

Court against the said Henry Maundrell and the other Defendants to the said bill, on the 3d day of April 1817; and that the said Defendant Henry Maundrell resided at Hedington, in the County of Wilts, until December 1815, or thereabouts (being within two years previously to the issuing of the said subpoena), when he quitted his dwelling there, and his household goods and furniture were sold off, and that he had heard that the said Defendant had since resided in London, but that he had not been able to discover where the said Defendant could be met with, notwithstanding he had made and caused to be made very particular enquiries for the said Defendant of the said Defendant's professional Agents in the country as well as in London, and likewise written letters to the said Defendant addressed to him where he presumed the same would come to his hands, and that the Law Solicitor of the said Defendant had refused to accept a subpoena for him, and to undertake to appear to and procure an answer to be filed to the said bill, and had also refused to disclose where the said Defendant could be met with, and that for the reasons above stated, and from other circumstances he believed that the said Defendant wilfully withdraws himself and absconds to avoid being served with process of this Court in the said Cause, at the suit of the said Plaintiffs: whereupon and upon hearing the said affidavits and the Six Clerks certificate read it is ordered that the said Defendant Henry Maundrell do appear to the said Plaintiffs bill on or before the 9th day of January 1819.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 29th day of August 1814, made in a Cause wherein Elizabeth Clark, widow, and the Reverend Charles Wallington are plaintiffs, and George Henry Elliott and others are defendants, it was, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether there are any mortgages or incumbrances that affect the estates of the Reverend George Henry Glasse, deceased, other than the mortgages and incumbrances of the plaintiffs, Elizabeth Clark and Charles Wallington, and the defendant, William Veal, Edward Forster, George Henry Elliott, William Hoare Hume, John Glasse, and the said defendant, George Henry Elliott (as the Executor of the Reverend Doctor Samuel Glasse, deceased).—All or any persons or person, claiming to be mortgagees or incumbrancers upon the said estates (other and besides the person before named), are, on or before the 12th day of February 1819, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out and establish their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Punnett against White, it was, amongst other things, ordered, that it should be referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether Thomas Serle, named in the will of Sarah Jones, deceased (the testatrix therein named), was dead, and if dead, whether he died in the lifetime of the said testatrix, Sarah Jones, and if he died afterwards, who was his personal representative; the said Thomas Serle if living, or if dead, the personal representative of the said Thomas Serle, in case he survived the said testatrix, Sarah Jones (who died on the 26th day of July 1804), is peremptorily to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, for the purposes of the said inquiry, on or before the 12th day of February 1819.—The said Thomas Serle left London near thirty years ago, and went to Exeter, in the County of Devon, and corresponded with his relations and friends up to the year 1790, since which time he has not been heard of by any of them, and he is supposed to have died about that time.—The said testatrix, Sarah Jones, was formerly resident at Hoxton, in the County of Middlesex, and was heretofore the wife of Robert Jones, late of Birch-Lane, and afterwards of Nicholas-Lane, London, Hatter, deceased; and the said Thomas Serle, who was the nephew of the said testatrix, was, if living at the time of her death, entitled to certain property under the will of the said testatrix.
