

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1819.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects the Bailiff, Justice, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, in Council assembled, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the death of your Royal Mother, our late gracious Queen.

Though Providence mercifully prolonged the life of Her Majesty beyond the years generally allotted to mortals, and thereby prepared us to expect the awful event, yet we cannot without mournful sensations contemplate that hour which separated an exemplary Queen from a generous nation, and a tender parent from her affectionate offspring. The consideration however of Her Majesty's truly religious character which manifested itself in the habitual practice of every public and private virtue, inspires us with the hope that Her Majesty has only quitted a temporal for an eternal Crown, and we sincerely wish that your Royal Highness's firm persuasion of this consolatory truth, and the consciousness of those filial attentions paid to a beloved Mother during a protracted illness, and at solemn hour of death, may assuage the anguish of your Royal Highness and reconcile you to the painful separation.

While we thus sympathize with your Royal Highness in your sorrows, and ardently pray for their alleviation, we beg leave to express our cordial attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Family, and our hope that the pious example of our late revered Queen, and the filial devotion of your Royal Highness, may extend its influence beyond the present generation.

Given under the common Seal this 19th day of December 1818. Winter Frost, Bailiff.

[Transmitted by the Hon. Henry Lygon, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address of Condolence of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with all humility and respect, and to present our sincere sympathy and condolence on the demise of our Most Gracious Queen, an event so deeply afflicting to the Royal Family and to the whole British nation. While we lament that the Royal House is so soon again called to mourn under one of those severe dispensations of Providence, from which none are exempt, the recollection of Her deceased Majesty's virtues, and of the extensive period vouchsafed to their exercise, affords no inconsiderable source of consolation, and inspires the well grounded trust, that through the Redeemer's merits she has been advanced to that unfading crown which he prepares for all his faithful followers.

That your Royal Highness and all the Royal Family may be supported, on this occasion, by all the energy of our holy religion, and by its effectual application through the power of the God of all comfort, be enabled to cherish resignation to his wise and gracious will, and derive, from his afflictive dispensations, that christian fortitude and spiritual advancement which they are calculated to afford; these are, may it please your Royal Highness, the sincere and fervent prayers of His Ma-