SATURDAY, JANUARY 16, 1819.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Parochial Clergy of the Diocese of Saint Asaph, beg leave with the strongest feelings of dutiful affection, to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence upon an event which calls forth the deepest sorrow from all who have witnessed the mild and dignified virtues which graced the Court, of which Her late Majesty was both the pattern and ornament ;—for more than half a century, the unaffected purity of her conduct was an instructive lesson to her own sex;—into her presence no violation of decorum, no levity of manners could obtain admission.—May the influence of such an example remain as long as the remembrance of such eminent virtues shall be impressed upon the minds of those who best know how to appreciate them.

The patient submission and pious resignation of the Royal Sufferer during a long protracted illness, fully prove (if any proof were wanting), the efficacious support of a daily religious practice during a long life, and the next best solace under such trials, and a strong alleviation of them was supplied by the filial attentions of your Royal Highness, and the other illustrious relatives of Her Majesty.

That the hand of Providence may be still stretched out over the head of our venerable and beloved Monarch, and that your Royal Highness may long continue its peculiar care for the honour and benefit of this kingdom, shall be the constant prayers of your Royal Highness's most faithful and dutiful subjects.

John St. Asaph.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of St. Asaph, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Worcester.

SIR,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and attached subjects, beg leave to express our sincere regret on the loss sustained by your Royal Highness, and all the parts of your Royal House, in the lamented death of Her Majesty the Queen.

Virtue, Sir, which is always attractive, is most so when displayed from the eminence of a Throne: and bright was the example both of virtue and piety which Her Majesty held forth for the imitation and benefit of the world around her. In her private character was seen the constant exercise of all the duties which tend to make domestic life happy, and from the graceful dignity of her public demeanour the manners of a court received their proper colour.

F. Worcester.

[Transmitted by the Bishop, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Exeter, the dutiful and loyal subjects of our most gracious Sovereign, beg leave with all humility and respect to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere and unfeigned condolence on the deeply lamented death of Her late Majesty the Queen.

In contemplating however the great loss the nation has thereby sustained it is impossible not to reflect with gratitude towards the wise Disposer of all events, that Her Majesty for more than half a century should have undeviatingly practised those eminent and Christian virtues which adorn any situation in life, but which add peculiar lustre to that state where example is most effective, and imitation most readily adopted; and we trust that your Royal Highness will pardon the observation, when we venture to assure you, that your Royal Highness's unwearying and filial attention to Her Majesty, during her protracted illness, has been viewed by the whole nation with the warmest sentiments of admiration and affection, and by none more sensibly than by us, who with the most profound and respectful veneration subscribe ourselves, Sir, your Royal Highness's most dutiful and most devoted servants, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Exeter.

G. Exeter.

[Transmitted by the Bishop, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Chancellor, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Sarum, beg leave most respectfully to express to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the death of Her Excellent Majesty, your Royal Highness's august Mother.

The exemplary discharge of those duties of filial affection by which your Royal Highness so unremittingly assuaged the long protracted sufferings of an afflicted Parent, must prove to your Royal Highness an abundant source of consolation, under this severe and irreparable loss, and will not fail to exalt your Royal Highness's character in the estimation of that people, over whom your Royal Highness is one day destined to reign.

Sensible of the weight and influence, which elevation of rank necessarily gives to example, we cannot contemplate the royal and domestic virtues by which Her late Majesty was so eminently distinguished, without considering that she was highly instrumental in raising the standard of public morals, and thereby promoting most essentially the happiness and prosperity of this country. We therefore fervently pray, that the memory of Her Majesty, endeared by such recollections, to all classes of His Majesty's subjects, may continue to produce the same beneficial effects; that her judicious and dignified deportment in all the relations of public and private life, may be emulated by her descendants, and thus preserve to your Royal Highness's illustrious House the attachment of an enlightened and religious nation.
J. Sarum.

[Transmitted by the Bishop, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff, beg leave to condole with your Royal Highness on the death of our Most Gracious Queen, your Royal Mother. But while we mourn for the loss which we have sustained, we are thankful to Almighty God for having so long blessed us with such a Queen. To enumerate her virtues, as well public as private, we should vainly attempt in a short Address: they are indeed universally known, and to no one better than your Royal Highness.

But we cannot conclude without expressing our gratitude for that example of filial piety which has been given at all times by your Royal Highness, but which, especially under the late severe dispensation, has alleviated the pains of your Royal Mother, and cannot fail eventually to assuage even the grief which the loss of such a Mother must excite in such a Son.

Herbert Landaff.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Landaff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

WE, the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Wardens, and other Members of the United Grand Lodge of Antient, Free, and Accepted Masons of England, most respectfully approach your Royal Highness with our sincere and cordial condolence on the loss which your Royal Highness, and the whole nation have sustained by the death of our august and venerable Queen.

The long and uniform patronage and support which our antient and honourable fraternity has received from your Royal Highness and your illustrious Family, render this event peculiarly distressing to masons. And though the recollection that during a period of half a century Her late Majesty exhibited a pattern of transcendent excellence in the exercise of all the conjugal and maternal duties increases our sorrow, we trust it will afford the best consolation to your Royal Highness.

That the Grand Architect of the Universe may enable your Royal Highness to support this and every other dispensation of His Providence with fortitude and resignation, is our most fervent prayer.

Done at the Grand Lodge, in London, this 9th day of December A. D. 1818.

Augustus Frederick, G. M.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Grand Master and Patron of the Order of Free Masonry, &c. &c. &c.

The humble Address of Condolence of the Saint Lawrence Lodge, Forres, N. B. on the demise of Her late august and sacred Majesty of blessed memory.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Saint Lawrence Lodge, Forres, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the deepest regret and condolence for the protracted illness, and final decease of your royal and virtuous Mother.

We humbly hope that the example of piety and resignation to the will of God, which she displayed in her severest trial, will stamp a lasting mark of what a great and virtuous conduct can effect, not only upon her illustrious Family, but upon the nation at large, who so deeply deplore the loss of such an august Personage, and who has presided with such amiability of character for so long a period, in the first and best Court of Europe.

That your Royal Highness may derive that consolation from the Almighty Disposer of All Events, for the loss of such an inestimable Parent; and that you may long continue to wield the sceptre over this happy nation, is the fervent prayer of, your Royal Highness's most loyal, dutiful brethren, subjects, and servants.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, at St. Lawrence Lodge, Forres, N. B. this 5th day of January 1819. Pat. Strachan, M.

[Transmitted by Pat. Strachan, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Landholders, Magistrates, and Clergy of the County of Moray, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to offer our humble condolence on the death of your august Parent, and sincerely to sympathise with your Royal Highness on that melancholy event.

Accustomed to contemplate with gratitude and veneration the excellencies of character which distinguished the Consort of our beloved Sovereign and the many invaluable benefits conferred on society by her virtuous public and private conduct, we deplore her loss as a national calamity, and mourn the privation of her illustrious example.

Permit us, Sir, on this occasion to renew the assurances of our unfeigned love and attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and to express our wishes that you may receive those comforts and consolations which religion and reason afford, and which the conscious discharge of unremitted filial duty cannot fail to ensure.

Signed, in our name and by our authority, at Elgin, the 24th December 1818, by, Archibald Dunbar, Preses.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Peebles.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Peebles, under the deepest impression of sorrow and regret, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness with the offering of our most sincere condolence, in consequence of the severe and irreparable loss your Royal Highness and the whole nation have sustained by the lamented death of Her Most Excellent Majesty Queen Charlotte.

Convinced of the inestimable benefits which result to society from a prominent display of virtue and piety in exalted rank, we are anxious to render the tribute of respect due to the memory of a Queen, who for more than half a century has commanded the gratitude of all ranks for having so successfully upheld the best interests of domestic, as well as of public life, by her inflexible firmness and powerful example.

While we deplore the suffering experienced by Her Majesty through a long period of distress, which she bore with pious resignation, we duly appreciate the unremitting attention of your Royal Highness, to sooth her sorrow and mitigate her pain and anguish.

We beg leave to repeat our sentiments of loyal and dutiful attachment to our afflicted Sovereign, and the Royal Family, and to acknowledge the many blessings and advantages we and our forefathers have enjoyed under the illustrious House of Brunswick. Elibank.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Denbigh, beg to approach your Royal Highness with our sentiments of condolence upon the demise of our late Gracious Queen. The example which Her Majesty set, of attention to the interests of religion and morality throughout a reign of unexampled length, and the manner in which she fulfilled the duties both of a Wife and Mother, must be admired by every one.

We cannot but respect the affectionate and filial attentions of your Royal Highness to your august Mother during the period of her protracted sufferings, which, at the same time that they have afforded an example for the imitation of all ranks of His Majesty's subjects, will we trust be the source of the truest consolation to your Royal Highness under the present affliction.

Signed, at the request and on behalf of the Meeting, held at Ruthin, in the County of Denbigh, this 5th day of January 1819.

E. Lloyd, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the much lamented death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty.

In common with the whole nation we deeply feel the loss of a Sovereign who adorned the high and dignified station to which she was called; who, during the whole of a long life, was exemplary in all the virtues of a wife, a mother, and a christian; and whose uniform and steady discouragement of vice, gives her memory the strongest claims on the gratitude of the public.

These expressions of our regard, and of our sorrow, we presume to lay before your Royal Highness, in the full confidence that they will be appreciated by your Royal Highness, whose conduct for filial affection has been so signally and strongly marked, during the whole period of Her Majesty's afflicting and protracted illness.

Signed at the request and on the behalf of the Meeting,
Joseph Fielden, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Leicester, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the tribute of our sincere and heartfelt condolence, upon the loss which your Royal Highness, and the whole British nation have sustained, in the death of Her Majesty, our late most gracious Queen.

Although Her Majesty's life had been prolonged to the ordinary term of human existence, yet we cannot the less deeply deplore that decree of Providence which has consigned to the grave, virtues that have been before our eyes in ceaseless operation during the long period of fifty seven years, and whose beneficial effects in a great community, must be acknowledged by all those who understand and appreciate the force and influence of example in every age and nation.

While we witnessed with feelings of poignant sorrow, the severe sufferings with which Her Majesty's last illness was attended, we at the same time contemplated with admiration that anxious solicitude, and filial piety of your Royal Highness, by which we doubt not those sufferings were greatly alleviated.

We presume with humble deference to offer the assurances of our heartfelt attachment to our afflicted Sovereign, to your Royal Highness, and to your illustrious House; and we earnestly pray, that your Royal Highness may long live to watch over our invaluable constitution, and to direct the energies of this great and enlightened country.

Signed in compliance with the unanimous resolution of a County Meeting, held at the Castle of Leicester, on Friday the 8th day of January 1819.

George Robinson, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere condolence on the death of Her late Majesty the Queen; an event deeply afflicting to the nation at large, but more particularly felt by us who have had the opportunity of witnessing more nearly, during Her Majesty's repeated residences in this County, that happy union of royal condescension and beneficence, with private and domestic virtues which so peculiarly distinguished Her Majesty, and made her conduct an example to all ranks of her subjects, and her Court a pattern for the rest of Europe.

We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that the unremitting attention with which your Royal Highness endeavoured to alleviate the sufferings of your Royal Parent during her protracted illness, was as gratifying to us, in common with the rest of His Majesty's subjects, as it must be consoling to your Royal Highness's feelings under this severe affliction.

On behalf of the County of Dorset.

John Disney, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, beg permission to approach your Royal Highness, with the sentiments of our most sincere condolence upon the afflicting loss which your Royal Highness and the country have sustained, by the decease of Her Majesty.

Although the practice of the constitution has wisely precluded the Queen Consort from assisting in the political Government of the nation, yet during a period of more than fifty years, the conduct of Her late Majesty in all the duties of domestic life, has had a most beneficial influence on the morals and religion of the public.

If amidst the increasing luxuries of a great and commercial people, the morals of this favoured land have retained their purity; if vice be still discountenanced, and propriety be still respected, the grateful page of history will principally attribute this happy state of society to that bright example, which as a Wife, a Mother, and a Queen, Her Majesty so conspicuously displayed.

We cannot conclude this address of condolence without assuring your Royal Highness of our dutiful and loyal attachment, and we trust, that (even in this moment of filial sorrow) your Royal Highness may derive great consolation from those expressions of regard towards your illustrious House, which this event has called forth from all classes of His Majesty's subjects.

Signed at the request, and on behalf of the Meeting.
R. L. Allgood, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Magistrates, Clergy and other Inhabitants of Sunderland, Bishop-Wearmouth, Monk-Wearmouth and their vicinity, are desirous to express to your Royal Highness our loyal participation in that feeling of just concern which pervades the nation, for the loss it has sustained and the weight of which has fallen with particular pressure upon your Royal Highness and your illustrious House.

In contemplating the character of our departed Queen, we find much consolation in the retrospect of a life distinguished by inflexible regard to the obligations of religion and productive by the example of eminent virtues, both in public and private life, of the most salutary, and we trust permanent influence on society, and in the reflection that a life so valuable was happily protracted to a venerable age.

We earnestly hope that your Royal Highness may experience the full effect of those gratifying reflections, which must result from the recollection of that filial piety which your Royal Highness has ever manifested towards the revered object of our regret.

May your Royal Highness long live to promote the happiness and prosperity of this united kingdom, and to experience the attachment of a people justly sensible of the high distinctions which the country has attained, during the long reign of our beloved Sovereign and the Regency of your Royal Highness, and fully impressed with a conviction of the intimate connection which subsists between the welfare of the House of Brunswick and the security of the nation, in the preservation of its civil and religious privileges.

Robert Gray, D. D. Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Dr. Gray, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT:

The humble and dutiful Address of the Scots Presbytery in London, connected with the established Church of Scotland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Scots Presbytery in London, in communion with the established Church of Scotland, feeling in common with your Royal Highness and the whole nation, the sorrow, which the death of her late most gracious Majesty has excited, beg to present to your Royal Highness our dutiful and affectionate address of condolence.

We look back with feelings of deep respect and regret, on the character of our departed Queen; uniting, as she did in such an eminent degree, every public, private and domestic virtue, with a uniform steadiness of principle, and a wise dignified and inflexible line of deportment through life. As Protestants, as a branch of a sister-national establishment, and as subjects of the British Empire; we feel pride and gratitude in reflecting, that in Her Majesty we always marked the friend of religion, an inviolate attachment, in particular, to the principles of our reformed faith, the sincere lover of the rights and happiness of a great and a free nation, and during a long reign, the watchful guardian of the purity and the dignity of the British Court.

We most sincerely sympathise with your Royal Highness, on the accumulated sorrows and afflictions, which have lately touched the tenderest feelings of your heart. An amiable daughter, the object of a father's fondest affections, and of a mighty nation's proudest hopes, was in the bloom of youth and beauty, recently summoned to the coldness and silence of the grave. One revered parent, in whose kindly and unwearied attentions to her children, every mother in the country found a bright example of maternal duty, has now left her afflicted family to mourn over her irreparable loss:—And these sorrowful dispensations come home with deeper energy to your Royal Highness's heart, by the reflection that the other venerable parent, our aged and beloved Sovereign, is suffering under one of the most distressing calamities, with which the human mind can be visited.

But in the midst of these dark and mysterious events, the religion of the Gospel, with which our country is blessed, opens to your Royal Highness the richest sources of comfort, and inspires the most animating hopes under every trouble of life.

That your Royal Highness may experience the peace and the consolation which religion imparts, and may repose on the glorious hopes which that religion inspires under every trial and bereavement, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness.

The Ministers and Elders of this Presbytery. At a quarterly meeting of Presbytery, held on the 23d day of December, 1818 years, signed in our name and by our authority, by James Boyd, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Rev. James Boyd, Moderator, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Presbytery of Edinburgh.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, beg leave to express to your Royal Highness our heartfelt condolence with your Royal Highness, and with all the Royal Family, on the death of our Sovereign's illustrious Consort, Her Majesty the Queen.

We shall never forget that, amidst all the cares of the longest and most eventful reign ever known in our land, Her Majesty's conjugal affection never ceased to soothe and comfort the heart of the best of Kings.

We look back with mingled sentiments of admiration and gratitude on that example which Her Majesty so long afforded, of the virtues which adorn her sex, and on the steadfastness with which she repelled, from the precincts of the Court, whatever might have reflected dishonour on the female character and name.

We may attempt to appreciate particular blessings which we enjoy, but it would be difficult to form an estimate of some evils against the hazards of which we have been protected by the personal character and influence of Her Majesty, co-operating with those of our most gracious and most beloved Sovereign.

During Her Majesty's long and much lamented illness, we felt it a peculiar consolation to observe the fruits of her parental affection, in the filial anxiety with which she was watched, and the exemplary case with which her sufferings were alleviated by a numerous and affectionate offspring.

We do not repine under that afflicting dispensation of Providence, by which we are at length deprived of such a national blessing; but we pray to God that the memory of what Her Majesty was, may long continue to animate others with a like spirit.

Signed, in our name in our presence and at our appointment, by Andrew Duncan, Moderator.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a wheat stack standing amongst several others, belonging to Mr. John Wolton, of Eyke, in the county of Suffolk, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed in the night of Monday the 28th ultimo, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said wheat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, the rewards hereafter mentioned, are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Suffolk Fire Office;

And a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the said Mr. John Wolton.

Whitehall, January 5, 1819

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the body of Mr. John Thomas Taylor, son of Mr. Taylor, Surgeon, of Goswell-Street, in the parish of Saint Luke, in the county of Middlesex, has been found in the New River; and that there is reason to suppose the said John Thomas Taylor was, on Thursday the 10th day of December last, robbed, murdered, and thrown into the said river, near the Iron-Bridge, at the foot of Hornsey-Wood, in the Green-Lanes, leading to Southgate, when, amongst other things, there was taken from his person a silver box cover hunting watch, maker's name "Joseph Mears, 1814," to which was attached a gold curb chain, a small gold seal, without any engraving, and another larger, with a white cornelian stone, the engraving, a tower, and a ship sailing;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually murdered the said John Thomas Taylor), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by J. M. Fisher, Esq. Solicitor, No. 10, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn, London.

Whitehall, January 2, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Monday the 21st of December last, the ship Mary, Williams, Master, from Limerick to London, ran on shore on the Goodwin Sands, when the greatest part of her cargo, consisting of butter, beef, pork, linen, &c. was taken out by boats belonging to Deal, Ramsgate, and the vicinity; and that by far the greatest part thereof has been secreted and stolen by persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall make a full disclosure of the facts, and shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices who may have been concerned in stealing the said property, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction of the said offender or offenders, by Mr. John Bennett, jun. Secretary to the Committee for managing the Affairs of Lloyd's, London.

Whitehall, December 22, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Wednesday the 16th instant, some evil disposed person or persons did feloniously and maliciously maim and wound two bull calves, the property of Mr. William Bound, of Hill Farm, situate at Henbury, in the county of Dorset, and also a cow the property of Thomas Pither, residing upon the said farm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. William Castleman, Solicitor, Wimborn, in the county of Dorset.

Whitehall, December 7, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a stack of oats belonging to Mr. Thomas Hobson, of the Parish of Great Glenn, in the county of Leicester, was maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons, on the evening of Thursday the 3d instant, at a field barn in the said parish;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said oat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the same. The said reward to be paid immediately after such conviction by the Constable of Great Glenn.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been most graciously pleased to authorise the Court of Assistants of the Sea Officers Widows' Charity, to grant pensions to Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, without restriction as to the amount of their income, and notwithstanding they now are or may have been remarried, provided they shall appear to be proper and deserving objects of the public bounty; this is to give notice thereof, in order that Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, who have hitherto been excluded from the Charity by reason of the amount of their income, or in consequence of having remarried, and may now be desirous of applying for the pension, may prefer their claim by letter to me at this Office.

And notice is further given, that all Widows of Naval Officers already on the Pension List, may obtain the new forms of affidavit by letter to me, or by personal application at the Admiralty-Office, and the Offices of the Resident Commissioners of the Navy at the several Dock-Yards.

J. W. CROKER.

RESTORATION OF A LICENCE.

Navy Pay-Office, January 14, 1819.

Notice is hereby given, that the licence of Mr. Isaac Aaron, of High-Street, Chatham, which was revoked 14th December 1818, has been this day restored. Frederick John Robinson.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill for abolishing the payment of certain tolls called Ingates and Outgates, collected at the several entrances into the town of Liverpool, and of certain tolls and stallage now payable in the markets and fairs there, and for granting other tolls and stallage in lieu thereof; and for the better regulation of the said markets.

January 6, 1819. Statham, Town Clerk.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

IN virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, for enabling the Commissioners of the Northern Light-Houses to erect and maintain Light-Houses on the Isle of Man, one Light-House has been erected at the Point of Ayre, at the Northern extremity of that Island, and two Light-Houses have also been erected on the Calf Island, at the Southern extremity of Man; notice is accordingly hereby given, that these Lights will be exhibited on the evening of Monday the 1st day of February 1819, and will thereafter continue to be lighted from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is the Specification of the Position of the Light-Houses, and the Appearance of the Lights, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners.

POINT OF AYRE LIGHT-HOUSE.

This Light-House is situate about 650 feet from the Sea, upon an extensive plain in the Main Island of Man, called the Point of Ayre, in North latitude 54 deg. 27 min. and West longitude 4 deg. 20 min. The Light-House bears by compass from the Mull of Galloway, S.S.E., and is distant 22 miles; from Burrow-Head, S.S.W. 1-3d W., distant $16\frac{1}{2}$ miles; from St. Bees, in Cumberland, W. by N. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., distant $29\frac{1}{2}$ miles; from Maughold-Head, in the Isle of Man, N. by E., distant $8\frac{1}{2}$ miles; from Rue or Blue Point, E. by S., distant 4 miles.

The light will be from oil, with a reflecting and revolving apparatus, and will be known to Mariners as a single revolving light with colour, exhibiting from the same light-room a light of the natural appearance, alternating with a light tinged with a red colour. These lights will respectively attain their greatest strength or most luminous effect at the end of every two minutes; but in the course of each periodic revolution of the reflector-frame, both lights will become alternately fainter and more obscure, and, to a distant observer, be totally eclipsed for a short period of time.

The Light-Room at the Point of Ayre is glazed all round, but the light will be hid from the Mariner by the high land of Maughold-Head towards the South, and by Rue Point towards the West. Being elevated 106 feet above the medium level of the Sea, its most luminous side may be seen, like a star of the first magnitude, at the distance of four or five leagues; but the side tinged red being somewhat obscured by the coloured shades, will not be seen at so great a distance.

CALF OF MAN LIGHT-HOUSES.

There are two leading Lights on the Calf of Man, which are situated on the Western side of the small Island called the Calf, in North latitude 54 deg. 5 min. and West longitude 4 deg. 46 min. These two Light-Houses are distant from each other 560 feet. The higher Light bears by compass from the Mull of Galloway, S.S.W., distant 37 miles; Peel-Head, in the Isle of Man, S.W., distant 11 miles; Langneas Point, W. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N., distant $6\frac{1}{2}$ miles; from the sunken rocks, called the Chickens, N.E. 1-3d E., distant about $1\frac{1}{4}$ miles.

These two leading Lights will be from oil, each Light-Room being furnished with a distinct reflecting and revolving apparatus, by which they will be distinguished from the other Lights on the coast, and also be rendered useful as leading Lights for passing the dangerous rocks called the Chickens. The Light-House Towers, as before noticed, are built at the distance of 560 feet apart, bearing from each other N.E. 1-3d E. and S.W. 1-3d W., consequently to an observer, in the direction of the Chickens, both Lights will appear in one, or be seen in the same line of direction, and be known to Mariners as double revolving or leading Lights without colour. The Lights will respectively attain their greatest strength or most luminous effect at the end of every two minutes; but in the course of the periodic revolution of the reflector-frames, the respective Lights will alternately become fainter and more obscure, and, to a distant observer, will be totally eclipsed for a short period of time.

The two Light-Rooms at the Calf of Man are glazed all round, but both Lights will be hid from the Mariner by the high land of Peel-Head towards the N.E. and by Spanish-Head in an Eastern direction. Both Lights, however, will be visible at about three quarters of a mile off the Point of Langness.

The lower Light is elevated 305 feet above the medium level of the Sea, and the high Light 396 feet, and when the Lights have attained their most luminous effect, they will be seen like stars of the first magnitude, at the distance of six or seven leagues.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-Houses, C. Cuninghame, Sec.

Edinburgh, December 31, 1818.

Cutting the Tickets of Second Lottery 1818.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
January 16, 1819.

THE Managers and Directors of the lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby give notice, that they will cut off the tickets of the second of those lotteries for 1818, into their respective boxes A and B, on Tuesday the 2d of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at this Office, beginning first with the benefits and blanks, which are to be cut into box B, and continuing until all the said tickets for each of the said boxes are completely cut therein.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby also give notice, that they will attend and oversee the drawing of the tickets of the said second lottery for 1818, on Tuesday the 9th day of February next, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.

Notice to the Creditors of John Robertson, Merchant, in Glasgow:

Glasgow, January 9, 1819.

THE estates, real and personal, of the said John Robertson, having been sequestrated by the Lords of Council and Session, as formerly advertised, the Creditors, at a general meeting, held agreeably to appointment of their Lordships, on the 30th day of December last, unanimously made choice of Mr. James Kerr, Accountant, in Glasgow, to be Trustee on said sequestrated estates; and his appointment to that Office has since been duly confirmed by the Lord Balgray, Ordinary officiating on the Bills, in terms of the Statute.

Upon the application of the Trustee, the Sheriff-Substitute of Lanarkshire at Glasgow has appointed the public examinations of the Bankrupt and others acquainted with his affairs to take place within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, in Glasgow, on Monday the 25th day of January current and Monday the 8th day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon on each day.

The Trustee hereby farther intimates, that two general meetings of the Creditors will be held, the one on Tuesday the 9th day of February next (being the day immediately following the last diet of examination), and the other on Tuesday the 23d day of the said last-mentioned month, both within the Writing-Rooms of Messrs. Fleming and Strang, No. 31, Nelson-Street, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of instructing the Trustee with regard to the management, recovery, and disposal of the trust estate, and of appointing Commissioners; and such of the Creditors as have not already done so, are hereby required to lodge their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, in the hands of the Trustee on or before the 2d day of October next; when ten months from the date of the sequestration will have elapsed; certifying those who shall fail to do so, that they will be excluded from receiving any share of the first division of the trust funds.

Intimation to the Creditors of Webster and Findlay, Merchants, in Montrose; and of Andrew Webster and David Findlay, individual Members of the said Company.

Montrose, December 30, 1818

CHARLES BARCLAY, Merchant, in Montrose, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said parties, hereby gives notice, that states of the Bankrupts' affairs, made up, in terms of the Statute, lie with him, for the inspection of all concerned, until the 1st day of February next, when a final dividend will be paid upon all the claims which have been ranked and proved upon the said sequestrated estate.

Notice to the Creditors of Hew Cameron, Upholsterer, in Glasgow.

DAVID BURTON, Perfumer, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that his election as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Hew Cameron has been confirmed by the Court of Session; and that the Sheriff-Substitute of Lanarkshire has fixed the 22d day of January current and the 5th day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon on each day, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office in Glasgow. The Trustee farther intimates, that a meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Writing-Office of Messrs. Andrew and Thomas Ballingall, Writers, in Glasgow, upon the 6th day of February next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon; and another meeting, at the same place and hour, upon the 20th day of February next; for the purpose of electing Commissioners and instructing him in the management of the said estate. And the Trustee requests the Creditors to lodge with him their claims and grounds of debt, and affidavits to the verity thereof, on or before said meetings; certifying to such of the Creditors as neglect to do so, betwixt and the 17th September next, being ten months from the date of the sequestration, they will receive no share of the first division of the Bankrupt's estate.
