

Whitehall, January 2, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Monday the 21st of December last, the ship Mary, Williams, Master, from Limerick to London, ran on shore on the Goodwin Sands, when the greatest part of her cargo, consisting of butter, beef, pork, linen, &c. was taken out by boats belonging to Deal, Ramsgate, and the vicinity; and that by far the greatest part thereof has been secreted and stolen by persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall make a full disclosure of the facts, and shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices who may have been concerned in stealing the said property, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction of the said offender or offenders, by Mr. John Bennett, jun. Secretary to the Committee for managing the Affairs of Lloyd's, London.

Whitehall, December 22, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Wednesday the 16th instant, some evil disposed person or persons did feloniously and maliciously maim and wound two bull calves, the property of Mr. William Bound, of Hill Farm, situate at Hembury, in the county of Dorset, and also a cow the property of Thomas Pither, residing upon the said farm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. William Castleman, Solicitor, Wimborn, in the county of Dorset.

Whitehall, December 7, 1818

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a stack of oats belonging to Mr. Thomas Hobson, of the Parish of Great Glenn, in the county of Leicester, was maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons, on the evening of Thursday the 3d instant, at a field barn in the said parish;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said oat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the same. The said reward to be paid immediately after such conviction by the Constable of Great Glenn.
