TUESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1819.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects the Bailiff, Justice, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, in Council assembled, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the death of your Royal Mother, our late gracious Queen.

Though Providence mercifully prolonged the life of Her Majesty beyond the years generally allotted to mortals, and thereby prepared us to expect the awful event, yet we cannot without mournful sensations contemplate that hour which separated an exemplary Queen from a generous nation, and a tender parent from her affectionate offspring. The consideration however of Her Majesty's truly religious character which manifested itself in the habitual practice of every public and private virtue, inspires us with the hope that Her Majesty has only quitted a temporal for an eternal Crown, and we sincerely wish that your Royal Highness's firm persuasion of this consolatory truth, and the consciousness of those filial attentions paid to a beloved Mother during a protracted illness, and at solemn hour of death, may assuage the anguish of your Royal Highness and reconcile you to the painful separation.

While we thus sympathize with your Royal Highness in your sorrows, and ardently pray for their alleviation, we beg leave to express our cordial attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Family, and our hope that the pious example of our late revered Queen, and the filial devotion of your Royal Highness, may extend its influence beyond the present generation.

Given under the common Seal this 19th day of December 1818. Winter Frost, Bailiff.

[Transmitted by the Hon. Henry Lygon, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address of Condolence of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with all humility and respect, and to present our sincere sympathy and condolence on the demise of our Most Gracious Queen, an event so deeply afflicting to the Royal Family and to the whole British nation. While we lament that the Royal House is so soon again called to mourn under one of those severe dispensations of Providence, from which none are exempt, the recollection of Her deceased Majesty's virtues, and of the extensive period vouchsafed to their exercise, affords no inconsiderable source of consolation, and inspires the well grounded trust, that through the Redeemer's merits she has been advanced to that unfading crown which he prepares for all his faithful followers.

That your Royal Highness and all the Royal Family may be supported, on this occasion, by all the energy of our holy religion, and by its effectual application through the power of the God of all comfort, be enabled to cherish resignation to his wise and gracious will, and derive, from his afflictive dispensations, that christian fortitude and spiritual advancement which they are calculated to afford; these are, may it please your Royal Highness, the sincere and fervent prayers of His Ma-

His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

Signed in the name, and by the appointment of the Senatus Academicus, by

Huntly, Chancellor; Charles Forbes, Rector; W. L. Brown, S. S. T. D. and P. Principal.

[Transmitted by the Chancellor and Rector of the University, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergymen, and Freeholders of the County of Northampton, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of sincere condolence on the melancholy event which has deprived the country of one of its brightest examples of female virtue, and your Royal Highness and your illustrious family of a parent most justly beloved and revered.

We are too sensible of the moral advantages to be derived from the contemplation of those virtues which distinguished the conduct of Her late Majesty, during the trying period in which she shared the Throne of our beloved Sovereign, not to appreciate their value and deeply lament their loss. And as it is the nature of those virtues to endear the possessors of them in an especial manner to their nearest connections, we are aware that your Royal Highness's grief on the present occasion must be most poignant; but we trust that consolation will be derived from the reflection, that in the proportion that they have been exercised in this world they will be rewarded in the next.

Nor is this edifying example to be contemplated only as it respects the conspicuous duties of public life, in the mournful scene which preceded the melancholy event, we have beheld such an instance of patient suffering, and also of filial piety as must make a lasting impression on the minds of His Majesty's subjects, and increase the interest they have ever taken in what concerns the happiness of His Royal House.

Signed by order and on behalf of the meeting,

John Booth, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Northampton, Lord Lieutenant of the County, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark-upon-Trent, in the County of Nottingham, impressed with just sentiments of regret for the death of Her late Most Gracious Majesty Queen, Charlotte your Royal Mother, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence upon so melancholy an event, and to assure your Royal Highness that we sensibly feel the great loss which your Royal Highness, the whole of the Royal Family, and the Nation have sustained by the death of so good and virtuous a Queen.

The conjugal care which Her Majesty invariably manifested towards our beloved Monarch, and the unceasing solicitude with which she fulfilled her maternal duties towards a numerous and illustrious family justly claim our warmest praise, but it was not the private life alone of Her Majesty that was adorned with transcendent virtues, in her public sphere she was equally deserving of our admiration, and we cannot sufficiently eulogise the exemplary inflexibility with which Her Majesty maintained the unsullied purity of her court.

We readily avail ourselves of this opportunity of assuring your Royal Highness of our firm and faithful attachment to our most gracious Sovereign, and to your Royal Highness's Person and Family.

William Parker, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Bishop, Dean and other Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Deanery of Bristol, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most unfeigned expressions of condolence on a late melancholy event, which has deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved parent, and the kingdom at large of an illustrious example of piety and virtue.

A recent visitation of Providence, by which one of the brightest of all mortal prospects was in one moment obscured, had already, in no common degree, impressed us with a conviction of the delusiveness of the apparently best founded fabric of human hope, and of the instability of all human expectations.

We were not however prepared for another and so immediate a call upon your Royal Highness's domestic feelings, the accumulation of filial affliction to the poignancy of parental anguish. But as we have in both these mournful instances been humble partakers of your Royal Highness's sorrows, we trust that we are, at the same time, not insensible of the great moral effect which your Royal Highness's conduct, both as a child and a parent, has had upon each of these melancholy occasions.

The lamented subject of our present condolence is only so far to be deplored, as being removed from those earthly connections to whom she was so justly dear, and from that exalted station which she so much adorned by her example.

We can only humbly hope, that in every other view of this solemn dispensation, the virtue and charity which were so uniformly exerted here, have now obtained those rewards which are alone worthy the contemplation of a Christian.

Signed at the request of the Clergy assembled, by me Henry Beeke, Dean of Bristol. Chapter-Room, Bristol, 24th December 1818.

[Transmitted by the Dean of Bristol, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, for ourselves and the community of the said Burgh, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness and to offer our sincere condolence on the melancholy event by which your Royal Highness has been deprived of a parent, and this kingdom of a Queen. The many virtues which adorned her late most excellent Majesty in public and in private life; her dignified demeanour in her exalted station; her unsullied moral character; her anxiety and readiness at all times to protect and favour virtue, and her never failing resolution to repel and discourage vice; her extensive and useful benerolence; her most exemplary conduct as the loving wife of our most gracious and now afflicted Sovereign, during a union for such a length of time as seldom fall to the lot of mortals, and her anxiety and affection as a mother, altogether rendered the life of Her late Majesty an object of peculiar interest to every person in these realms capable of appreciating her many virtues, and her death a circumstance of great sorrow.

Under such a trying dispensation it is our sincere wish and prayer, that your Royal Highness and every member of the Royal Family, may possess that consolation which the christian religion holds out to those who, in seasons of affliction, rely on it as their support, and that feeling of melancholy satisfaction which every child must possess, when in laying the head of a beloved parent in the grave, he is sensible that in life he has tenderly, conscientiously, and affectionately discharged all the duties which religion and nature teach us we owe to our parents.

Signed in presence of, and by order of the Council, by the Magistrates, the 16th day of December 1818.

son, Treasurer; Andrew Lang, and George Young, Bailiffs.*

gistrate, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.*]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, in the County of Ayr.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Magistrates and Council of Kilmarnock, for ourselves and in the name of the community thereof, beg leave to approach the Throne at this time, with feelings of unfeigned sorrow, to express our sincere sympathy and condolence with the Royal Family and the nation at large, on the afflictevent of the death of our much lamented Queen.

The long period of her reign—in which many virtues both of a public and domestic nature, shone conspicuous in her conduct—had enabled her faithful subjects duly to appreciate her great worth and excellence, and the deprivation of an exalted personage, possessed of so many estimable qualities, must necessarily create in the mind the keenest regret and the most poignant affliction.

But under this severe and trying dispensation, it must afford matter of high consolation to your Royal Highness, and all concerned, that the uniform, well regulated life and fervent piety of your august parent, entitle us to be assured that she is now reaping the reward in a better kingdom, which has been promised to those who thus conform to the Divine Mandate.

Permit us again to take this opportunity of repeating our firm attachment to His Majesty, and your Royal Highness, and to pray that the United Kingdom and its extended provinces, may long flourish under the continued and mild sway of your august house.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment,
William Brown, and T. Greenshields, Magistrates.

sented by Viscount Sidmouth.*]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Corporation of Harwich.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of His Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Harwich, impressed with the deepest sensations of grief at the national calamity with which Providence has recently afflicted the people of these realms, most humbly approach your Royal Highness to present the unfeigned tribute of our sincere condolence in the filial sorrow which now must fill your Royal Bosom.

Scarcely had the destroying hand of death shrouded in dust the remains of the nation's best hope, and time began to soften the poignancy of our sorrow at that event, when the funeral knell again reverberates in our ears, and announces to us the awful intelligence of the departure of your Royal Highness's affectionate Parent, our much regretted Queen.

United as we are to your Royal House and Family, by the purest principles of loyalty and affection, and keenly as we participate in all your domestic sufferings, we venture to express a hope that your Royal Highness will seek consolation in the all-wise decrees of Heaven, and find it in the sympathies and assurances of a faithful, loyal, and obedient nation.

Given under our Common Seal, at a Court of Common Council holden at the Guildhall of this Borough, the 26th day of December 1818.

[*Transmitted by the Right Honourable N. Vansittart, and the Right Honourable Charles Bathurst, M.P.
for the Borough, and presented by Viscount
Sidmouth.*]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects the President and Council and Fellows of the Royal Society of London, beg leave to approach your Royal Person with the expression of our grief and sincere condolence on the death of your Royal Mother, our late most excellent and gracious Queen.

Extended as the period was in which her Majesty was permitted to exercise her many public and private virtues, the termination of her life is felt, as if it had been early or sudden.

Endeared to the whole nation by the purest conjugal affection to our beloved Sovereign, and still more, if possible, by the most assiduous care of him under the afflictions, with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit his latter days; her Majesty was no less justly admired for the constant exertion of every amiable disposition, both within the Royal Family, and towards all who properly appealed to her indulgence or benevolence; nor was our lamented Queen less esteemed for an exemplary propriety of conduct in every thing connected with her high situation, not only affording to others the purest model, but inflexibly demanding a due regard to character in all who were permitted to approach the court.

To these just sentiments of sorrow and attachment, we have only to add our earnest expressions of admiration, for the filial attentions unremittingly shewn to her Majesty, by your Royal Highness, throughout her long and afflicting illness, together with our assurances of the most steady and unalterable loyalty to His Majesty, to your Royal Highness, and all other Branches of your Illustrious Family.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Sir Joseph Banks, G.C.B. the President, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick, Prince of Wales and Duke of Cornwall, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, REGENT.

WE, your Royal Highness's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Freemen, Minister, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunheved, otherwise Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, beg leave to approach your Royal Person to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the death of our late venerable Queen Charlotte, and to assure your Royal Highness how sincerely we participate in your affliction.

The sorrow which pervades all ranks of His Majesty's subjects is considerably assuaged by the recollection of the many virtues which adorned her character, and that the long life with which it pleased the Almighty to bless her, was employed in the strict observance of those public and private duties which became her station as a Queen and Parent.

Neither does your Royal Highness's filial conduct pass unnoticed by your faithful subjects, who will never cease to remember that the dying pillow of your Royal Parent was supported, and her every wish anticipated by the dutiful and affectionate attentions of your Royal Highness.

To this address of condolence, we humbly beg to add our assurances of unfeigned loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness and Family.

[Transmitted by Richard Wilson, Esq., and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to testify the deep sense we entertain of the afflicting loss which your Royal Highness, the Members of your Royal House, and the subjects of these realms have sustained in the death of Her Most Excellent Majesty, the Queen, consort of our revered Sovereign, and with hearts full of loyalty and of duty, and attachment to your Royal Highness, to express our warmest sympathy and condolence on that melancholy event.

When we reflect that a reign of unusual duration was passed by Her late Majesty in the undeviating practice of piety, benevolence, and every christian virtue; in the dignified discharge of the obligations of her high station, and in setting a brilliant example of the performance of the important duties of a Wife and a Mother, to the encouragement of her subjects in the practice of those virtues, and in the public discountenance of those who were remiss in the observance of them; and feeling as we do, that the strength and energies of a nation depend upon its moral character, while we are impressed with the warmest gratitude to Providence for vouchsafing us the blessing of such a reign, we are penetrated with feelings of zeal and unfeigned sorrow at being deprived of an example which proves to the world, that the virtues best calculated to foster the relations, and add to the happiness of private and domestic life in all other classes of society, are those, which most dignify and add lustre to a Throne.

Permit us, Sir, in expressing the feelings of our sorrow, not only for the loss of your Royal Highness's most excellent Parent, but for the protracted sufferings which preceded her dissolution, to say, that it has been a source of happiness to us to observe, as it will be matter of consolation to your Royal Highness to the last hour of your life to reflect, that the anguish of those sufferings was assuaged by the balm of filial tenderness, and by the endearing and unremitting attentions which Her Majesty received from your Royal Highness, and those Members of your Royal House, who were present to pay these last tributes of gratitude and affection.

To these expressions of our sympathy in an event, which casts a cloud over the prosperity the nation has enjoyed under the rule of your Royal Highness, we beg to be permitted to add the assurance of our inviolable fidelity to the government exercised by your Royal Highness in the name and on the behalf of His most sacred Majesty, of our attachment to your Royal Person, and of the confidence we entertain, that by the wisdom of your Royal Highness's counsels, the glories the nation has obtained, and the advantages it enjoys, will, with the blessing of God, be perpetuated to us, and our posterity through ages under the government of your Royal Highness, and a succession of Princes of the illustrious house of Hanover.

Signed at the request, and on behalf of the County of Surrey, at a Public Meeting, held at Epsom, the 19th day of December 1818.

Henry Peters, Sheriff.

Unto His Royal Highness George, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, humbly beg leave on the present afflicting occasion to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere expression of sympathy in the heavy loss which your Royal Highness, the Royal Family, and the nation at large have sustained in the lamented death of Her late Majesty, Queen Charlotte.

The more we reflect on the many princely and christian virtues which adorned the long, useful, and exemplary life of the departed Consort of our venerable Sovereign, and more particularly on her distinguished conjugal attachment, zeal for the purity of the British Court, and her exertion no less active than unostentatious in behalf of the destitute and afflicted, we are the more deeply convinced, that the event, which conveyed so much sorrow to the affectionate bosom of your Royal Highness, and other Members of the Royal Family, has been a severe public calamity.

We deeply regret the continued affliction of our venerable Sovereign, and beg to offer our sincere prayers to Heaven upon his behalf, and that your Royal Highness may long enjoy the loyal attachment of the British nation.

Thomas Graham, Precess.

[Transmitted by Thomas Graham, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester, beg permission to offer to your Royal Highness our unfeigned and heartfelt condolence upon the great and severe loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained in the late melancholy event of the decease of your Royal Mother, our venerable, revered, and beloved Queen, which condolence, however inadequate to the distressing occasion, may yet be acceptable to your Royal Highness as proof of sincere attachment to your family.

The recollection of your dutiful and affectionate attention to your Royal Parent through her long and painful illness, will doubtless be ever grateful to your feelings, and with the deep and genuine regret and sympathy of the whole nation, we sincerely trust, will prove some consolation to your Royal Highness under so heavy an affliction.

Permit us, Sir, to add to our imperfect expressions of condolence, an assurance of our attachment and fidelity to our venerable and justly beloved Monarch, to your Royal Highness, and to the House of Brunswick, and our ardent hope, that when in the dispensation of Providence, that Sovereign shall be torn from his affectionate people, your Royal Highness may long continue to wield the sceptre of these realms, and protect the liberties and promote happiness of your subjects.

Joseph Boughton, Bailiff.

[Transmitted by John Edmund Dowdewell, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Chesterfield, in the County of Derby, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the deepest concern, and to express our most sincere condolence at the severe and affecting loss which your Royal Highness has sustained by the death of Her late Majesty, the Queen of these realms.

In this affliction, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that we participate as sensibly as any of His Majesty's subjects, but the sad catastrophe we deplore is greatly mitigated by the consoling reflection, that your Royal Parent has merely exchanged a temporal for an eternal Crown.

We entreat permission to renew our assurances to your Royal Highness of our firm attachment to our venerable Sovereign,—to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and our determined resolution to support the Crown of these dominions to the utmost of our power.

Given under the common seal, the 25th day of December 1818.

[Transmitted by Edward Miller Mundy, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Council assembled, humbly beg to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the melancholy event of the death of Her Majesty, our most gracious Queen Charlotte.

During the long period that Her Majesty graced the Throne of these realms, we have seen her pursuing one undeviating course of public duty, and private virtue, giving to her exalted station its truest dignity, and affording a most salutary pattern to the whole country, of religious and moral excellence. Amidst the feelings of despondency and regret, that the loss of such a personage cannot fail to excite, it is consolatory to reflect that her last moments were not only cheered by the recollection of a well spent life, and by those hopes which such a recollection justly inspires, but that they were soothed also by the tender assiduities of filial affection.

Whilst in these your own pious and dutiful attentions, your Royal Highness will seek the highest sources of consolation, we are anxious to pay this last tribute of respect to the revered memory of Her Majesty, in testimony of our devoted attachment to your Royal Highness's house, and in the hope, that your Royal Highness may find some alleviation of your sorrows in the sympathy of your people.

Given under the common seal of the said City, the 10th day of December.

William Elias Taunton, Town Clerk.

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Magistrates, and Council of the United Towns Corporate of Port Glasgow and Newark.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the United Towns Corporate of Port Glasgow and Newark, approach your Royal Highness with the deepest feelings of regret, to offer our heartfelt condolence on the lamented death of your illustrious Mother, Her late Majesty, Queen Charlotte.

While we reflect on the exemplary manner in which Her Majesty discharged every duty, public and private, the uniform propriety of her conduct, the high regard she invariably evinced for those virtues which tend to dignify even the most exalted station, her incessant and unwearied attention to our beloved Sovereign during his long and lamented indisposition, which rendered her truly deserving of the affection, and gratitude of the British nation, and while we most sincerely participate in the sorrow of your Royal Highness for the loss of your august Parent, which is truly a national loss,—we trust, the beneficial effects of Her Majesty's bright example will continue to be felt for generations to come, and that her memory will long be cherished in the hearts of your Royal Highness's dutiful and loyal subjects.

Signed in name, in presence, and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council of the United Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark, in Council assembled, within the Council Chamber of Port Glasgow, the 21st day of December 1818 years, by me; the oldest Bailie, and Chief Magistrate of said Towns.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

TO permit His Majesty's loyal and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Macclesfield, in the County Palatine of Chester, to offer their sincere condolence on the loss sustained by the death of our late most gracious Queen.

If the universal sympathy of a people, by whom virtue in all its excellencies have not, we trust, ceased to be justly appreciated, can offer anything of comfort to your Royal Highness, we do confidently believe that such consolation is amply your own.

We do not presume to obtrude ourselves on private griefs, nor to counsel your Royal Highness how to submit with resignation to the dispensations of Divine Providence. It is our parts to offer only such alleviation of distress as may be found in the condolence of fellow sufferers. For we are not less than your Royal Highness, most painfully sensible of the grievous loss sustained by the country at large.

The influence of those pure and dignified principles, which guided every action of her late most gracious Majesty, was felt and valued by every generous-hearted British subject.

We have experienced and acknowledged the blessing of so bright and engaging an example from the Throne, and the remembrance of Her Majesty will long live in the hearts of all who know that righteousness is the best and firmest security for the welfare and preservation of our land.

But while the sentiments of the sincerest regret have followed Her Majesty to the grave, we have not been regardless, nor unmindful of the high and admirable example of filial affection, which has been held out to us in the person of your Royal Highness.

If your august and illustrious Mother has taught our parents how to bring us up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, your Royal Highness has not less ably taught our children how to honour their father and mother.

May your Royal Highness be pleased to accept this humble tribute of loyalty and affection, and be enabled to find comfort and consolation from him, who is abundantly able to bind up the broken hearted, and to speak peace and comfort to every soul.

Signed on behalf of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield.

Joseph Tunnicliffe, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Chester.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Chester, most respectfully beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, in order to express our deep and unfeigned sorrow on the decease of your Royal Mother, Her Most Gracious Majesty, the Queen, of blessed memory, and how strongly we participate in the grief of your Royal Highness, for a loss deplored and lamented by the whole of the British empire; a loss rendered more afflicting and severe by the recollection of the many virtues that adorned her public and her private life, by which her high situation became during the whole period of her reign, not only a blessing, but a bright example for imitation to all her, now disconsolate subjects.

Under the pressure of this heavy dispensation of Divine Providence, we cannot refrain from also acknowledging and expressing the heartfelt satisfaction, and gratification afforded to our feelings, when we consider the dutiful, anxious, and unremitting attention displayed by your Royal Highness as a Son, during the long and painful illness of your Royal Mother; and we do fervently and devoutly pray that your Royal Highness may long enjoy the love and gratitude of a loyal and affectionate people.

Henry Charles Aston, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weymouth, and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorset.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weymouth, and Melcombe Regis, humbly offer to your Royal Highness this testimony of our condolence on the melancholy occasion which has lately deprived your Royal Highness of a tender Parent, and this nation of a Most Gracious Queen.

We do not compare our sorrow with the affliction of your Royal Highness, or of those to whom Her Majesty was endeared by filial affection, but this Town having frequently been honoured by the presence of Her late Majesty, and having had frequent opportunities of witnessing her affable condescension and kindness, we may be allowed deeply to deplore the event. But above all, taking into our consideration the excellence of her character in moral purity, and in pious devotion, we contemplate with regret the advantages of which the loss of her royal example has deprived the people of this realm.

The death of Her late Majesty we regard as an infliction of national calamity, and we are aware that the best alleviation of it, exists in patient resignation to the will and dispensations of the Almighty, and we trust to his provident goodness for the support of your Royal Highness, and for the continuation of those blessings which the British empire has ever enjoyed under the protection of your illustrious House, and which the vigilance of your Royal Highness has secured to us during the ever to be lamented indisposition of our beloved Sovereign.

We further beg leave to add the assurance of our devoted attachment to your august Family, and to the person of your Royal Highness. We trust, also, that the universal sympathy of this nation may in some degree contribute to alleviate the affliction of your Royal Highness on this most distressing occasion.

James Bower, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Masterton Ure, Esq. M. P. for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Vyanders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newport, in the County of Cornwall, respectfully request permission to approach your Royal Highness to express our heartfelt sorrow at the death of our late venerable Queen.

The bright example of female purity which she uniformly exhibited to her subjects, and the faithful discharge of those duties which were inseparably connected with her exalted station, will render her memory deservedly dear to all ranks of His Majesty's subjects.

The affectionate and filial conduct of your Royal Highness during the protracted illness of your revered Parent, does not pass unnoticed by His Majesty's faithful subjects, and we trust, that the recollection of your dutiful solicitude, and the amiable character of our lamented Queen, will mitigate the sorrow of your Royal Highness.

To this Address of condolence we humbly beg to add our assurances of unfeigned loyalty and attachment.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Gloucester, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the sincere expressions of our sorrow for the melancholy event, which has deprived your Royal Highness, and the nation, of a Mother, to whom your Royal Highness was so affectionately and deservedly attached, and of a Queen, who, for more than half a century, shared the British Throne, ever shewing a bright example of public and private virtue.

But we trust it will be as much a consolation to your Royal Highness, as it has been a blessing to His Majesty's subjects, that Her Majesty was allowed to pass the ordinary term of human existence, and, that her last days were soothed by the recollection of a well spent life, and the attentions of a dutiful and affectionate Family.

Signed, at the request of the meeting.

David Ricardo, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, in a General Meeting assembled.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most deep and heartfelt condolence, on the loss which your Royal Highness, your illustrious Family, and the United Empire have sustained by the death of Her late Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

The kind and affectionate attention which was shewn by your Royal Highness, and the other august Members of Her Majesty's Family, during an almost hopeless and unusually protracted illness, has, if possible, increased the general sympathy throughout the nation in the irreparable loss which all have sustained.

We witnessed with gratitude and veneration, that during a reign of above half a century, the purity and excellence of conduct, by which Her Majesty was so eminently distinguished, maintained a character in the British Court, that reflected the highest honour on the nation.

We beg to renew the assurance of our respectful and unshaken attachment to your Royal Highness, and of our deep and grateful sense of the prosperity and security which the United Kingdom has enjoyed during the auspicious reign of the best of Kings, and under the Government of your Royal Highness.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, by our Preses, Alexander Earl of Home, Lord Lieutenant of the County, at Greenlaw, the 22d day of December 1818. Home.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Home, Lord Lieutenant of the Shire, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's-Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer the sincere expressions of our sympathy on the afflictive loss so recently sustained by your Royal Highness, and by every Branch of the Royal Family. The excellencies of Her Majesty's character, adorned peculiarly by the conjugal and maternal virtues, have been universally confessed and celebrated; and it has proved an interesting gratification to the public mind, that the filial piety which soothed the long continued sufferings of the Royal Parent was equally amiable and exemplary. In paying this just tribute of admiration, and of praise to the memory of one, who is now beyond the reach of earthly honours, we are only discharging a debt of gratitude and duty; and we are assured that the whole United Kingdom will concur in the reverential observation of those qualities in a Prince, which may be imitated by the highest and the humblest of mankind.

Given under our common seal, at our Guildhall, the 21st day of December in the year 1818.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Oxford, Lord Walpole, and Sir Martin B. Folkes, Bart. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Council assembled, impressed with the deepest sorrow, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our heartfelt condolence on the ever to be lamented death of our revered Queen your Royal Mother.

When we take a review of the long life of Her late Excellent Majesty, and consider Her as a Queen, Consort, Parent, or Benefactress, we find her uniformly good, virtuous, and amiable—a pattern of human excellence. How great then must that loss be which your Royal Highness, your illustrious Family, and the nation have experienced.

We beg to assure your Royal Highness that we most sincerely participate in the sorrow which this afflictive event has occasioned to your Royal Highness; and that our most fervent prayers are offered to the Almighty (under whose protection alone we live) to afford consolation, comfort, and long life to your Royal Highness; and to grant that your august House may to the latest posterity sway the sceptre of these realms. In testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our common seal this 1st day of December 1818. J. Clarke, Mayor.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the administration of the “ Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty’s Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty’s illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty ;” it was amongst other things enacted, that if Her Majesty the Queen should depart this life during the time that the care of His Majesty’s Royal Person should be committed to Her Majesty, according to the provisions of the said Act, the Regent should forthwith order and direct a Proclamation, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be issued and published declaring the same: and whereas by another Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act to alter and amend certain of the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to provide for the administration of the Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty’s Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty’s illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty ;” it was amongst other things enacted, that if the case should happen in which it was enacted by the said Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty, that the Regent should forthwith order and direct such Proclamation to be issued and published as aforesaid, and the same should happen upon or after the day appointed by any Writ of Summons then issued, for calling and assembling a new Parliament, and before such new Parliament should have met and sat as a Parliament, then, and in such case, the Regent should forthwith cause such a Proclamation as aforesaid to be issued and published, declaring that such case had happened, and requiring the new Parliament either to convene and sit at Westminster immediately after such Proclamation should have been published, or upon some day to be mentioned in such Proclamation, and being within sixty days to be computed from the date of the said Proclamation; and in such case the Parliament so convening and sitting should be, and be deemed a Parliament to all intents and purposes, under the provisions of the said last mentioned Acts: and whereas the Parliament which was summoned to meet at Westminster on the fourth day of August last, hath not yet met and sat as a Parliament, but stands prorogued to the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing: and whereas Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, during the time that the care of His Majesty’s Royal Person was committed to Her Majesty: now we do hereby by this Proclamation (ordered and directed to be issued and published, and issued and published under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland), declare, that Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, and We do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, publish, declare, and require, that the new Parliament shall be held, convene, and sit, at Westminster, on the fourteenth day of January now next ensuing, for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly on the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We do hereby further publish and declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, that the said Parliament shall on the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing, be further prorogued to the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We have, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, given Order to the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Writ Patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, for proroguing the same accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this nineteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty’s reign.

GOD save the KING.

Whitehall, January 4, 1819.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Kingston Fleet, of Andover, in the county of Hants, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed John Myers, of Beverley, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, January 5, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a wheat stack standing amongst several others, belonging to Mr. John Wolton, of Eyke, in the county of Suffolk, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed in the night of Monday the 28th ultimo, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty’s most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said wheat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the rewards hereafter mentioned, are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Suffolk Fire Office;

And a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the said Mr. John Wolton.

Whitehall, January 5, 1819

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the body of Mr. John Thomas Taylor, son of Mr. Taylor, Surgeon, of Goswell-Street, in the parish of Saint Luke, in the county of Middlesex, has been found in the New River; and that there is reason to suppose the said John Thomas Taylor was, on Thursday the 10th day of December last, robbed, murdered, and thrown into the said river, near the Iron-Bridge, at the foot of Hornsey-Wood, in the Green-Lanes, leading to Southgate, when, amongst other things, there was taken from his person a silver box cover hunting watch, maker's name "Joseph Mears, 1814," to which was attached a gold curb chain, a small gold seal, without any engraving, and another larger, with a white cornelian stone, the engraving, a tower, and a ship sailing;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually murdered the said John Thomas Taylor), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by J. M. Fisher, Esq. Solicitor, No. 10, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn, London.

Whitehall, January 2, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Monday the 21st of December last, the ship Mary, Williams, Master, from Limerick to London, ran on shore on the Goodwin Sands, when the greatest part of her cargo, consisting of butter, beef, pork, linen, &c. was taken out by boats belonging to Deal, Ramsgate, and the vicinity; and that by far the greatest part thereof has been secreted and stolen by persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall make a full disclosure of the facts, and shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices who may have been concerned in stealing the said property, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction of the said offender or offenders, by Mr. John Bennett, jun. Secretary to the Committee for managing the Affairs of Lloyd's, London.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Wednesday the 16th instant, some evil disposed person or persons did feloniously and maliciously maim and wound two bull calves, the property of Mr. William Bound, of Hill Farm, situate at Henbury, in the county of Dorset, and also a cow the property of Thomas Pither, residing upon the said farm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. William Castleman, Solicitor, Wimborn, in the county of Dorset.

Whitehall, December 7, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a stack of oats belonging to Mr. Thomas Hobson, of the Parish of Great Glenn, in the county of Leicester, was maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons, on the evening of Thursday the 3d instant, at a field barn in the said parish;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said oat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the same. The said reward to be paid immediately after such conviction by the Constable of Great Glenn.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

To Chemist and Ivory Black Manufacturers.

TO be Sold by Auction, by Mr. Bonbonous, at the Commercial Rooms, Bristol, on Tuesday the 19th day of January 1819, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, by order of and before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued against George Watts and William Bush, Bankrupts, in one lot;

All those extensive and highly eligible freehold premises situate in Pipe-Lane, in the City of Bristol, lately occupied by Messrs. Watts and Bush, Ivory Black Manufacturers and Chemists, together with the capital steam engine of sixteen horse power, mills, mill stones, boilers, machinery, and various implements and fixtures used by them in the manufactory of Ivory black, Spanish brown ochre, glauher salts, and other chemicals.

These premises are most excellently adapted for the carrying on either of the above businesses, and being of great extent may be easily converted into a manufactory for any other purpose. The steam engine, mills, &c. have been recently erected, and the whole fitted up at a large expence, possession will be given on completion of the purchase.

For a view of the premises and conditions of sale, please to apply to Messrs. Bevan and Brittan, or Messrs. Leman, Solicitors, Bristol.
