To His Royal Highness George, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Master, Wardens, and Brethren of the Corporation of Sheermen and Dyers or Guild of Saint Nicholas, Dublin, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with expressions of the most heartfelt regret at the death of the late Queen, your august Mother; deeply sympathising with the feelings of your illustrious Family, in all whose sorrows these nations have cause to participate, and calling to mind the many conspicuous and exemplary virtues which distinguished Her late Majesty, the memory of whom has left but one "house of mourning" in the land,—we therefore regard the late event which has just occurred as a national calamity.

Accept the sincere condolences of your humble and loyal Corporation, who feel themselves bound to testify their duty to you on this melancholy occasion, whom it is their duty at all times to reverence, and who while every day discovers some new perfection in the character of your Royal Highness, cannot confine themselves to the silent admiration of that which two heavy and rapidly successive visitations have lately brought to light the unexampled and pious fortitude with which your Royal Highness is enabled to endure the pressure of domestic affliction.

James Lowry, Master; Richard Carmichael and Robert Dunbar, Wardens.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, humbly beg leave to express to your Royal Highness the sincerity with which we participate in the general grief occasioned by the melancholy event which has deprived these kingdoms of that illustrious Queen, who through a long series of years shared the happiness or alleviated the sufferings of our beloved Sovereign.

Distinguished not more by mild, tender, and unassuming virtues, than by that dignity and firmness of character, which made her the guardian as well as the pattern of female virtue, our lamented Queen will long be remembered for that exemplary correctness and decorum which distinguished the whole continuance of her lengthened reign.

Grateful to that Providence which placed her over us, and prolonged the blessing thus given beyond the term which usually is the limit of human life, we shall ever cherish her memory, and while we lament that she has gone hence and will no more be seen, we shall derive our consolation from reflecting that she rests in hope, and that her virtues will ever more be had in remembrance.

Thos. Elrington, Provost.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Clergy, the King's Procureur, and the Constables of this His Majesty's faithful Island of Guernsey, in the States assembled, do most devoutly offer thanks to the Almighty for having vouchsafed to prolong, before it were called to a kingdom, not of this world, a life which was rendered more and more dear to us from our infancy, by the exemplary discharge of the highest duties, by the constant practice of virtue and religion, and the reciprocity of that tender affection so conspicuous in your Royal Highness, so honourable to your Royal Highness's filial piety and character, and so congenial to the feelings of the British nation.

Sensible of the irreparable loss sustained by your Royal Highness, we are anxious for permission to express our sincere condolence, and humbly flatter ourselves with the hope that, though incapable of assuaging, for the present, so great an affliction, our sympathy may yet be graciously considered as a fresh proof, not unacceptable to your Royal Highness, of the continued loyalty and attachment of the States of this Island, to the person and family of your Royal Highness.

H. Bayley, Lieutenant-Governor.

Guernsey, December 17, 1818.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of His Majesty's loyal subjects the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Council assembled.

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, approach your Royal Highness with heartfelt expressions of our sympathy and condolence, on the afflicting event with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit your Royal Highness, in the death of Her late Majesty the Queen of these realms. The amiable and truly excellent character by which she was so conspicuously distinguished during her whole life, was strongly marked by the strictest adherence to a virtuous discharge of every moral and religious duty, both public and domestic.

We beg leave humbly to express to your Royal Highness our feelings of admiration and praise, at the unparalleled example of affection and tender solicitude evinced by your Royal Highness during the long indisposition of our much lamented Queen; at the same time we avail ourselves of this opportunity of presenting the assurance of our firm loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness and your illustrious House, and we pray that the God of all comfort may support every member of the Royal Family under their present affliction.

Signed, in our name at Dunbar, this 18th day of December 1818, by

Will. Hume, Provost.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Burgh of Evesham, in Council assembled, beg humbly to express that we sincerely deplore the heavy loss this nation has sustained in the lamented death of Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

We have observed during a period the most eventful in the history of the world, when the nations, thrones, and empires of Europe, were sinking in the vortex of immorality; and an impious philosophy was endeavouring to annihilate the consolations of religion, that our lamented Queen with affability amiable and condescending; combined with the most intrepid firmness, has made her great example in every relation of life, steadily subservient to the encouragement of religion and virtue, and to the discountenance and abasement of vice and depravity, thereby giving the strongest possible support to the Throne, and establishing that superior tone of Christian morality which so eminently characterises the females of the British isles.

We humbly beg as a sincere proof of our attachment to your Royal Highness, to offer our condolence on this mournful occasion, and to assure your Royal Highness of our devoted attachment and best wishes for your welfare, and that your illustrious House, and that your Royal Highness may long continue to protect the liberties, and support the prosperity of these realms.

Given under the common seal this 15th day of December 1818. Dani. Edge, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, assume the liberty humbly to approach your Royal Highness, under the deepest impression of sorrow and regret, to offer our unfeigned sentiments of condolence, in consequence of the afflicting bereavement your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained in the death of your august and greatly lamented Parent, Her Most Excellent Majesty Queen Charlotte.

We most cordially deplore the sufferings experienced by Her Majesty through a long period of severe trial, during which our hopes and fears were alternately painfully exercised; and our sympathy received its only solace by reflecting upon her exemplary pious resignation and truly Christian fortitude; we also duly appreciate the unremitting attentions of your Royal Highness to sooth the anguish and mitigate the poignancy of Her Majesty's distressing and accumulated afflictions.

Whilst we humbly submit to the chastening dispensation of unerring Providence, and bemoan the loss of the highest ornament of female virtue, our gratitude ascends to Heaven for the ineffable bounty these realms have enjoyed for more than half a century, in the bright example of religious and moral rectitude uniformly presented by Her Majesty; an example which has eminently contributed to diffuse and confirm the principles and practice of piety and virtue through all ranks and denominations of society, thereby averting those scourges and desolations so distressingly experienced by nearly all the other nations of Europe.

We beg leave to repeat our warmest expressions of loyal and dutiful attachment to your Royal House, while we fervently pray for the Divine Protection of our venerable and beloved Sovereign, and for the health, happiness, and prosperity of your Royal Highness.

In the name and on the behalf of the Meeting,
William Birdsall, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Inverary.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, request permission to express to your Royal Highness our unfeigned condolence on the death of your illustrious and Royal Mother, the Queen, which has deprived this country of one of its brightest ornaments of female excellence and virtue, both in discharging the duties of public and private life, and involved your Royal Highness and your Royal House in inexpressible grief.

But at the same time that we lament the termination of Her late Majesty's glorious and unexampled reign, we cannot but derive consolation, as we sincerely and humbly hope your Royal Highness will, from the consideration that Her late Majesty's long and useful life was spent in a manner highly gratifying to all, and especially to those who had the happiness to know her virtues; and that her death was palliated by the endearing attentions of her affectionate and dutiful children.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Town Council of Inverary, and the seal of the said Burgh hereunto affixed, at Inverary, the 14th day of December 1818 years.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Town or Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Town or Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with this tender of our sincere condolence upon the great loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained by the death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty the Queen,

The inestimable qualities which were uniformly and eminently displayed by Her late Majesty in the discharge of the duties of her exalted station during the extended period of her life gave additional lustre to the Crown of our revered Monarch, have afforded an invaluable example to succeeding generations, and have impressed our minds, as well as those of all good subjects with sentiments of the deepest regret for the loss of so virtuous a Princess.

We earnestly take this opportunity of renewing to your Royal Highness the sincere assurance of our firm and unalterable attachment to our most Gracious Sovereign, to your Royal Person, and to all the Royal Family.

Given in Open Hall, under the common seal of the said Borough, this 19th day of December in the year of our Lord 1818.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, in Common Hall assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, presume to approach your Royal Highness with the tribute of our deep and unfeigned condolence on the death Her late Most Excellent Majesty Queen Charlotte.

Gratefully remembering those eminent virtues by which Her late Majesty, during a long and eventful reign, distinguished and adorned her exalted station, and so essentially promoted the best interests of religion and morality, we cannot but deplore her loss as a great national calamity. We should be deficient in duty were we not also to acknowledge our admiration of the bright example of filial attention and solicitude manifested by your Royal Highness towards your Royal Mother, particularly during the period of her severe and protracted sufferings. Conscious how soothing those attentions must have been to the last moments of your departed Parent, we trust that they will ever be a source of consolation to your Royal Highness.

We take this opportunity of renewing to your Royal Highness the expression of our most cordial attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, Family, and Government, and we fervently pray that your Royal Highness may long enjoy the affectionate regards of a dutiful and loyal people.

Tho. Burbidge, Town Clerk.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Council assembled, most respectfully entreat permission to offer our humble and sincere condolence on the deeply lamented death of Her late Majesty the Queen, a loss the more severely afflictive to your Royal Highness's family and to the nation, in consequence of the undissembled piety, domestic affection, discriminating charity, and strict decorum, displayed by Her Majesty through a long series of years, and amidst events of unexampled magnitude and difficulty.

Yet while we deplore the removal of so illustrious a personage from this world, whose example has diffused a salutary influence on all departments and ranks of society, we cannot refrain from expressing our conviction, that such high claims to the esteem and attachment of the people of these realms, will enable them as well as your Royal Highness to mingle the consolation of religious hope with the regrets of imperfect nature.

We will not presume to intrude longer on your Royal Highness's sorrow, than while we offer our assurances of loyalty and attachment to the Throne and Constitution of our Country, and our unalterable affection to your Royal Highness's Person and Government.

Given, under the seal of the said Borough, the 24th day of December in the year of our Lord 1818.

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Duke of Cornwall.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful, faithful, and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of Falmouth, most respectfully beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our most unfeigned sentiments of sorrow and condolence for the very severe affliction with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit your Royal Highness and the United Kingdom at large, by the death of your august Mother Her late illustrious Majesty Queen Charlotte, an example of female excellence in the highest station, but most particularly so of connubial and parental virtue, and the preservation of a dignified and select Court for upwards of half a century.

We deeply sympathise with your Royal Highness and other branches of your Royal House on this Dispensation of Providence; but humbly hope that the Almighty will support you under this heavy affliction, and enable your Royal Highness to continue and promote the honour and welfare of these dominions.

We beg leave to renew to your Royal Highness our unabated fidelity and cordial attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick, and to assure your Royal Highness of our zealous determination, and pledge by every means in our power to support the just exercise of the authority of Government, and to maintain the British Constitution as by law established.

Given, under the common seal of the Corporation, the 21st day of December, in the 59th year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1818.

By order of the Meeting,

Vivian, Town Clerk.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Dean, Archdeacon, Prebendaries, and Clergy, and Diocese of Canterbury, humbly approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of sincere condolence. In expressing our deep affliction for the death of Her late Majesty, we presume not to offer to your Royal Highness any other consolation than that which religion suggests.

The loss which your Royal Highness has sustained, and in which the nation largely shares, is too important to be dissembled, and too sacred to be disguised.

As long, Sir, as the duties of a Wife, illustrated from the Throne; the affections of a Mother, regulated by prudence and wisdom; the example of a virtuous Queen, shedding its influence over a great people, and commanding respect wherever it is felt, are virtues held in just estimation among us, so long, Sir, will the memory of Her late Majesty be dear to every subject of the British empire.

We could not, Sir, but observe with equal reverence and admiration, the piety and unwearied solicitude with which your Royal Highness watched over the protracted sufferings of your Royal Mother; and we pray God to bless your Royal Highness with the unceasing affections of your illustrious Family that surrounds you, and with the attachment and veneration of a brave, humane, and loyal people. Canuar.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our unfeigned sympathy and condolence to your Royal Highness on the loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have recently sustained, in the lamented death of the Queen. We also humbly beg to offer to your Royal Highness the testimony of our esteem and veneration for those excellencies of conduct, which, for a period of no common duration, so eminently distinguished Her Majesty, exhibiting not only to the British Court, but to the whole of the empire, the noblest and purest example of female virtue, the recollection of which, we earnestly hope, may operate beneficially and lastingly on the morals of every class of His Majesty's subjects—an object of the most vital importance to their happiness.

We avail ourselves of the present opportunity, though a melancholy one, of renewing our zealous and sincere declarations of attachment to His Majesty, to your Royal Highness and the Royal Family, and to the established Constitution of the Country. John Carthew, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects the Mayor, Bailiffs, Chief Burgesses, and Common Burgesses of the Corporation of Beaumaris, assembled this day at our Guildhall, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence upon the recent melancholy event of Her Majesty's death.

During a long series of eventful years the public character of Her Majesty in the exalted station she filled stood pre-eminent, which will appear conspicuous in the page of history. Nor do the private virtues of Her Majesty less deserve our admiration, whether we view her as an exemplary, pious, and affectionate Parent, or as the faithful Consort of our much beloved and venerable Monarch, to whom her attention was increasing in his declining years.

We beg leave to add our assurances to your Royal Highness how much we have admired your filial and unwearied attention to Her Majesty during her long protracted sufferings, and to express our unfeigned attachment to His Majesty's Person and Government, to your Royal Highness, and to every branch of your Royal Highness's illustrious House.

Signed at the request of a public meeting of the Burgesses, held at the Guildhall of the said Bouough of Beaumaris, the 26th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1818.

J. B. Sparroe, Mayor, on behalf of the Meeting.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Inhabitants of the antient and loyal City and County of Exeter, publicly convened, venture to approach your Royal Highness with heartfelt expressions of sorrow and condolence on the death of your Royal Mother, our late most gracious Queen; who presented to mankind a noble example of virtue and piety, which, whilst it tended to do honour to human nature, reflected lustre on the Throne.

The steadiness of the principles, and the consistency of her conduct were known, and duly appreciated by the world.

Sensible as we are of the invaluable importance of example in exalted stations in promoting the best interests of society, we cannot but poignantly lament the afflictive loss the nation has sustained.

The filial affection and tenderness which your Royal Highness evinced on all occasions to your Royal Parent, are universally admired, and must prove to your Royal Highness, a source of most consolatory reflections.

Taking as we do the most lively interest in every thing that relates to your Royal Highness's comfort and happiness, we humbly hope and doubt not that the suggestions of reason, and religion, will enable your Royal Highness to support the all-wise dispensations of Providence with calmness and resignation.

Signed at the request of the meeting.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of South Shields, in the County of Durham, and its Neighbourhood.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the populous and loyal Town of South Shields, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the tribute of our sincere condolence, on the demise of your venerable Mother, our long respected, and now deeply lamented Queen.

Sensible of the anxiety, that was ever evinced by Her late Majesty, to preserve the moral purity of the Palace, which she was called to grace, and to keep it free from those stains, which but too frequently contaminate the Courts of earthly Sover-eigas; alive also to the multiplied virtues of her private as well as public character, we most cordially sympathise with your Royal Highness in the loss you have sustained; but, as the memory of your revered Parent is enbalm'd with the tears, and entomb'd in that noblest of all mausoleums, the bosoms of her sorrowing subjects; we trust, that when time shall have drawn a veil over your present affliction, your Royal Highness will admit the consolation, which such a testimony of a kingdom's veneration is calculated to convey.

Allow us, Sir, in conclusion, to repeat the "twice told tale" of our firm and inviolable attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and of our hope that you may long continue to wield the sceptre of this free, prosperous, and happy country.

At the request, and in the name of a general meeting of the Inhabitants held at the Town Hall.

Robert Green, Chairman.

SUTTON INCLOSURE.

WHereas in and by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands in the manor and tything of Sutton next Woking, in the parish of Woking, in the county of Surrey," it is provided that the vicarial tythes and other payments in lieu thereof, arising within the said manor and tything of Sutton aforesaid (mortuaries, Easter offerings, and surplice fees excepted), shall be compensated for, by (inter alia) a yearly rent or sum to be paid to the Vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Woking, in the manner therein particularly mentioned; and it is thereby enacted that the Commissioners thereby appointed should ascertain from or by means of the London Gazette, the average price of a Winchester bushel of wheat, in the county of Surrey, for the term of fourteen years next preceeding the passing of the same Act, and should in and by the award to be made by them set forth such average price, and what quantity of wheat at that price the said yearly rent or sum at the time of making the said award would purchase; and that it should be lawful as well for the said Vicar and his successors, as the other persons therein mentioned, at their respective proper expence, by writing under their respective hands, to apply to the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Surrey, in the week after the close of the feast of Easter, next after the expiration of fourteen years after the making of the said award (having given notice of the intended application in manner therein expressed) to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be together with a third person to be chosen by such two persons arbitrators or referees, for enquiring into and ascertaining in manner therein also expressed, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Surrey, for the fourteen years then last past, which said three arbitrators or referees should by their report to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions, to be held in the first week after the Feast of Saint Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, set forth such average price, and in case it should by such report appear that such average price of a bushel of such wheat was more or less than the average price thereof set forth in the said award by the value of three pence or upwards, the yearly rent or sum payable for the preceeding fourteen years should be diminished or increased in proportion, and the exact amount of the yearly rent or sum to which the same should be so increased or diminished, should be declared by the order of the said Court, and the same should from the half-yearly day of payment preceeding such order remain and continue payable to the amount to which the same should be so declared, until the same should at the end of fourteen years be again varied, and so from time to time at the end of every term of fourteen years for ever; and whereas the said Commissioners, in and by their award in writing duly made and published, did direct and appoint that the yearly rent or sum of £75 4s. should be paid to the said Vicar, for the said first fourteen years commencing from Michaelmas day 1804; and did declare the average price of a Winchester bushel of wheat, in the said county, for the term of fourteen years next preceeding the passing of the said Act, to be the sum of 9s. 2½d. at which price the said yearly rent or sum of £75 4s. would purchase of wheat twenty quarters and four bushels. Now I John Flutter Chandler, Vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Woking aforesaid, do hereby give notice, that I do intend to apply to the Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden in and for the said county of Surrey, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be together with a third person to be chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees, for enquiring into and ascertaining by such means as in the said Act are directed, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Surrey for the fourteen years last past, and that in case it shall appear by the report to be delivered by the said arbitrators to the Court of Quarter Session, to be held in and for the said county, in the first week after the Feast of Saint Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, that such average price of a bushel of wheat is more than the average price thereof set forth in the said award by the value of three pence or upwards; I shall at such last mentioned Session apply to the said Court to increase the said yearly rent or sum in proportion, and to declare by order of the same Court the exact amount of the yearly rent or sum to which the same shall be so increased, in order that the same may from the half-yearly day of payment preceeding such order, remain and continue payable to the amount to which the same shall be so declared, until the same shall be again varied, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act of Parliament: as witness my hand this 15th day of December 1818.

J. F. Chandler.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for dividing and allotting the common and open fields, meadows, commonable lands, and waste grounds within the parish of Kelshall, in the county of Hertford," and in compliance with the provisions and directions therein contained, I, the Reverend Samuel Ryder Weston, Doctor of Divinity, Rector of the said parish, do hereby give notice, that I intend to apply at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Hertford, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person, to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from or by means of the London Gazette, the average price of a winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Hertford, for the twenty-one years then last past, in order that the said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, may by their report to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions to be holden on the first week after the Feast of the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, set forth such average price, with the view and for the purpose in the said Act stated.—Dated this 24th day of December 1818.

Samuel Ryder Weston Rector of Kelsall aforesaid.

Pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open common fields, meadows, pastures, woodlands, commons, and waste ground within the township, precincts, or territories of Sutton Cheney, alias Sutton Chenell, in the parish of Market Bosworth, in the county of Leicester," I, Thomas Wright, Clerk, Rector of the rectory and parish church of Market Bosworth aforesaid, give this notice, that I shall apply to the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Leicester, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, in manner directed by the said Act, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by such means as in the said Act prescribed, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Leicester, for the ten years then last past, in order that the corn rent or yearly sum by the said Act made payable to me and my successors, Rectors of the said rectory of Market Bosworth, may be increased or diminished according to the directions for variation contained in the said Act of Parliament.
