SATURDAY, JANUARY 9, 1819.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Counsellors of the Burgh of Jedburgh.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE beg humbly to approach your Royal Highness with expressions of the deepest sorrow and condolence at the late mournful event with which it has pleased God to visit your Royal Highness, and the nation at large.

The uniform propriety and dignity of Her late Majesty's public conduct,—her faithful discharge of every parental and conjugal duty,—and her Christian and pious resignation under suffering, will be long remembered, and transmit to posterity a pattern worthy of imitation.

That your Royal Highness, whose filial affection, on this mournful occasion, has made a deep and favourable impression upon our minds, may long survive to be the guardian of the religion and liberty of the British empire, is our most fervent prayer.

Signed, in presence and by authority this 26th day of December in the year of our Lord 1818. William Hope, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk., and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales and Duke of Cornwall, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Truro, and the adjoining streets, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the recent visitation of Providence, by which your Royal Highness has been deprived of a revered Parent, and the country of its most illustrious pattern of female excellence.

But whilst we thus express our grief, we trust that your Royal Highness will, in common with the rest of His Majesty's subjects, feel some consolation in the reflection that the example thus afforded cannot fail to promote those religious and moral principles which, under Providence, are the firmest foundations of national as of individual happiness.

We further trust that your Royal Highness will derive additional consolation from a consciousness of having, during a period of protracted suffering, watched with incessant solicitude over the couch of your revered Parent, thereby exhibiting an example of filial piety, which has been justly appreciated by a loyal people.

Signed, on behalf of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants, Jas. Kempe, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the death of Her Majesty our revered Queen, truly sympathising with your Royal Highness and the Royal Family, in lamenting the national loss of a beloved and honoured Mother.

Through a long and eventful period Her Majesty's deportment as Queen, Wife, and Parent attracted gratitude and admiration. In Her Majesty's Court and Household her example was edifying,—her conduct the model of purity, piety, and decorum.

In the charities and engaging qualities of domestic life in unremitting attention and tenderness to our beloved and afflicted Sovereign,—Her Majesty's memory will long be cherished by every British family.

During a tedious, painful, and hopeless malady, we have beheld in your Royal Highness, and your illustrious Relatives, filial piety, co-operating with maternal affection and devout resignation, and are gratified by the reflection that history will transmit to posterity, a name and character so congenial to British feeling, and so highly entitled to permanent gratitude and imitation.

Given under the common seal of the said City, the 7th day of December, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord Christ 1818.

[Transmitted by William Smith and R. H. Gurney, Esqrs. Members of Parliament for the City, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Hertford, in the County of Hertford.

SIR,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Hertford, humbly beg permission to approach your Royal Highness with the most unfeigned sorrow for the event which has recently involved your Royal Highness, your illustrious Family, and the whole British Nation in common affliction.

On our hearts are deeply impressed the remembrance of Her late Majesty's virtues.—The affectionate and faithful companion of the best of Kings, the excellent and attentive Mother of a numerous Family, the kind and unostentatious friend of the indigent and uneducated, and the pious worshipper of her God, Her late Majesty set an example of private virtue whilst she discharged the duties connected with her exalted station.

We trust that the same powerful moral effect which Her late Majesty's example had on her own generation, will be transmitted to generations yet unborn, whilst her virtues will ever live in the remembrance of those who witnessed them.

During the long and painful illness which the Almighty was pleased to inflict on Her late Majesty, and amidst her pious resignation to His Will, we know not how to express our admiration of your Royal Highness's unwearied and dutiful attachment to your Royal Mother.

Your reward is in higher hands than ours, but we cannot refrain from offering even our humble testimony to the filial tenderness and consolatory attention evinced by your Royal Highness on all occasions, and more especially at the awful and closing moment of Her Majesty's mortal existence.

We embrace this opportunity to express our dutiful attachment to your Royal Highness, to your Royal and illustrious House, and to the glorious and happy Constitution of this United Kingdom.

[Transmitted by Viscount Cranborne, M. P. for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Lincoln, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of sincere condolence on the recent decease of Her late Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

In offering this just tribute to the memory of Her late Majesty, we cannot but advert with the highest admiration and respect to the many domestic virtues that adorned her character and shone with peculiar lustre in the exalted station which it was her destiny to fill. We reflect with satisfaction and gratitude on the example, which, during a life prolonged beyond the usual period of human existence, she uniformly displayed of moral and religious conduct, and which not only maintained in dignity and purity, the manners of her Court, but also under the blessing of Providence, shed an influence so extensive and beneficial over the community at large, that it eminently contributed to repress in this country the alarming progress of licentious and demoralizing principles.

Under this domestic visitation the feelings of your Royal Highness will derive their most effectual consolation, in the truly filial piety and the unremitting attention with which, during a lingering illness, your Royal Highness watched the sufferings of your afflicted Parent, and mitigated the pangs of her last moments.

We trust your Royal Highness will permit us to express our most anxious and fervent wishes for a long and uninterrupted continuance of happiness, comfort, and prosperity to your Royal Highness, and to all the Branches of your illustrious House.

Signed, at the request and on the behalf of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Freeholders of the County of Lincoln, as authorised at a Public County Meeting convened by me, as Sheriff, pursuant to a requisition for that purpose.

J. C. Lucas Calcraft, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Earl Brownlow, Lord Lieutenant of the County, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of the Ancient City of Chichester, presume to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the demise of our late gracious Queen, your august Mother. Though it is an event which could not have been unexpected, both from the advanced age of Her Majesty, and the severity of her disease, yet it must be a subject of real regret when it is considered that a pattern is lost to this country, nay, even to the world, of domestic and public virtues, which have rarely been equalled, and never exceeded. For in the annals of history where can we find a Queen who has in the several relations of Consort and Mother been more truly exemplary, or who has more uniformly supported the dignity of her exalted station, by at all times encouraging virtue and merit, and by never permitting vice or indecorum, though accompanied by brilliancy of rank, to obtrude themselves into her royal presence; and where can we find a heart more alive to the impulses of charity, or a hand so unostentatious in the dispensation of it, as was manifested in the Person of Her sacred Majesty.

While we lay at your Royal Highness's feet these expressions of our sentiments, we cannot refrain from observing that your Royal Highness must have a far greater source of comfort in your own breast, than can be derived from any external circumstances, in the gratifying reflection that during a lingering and agonizing illness, your Royal Highness by the most unremitting attentions alleviated, as much as possible, the sufferings of your beloved and afflicted Parent.

In testimony whereof we have caused the common seal of our city to be hereunto affixed this 18th day of December in the year of our Lord 1818, and in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

[Transmitted by E. F. Utterson, Esq. the Recorder, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Deputies from the several Congregations of Protestant Dissenters in and about the Cities of London and Westminster.

May it please your Royal Highness,

EVER zealously attached to the illustrious House of which your Royal Highness is already become the efficient Head, and impelled by loyalty and gratitude to embrace all proper occasions of expressing how deeply we feel ourselves concerned in every event which materially affects the interests and happiness of our Sovereign and his august Family; we now beg permission most respectfully to offer to your Royal Highness the tribute of our humble sympathy on account of the last afflictive stroke which has fallen upon you.

We cannot but recollect, Sir, how lately we had to perform the melancholy duty of condoling with your Royal Highness on an overwhelming calamity of a similar nature, and we trust that under those repeated afflictions, it must be yet consolatory to your heart to know how highly those dear and illustrious Relations, whose loss you mourn, have been appreciated by a loyal people.

In your revered and lamented Parent, Sir, the nation has been accustomed to admire, not only an exemplary personal illustration of the conjugal and domestic virtues, but to venerate a Queen, who for more than half a century, has approved herself the vigilant and steady guardian of public morals, in that exalted circle, to which she gave dignity and lustre, and from which she shed an influence on society, most extensive and beneficial; while the Almighty sees fit, in His unerring wisdom, to give an important and striking lesson to mankind, by visiting those in the highest sublunary stations with domestic misfortune, in a degree rarely to be paralleled even in the humble walks of life, we earnestly hope that He will be graciously pleased so to alleviate and compensate to your Royal Highness these severe inflictions, as to render them conducive to your own truest happiness, and to the permanent welfare of the great country over which His Providence has appointed you to preside.

Signed, by order and on behalf of the Meeting.

William Smith, Chairman.

[Transmitted by William Smith, Esquire, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Fife, in a general meeting assembled this 17th day of December 1818 years, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the most profound respect, and to offer the expression of our deep and unfeigned condolence on the irreparable loss which your Royal Highness, your august House, and the Country, has sustained by the much lamented death of Her Majesty the Queen.

The exemplary piety and exalted virtues which have uniformly distinguished and adorned Her Majesty's conduct, during a reign of more than half a century, have rendered Her Majesty's character and memory justly dear to the people of these realms, and impressed the minds of His Majesty's faithful subjects universally with sentiments of admiration and gratitude, mixed with the deepest regret for the misfortune with which the nation is now afflicted.

Permit us, Sir, to advert, with particular interest, to the unceasing and endearing attention with which your Royal Highness, and the other Members of your illustrious House, soothed the protracted sufferings of your august Parent, thereby gratifying the anxious attachment of the nation to the royal sufferer, and deservedly attracting universal love and respect by so eminent a display of filial piety.

Signed, in name, presence, and by appointment of the meeting, Kellie.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Incorporations of the Burgh of Dumfries, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the deepest sorrow for the death of our venerable and beloved Queen ; an event which the United Kingdom, as well as your illustrious House, deeply feel. At the same time, while we offer our sincere and affectionate condolence for the heavy loss with which it has pleased Divine Providence to inflict the nation, we are sensibly affected with the kindness of the Supreme Being, who, out of His goodness, permitted the object of our regret to be long a bright example of every virtue to an admiring and grateful people ; and, like her, we seek, in the religion of Christ (of which she was so pious a member), that consolation which, in all severe dispensations, we can alone find.

While we deeply deplore the melancholy state of our revered, venerable, and widowed Monarch, we are truly thankful for the many inestimable blessings which, from the influence of your wise counsels, we enjoy under your paternal Government ; and we humbly beg leave to express our most cordial attachment to the Person and Family of your Royal Highness ; and that it is our dearest wish that your Royal Race shall reign over us till the latest posterity.

Signed, in the name and presence, and by the appointment of the Magistrates and Council, in Common Council assembled, by John Barker, Provost.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Montrose, in Scotland, as representing the Community of the said Burgh.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Montrose, beg leave most humbly to approach your Royal Highness with the sincere expressions of our condolence and sympathy on the afflicting event with which it hath pleased Divine Providence to visit your Royal Highness, and these realms, in the death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty the Queen.

That illustrious personage was not more eminently distinguished for her high rank than for the exercise and discharge of all the moral and religious duties both of a public and of a private nature, and the tender care and solicitude with which she watched over her Royal and afflicted Consort, our venerable and beloved Sovereign, will embalm her memory in the hearts of all His Majesty's subjects.

We would humbly express to your Royal Highness our feelings of admiration of that filial affection and tenderness which characterised the conduct of your Royal Highness, throughout Her late Majesty's indisposition, and we pray that the Almighty Comforter may support your Royal Highness, and all the Branches of your illustrious Family, under your present affliction.

We eagerly embrace the opportunity which is now afforded us to renew the assurances of our loyalty and invincible attachment to the illustrious

House of Brunswick, under whose benignant sway these realms have enjoyed so many blessings.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, and the common seal of the Royal Burgh of Montrose is, by our order, hereto attached, at Montrose, the 22d day of December 1818 years.

Ja. Burnes, Provost.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Burntisland.

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Burntisland, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness to express how truly and deeply we condole with your Royal Highness on the calamity which your Royal Highness, your illustrious House, and the Nation, have sustained by the death of Her Most Excellent Majesty the Queen.

The exemplary conduct and exalted virtues which distinguished Her Majesty's character will render her memory dear to the people of this United Kingdom ; and in offering to your Royal Highness the tribute of our unfeigned grief for the loss with which we have been afflicted, we presume to add the assurance of most dutiful and faithful attachment to His Majesty, your Royal Highness, and Royal Family, and to the principles which have connected the establishment of your illustrious House upon the Throne, with the preservation and security of our excellent Constitution.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, the seal of the Burgh being hereto affixed, at Burntisland, this 21st of December 1818, years by Robt. Ferguson, Provost.

The humble and dutiful Address and Condolence of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Ayr.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of his ancient Royal Burgh of Ayr, in Council assembled, beg leave most humbly to approach your Royal Highness with no common feelings of sympathy, and respect to condole with your Royal Highness on the severe loss that has befallen your august House, and the nation, in the death of Her Majesty the Queen.

Her Majesty's many eminent and exemplary virtues on the Throne, during a period of more than half a century, have contributed, in no small degree, to advance the public as well as private morals of the people. In Her Majesty's uniform and solicitous attention to our afflicted King, she has exhibited a pattern of domestic virtue whose improving influence will reach from the palace to the cottage.

We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of the continuance of our loyalty to His Majesty; of our warmest wishes for the welfare and prosperity of these kingdoms; and that your Royal Highness may long enjoy health and happiness is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council, of the Royal Burgh of Ayr.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, humbly offer to your Royal Highness the homage of our most sincere and respectful condolence, on the late afflicting event with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit your Royal Highness, your august Family, and the British nation.

While, in common with your Royal Highness and the nation, we deeply lament the death of Her Majesty, we shall ever retain in remembrance those religious and moral excellencies which adorned her character, and that dignified decorum which graced her Court.

The continued afflictions of our venerable Sovereign excite our warmest sympathy and most sincere regret; and we beg that your Royal Highness will accept of the assurance of our loyalty and attachment to your illustrious House and the Constitution of the realm.

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Royal Borough of New Galloway, in Council assembled, respectfully offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere sympathy and condolence on the death of Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte of blessed memory, your illustrious Mother, who, for the long period of fifty-seven years that she adorned the British Throne, supported in the most exalted station of life the cause of Religion, by her conspicuous regard for it; advanced the interests of virtue, by her distinguished example; and by a happy union of the amiable with the estimable qualities, gained and commanded the esteem and respect of the civilized world.

We cannot sufficiently express our admiration of the unremitting attention paid by your Royal Highness to your illustrious Mother, during her severe and protracted afflictions; and we have no doubt that the filial affection so eminently displayed by your Royal Highness on that mournful occasion, must be grateful to the national feelings, and will be handed down in the annals of our country to the latest posterity.

We lament the continued indisposition of our venerable Sovereign, but we are fully sensible how much this great public calamity has been alleviated by the very able and proper manner in which your Royal Highness has discharged the functions of Royalty; and we pray that the Almighty may continue to bless and prosper your Person and Government.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, in our presence, at New Galloway, the 22d day of December, in the year 1818;

John Gordon, Provost of New Galloway.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Royal Botanic Institution of Glasgow, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with unaffected sorrow, to express our condolence for the heavy loss sustained in the demise of Her late Most Excellent Majesty the Queen.

We truly sympathize in the filial distress of your Royal Highness on this melancholy dispensation which is not felt within the Palace alone, but by every rank of His Majesty's subjects. Yet while we mourn the calamity with which we have been visited, our grief is soothed by the remembrance that our gracious Queen was given to us during a period of very unusual length, combining with our revered and much loved Sovereign, by the brilliancy of their example, to diffuse from the elevated station in which they were placed, that steadiness of moral and religious principle, and that rectitude in public and domestic life which alone constitute the true foundation of national prosperity and individual happiness.

May such considerations carry balm to the spirits of your Royal Highness, and of all the Members of your illustrious House: May such recollections perpetuate the memory and continue the effects of Her late Majesty's virtues among us, and may we while we lament her loss duly estimate and wisely profit by the blessing which we have so long possessed.

Given at a General Meeting of the Royal Botanic Institution of Glasgow, held in the Lyceum-Rooms, this 14th December 1818:

William Smith, Chairman; Lawrence Hill, Secretary.

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, beg leave to offer our sincere condolence to your Royal Highness, on the much to be lamented death of Her late Most Gracious Majesty Queen Charlotte. For although this was an event which in common course of nature and narrow limits of life might have been even sooner expected, still the moment which consigned to the grave all those exemplary qualities and virtues which ever distinguished Her Majesty, could not but be one of severe feeling to your Royal Highness and to the nation at large.

Most sincerely do we hope that the bright example which Her Majesty afforded of a life spent in a strict and conscientious discharge of the relative duties of her exalted station, may make a lasting impression on the minds of the present and succeeding generations, and produce the most beneficial and happy effects.

It is a source of the highest gratification to us to reflect on the manner in which your Royal Highness discharged your filial duties, during Her Majesty's long and severe illness, in which such unceasing kindness and attention were shewn by your Royal Highness as cannot fail of securing to yourself the most heartfelt satisfaction and consolation.

Signed at the request and on the behalf of the County, Charles Berners, Sheriff.

WE, the Mayor, Masters and Counsellors, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Totnes, humbly presume to offer our heartfelt condolence on the death of Her Excellent Majesty, our late Most Gracious Queen. The many virtues, as well private as public, that adorned her Majesty's character will be long remembered; and to her admirable adherence to the strict rules of propriety, may be attributed the very superior estimation in which the British Court has been held by all nations.

To our sympathy with your Royal Highness on this melancholy occasion, we beg to add our prayer, that your Royal Highness may be enabled to sustain your affliction with due resignation to the will of Providence.

J. BARROW.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

In virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, for enabling the Commissioners of the Northern Light-Houses to erect and maintain Light-Houses on the Isle of Man, one Light-House has been erected at the Point of Ayre, at the Northern extremity of that Island, and two Light-Houses have also been erected on the Calf Island, at the Southern extremity of Man; notice is accordingly hereby given, that these Lights will be exhibited on the evening of Monday the 1st day of February 1819, and will thereafter continue to be lighted from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is the Specification of the Position of the Light-Houses, and the Appearance of the Lights, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners.

POINT OF AYRE LIGHT-HOUSE.

This Light-House is situate about 650 feet from the Sea, upon an extensive plain in the Main Island of Man, called the Point of Ayre, in North latitude 54 deg. 27 min. and West longitude 4 deg. 20 min. The Light-House bears by compass from the Mull of Galloway, S.S.E., and is distant 22 miles; from Burrow-Head, S.S.W. 1-3d W., distant 16½ miles; from St. Bees, in Cumberland, W. by N. ¾ N., distant 29½ miles; from Maughold-Head, in the Isle of Man, N. by E., distant 8½ miles; from Rue or Blue Point, E. by S., distant 4 miles.

The light will be from oil, with a reflecting and revolving apparatus, and will be known to Mariners as a single revolving light with colour, exhibiting from the same light-room a light of the natural appearance, alternating with a light tinged with a red colour. These lights will respectively attain their greatest strength or most luminous effect at the end of every two minutes; but in the course of each periodic revolution of the reflector-frame, both lights will become alternately fainter and more obscure, and, to a distant observer, be totally eclipsed for a short period of time.

The Light-Room at the Point of Ayre is glazed all round, but the light will be hid from the Mariner by the high land of Maughold-Head towards the South, and by Rue Point towards the West. Being elevated 106 feet above the medium level of the Sea, its most luminous side may be seen, like a star of the first magnitude, at the distance of four or five leagues; but the side tinged red being somewhat obscured by the coloured shades, will not be seen at so great a distance.

CALF OF MAN LIGHT-HOUSES.

There are two leading Lights on the Calf of Man, which are situated on the Western side of the small Island called the Calf, in North latitude 54 deg. 5 min. and West longitude 4 deg. 46 min. These two Light-Houses are distant from each other 560 feet. The higher Light bears by compass from the Mull of Galloway, S.S.W., distant 37 miles; Peel-Head, in the Isle of Man, S.W., distant 11 miles; Langness Point, W. by N. ½ N., distant 6½ miles; from the sunken rocks, called the Chickens, N.E. 1-3d E., distant about 1½ miles.

These two leading Lights will be from oil, each Light-Room being furnished with a distinct reflecting and revolving apparatus, by which they will be distinguished from the other Lights on the coast, and also be rendered useful as leading Lights for passing the dangerous rocks called the Chickens. The Light-House Towers, as before noticed, are built at the distance of 560 feet apart, bearing from each other N.E. 1-3d E. and S.W. 1-3d W., consequently to an observer, in the direction of the Chickens, both Lights will appear in one, or be seen in the same line of direction, and be known to Mariners as double revolving or leading Lights without colour. The Lights will respectively attain their greatest strength or most luminous effect at the end of every two minutes; but in the course of the periodic revolution of the reflector-frames, the respective Lights will alternately become fainter and more obscure, and, to a distant observer, will be totally eclipsed for a short period of time.

The two Light-Rooms at the Calf of Man are glazed all round, but both Lights will be hid from the Mariner by the high land of Peel-Head towards the N.E. and by Spanish-Head in an Eastern direction. Both Lights, however, will be visible at about three quarters of a mile off the Point of Langness.

The lower Light is elevated 305 feet above the medium level of the Sea, and the high Light 396 feet, and when the Lights have attained their most luminous effect, they will be seen like stars of the first magnitude, at the distance of six or seven leagues.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-Houses,
C. Cunningham, Sec.
Edinburgh, December 31, 1818.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill for abolishing the payment of certain tolls called Ingates and Outgates, collected at the several entrances into the town of Liverpool, and of certain tolls and stallage now payable in the markets and fairs there, and for granting other tolls and stallage in lieu thereof; and for the better regulation of the said markets.
January 6, 1819. Statham, Town Clerk.

Parish of Scartho', Lintolnshire.—Rector's Notice as to Corn Rents.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "an Act for dividing and inclosing the open fields, meadows, pastures, and other commonable lauds and waste grounds in the lordship of Scartho, in the county of Lincoln, that I, the Reverend William Jones, rector of the rectory and parish church of Scartho', in the county and diocese of Lincoln, do intend to apply at the next Easter quarter session of the peace, to be held in and for the parts of Lindsey, in the said county of Lincoln, to have two persons named or appointed by the justices then and there assembled, to be together with a third person, to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators, or referees for ascertaining, by or from or by means of the London Gazette, (if the returns of the average prices of corn and grain shall have been published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such ways and means as they shall think equitable or proper) the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln for the twenty-one years then last past, in order to the re-assertment of the corn rents payable to me by virtue of the said Act of Parliament.

Given under my hand this 4th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1819.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held, by adjournment, at Kirton, in and for the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, on Tuesday the 27th day of April now next ensuing, by and on the behalf of the Reverend Thomas Francis Twigge, Rector of the rectory of Saint Mary South Kelsey with Saint Nicholas South Kelsey annexed, in the said county of Lincoln, and his successors, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of the London Gazette, if the returns of the average prices of corn and grain shall be published therein, and in case of no such application, then by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the twenty-one years then last past, so that the yearly corn rents due and payable to the said Thomas Francis Twigge and his successors, out of the several lands and estates charged therewith by the award of the Commissioners named and appointed in and by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields, carr lands, furze leas, waste grounds, and other lands, in the parishes of Saint Mary, South Kelsey, and Saint Nicholas, South Kelsey, within the manor or lordship of South Kelsey, in the county of Lincoln; and for extinguishing all rights of common and sheep walks in and over the same," may be increased or diminished pursuant and in conformity to the directions of the said Act.—Dated this 5th day of January 1819.

Whereas, William Theodorus Van Immerseel, when living, Apothecary, who died in the Town of Antwerp, at his house, in Lombard-Street, section the third, No. 925, on the 27th day of September 1818, did, by his testament and last will, received and taken by Mr. Francis Josephus Vandael, Notary Royal, in the presence of witnesses, in Antwerp aforesaid, on the 9th of September 1818, registered on the 29th of the same month, among other things dispose, in the Flemish language, as follows, by translation into English:

“ And now coming to the disposal of all and every one of my other goods and chattels, none excepted or reserved, on the whole of them, deducting all costs, incumbrances, and debts of my succession, I give them over, leave, and bequeath in full property to my brother Charles Van Immerseel, now absent, and on his default, or his being previously dead, to his children and progeny lawfully begotten by branches and representation, and in case of default or decease of my said brother without any lawful heir, in that case I give, leave, and bequeath, also in full property, one moiety of all my said goods and chattels to my nearest kindred and heirs, ab intestate, on the fatherly side, and the other moiety to my nearest kindred and heirs, ab intestate, on the motherly side respectively, by lineage and representation, meaning ad infinitum, as it is established in the civil code respecting the children and progeny of brothers and sisters succeeding, ab intestate, to their uncles and aunts, being willing of course that to the said representation such an extension may be given as it would have, should the heirs by me called in, be my brothers and sisters, or the children and progeny of my brothers and sisters, naming and instituting thus by these presents all the said called in, my only and universal heirs, being willing nevertheless and expressly meaning that before my above-named brother, Charles Van Immerseel, can be considered and reputed defaulting or pre-deceased without his having left children or lawful progeny, he and his progeny are to be called, as soon as possible, by my Executor, hereafter named, by means of three divers publications and proclamations, each within an interval of three months, to be placed and inserted respectively in one of the newspapers of Antwerp, Brussels, Ghent, and Amsterdam, as also in the Court and Government Gazettes, that is to say the principal ones of Paris, Vienna, London, Berlin, and Petersburg; after such publication being made, and my said brother, his children, and progeny not having presented themselves, and not having cleared their right of kindred within three months after the last publication and proclamation, then and this being the case, my said brother shall be held as defaulting or pre-deceased, without his having left any children or progeny, and of course my succession will fall to and be shared by my heirs ultimately called in, provided they and any of them will pertinently and sufficiently make known their right of kindred, to attain that end; I will and decree that my said Executor, within six months after the expiration of the three months next following the last publication and proclamation here above mentioned and decreed, will also call, by way of publication and expurgation in the form now used and practised, and by insertion in any of the Gazettes either of Antwerp, Brussels, Ghent, or Amsterdam, all such (my said brother, his children, and progeny excepted), as are here above by me ultimately called in and instituted my heirs, and who, as such, would then prefer any right to my succession?"

Be it known that the under written Paul James Anthony Van de Goor, Merchant-Clerk, living at Antwerp, in the Bed-Street, Executor to the heredity of the deceased here above-mentioned, appointed by the above-said testament and last will; doth by these presents give knowledge and information to all those and every one of those it might concern, of the above testamentary dispositions, that they may, after the manner and in the way there expressed, claim their right, and this will of course serve as a first publication and proclamation.
