

Heralds College, December 19, 1818.

In reference to the order for a general mourning for Her late Majesty the Queen of blessed memory, which was announced in the Gazette of Saturday the 21st ultimo;

These are to give notice, that upon the present melancholy occasion, it is not desired or expected that the public should appear in mourning after the 29th instant.

HENRY HOWARD-MOLYNEUX-HOWARD,
Deputy Earl Marshal.

Carlton-House, December 4, 1818.

This day His Excellency the Baron Fagel, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxembourg, had a private audience of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to deliver a letter in his Sovereign's hand writing, requesting His Royal Highness's acceptance of the insignia of the Grand Cross of the Military Order of William, which His Royal Highness was pleased to receive most graciously; His Excellency was introduced to the audience by Earl Bathurst, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the absence of Lord Viscount Castlereagh, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, December 19, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto the Rev. Trevor Owen Jones, of the city of Lichfield, and of Aldershaw, in the county of Stafford, Clerk, Master of Arts, only son of Trevor Jones, of the said city of Lichfield, Doctor in Physic, by Favoretta, his late wife, who was the only daughter of Richard Burnes, late of Aldershaw aforesaid, Esq and sister of John Burnes Floyer (heretofore John Burnes), of the same place, Esq. also deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he the said Trevor Owen Jones may from motives of affectionate regard to the memory of his said late maternal uncle John Burnes, Esq. take and use the surnames of Burnes and Floyer, instead of his present surname; that he may bear the arms of the ancient family of Floyer, and that the said surnames and arms may also be borne by his issue; such armorial ensigns being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a stack of oats belonging to Mr. Thomas Hobson, of the Parish of Great Glenn, in the county of Leicester, was maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons, on the evening of Thursday the 3d instant, at a field barn in the said parish;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said oat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH:

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the same. The said reward to be paid immediately after such conviction by the Constable of Great Glenn.

AFTER our hearty commendations—whereas by our Warrant, bearing date the 28th day of August last, we did approve of the scheme submitted to us for drawing the first lottery for the year 1818, to be drawn pursuant to the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of His present Majesty's reign, and did authorise and direct, that the drawing of the said lottery should take place on the 24th day of November, the 2d and 15th days of December 1818; and whereas circumstances have since occurred and taken place, which have made it inconvenient and improper to draw the said lottery on the days above mentioned, we, therefore, do hereby revoke such part of our said Warrant, which directs that the said lottery should be drawn on the days above mentioned, and do hereby direct, that the said lottery should be drawn on the 15th and the 23d of December 1818,
