TUESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1819.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the University and King's-College of Aberdeen.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the University and King's-College of Aberdeen, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness on the present melancholy occasion to express our unfeigned sorrow at the severe loss which your Royal Highness, and the whole nation have sustained by the death of Her late Majesty the Queen, the illustrious Consort of our venerable Sovereign.

The eminent virtues and amiable qualities by which that illustrious Princess was distinguished have made her justly dear to the British nation ; who will long fondly cherish the remembrance of the dignity with which she filled her highly elevated situation, and that exemplary conduct which for more than half a century tended in no ordinary degree to improve the morals of an admiring age.

While we humbly acquiesce in the appointments of Providence, we sincerely condole with your Royal Highness on this afflictive event which has removed from the nation the immediate influence of those virtues by which Her Majesty had so long and so effectually contributed to promote the public good.

That your Royal Highness on this mournful occasion may experience those consolations which religion never fails to afford, and which the pious fulfilment of every duty to a beloved Parent is so well calculated to bestow ; and that your Royal Highness may live long in the hearts of a loyal, a virtuous, and a happy people, are the prayers of, may it please your Royal Highness, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the University and King's-College of Aberdeen.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Aberdeen, K. T. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of Lanarkshire, approach your Royal Highness with our sincere tribute of condolence on the much lamented death of Her august Majesty Queen Charlotte, your Royal Parent and our Most Gracious Queen.

When we contemplate the many blessings which in common with the rest of His Majesty's subjects have been enjoyed by us for the long period, during which Her Majesty filled her exalted station in these Realms, we cannot fail to attribute many of them to that virtuous and exemplary conduct which she uniformly supported—an example tending no less to the preservation of good morals than to the happiness of all ranks, while it contributed materially to the stability of the Throne. We beg leave, at the same time, humbly to express how sensibly we have been impressed by the eminent examples of filial duty and unremitted attentions displayed by your Royal Highness and the rest of the Royal Family, during Her Majesty's late protracted indisposition—attentions which must have proved not less soothing to the deceased, than they are honourable and consolatory to the living.

And while we thus offer our sincerest condolence on Her Majesty's death, we cannot omit sympathizing with the rest of the nation on the continued indisposition of our beloved Sovereign, and, at the same time, we beg to renew our assurance of our hearty attachment and unshaken loyalty to His Majesty the King, to your Royal Highness, and to the members of your august House, and of our firm adherence to the glorious Constitution of our Country.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Meeting; at Hamilton, this 22d day of December 1818, Douglas, Preses.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council, and Deacons of the Incorporated Trades of Lanark.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council and Deacons of the Incorporated Trades of the Burgh of Lanark, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the greatest veneration, and in unison with the universal sentiment of the United Kingdom, to express our unfeigned and deep feelings of regret on occasion of the lamented death of your august Parent, Her Majesty, the Queen; and on this melancholy occurrence, to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere sympathy and condolence.

While we deplore the sorrowful event by which the nation has been deprived of a great and exalted character, in which the social virtues were so eminently blended, and grieve for the loss His Majesty's subjects will sustain in consequence of the removal of the personage who furnished so high and salutary an example; permit us in a more particular manner, to sympathize with your Royal Highness, in that tender sorrow occasioned by the sad event which has deprived you of your maternal Parent. Under the pressure of this severe calamity, we, however trust, your Royal Highness will derive from our holy religion all that consolation which it is so well calculated to afford, and which with that filial affection so conspicuously evinced by your Royal Highness, solaced the last moments of your illustrious Parent. The kind attention bestowed by your Royal Highness at that important crisis, must be to you matter of pleasing, though melancholy reflection; it has called forth the esteem and admiration of all classes in these kingdoms, and has set an example highly worthy of imitation, which it is hoped will have its due effect, and produce a lasting impression on the minds of His Majesty's subjects.

Council Chambers, 24th December 1818.

Robert Hutchinson, Preses.

[Transmitted by P. J. Buchanan Riddle, Bart. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Durham, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the great loss which your Royal Highness has sustained by the decease of your much lamented Mother, which has also deprived our revered Monarch whilst suffering under the severest of all human afflictions, of an attached Consort, and faithful Guardian of his Royal Person, and the nation of a most excellent Queen.

Eminent for the practice of every conjugal, parental, and domestic virtue, Her Majesty during a painful and protracted illness, displayed that true christian fortitude and resignation to the Divine Will, which together with the performance of every religious duty, were ever so conspicuous in her throughout the course of a long life, and your Royal Highness by your anxious solicitude and unremitting endeavours to soothe and alleviate Her Majesty's severe sufferings, has exhibited a bright example of filial piety which we must ever duly appreciate.

May your Royal Highness under the Divine protection long live to enjoy every blessing this world can afford.

W. Hutchinson, High Sheriff.

Durham, 29th December 1818.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians at Edinburgh, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with profound respect, and to express our condolence on the melancholy event which has deprived the nation of their Most gracious Queen Charlotte, and involved your Royal House in deep affliction.

The exemplary manner in which Her Majesty supported the varied relations of public and of domestic life for more than half a century, essentially contributed to give that lustre which covered the British Throne during this long and eventful period, and commanded the warmest approbation of all His Majesty's faithful subjects; the demise of your Royal Highness's august Parent now calls forth feelings of sympathy from the whole nation.

May it be permitted to us to avail ourselves of this opportunity to renew our expressions of attachment to the illustrious House of your Royal Highness, and to offer our earnest prayers that it may please the Almighty disposer of events to stretch his protecting arm over our venerable Sovereign, and vouchsafe to grant all the comfort and solace compatible with His Majesty's advancing years.

Thomas Charles Hope, President.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Corporation of Huntingdon, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to testify the deep sense we entertain of the great loss which your Royal Highness, and the subjects of these realms have sustained in the death of Her Most Excellent Majesty, the Queen Consort of our revered Sovereign, and with hearts full of loyalty, and of duty and attachment to your Royal Highness, to express our warmest sympathy and condolence on that melancholy event.

Having a lively interest in every event which affects your Royal Highness's Family, we deeply deplore the afflicting calamity which has deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved Parent, and the nation of a high example of uniform decorum and moral virtue, that added lustre to the British Court, greatly tended to improve the public morals, and justly entitled Her Majesty to universal respect and admiration.

Given under the common seal of this Corporation, the 30th day of December 1818.

Henry Sweeting, Jun. Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Lieutenantcy, Freeholders, Heritors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Banff, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our cordial sympathy and condolence on the afflicting loss which your Royal Highness, and the whole nation have sustained by the death of your illustrious and beloved Parent, Her late Majesty, the Queen.

Contemplating with every feeling of respect the amiable and estimable qualities in the character of our gracious Queen, her practical regard to piety and virtue, the purity and correctness of her personal deportment, her firm and dignified discouragement of vice, and her uniform fidelity in discharging the relative and domestic duties of life, we cannot but mourn an event which has bereaved the nation of an illustrious Princess, whose example, like the light of day, not only shone on the high places of the land, but found its way to the lowest cottage of the vale.

We fervently pray that the same Divine Providence which in wisdom and in mercy orders all things, which sustained your Royal Highness under the most acute trial of paternal calamity, may continue to arm your mind with fortitude in this recent affliction.

If farther motives of consolation may be sought for, than those, which genuine religion is calculated to impart, you will find them, Sir, in the recollection of those filial endearing attentions which marked the conduct of your Royal Highness towards your august Parent, which tended to soothe her anguish on the bed of sickness, and which were duly appreciated by all ranks in the kingdom.

We beg leave to avail ourselves of this opportunity of dutifully renewing to your Royal Highness our unfeigned assurances, that in every circumstance whether of national sorrow, or of national rejoicing, we shall be eager to express, and to evince our affectionate loyalty to the Throne, and our inviolable attachment to our glorious and happy constitution.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment in a General Meeting, held at Banff, this 28th day of December 1818 years.

Fife, P.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fife, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Council, and Burgesses of the Burgh of Banff, in a Head Court assembled, participating in the general feeling excited by the demise of Her late Majesty, Queen Charlotte, beg leave with due humility and respect to convey to your Royal Highness the sentiments of unfeigned sympathy and condolence with which we contemplate that mournful event.

We lament the loss of a revered and excellent Princess, whose estimable qualities shed a lustre on her exalted rank; and whose conduct through a long life, seemed to be influenced by a lofty principle of religion and moral virtue,—a Princess not more distinguished by a dignified deportment in her high station, than by the unsullied purity of her private life, and the exemplary practice of the domestic virtues.

Under this visitation, we trust your Royal Highness will derive that best support which religion affords, and that you will find consolation also in the generous sympathy and loyal attachment of a great people.

We should not however, satisfy our feelings nor discharge our duty were we to close this address without expressing our high admiration of those tender offices of filial love and duty unceasingly paid by your Royal Highness to your august and affectionate Parent during her long and painful illness. May the recollection prove a source of pure and lasting satisfaction to your mind; and, may the present tender of our sentiments be regarded by your Royal Highness as a renewed expression of the loyalty of, may it please your Royal Highness, the Provost, Magistrates, Council, and Burgesses of the Burgh of Banff.

Signed in name, and by appointment.

Geo. G. Robinson, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fife, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset, beg leave most respectfully to offer to your Royal Highness our expressions of unfeigned sympathy and conlence on the severe loss sustained by your Royal Highness, by the Royal Family, and by the nation at large, in the lamented death of her most gracious Majesty, Queen Charlotte.

In presenting this tribute of our loyal and respectful sympathy, we reflect with mournful gratification on the memory of the many eminent virtues, both public and private, which adorned the character of Her Majesty in her exalted station, and which will always demand our admiration, whether we contemplate Her Majesty's unbounded charities, her due sense of religion, and that unsullied lustre which she imparted to the British Court, or whether we view her as the kind and indulgent Parent of a numerous and royal race, or as the faithful Consort and watchful guardian of our venerable and afflicted Monarch in his declining years.

The filial piety and anxious solicitude displayed by your Royal Highness throughout the protracted illness of Her Majesty, has excited the sympathy and respect of the whole nation, and reflects the highest honour on your Royal Highness's character and feelings.

To these our expressions of condolence we beg to add the assurances of our attachment to His Majesty's Person and Government, to your Royal Highness, and to every branch of your Royal Highness's illustrious House.

Thomas Bower, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Aldermen, Recorder, Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Denbigh.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Aldermen, Recorder, Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Denbigh, assembled in the Common-Hall of the said Borough, this 28th of December 1818, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our sincere condolence upon the recent afflicting calamity which has occurred in your Royal Highness's Family, by its having pleased Divine Providence to deprive this kingdom of your illustrious Mother, the kind and affectionate Consort of our most gracious and revered Sovereign, who for so many years pre-eminently filled that exalted situation, and by a faithful and unremitting discharge of her conjugal and parental duties hath afforded a bright example to her sex, well worthy the imitation of those in the higher classes, as well as in the more humble stations of life. The constant and dutiful attentions so assiduously paid by your Royal Highness to your afflicted Parent during her protracted and severe indisposition, have excited the public admiration, and will be long remembered and duly appreciated by all descriptions of His Majesty's subjects.

We humbly trust that the Almighty will bless your Royal Highness with a long continuance of health, and enable you by His Divine assistance, to discharge the duties of your high station to His honour and glory, and to the welfare and prosperity of the people of these realms.

Signed and passed under the common seal of the Corporation of Denbigh, on behalf of the meeting, the day and year aforesaid.

By order of the Court,

S. Edwards, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Combürgesses and Burgesses of the Town or Borough of Grantham, in the county of Lincoln, impressed with sentiments of attachment towards our revered Sovereign, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness, and to all the branches of the Royal Family, our most sincere and heartfelt condolence upon the lamented death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty the Queen.

The uniform and highly distinguished qualities of Her late Majesty, eminently displayed at all times in the discharge of the duties of her exalted station during a series of years, have added greatly to the lustre of the British Crown, have presented a striking example to future generations, and have impressed upon our minds sentiments of the deepest regret for the loss of so virtuous a Princess.

We humbly beg leave to take this opportunity of repeating the assurance of our devotion to our Most Gracious Sovereign, to your Royal Person, and to His Majesty's Government, under the mild auspices of your Royal Highness during the long and melancholy indisposition of the best of Kings.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Rutland, K. G. the Recorder, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, entreat permission respectfully to tender to your Royal Highness our unfeigned condolence on the much lamented death of our late gracious Queen, your Royal Mother.

Long accustomed to look up to Her Majesty as a shining pattern of those virtues which adorn the female character, and well aware of the beneficial influence of such an example on the morals and religion of the country, our gratitude to that merciful Providence which so long spared her valuable life is mingled with a deep sense of the severe loss which we have sustained by her decease. And while we grieve for her as our Queen, we sincerely sympathize with your Royal Highness in that more intense sorrow which the death of such a mother must have awakened in the heart of so affectionate a son.

The tender and unremitting attention shewn by your Royal Highness during Her Majesty's protracted sufferings, and at her last moments, will ever be regarded as a signal proof of your filial piety and love, and cannot but be an unfailing source of comfort to your Royal Breast.

The high distinctions of piety and virtue thus displayed in the most exalted stations around the Throne, will endear your illustrious House and His Majesty's Government to all classes of our beloved Sovereign's dutiful and faithful subjects, and to none more than to the inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Birmingham.

On the behalf and at the request of the Magistrates, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, the 11th day of December 1818, Edward Thomason, High Bailiff.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, convened by the High Sheriff of the said County.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Anglesey, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the lamented demise of Her Majesty the Queen.

From the affectionate and truly filial solicitude with which your Royal Highness watched Her Majesty's painful and protracted decline, we derive a most pleasing assurance that as a Mother Her Majesty's conduct was not less endearing than it was exemplary as a Wife. Our venerable Sovereign is, alas, insensible to his loss, but those tender assiduities by which Her late Majesty gladdened the happier and solaced the gloomier days of Her Royal Consort, will ever endear her memory to the British nation.

Nor will the late Queen's memory be cherished with less grateful recollections on account of the manner in which Her Majesty discharged the duties of her exalted station. Called at an early age to the British Throne, on which Her Majesty sat longer, and in more difficult times, than any of her royal predecessors, the late Queen so conducted herself as ever to maintain its appropriate decorum, dignity, and constitutional importance.

Signed, by order of the Meeting,

J. Price, High Sheriff of the County of Anglesey.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Anglesey, K. G. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and attached subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Carnarvon, request permission to approach your Royal Highness with the respectful tender of our condolence on the death of Her Majesty, our late Most Gracious Queen.

We should under any circumstances think it our duty to offer our humble tribute of sympathy on any event which might cause the voice of lamentation to be heard in your Royal House; but on the present we feel too deeply the loss we have suffered not to participate most sincerely in the affliction with which it has pleased God to visit your illustrious Family.

When we reflect upon the long series of years that Her Majesty moved in her exalted station with so conspicuous a virtue, and so edifying an example; when we contemplate in the endearing attention of your Royal Highness and the rest of her illustrious children, so affecting a proof of her care and kindness as a mother; when we recollect the unremitting solicitude she displayed for the comfort of him, who, though lost to social enjoyment, must ever live in the heart of every good man in his dominions; and more than all when we turn our eyes upon the noble pattern of pure morals and dignified decorum which Her late Majesty held out to the wives and matrons of this great nation, we cannot but feel, we cannot but deeply deplore the decease of one who has been so great a blessing to our country, and whose constant endeavour it was to check the progress of vice, and to further the advancement of virtue.

Impressed with these sentiments, we do unfeignedly condole with your Royal Highness, and the whole of the Royal Family, on the late afflicting event; and as we trust that the Divine Providence will in compassion still watch over this great empire for its good, by raising up worthy successors to those of whose eminent examples it may please to deprive us, so we entreat the Father of Mercies ever to protect your Royal Highness in your exalted station, and to give you that comfort and support in the discharge of its high duties which he alone can give, and which he alone can render effectual.

Signed, at a public Meeting, at the Guildhall, at Carnarvon, on Friday the 18th day of December 1818, on the behalf and at the request of the said Meeting, Henry Jones, Deputy Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Anglesey, K. G. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Magistrates, Clergy, and other Freeholders of the County of Flint, approach your Royal Highness with the tender of our condolence on the decease of your Royal Mother, the venerable Queen Consort of these realms, endeared to us by the conscientious discharge of every domestic and social duty, and by that dignified example and deport which, during the period of almost sixty years, has upheld the purity of our national morals, and shed a lustre round the Throne which she shared.

To your Royal Highness belongs the consciousness and praise of alleviating the suffering of the best of Parents, by the tenderest attentions of filial love. But in the character of the deceased, the survivor seeks his highest consolation: soon may the emotions of sorrow yield to the consolatory assurance, that the righteous is gone to her reward.

J. Wynne Eyton, High Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, in Common Hall assembled, humbly beg permission to express to your Royal Highness our deep concern and dutiful condolence on the severe affliction of your Royal Highness and the Royal Family; and to assure your Royal Highness how deeply we deplore, as a public calamity, the heavy loss the nation has sustained in the death of our late Most Gracious Queen, whose example and influence had been rendered so effectually subservient to the interests of morality, and to the happiness of every class of His Majesty's subjects.

We pray your Royal Highness to accept our assurances of duty, loyalty, and attachment to His Majesty, your Royal Highness, and every branch of the Royal Family.

Done at a Common Hall held this 18th day of December 1818.

[Transmitted by the Honourable Frederick J. N. Douglas, M. P. for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the States of His Majesty's Island of Alderney.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Governor, the Court, the King's Officers, and Dozeniers of His Majesty's Island of Alderney, in the States assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness to offer our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the death of Her late gracious Majesty, the Queen.

Rather than add to the poignancy of your affliction by dwelling too deeply on that melancholy event, deign to permit us to lay at the feet of your Royal Highness our profound veneration for the memory of the beloved Consort of our highly revered Monarch, whose exemplary virtues will leave to posterity an unrivalled pattern of excellence, not only in her exalted situation, but also, as a Wife and a Mother.

Whilst we sincerely join in the national grief, we at the same time are bound to remember the gratitude so justly due to the Almighty, for having vouchsafed to preserve to this kingdom for so long a period a Queen endowed with every virtue that could adorn a Throne, and render her worthy of an immortal Crown.

That it may please Almighty God to comfort and support your Royal Highness, and the Royal Family under this severe visitation, and that your Royal Highness by submitting thereto with pious resignation, may not endanger a life so valuable to the British nation, is the fervent prayer of the faithful and loyal Inhabitants of this Island.

John Le Mesurier, Governor Commanding.

Alderney, 30th December 1818.

[Transmitted by John Le Mesurier, Esq. Governor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Jersey.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the States of His Majesty's Island of Jersey, cherishing, with unabated fidelity, those sentiments of attachment to the persons of our Sovereigns, which we have inherited from our forefathers, ever behold with feelings of unfeigned sympathy, every afflictive event which befalls the Royal Family.

Under these impressions, and sensible as we are, of the truly filial reverence, affection, and tenderness, which your Royal Highness has always evinced towards your illustrious Parents, we crave leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere condolence on the loss you have recently sustained of your august Mother, our most gracious and beloved Queen,

But, whilst we lament it, as productive of sorrow to your Royal Highness, we have to lament it also in a public point of view.—By her departure from this mortal scene of existence, we are deprived of a bright example of all the christian virtues, which, seated on a Throne, shone with distinguished and conspicuous lustre, and diffused its salutary influence throughout the British empire.

Yet, with these expressions of our deep regret we feel it our duty to mix our thankful acknowledgements to the all-wise Disposer of events, for having vouchsafed to the people of these realms the continuance among them of this amiable pattern of piety and goodness for a long series of years; and we are persuaded that this reflection will minister much consolation to your Royal Highness.

That the Almighty may shower his choicest blessings on the head of your Royal Highness, and long, very long, preserve a life so necessary to the welfare of the kingdom, is the constant and ardent prayer of the States of the Island of Jersey. By order of the States,

Francis Godfray, Greff.

Jersey, 28th December 1818.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the City of Elgin, North Britain, considering it the duty of loyal and devoted subjects to range themselves round their Sovereign's Throne at times of public loss or calamity, do at this time of severe affliction presume humbly to address your Royal Highness, in terms of most sincere condolence on the death of your lamented Mother, Queen Charlotte.

The high rank which Providence assigned her as Queen of these great kingdoms enabled her to shed the influence of her example on millions of her fellow creatures, and she commanded the affections, reverence, and admiration of her subjects, not so much by the exercise of power, as by the practice of piety, and all those virtues which reflect honour on any condition of life. That the Almighty Disposer of events may send your Royal Highness consolation under this severe dispensation, and actuate you to imitate the splendid example of your revered Parent, is our earnest wish and prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by F. W. Grant, Provost.

Council Chambers, Elgin, 2d January 1819.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, and the Inhabitants of the Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks.

WE, beg to approach your Royal Highness, as the representative of our venerable and beloved Sovereign, humbly to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the melancholy event of the death of Her Majesty, our most gracious Queen, in whose august Person was united every virtue which could add dignity to her exalted station, animating by her illustrious example all classes to the exercise of duties which reflect lustre on their respective situations in life. In thus offering to your Royal Highness our unfeigned condolence on an event so deeply to be lamented, we beg leave humbly to renew to your Royal Highness the assurances of our steady and inviolable attachment to your august House, subject to whose powerful and benign rule we enjoy under Divine Providence, blessings, which command our warmest gratitude.

James Cole, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, impressed with feelings of the most poignant regret, beg leave to offer our condolence to your Royal Highness at the late most melancholy occurrence, the death of your Royal Mother, our illustrious Queen.

The remembrance of the high and transcendent virtues of Her Majesty will be long and fondly cherished in the hearts of her faithful subjects; and the recollection of that exalted purity of mind and exemplary character which so particularly distinguished Her Majesty on all occasions, will cause the nation deeply to deplore the irreparable loss it has sustained.

In offering this mark of our unfeigned sorrow, we beg to assure your Royal Highness of our firm and unalterable attachment to your Royal Person and Government; and implore Almighty God to grant to your Royal Highness the blessings of health, that your administration, so eminently calculated to increase and preserve the peace and happiness of your faithful subjects, may be crowned with success.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, the 15th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1818.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c.

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the humble offer of our sentiments of deep condolence on the decease of your Royal Mother, the late Queen of this united empire.

The virtues which so eminently characterised and distinguished Her Majesty during a period of fifty-seven years, as a wife, a mother, and a Queen, and in vicissitudes of severe trial in domestic life, will embalm her memory in the hearts of the subjects of their beloved, venerable, and afflicted Sovereign, and will afford an illustrious example to future generations, that the influence of royalty is most effectually supported by the practice of religious and moral duties in this free, enlightened, and happy country.

Amidst these mournful reflections it must have afforded consolation to all classes of His Majesty's subjects, to witness the filial attentions of your Royal Highness in the last and trying scene, and be assured Sir, that your conduct in watching by the death-bed of your honoured and revered parent, has gone to their hearts with a force, and awakened in them sentiments and feelings, which not all the splendours of royalty can inspire: may such conduct live in the gratitude, and influence the practice of every son in the united kingdom; and may the principles and feelings by which it was dictated speak peace to your Royal Highness in that hour when all external comfort shall fail.

In the name and by the appointment of the general meeting this day assembled.

M. Sharpe, Preses.

To His Royal Highness George, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Burgesses of the Boro' of Brecon, in Council Chamber assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt and sincere expressions of condolence on the consummation of that event which the illness of the royal sufferer had long prepared us to expect; which hath at once bereaved your Royal Highness of a revered and affectionate parent, and withdrawn from this distinguished country its brightest example of virtue.

Convinced from awful experience that the contagion of licentious manners has a most destructive influence on the destiny of nations; we cannot but retain a reverential and grateful recollection of that dignified discharge of the duties of our holy religion, and of that inflexible regard for the purity of character, displayed in the conduct of our late Queen, from the moment she ascended, with our venerated Sovereign, the throne of these realms.

We have contemplated with sincere respect, and we trust have duly appreciated your Royal Highness's unremitted attention to smooth the pillow of sickness, and to alleviate the sorrows and anxieties of your august and suffering parent, and we are persuaded that the recollection of this your Royal Highness's truly filial and exemplary demeanour will, under every variety of circumstance, prove to your Royal Highness an unfailing source of consolation.

In common with the rest of our fellow subjects we hasten to convey to your Royal Highness's presence these our assurances of sympathy in the general loss, trusting that they will not be the less acceptable because they proceed from a spontaneous sentiment of unabated loyalty to our revered and venerable Sovereign, from an unaltered regard to the permanent interests of your illustrious house, and from a sincere attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government.

Signed on behalf of the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Burgesses of the said Borough of Brecon, this 30th day of December 1818. W. Williams, Bailiff.

[Transmitted by the Bailiff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Mayor, Citizens and other Inhabitants of His Majesty's City of Gloucester, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with unfeigned expressions of condolence on the loss which the Royal Family and the nation have sustained in the death of our gracious Queen.

We should be insensible to the blessings we have long enjoyed under the paternal government of our venerable and beloved Sovereign, and under the delegated authority of your Royal Highness, did we not feel deeply interested in every important event which befalls your royal house. We cannot, therefore, but lament that at so short a period after the general burst of sorrow for the fate of our amiable Princess, we should again be called upon to express our sympathetic regret at this fresh subject of Royal and national affliction.

In humbly offering our tribute of respect to the memory of our departed Queen we feel that we are not merely deploring the loss of an august partner of the British Throne, but that we are commemorating a model of female excellence in the most elevated station. We never can forget that for more than half a century, Her Majesty's steady attachment to the established religion of the country—her conscientious discharge of duty as a Wife and a Parent—Her firmness of principle, and adherence to the cause of virtue, have added a moral lustre to the splendour of the Crown, preserved the purity and dignity of the Court, and have diffused the influence of a bright example from the palace to the cottage.

May your Royal Highness find every alleviation of your present distress in a dutiful submission to the Divine Will, and in the remembrance of your own filial piety and affection; and long may you have reason to rejoice in the attachment of a loyal, true, and united people, in the blessings of an honourable and permanent peace, and in the glory and prosperity of the country.

Signed, at the request of the meeting,

R. Fletcher, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Stirling.

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Stirling, assembled this day in a general meeting beg leave to lay before your Royal Highness, the expression of our sincere condolence, on the domestic calamity which has lately involved your Royal Highness and your illustrious House in the deepest affliction.

In common with all the loyal subjects of the realm, we feel the loss which has been sustained to be irreparable; but the highest consolation is to be derived from reflecting on the bright example which Her late Majesty exhibited, of a long life devoted to the uniform practice of virtue and religion, the powerful influence of which throughout the whole nation has exalted the character of the age in which we live, and will we confidently hope long continue to survive the melancholy occasion over which we mourn. The filial piety of your Royal Highness and the other members of the Royal Family cannot fail to prove another source of consolation. It has made a deep impression on our hearts, and will we trust eminently contribute to strengthen the attachment and confirm the loyalty of all His Majesty's subjects.

We embrace this opportunity of renewing our anxious wishes for the prosperity of the Royal Family, and the Government entrusted to your Royal Highness's charge.

Signed, in the name and by appointment of the meeting at Stirling, this 28th day of December 1818, by John Graham, Esq. of Mecklewood, Chairman, John Graham.

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Duke of Cornwall.

The humble, dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Portreeve, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Portreeve, and Inhabitants of this Borough, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of sincere condolence, on the loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained, in the death of your much lamented Mother, our august and venerable Queen; we recall with feelings of unfeigned respect, the recollection of Her late Majesty's long reign, passed in the endearing discharge of the conjugal and maternal duties; and when we contemplate the dignified and chaste tone of morals, which her influence and example communicated to the Court and the kingdom, we record with gratitude the sincere respect which we feel for Her Majesty's memory; and we trust that the influence of her bright example, will excite in all orders of His Majesty's subjects, an increasing attention to religion and virtue: that under the blessing of Almighty God, the illustrious House of Brunswick may long continue to reign, over a virtuous, a happy and a free people.

Given under the common seal of our Borough, this 18th day of December 1818, and signed, on behalf of the above, E. Hodge, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Henry Swann, Esq. M. P. for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Capital and Free Burgesses of the Borough of East Looe, in the County of Cornwall, most humbly approach your Royal Highness to express our sincere and unfeigned condolence on the death of your Royal Mother, our late Most Excellent Queen.

No. 17439.

When we reflect on the great loss which your Royal Highness, the whole of your illustrious House, and the nation at large, have sustained by the death of the best of Queens, we consider that, if any thing can arise to alleviate the grief so generally and deservedly felt, it is the reflection on the many and great virtues which characterized the life of Her late Majesty.

That your Royal Highness may long be spared to rule over a great and loyal nation, is the sincere prayer of His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects.

Signed on behalf of the Capital and Free Burgesses, Jno. Keart, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Yeomanry, and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, duly assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the death of your august Mother, our much-revered and lamented Queen.

Warmly attached to the illustrious House of our beloved Sovereign, and deeply interested in all that affects your Royal Highness, we cordially sympathise in your present affliction.

Whilst it was permitted us to admire the many virtues of Her late Majesty, to applaud her conduct, and to rejoice at the influence of that example which had so long contributed to sustain the morals, and thus to support the character and preserve the happiness of the people, we could not but be deeply sensible of the value and importance of her life.

Deeply do we therefore deplore our present loss: though now no more, yet may we hope that her virtues will long live in memory, and her example long continue to diffuse its blessings beyond the grave.

Permit us at the same time to express our real admiration of your Royal Highness's filial attention to your late Royal Parent on the bed of sickness. The consciousness of having performed all the duties of an excellent Son to a kind and affectionate Parent, will, we are persuaded, afford the most substantial comfort to your Royal Highness in every period of that long life to which we hope your Royal Highness is destined.

F. Hearle Rodd, High Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled.

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled, most respectfully beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness, and to every Member of your august House, in unfeigned language of condolence, the sincere sympathy we feel by participating in the national sorrow which continues daily to manifest itself upon the lamented demise of Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

The exalted and amiable virtues which adorned the late Consort of our vénéable and beloved Sovereign in every relation of life, exhibited a noble example of imitation to all classes of His Majesty's subjects; nor did the high rank of Her late Majesty estrange her from exercising herself in unceasing acts of kindness and benevolence to the poor.

Given under our common seal this 28th day of December in the year of our Lord 1818.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the Ancient Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to offer our heartfelt condolence on the great and afflicting loss the country has sustained by the much-lamented death of Her late Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

We assure your Royal Highness that we not only participate in the universal sensation of sorrow which pervades all ranks of His Majesty's faithful subjects, but that we also sympathise most truly in the filial feelings of anguish by which your Royal Highness is at present overwhelmed: yet, bowing with reverence and submission to the Divine Will, we most ardently pray that the Almighty, in His infinite mercy, will impart to your Royal Highness comfort and consolation to alleviate the sufferings occasioned by this melancholy event, and that he will in his bounty to us prolong to a very extended period the sacred life of your Royal Highness, so justly dear to us, and of so much importance to the welfare and happiness of these realms.

Given, under our common seal, in the Guildhall of our said Town, the 31st day of December, in the 59th year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1818.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the administration of the Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty's Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if Her Majesty the Queen should depart this life during the time that the care of His Majesty's Royal Person should be committed to Her Majesty, according to the provisions of the said Act, the Regent should forthwith order and direct a Proclamation, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be issued and published declaring the same: and whereas by another Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to alter and amend certain of the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the administration of the Royal Authority, and for the care of His Majesty's Royal Person during the continuance of His Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if the case should happen in which it was enacted by the said Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty, that the Regent should forthwith order and direct such Proclamation to be issued and published as aforesaid, and the same should happen upon or after the day appointed by any Writ of Summons then issued, for calling and assembling a new Parliament, and before such new Parliament should have met and sat as a Parliament, then, and in such case, the Regent should forthwith cause such a Proclamation as aforesaid to be issued and published, declaring that such case had happened, and requiring the new Parliament either to convene and sit at Westminster immediately after such Proclamation should have been published, or upon some day to be mentioned in such Proclamation, and being within sixty days to be computed from the date of the said Proclamation; and in such case the Parliament so convening and sitting should be, and be deemed a Parliament to all intents and purposes, under the provisions of the said last mentioned Acts: and whereas the Parliament which was summoned to meet at Westminster on the fourth day of August last, hath not yet met and sat as a Parliament, but stands prorogued to the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing: and whereas Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, during the time that the care of His Majesty's Royal Person was committed to Her Majesty: now we do hereby by this Proclamation (ordered and directed to be issued and published, and issued and published under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland), declare, that Her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, and We do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, publish, declare, and require, that the new Parliament shall be held, convene, and sit, at Westminster, on the fourteenth day of January now next ensuing, for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly on the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We do hereby further publish and declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the said Parliament shall on the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing, be further prorogued to the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and We have, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, given Order to the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Writ Patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, for proroguing the same accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this nineteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, January 5, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a wheat stack standing amongst several others, belonging to Mr. John Wolton, of Eyke, in the county of Suffolk, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed in the night of Monday the 28th ultimo, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said wheat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the rewards hereafter mentioned, are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Suffolk Fire Office;

And a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the said Mr. John Wolton.

Whitehall, January 5, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the body of Mr. John Thomas Taylor, son of Mr.

Taylor, Surgeon, of Goswell-Street, in the parish of Saint Luke, in the county of Middlesex, has been found in the New River; and that there is reason to suppose the said John Thomas Taylor was, on Thursday the 10th day of December last, robbed, murdered, and thrown into the said river, near the Iron-Bridge, at the foot of Hornsey-Wood, in the Greceu-Lanes, leading to Southgate, when, amongst other things, there was taken from his person a silver box cover hunting watch, maker's name "Joseph Mears, 1814," to which was attached a gold curb chain, a small gold seal, without any engraving, and another larger, with a white cornelian stone, the engraving, a tower, and a ship sailing;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually murdered the said John Thomas Taylor), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by J. M. Fisher, Esq. Solicitor, No. 10, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn, London.

Whitehall, January 2, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Monday the 21st of December last, the ship Mary, Williams, Master, from Limerick to London, ran on shore on the Goodwin Sands, when the greatest part of her cargo, consisting of butter, beef, pork, linen, &c. was taken out by boats belonging to Deal, Ramsgate, and the vicinity; and that by far the greatest part thereof has been secreted and stolen by persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall make a full disclosure of the facts, and shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices who may have been concerned in stealing the said property, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction of the said offender or offenders, by Mr. John Bennett, jun. Secretary to the Committee for managing the Affairs of Lloyd's, London.

Whitehall, December 22, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Wednesday the 16th instant, some evil disposed person or persons did feloniously and maliciously maim and wound two bull calves, the property of Mr. William Bound, of Hill Farm, situate at Henbury, in the county of Dorset, and also a cow the property of Thomas Pither, residing upon the said farm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. William Castleman, Solicitor, Wimborn, in the county of Dorset.

Whitehall, December 7, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a stack of oats belonging to Mr. Thomas Hobson, of the Parish of Great Glenn, in the county of Leicester, was maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons, on the evening of Thursday the 3d instant, at a field barn in the said parish;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said oat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the same. The said reward to be paid immediately after such conviction by the Constable of Great Glenn.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill for abolishing the payment of certain tolls called Ingates and Outgates, collected at the several entrances into the town of Liverpool, and of certain tolls and stallage now payable in the markets and fairs there, and for granting other tolls and stallage in lieu thereof; and for the better regulation of the said markets.

January 6, 1819.

Statham, Town Clerk.

Notice is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for dividing the commons and waste lands, common fields, and mesne inclosures, within the manor and parish of Eckington, in the county of Derby," I, the Reverend Frederick Ricketts, Clerk, the present Rector of Eckington aforesaid (and the successor to the Reverend Christopher Alderson, Clerk, the late Rector thereof, and in the said Act particularly named), do intend (in pursuance of a power given to me by the said Act) to apply at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Derby, in the week after the Feast of Easter now next ensuing (being the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace which will be held in and for the said county in the week after the Feast of Easter, after the expiration of fourteen years from the making of the award, mentioned in the said Act), to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, (together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons) arbitrators or referees for inquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of the London Gazette, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Derby, for the fourteen years then last past; which said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall by their report (to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions to be held in and for the county of Derby, in the first week after the Feast of the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr then and now next ensuing) set forth such average price; and in case it shall, by such report, appear that such average price of a bushel of such wheat is more or less than the average price thereof set forth in the said award (by the value of three pence or upwards), then the said respective yearly rents or sums of money (then and now paid under the said award by the several owners and occupiers of ancient inclosures within the said parish of Eckington) shall be increased or diminished as shall be declared by order of the said Court; and the same several increased or diminished sums shall, from the quarterly day of payment preceding such order, remain and continue issuing and payable as aforesaid out of the said several ancient inclosures, until the same shall (at or after the end of fourteen years thence next ensuing) be again varied by such application, and in such manner as therein before mentioned.—Dated this 1st day of January 1819.

Frederick Ricketts.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
