Heralds College, December 19, 1818.

In reference to the order for a general mourning for Her late Majesty the Queen of blessed memory, which was announced in the Gazette of Saturday the 21st ultimo;

These are to give notice, that upon the present melancholy occasion, it is not desired or expected that the public should appear in mourning after the 29th instant.

HENRY HOWARD-MOLYNEUX-HOWARD,
Deputy Earl Marshal.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT,
Earl of Chester.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, your Royal Highness's loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the City of Chester, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most dutiful expressions of affection and regard.

We beg leave to join in the general expression of public feeling which has been displayed by all ranks of His Majesty's loyal subjects on the lamented death of our venerable Queen, and to assure your Royal Highness of our sincere participation in the common grief.

As Citizens of a great nation—we condole with your Royal Highness on the magnitude of our public loss—amidst the calamity which, in common with your Royal Highness and your august Family, we all deplore the illness of our venerable Monarch—we looked up to the partner of his throne with loyal attachment, and we viewed with delight and satisfaction the unaltered affection with which she watched over his sickness,—the zeal with which she promoted the objects which were always nearest to his heart,—the steady and firm support which she gave to the virtuous and good,—and the bright example of morality and religion which she displayed to the nation at large,—an example which shone with unclouded lustre in the character of our venerable Monarch, and endeared him to all the true friends of religion and virtue.

As individuals—we sympathize in your private affliction, and we join with your Royal Highness in all the feelings of grief which so great a domestic calamity must inspire,—feelings which spring from the contemplation of the exalted character of your Royal Mother in all the relations of private life; and we viewed with real pleasure the filial solicitude and unwearied attention with which your Royal Highness and your august Family watched over her during her long and lingering sickness, and soothed by your anxious care her protracted sufferings.

The sentiments of respect with which we approach your Royal Highness on the present occasion, are increased when we reflect on the dignified firmness and undeviating regards to the best interests of mankind, which guided the conduct of our most Gracious Sovereign and his venerable Consort, through a reign, unexampled in its continuance and unequalled in the importance of the events which have marked its progress from its commencement to the present hour,—during a period, the most eventful in our history, in which we beheld in foreign countries the sacred interests of morality and religion assailed by a false philosophy, whose avowed object was the extirpation of all moral principles from the human breast, and an infidelity which would deprive us of our religion,—the source of the best hopes and desires of man,—it was the pride of Englishmen that they could look up to the best example in the highest place; and we reflect with gratitude on the firm stand which was made by their Majesties against every attempt on the morality and religion of our country,—on the noble example of public spirit which they displayed in times the most awful,—and, amidst the ridicule which abandoned men endeavoured to cast around the most sacred obligations of private life, on the illustrious pattern which they gave in their own lives of every social and private virtue.

That the consolations of that religion which shone with so bright a lustre in their lives, may be afforded to your Royal Highness and your august Family under your present affliction, that it may extend its blessed influence through all ranks of His Majesty's subjects, as being the only sure support of national greatness, and that your Royal Highness may be long preserved to an affectionate people, is the prayer of your Royal Highness's loyal subjects the inhabitants of Chester.

At the request and on the behalf of a respectable meeting of the Inhabitants of the City of Chester, held in the Town-Hall there on the 17th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1818. Thomas Bradford, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, The Lord Mayor, Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants of the City of York, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere condolence on the death of our late excellent and gracious Queen.

When we reflect on the manner in which her late Majesty, placed in the most conspicuous station, fulfilled, not only every conjugal and parental, but every religious and moral duty, we cannot but deeply feel the loss the nation has sustained in being deprived of so bright an example.

It is however highly consolatory to us that Her Majesty experienced, in the course of a long reign, the enjoyment of great happiness in the bosom of her family, and in the reverence and affection of His Majesty's subjects; and that at the close of a life, protracted to a more than ordinary length, the sufferings of her last moments were alleviated by the filial and unremitted attentions of your Royal Highness.

That it may please the Almighty to support your Royal Highness under your present affliction, and to grant to this country a long enjoyment of the benign sway of your illustrious house, is the sincere prayer of His Majesty's faithful subjects.

James Saunders, Mayor and Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Lord Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Dean, Chancellor, Archdeacon, Prebendaries, and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Peterborough, most humbly approach the Throne with this expression of our condolence, on an event which, while it has involved your Royal Highness and your august Family in the deepest affliction, has awakened also the feelings of unfeigned sorrow in every British heart.

In our endeavours to maintain the high and holy interests specially intrusted to our care, we have ever experienced the inestimable advantage of that bright pattern of public and private virtue, which having been displayed with unsullied lustre through the long course of Her Majesty's life, is now withdrawn from the world. And whilst with mournful attention we contemplate the closing scenes of that life, never, surely, can we forget the illustrious examples they present to us, both of Christian fortitude and of filial piety.

It is our earnest hope and prayer, that the influence of these examples may be practically felt by every class of our fellow subjects; and that, rich in the enjoyment of temporal and spiritual blessings, your Royal Highness may long continue to command the affectionate obedience of a free and happy people.

J. Peterborough.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Peterborough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, and the Clergy within the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, beg leave to express our most sincere condolence with your Royal Highness upon the much lamented death of your Royal Highness's august Mother, our late Most Gracious Queen. The anxious solicitude manifested by your Royal Highness during the long suffering which it pleased the Almighty Ruler of all things to extend to Her late Majesty, too clearly ascertains to us how deeply your Royal Highness must be afflicted at this period of general sorrow, but we are well aware that your Royal Highness has it in your power to resort to various consolatory reflections upon this painful deprivation.

Your Royal Highness has not at present to lament the thread of life immaturely cut, or the decrease of a Parent uninfluenced by the only safe and true directions of human conduct—firm and immovable principles of Christian faith, and a constant sense of moral rectitude.

These principles are known to have been well rooted in Her late Majesty's breast, and to have produced (as they will always produce by their natural and genuine influence) a diligent and most exemplary attention to the welfare and education of her offspring, and to the various duties of exalted as well as private life.

The signal display of these eminent merits ever endeared Her Majesty to all the good and all the pious subjects of our beloved Sovereign; and we trust to no description of them more truly and more affectionately, than to the Ministers of Religion, the delegated guardians and patrons of moral and religious attainment.

J. Lichfield and Coventry.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Incorporate Society of Master Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Master, Wardens and Assistants of the Guild Brotherhood or Society of Master Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly presume to condole with your Royal Highness on the death of your Royal Highness's august Parent our late most gracious Queen, whose memory must ever be cherished by the British nation with sentiments of profound veneration and gratitude.

When we contemplate the many eminent virtues which so conspicuously adorned the character of Her late Majesty as a Wife, a Parent, and a Queen, we are deeply sensible of the extent of our calamity and national loss, yet feel assured that the exalted piety and moral excellence of Her late Majesty's life have not only conferred inestimable blessings upon the age in which she lived, but that their example and influence will animate the virtue and promote the happiness of our posterity.

We beg leave on this mournful occasion to renew to your Royal Highness the respectful homage of our most loyal and dutiful attachment to His Majesty's Royal Person and government.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this 14th day of December 1818.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Doncaster, in the County of York, presume to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our sincere condolence upon the lamented death of your august Mother, the late Queen Charlotte.

United with the dignity which becomes a throne, Her late Majesty eminently possessed all those qualities which are the ornament of social life; as a Wife, her many excellencies were unequalled; and as a Parent, she must long continue to be an object of reverential regard.

We venture to assure your Royal Highness; that amidst the various duties of your high station, no one act of your Royal Highness has more excited the admiration of the people of this kingdom, than those dutiful and endearing attentions which your Royal Highness has so unremittingly manifested during the long protracted illness of your late illustrious Parent.

May the Divine Providence be graciously pleased to afford to your Royal Highness, and to the other members of your illustrious House, every consolation under the present afflictive calamity.

Sealed with our common seal, this 11th day of December, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of condolence of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks, assembled at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 11th day of December 1818.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Reading, humbly request permission to make known to your Royal Highness our deep sense of the domestic calamity, which has recently befallen your Royal House, the death of Her Gracious Majesty the Queen. As the dutiful assiduity and filial attention of your Royal Highness must have alleviated the long and tedious trial with which it pleased Almighty Providence to prepare Her late Majesty for her dissolution, so we dare hope that the expression of public respect and regret may be some consolation to your Royal Highness and your august kindred. That respect we feel due to her who for more than fifty years has been the faithful and affectionate Consort of our venerable Monarch, alike endeared by his virtues and afflictions to a loyal and commiserating people: that regret is most sincere from our conviction that much was contributed by Her late Majesty's countenance and example, towards preserving to the purity of female morals its high estimation in our country; and may the influence of Her late Majesty in this respect survive and become hereditary in Her illustrious Family. Nor can we withhold our admiration of those good works of which Her Majesty's decease has betrayed the secret. The recollection of these, as well as of the other effects of the principle from which they sprang, which yourself must have witnessed on the peaceful death-bed of your late Royal Mother, we trust are a real source of comfort to your Royal Highness under your present affliction.

Robt. Harris, Mayor, Chairman of the Meeting.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Devizes, humbly approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the most dutiful affection to His Majesty, to your Royal Highness, and to the whole of the Royal Family.

Permit us to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the loss which your illustrious Family and the nation at large have sustained by the recent death of your illustrious Mother.

The virtues of our late excellent Queen will long live in the recollection of a grateful people. Her Majesty's public conduct during more than half a century, in times the most eventful which modern history records, and particularly during the continuance of that distressing calamity which has deprived us of His Majesty's paternal care, justly entitled her to the affection and gratitude of the British nation; nor has Her Majesty's conduct in private life been less worthy of admiration. As a Wife and a Mother she has added lustre to the British Court, and her whole life will ever be considered as the brightest example of that purity which constitutes the true dignity of the female character.

We beg to renew to your Royal Highness the expression of our sincere attachment to His Majesty and His Government, and pray that the blessing of Divine Providence may attend all your Royal Highness's endeavours for the advantage and security of His Majesty's dominions.

Given under our common seal, in the Council Chamber of the said Borough, the 15th day of December, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign. Henry Bayntun, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Linlithgow.

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Linlithgow, assembled this day in General Meeting, desire to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our sincere grief and condolence on the event of the demise of Her late Majesty the Queen.

The many virtues which eminently distinguished that illustrious Princess, and the uniform, but unostentatious, display of all those qualities which confer lustre on the highest rank, had endeared Her Majesty to the nation.

As the Mother of a numerous progeny—as the Consort of our beloved Monarch—as the Queen of these realms, Her Majesty had conciliated the affections, and deservedly obtained the esteem and respect of all ranks of His Majesty's subjects.

It is, therefore, with feelings of deep regret that we have seen Her Majesty sink under the pressure of sickness, and of protracted suffering; but whilst we lament the loss which your Royal Highness, and the nation, has sustained by the death of the Queen, we derive consolation from the persuasion that the influence of Her Majesty's example will be long and usefully felt among us and that Her Majesty's name and memory will be warmly cherished by our posterity.

With the expression of our loyalty to His Majesty, and with the tender of our duty to your Royal Highness as the Regent of these Kingdoms, and our sincere wishes for the prosperity of the Government committed to your Royal Highness's charge, we desire to unite our fervent prayers to Almighty God that your Royal Highness and the rest of the Royal Family may obtain, under this domestic affliction, the consolations of piety, and that alleviation of grief which cannot fail to proceed from the discharge of those filial duties which have been so eminently fulfilled by your Royal Highness, and the other Members of your illustrious House.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by the Right Honourable John Earl of Hopetoun, our Prases, at Linlithgow, the 11th day of December 1818. Hopetoun.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the ancient Town of Stirling, humbly beg leave, upon the present melancholy occasion, to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere condolence upon the much lamented death of Her late Majesty, our most gracious and much beloved Queen.

But whilst we, in common with all our fellow subjects, deeply deplore this mournful event, we cannot help deriving consolation from the bright example which Her Majesty's eminent public and private virtues have held forth not only to the British nation, but to the world in general, and which have so essentially contributed to preserve these realms from that licentious contagion which had so long pervaded and threatened the ruin of the other states of Europe.

We humbly beg leave to embrace the present opportunity of testifying our unfeigned attachment to your Royal Highness's person and His Majesty's Government, and our earnest wishes for your preservation and prosperity.

Given and sealed at the Town-House of Stirling, in our names, and by our appointment, this 23d day of November 1818, and of His Majesty's reign the fifty-ninth year.

Thomas Wright, Provost.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, humbly approach the Throne, with sentiments of sincere condolence, upon the much lamented death of Her Majesty Queen Charlotte.

While we sympathize with your Royal Highness in those feelings of distress, which the loss of so excellent a Parent, even at the advanced age Her Majesty had attained, cannot fail to excite, we are well aware, your Royal Highness must experience, on the present afflicting occasion, all the consolation which the uniform discharge of the duties of filial piety, is, under Divine Providence, so much calculated to afford. And, while we mourn over departed worth, we beg leave, at the same time, to express to your Royal Highness, and to the other members of your illustrious House, the mingled sentiments of gratitude, and pride with which, in common with our fellow subjects, we are impressed, on reflecting that, for upwards of half a century, your august Parent has graced the Throne of these realms, with all those virtues which peculiarly constitute female excellence; and has not only maintained unsullied the purity and respectability of the Court, but has also by the influence of her own unblemished and exemplary conduct, contributed, in a high degree, to exalt the character and improve the morals of the British people.

Signed, and sealed with the common seal of the city of Glasgow, by me Lord Provost and Chief Magistrate of Glasgow, in name, and by appointment, of the Magistrates and Council thereof, the 10th day of December 1818 years.

Henry Monteith, Provost.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Merchants'-House of the City of Glasgow, beg leave respectfully to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our sincere condolence upon the death of Her Most Excellent Majesty Queen Charlotte.

We have to testify the deep sense which we entertain of the heavy loss the nation has sustained by the removal of a Queen, who, through a long and trying period of fifty-seven years, has graced the British Throne by her many public and domestic virtues.

May the knowledge of her worth prove to your Royal Highness a sure source of consolation, and consecrate her memory to the British people.

Signed and sealed by our corporation seal, in our name and presence, and by our appointment, by Robert Findlay, Dean of Guild.

December 8, 1818.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects, the Convener, Trades Bailies, Deacons of the fourteen incorporated Trades, and other ordinary and extraordinary Members of the Trades-House of the City of Glasgow, beg leave to approach the Throne, sympathizing with your Royal Highness on the present mournful occasion, the death of Her Excellent Majesty Queen Charlotte, of blessed memory, who so long graced the Throne of these realms.

Looking back upon Her Majesty's life, no less eminent than useful, we admire the exercise of conjugal and maternal tenderness in all that is affectionate and praiseworthy; and we review with lively emotions of gratitude, the dignified example exhibited to the court, the nation, and the world, of adhering to, and in Royal Prerogative honouring uniformly those exalted virtues which reflect so much satisfaction in the recollection of the wise and good; yet we bow with unfeigned submission to the will of Him who governs all things.

We enter deeply into the feelings of your Royal Highness, in being called, whilst afflicted through the continued melancholy indisposition of the best of Fathers, and while still alive to the heart-rending sensations occasioned by the loss of a much beloved Daughter, to attend to the closing scene of an aged and ever indulgent Mother, and to be present at those obsequies which awaken all the sensibilities of nature; yet the discharge of these high duties in circumstances so trying, and with all the sentiments of filial regard, afford a satisfaction soothing to the heart in the season of grief.

May these dispensations of Providence be sanctified to your Royal Highness, to all the Members of your illustrious Family, and to the whole nation; and under the painful bereavement now sustained, may the exercise of every heart correspond with those obligations and interests which ought to be kept supremely in view.

Signed and sealed in name, presence, and by appointment of the Trades-House, in their Hall assembled, this 10th day of December 1818.

John Graham, Convener.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness;

WE the Principal and Professors of the University of Edinburgh, approach your Royal Highness with profound respect, and we humbly beg leave to present our most sympathetic condolence with the grief of your Royal Highness on the lamented death of your august Parent, Her Majesty Queen Charlotte, the illustrious Consort of our venerable King.

We had seen with the most lively gratification that faithful and affectionate discharge of every conjugal and parental duty, and those various other public and private virtues, which distinguished during a long life the character and conduct of Her Majesty; and we deplore as an afflictive national event the loss of that auspicious influence, which was diffused by the royal example over the manners and morals of the people.

Deign, Sir, to accept graciously those expressions of our respectful condolence, and receive our humble assurances that your Royal Highness's exemplary conduct on the death of a Parent so justly endeared to your Royal Highness, has excited the admiration of all classes of His Majesty's subjects, who have beheld their Prince deriving dignity and lustre from discharging the most tender and amiable offices of the son.

It is our most earnest prayer that the promises and hopes of the Christian Faith, and the approving consciousness of filial duty zealously fulfilled, may administer to your Royal Highness their most soothing consolations.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of His Majesty's loyal subjects, the United Incorporations of Mary's Chapel of the City of Edinburgh.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Deacons, Treasurer, and other Members of the United Incorporations of Wrights and Masons of the City of Edinburgh, and the six other Trades incorporated with them, designated as the Incorporations of Mary's Chapel, most humbly approach your Royal Highness with sincere expressions of condolence and sympathy on the afflicting event with which it hath pleased Divine Providence to visit your Royal Highness in the death of Her late Majesty the Queen.

The purity and excellence of character by which our much lamented Queen was so eminently distinguished were equally conspicuous in the amiable and royal example which she exhibited to the nation and to the world, in her strict adherence to the principles of the admirable constitution of these realms, and in the discharge of all the moral and religious duties, both public and domestic, of the various relations which she occupied with such matchless lustre.

We would humbly express to your Royal Highness our feelings of admiration of that bright example of filial affection and tenderness, evinced by your Royal Highness's anxious solicitude throughout our gracious Queen's indisposition; and we pray that the God of all comfort may support your Royal Highness, and the other Members of the Royal Family, under your present affliction.

We humbly beg leave to avail ourselves of this opportunity of giving our renewed assurances of firm loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness, and your illustrious House.

Signed, by our two Deacons, in our name, and by our appointment and our incorporation seal appended in our Hall of Mary's Chapel, in the City of Edinburgh, this 10th day of December 1818.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Master, Assistants, and Members of the Company of Merchants of the City of Edinburgh, incorporated by royal charter, ratified in Parliament, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness to offer our sincere condolence on the death of Her late Majesty the Queen, and to assure your Royal Highness how much we participate in the sorrow which this event has occasioned to the numerous Branches of your royal House.

Permit us on this occasion to assure your Royal Highness how sensible we are of the many distinguished virtues which adorned the character of Her Majesty in the exalted station which she so long and so honourably filled among us; and while we express our hope that the recollection of these virtues, and a reliance on Divine Providence, may afford consolation to your Royal Highness, and the other Branches of your illustrious Family, under your present affliction, we trust also that the bright example which Her Majesty exhibited, and that system of virtuous manners which she so invariably upheld and pursued, will long continue to live in the remembrance; and to influence the conduct of the subjects of these realms.

Signed, at desire and in presence of a General Meeting of the Company, and the Company's seal affixed this 9th day of December 1818.

William Forbes, Master.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dunfermline, humbly beg leave on the present afflicting occasion to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere expression of condolence, on account of the loss which your Royal Highness, the Royal Family, and the nation at large have sustained in the lamented death of Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

The more we reflect on the signal virtues which adorned the long and useful life of the departed Consort of our venerable and beloved Sovereign, and more particularly her distinguished conjugal attachment, zeal for the purity of the British Court, and continued attention to the interests of the destitute and afflicted; attention not less active, than unostentatious, we are the more deeply convinced, that the event which has conveyed so much sorrow to the affectionate bosom of your Royal Highness, and other Members of the Royal Family, has been a great national calamity.

Firmly attached as we are both by duty and feeling to the best interest of our country, and of those who are placed in authority over us, it is our united and fervent prayer, that your Royal Highness's person, family, and administration may be eminently blessed, and that of the House of Brunswick, to which the Presbyterian establishment owes so much, there never may be wanting Kings and Queens who may prove nursing fathers and nursing mothers to the Church of Christ, and under whom, we, and those who shall succeed us, may in the full enjoyment of all our rights and privileges, be distinguished to the end of time, as the happiest and most respectable of nations.

May it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dunfermline.

Signed in our name, and at our appointment,

Allan M'Lean, Moderator.

Dunfermline, December 9th 1818.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom, of Great Britain and Ireland

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Haddington, approach your Royal Highness, with the expression of our sincere condolence, upon the melancholy occasion of the demise of Her Majesty the Queen.

We bow with submission to that stroke, which has bereft our venerable and afflicted Sovereign of her, who, after sharing with him, during so many years, the splendours, the duties, and the cares of royalty, has been destined, in his evil days of age and infirmity, to sooth his sorrows;—and which has deprived your Royal Highness, and the other members of Her illustrious family, of the affections and the counsels of a parent.

Yet, even amid the darker dispensations of Providence, we find occasion of thanksgiving. We remember, with affectionate gratitude, that example of purity of manners, which, for much more than half a century, has been permitted to dignify and adorn the Throne of Britain; and which, shedding its influence on every class of His Majesty's subjects, has had the most important effects, in instructing, in improving, and in saving our country.

We rejoice in the belief, that this bright example will long compel the imitation, as it has so long commanded the admiration of a loyal and affectionate people; and that the memory of our Queen will be cherished as long as religion, and virtue, and loyalty are dear to our native land.

That the consolations of that religion, which soothed the last moments of our Queen, may likewise speedily restore the tranquillity of her afflicted family, and that your Royal Highness, after a long life of happiness and glory, may be re-united in a better state, with all the objects of your dearest affections is our earnest prayer.

Signed in presence and by the appointment of a meeting of the Magistrates and Town Council of the aforesaid Burgh, held at Haddington, this 11th day of December 1818.

Thomas Pringle, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT.

WITH feelings of profound grief, we, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington, humbly approach your Royal Highness to express our sincere condolence on the mournful and irreparable loss sustained by your Royal Highness and the whole nation, in the death of our venerable and much lamented Queen. After having uniformly, during a long series of years, discharged the duties of her exalted station in a manner that has endeared her to all the subjects of this Realm, and after displaying in private life all the virtues of religion and morality, Her Majesty has been withdrawn from us to receive the rewards of her worth in a perpetual and better world. But she will still live in the hearts of all His Majesty's loyal subjects; and the memory of her virtues, which diffused their influence through all ranks of society, and produced a happy effect on the minds and manners of the present age, will be transmitted through the records of history as an illustrious and conspicuous example to all posterity.

The filial piety at all times exhibited by your Royal Highness has excited the highest admiration, and if on this melancholy occasion the affliction of your Royal Highness can admit of alleviation from any means, in addition to the consolations afforded by religion, we are persuaded it will be derived from the emotions of sympathy universally manifested by all classes of His Majesty's loyal subjects, and which have been felt by none more sincerely than by the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the meeting, held this 14th day of December 1818.

Haddington, Preses.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Cupar, in Fife, in General Meeting assembled, this 9th day of December 1818.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Cupar, in Fife, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the most sincere expressions of affection and respect for your person and government.

We humbly offer our heartfelt condolence on the afflicting event of the death of her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

Firmly attached to the House of Brunswick, under whose mild and paternal sway the united empire has enjoyed so much prosperity, we feel a tender interest in every occurrence which affects the happiness of the Royal Family, and we warmly sympathize with the affectionate feelings of your Royal Highness on this melancholy occasion, which has deprived your Royal Highness of a revered parent, and the nation of so illustrious a pattern of public and private virtue.

Her Majesty's exemplary discharge of the duties of her exalted station, which dignified her character, and has endeared her memory to a loyal people, and prepared her as we hope, for a happy entrance into another life, will afford effectual consolation to your Royal Highness, and the other Members of the Royal Family.

That Almighty God may continue to prosper the government which your Royal Highness exercises, with so much judgment and success, in the name and behalf of His Majesty, whose continued illness we deeply lament; and that the descendants of your Illustrious House may sway the sceptre of the British Empire till latest ages, is our earnest wish and prayer.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Town Council, and the seal of the Burgh affixed hereto. George Aitken, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol, with sentiments of the warmest attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Family, request permission to tender to your Royal Highness, the assurance of our sincere condolence on the lamented demise of her late Majesty, our most revered and excellent Queen.

Whilst we participate in the general regret, which this mournful event has excited throughout the country, we are feelingly alive to the more severe and peculiar weight of affliction, which the loss of a parent, so dearly and so deservedly beloved, has inflicted on your Royal Highness and the rest of Her Majesty's Family. It is however gratifying to reflect that, when the first emotions of sorrow shall have subsided, your Royal Highness will not fail to derive the most lasting satisfaction from the best and purest sources of consolation.—The recollection of Her Majesty's many amiable and estimable qualities; the consciousness that her days were rendered happy by the dutiful and affectionate attachment of her nearest relatives, and in particular by the filial attentions of your Royal Highness; and the confident hope, which her virtues and piety may well justify, that at the close of a long and exemplary life, she has been at length translated from this world of trial to a better.

In a national point of view too, we feel that the loss which the country has sustained, though severe, is not to be mourned over as irreparable. Grateful to Providence for having so long extended to us the benefits of Her Majesty's presence, we behold in that affectionate regard with which her memory is cherished by all ranks of the community, the surest pledge, that the influence of her example will not cease with her valuable existence. In the present generation at least,—and we trust it will extend to succeeding ages:—the memorials of a life spent in the exercise of every princely and christian virtue, will incite to a generous and honorable emulation; and continue to produce the most beneficial effects on the habits and morals of society.

That your Royal Highness may long live to enjoy the affections of a loyal people, happy in the blessings of your paternal government, is our sincere and most ardent prayer.

[Transmitted by Richard Hart Davis, and Edward Protheroe, Esquires. M. P. for the City, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Magistrates of Towns of the County of Renfrew; beg leave most respectfully to approach your Royal Highness, and with the deepest sensibility to offer our heartfelt condolence on the death of Her late Majesty the Queen.

Deeply as your Royal Highness must feel the loss of a parent, so tenderly beloved and so justly appreciated, it cannot fail to be a source of the truest consolation to your heart to reflect on the eminent virtues of that Illustrious Personage, who during the long period of fifty-seven years exhibited the brightest example of every female virtue; an example by which we trust we have all benefited, and the influence of which will be felt among us as long as virtue is cherished, piety revered, and benevolence regarded.

Placed at a very early period of life on one of the most splendid Thrones in the universe, and surrounded by all the grandeur and luxury so calculated to charm the eye and captivate the fancy, she still found her greatest happiness in the bosom of her august family; and retiring in a great measure from that world of which, by her virtues and accomplishments, she was formed to be one of the greatest ornaments, she devoted herself to the milder duties of domestic life. The enlightened companion in happiness, the soothing comforter in affliction of our beloved and venerable King, she fixed herself in the hearts of his people,—where her memory will be cherished, and her virtues recorded, from generation to generation.

The pleasing consciousness that, during a painful and protracted illness, every act of filial duty and love was administered by the person most dear to her on earth, is wholly your Royal Highness's; and that consciousness, with the support of that high and gracious power who alone can administer consolation to the afflicted heart, will, we humbly trust, support your Royal Highness, and restore you to peace and happiness.

We earnestly entreat your Royal Highness graciously to accept of this our latest tribute of veneration to the memory of our gracious and revered Queen,—and the assurances of our steady and unalterable attachment to your Royal Highness and your Illustrious Family.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Renfrew, this 14th day of December 1818.

Glasgow, Preses

[Transmitted by the Earl of Glasgow, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the administration of the Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty's Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if Her Majesty the Queen should depart this life during the time that the care of His Majesty's Royal Person should be committed to Her Majesty, according to the provisions of the said Act, the Regent should forthwith order and direct a Proclamation, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be issued and published declaring the same: and whereas by another Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to alter and amend certain of the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the administration of the Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty's Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal

"Authority by His Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if the case should happen in which it was enacted by the said Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty, that the Regent should forthwith order and direct such Proclamation to be issued and published as aforesaid, and the same should happen upon or after the day appointed by any Writ of Summons then issued, for calling and assembling a new Parliament, and before such new Parliament should have met and sat as a Parliament, then, and in such case, the Regent should forthwith cause such a Proclamation as aforesaid to be issued and published, declaring that such case had happened, and requiring the new Parliament either to convene and sit at Westminster immediately after such Proclamation should have been published, or upon some day to be mentioned in such Proclamation, and being within sixty days to be computed from the date of the said Proclamation; and in such case the Parliament so convening and sitting should be, and be deemed a Parliament to all intents and purposes, under the provisions of the said last mentioned Acts: and whereas the Parliament which was summoned to meet at Westminster on the fourth day of August last, hath not yet met and sat as a Parliament, but stands prorogued to the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing: and whereas Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, during the time that the care of His Majesty's Royal Person was committed to Her Majesty: now we do hereby by this Proclamation (ordered and directed to be issued and published, and issued and published under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland), declare, that Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, and We do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, publish, declare, and require, that the new Parliament shall be held, convene, and sit, at Westminster, on the fourteenth day of January now next ensuing, for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly on the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We do hereby further publish and declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the said Parliament shall on the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing, be further prorogued to the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We have, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, given Order to the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Writ Patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, for proroguing the same accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this nineteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 18th of November 1818,

PRESENT,

Archbishop of Canterbury,
Lord President,
Duke of Montrose,
Lord Steward,
Earl Bathurst,
Earl of Liverpool,
Viscount Melville,
Viscount Sidmouth,
Bishop of London,
Lord St. Helens,
Sir William Scott,
Sir John Nicholl,
Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer,
Lord Chief Baron.

WHEREAS in the Act of Uniformity, which establishes the Liturgy of the Church of England, provision is made for such alterations in the Prayers for the Royal Family, as from time to time shall become necessary, and be directed by lawful authority: it is thereupon this day Ordered in Council, that in the Morning and Evening Prayers, in the Litany, and in all other parts of the Public Service, as well in the occasional Offices as in the Book of Common Prayer, where the Royal Family is appointed to be particularly prayed for, the following form and order shall be observed, viz.

Their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

And it is further ordered, that no edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth printed, but with this amendment; and that in the mean time, till copies of such edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, within this Realm, do (for preventing of mistakes) with the pen, correct and amend all such prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing direction; and for the better notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several Parishes; and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly. Chetwynd.

In pursuance of an Act passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, and of another Act passed in the thirty-second year of His present Majesty, wherein provision is made for praying for the Royal Family in that part of Great Britain called Scotland; it is hereby Ordered in Council, that henceforth every Minister and Preacher shall in his respective Church, Congregation, or Assembly, pray in express words,

For His Most Sacred Majesty King George, their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

Of which all persons concerned are hereby required to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.
