

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1818.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 8, 1818.

ORDERS for the Court's change of mourning, on Sunday the 3d January next, for Her late Majesty, of blessed memory, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk, fringed or plain linen or muslin, white gloves, black and white shoes, fans and tippets, white necklaces and earrings, no diamonds.

Undress—White or grey lustrings, tabbies or damasks.

The Gentlemen to wear black, full trimmed, plain or fringed linen, black swords and buckles.

Undress—Grey frocks.

The Court to change the mourning further on Sunday the 24th of January next, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets.

The Gentlemen to continue in black, to wear coloured swords and buckles.

And on Sunday the 14th of February next, the Court to go out of mourning.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, in Common Hall assembled, humbly offer to your Royal Highness the expression of our unfeigned sorrow at the afflicting event of the death of Her Majesty Queen Charlotte; a Princess conspicuously eminent for the exercise of those qualities which dignify and adorn the female character.

The tender attachment and incessant attentions of Her late Majesty to our revered Monarch, and her bright example of every conjugal, parental, and religious virtue, have not only reflected peculiar lustre on the Throne of these Realms, during a reign of unexampled duration, but will ever embalm the memory of this excellent Queen in the affectionate recollections of a grateful people.

Although we share in the sentiment of universal regret, for the loss of a Queen so long and so dearly associated with our highest idea of a splendid example of religious and moral excellence, we are peculiarly excited to manifest our profound affliction, who have so recently enjoyed the august presence of Her Majesty, and been honoured with marks of her affability and condescension.

Under this heavy dispensation of Providence, it will be a source of the greatest consolation to your Royal Highness to reflect, that your unceasing attentions must have materially tended to soothe the affliction of a parent, so deservedly the object of your Royal Highness's dutiful and affectionate regards.

Given, under the common seal of the said City, the 4th day of December, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

[Transmitted by the Marquess Camden, K. G., the Recorder, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Nottingham, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, sincerely offering our tribute of deep condolence upon the loss which your Royal Highness has recently sustained by the decease of your much lamented Parent, Her Most Excellent Majesty Queen Charlotte.

Long has the nation admired and venerated the high qualities so brilliantly and so eminently dis-