamilton, as proprietor of plantation Nootens Zoyl, defendant:

The Cotton Plantation Nootens Zoyl cum annexis, is situated on the East Sea Coast of the said Colony of Demerary, the property of the said Charles Hamilton.

The judgment of price and concurrently on the net proceeds of the above sale will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale, for which reason, all those that may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said plantation, are herewith by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said Colonies, summoned to appear, in person or by their Attornies, in order to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of said Colonies in the month of October following.

The inventory of the above plantation, is daily to be seen at the Counting House of Messrs. Hall M'Garel and Co. 7, Austin-Friars.—Demerary and Essequibo, September 1, 1818.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

Montague-Place, Marlborough-Street, Bristol.

TO be Sold by Auction, by Mr. Pope, at the Commercial Sale Rooms, Bristol, on Monday the 4th day of January 1819, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorized in a commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued against Robert Shiercliff Walker; the following freehold property.

Lot 1. A freehold messuage, situate and being No. 2, Montague-Place, Marlborough-Street, in the Parish of St. James's, Bristol, containing on the ground floor a shop, a parlour, a pantry, two bake-houses, and convenient out-buildings, a drawing room, and three good bed rooms over, and a good under ground cellar.

Much expence has lately been incurred on these premises in the erection of an oven and bake-house, and other convenient buildings for carrying on the trade of a baker. There is also the additional convenience of a well of good water in the bake-house. The above premises are in the occupation of Mr. White, Baker, tenant at will, at a rent of 26l. 5s.

Lot 2. A freehold messuage adjoining the first lot, being No. 1, in Montague-Place aforesaid, containing two good parlours, a pantry and kitchen, with a drawing room, three good bed rooms, cellar, and small garden, with suitable domestic conveniences, late in the occupation of I. N. Pearce, but at present untenanted.

For a view of the premises apply to the tenant of Lot 1, and for other particulars to the Auctioneer, Bristol, Mr. Oshaldston, Solicitor, London-Street, Fenchurch-Street, London, and Messrs. Grimaldi and Stables, Solicitors, Copthall-Court, London.

TO sold by auction, at the White Hart Inn, Old Market-Street, Bristol, on Wednesday the 30th day of December instant, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against William Davis, of the Parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, in the County of Gloucester, Carpenter, Dealer and Chappman, subject to such conditions of sale as will be then and there produced, the following freehold premises in lots:

A messuage with the yard or outlet behind the same on the north side of and fronting Saint Philip's Plain, in the Parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, in the County of Gloucester. These premises are plentifully supplied with water, and have lately been repaired at a considerable expence.

A messuage with the wash-house and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in Leadhouse-Lane, in the Parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, in the City of Bristol, behind the last-mentioned premises. This house is in good repair, and will be sold subject to a right of way to the premises after-mentioned.

Three messuages adjoining each other, lately erected in a substantial manner on the ground between the two above-mentioned houses, and situate in the City of Bristol, having an entrance from Leadhouse-Lane. These premises have the use of a well and appurtenances in common with the house in Leadhouse-Lane, to be kept in repair at their mutual expence.

The whole of the premises is subject to a perpetual ground rent of 2l. per annum, which is intended to be equally apportioned between the two first-mentioned houses.

The premises are also subject during the life of an elderly person to an annual rent of 14l. 5s. under a lease thereof for such life, and it is intended to apportion the said rent of 14l. 5s. in the proportion of 10l. on the house in Saint Philip's Plain, and 4l. 5s. on the house in Leadhouse-Lane.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Cary, Solicitor, Bristol, or to Messrs. Hare and Winwood, Solicitors, Bristol.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High and Honourable Court of Chancery, made in a Cause, wherein William James Long and others are plaintiffs, and Eleanor

Biddle and others are defendants, before Charles Thomson, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Friday the 29th day of January next;

A freehold messuage or dwelling-house, with a garden in front, situate in Caroline-Buildings, in the City of Bath, now in the occupation of Mr. Lestourger, under a lease, which expires at Michaelmas 1819.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Mills, Solicitor, at the Six Clerks' Office, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Stocker, Dawson, and Herringham, Solicitors, Boswell-Court, Carey-Street, London; and of Mr. Ridpath, Solicitor, Bath.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Brook v. Skinner, with the approbation of Joseph Jekyll, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

The freehold and copyhold estates, late of Sir Thomas Carr, deceased, situate in the County of Sussex.

Timely notice will be given in the public newspapers of the day and place of sale, and printed particulars may then be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and of Mr. Fisher, Solicitor, Gray's-Inn; Mr. Edward Ellis, Solicitor, Cloisters, Temple; and Mr. Turner, Solicitor, Lewes.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause White against the Bi-hop of Peterborough and others, it was ordered, that William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court of Chancery, should take an account of the incumbrances affecting the rectory of Blisworth, in the County of Northampton.—All persons claiming any charge or incumbrance upon, or affecting the said rectory of Blisworth, or the glebe lands, tythes, moduses, compositions, or other ecclesiastical dues thereto belonging, are to come in and prove such charge or incumbrances before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 23d day of January 1819, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.
