TUESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1819.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with feelings of the deepest affliction for the ever to be lamented death of your Royal Mother, our late most venerable and gracious Queen.

Your Royal Highness may be assured, that in common with all His Majesty's loyal subjects, His faithful citizens of Dublin most sincerely deplore the great national calamity which has deprived them of a beloved Queen, who had so long and so deservedly been the object of their warmest affections, and whose mild and eminent virtues commanded the admiration of her own and every surrounding nation.

We have, Sir, during Her Majesty's long and severe indisposition, witnessed with heartfelt approbation your dutiful, affectionate, and unremitting attention to your Royal Parent, and if public sorrow could soothe private grief you have that gratifying consolation, but Religion alone can inspire a pious submission to the Will of Heaven, and we most humbly and sincerely hope that it will enable your Royal Highness to support with resignation the heavy misfortune with which it hath pleased Divine Providence to afflict you.

Permit us to avail ourselves of this opportunity to renew our assurances of duty, affection, and attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

In testimony whereof the common seal of said City is hereunto affixed.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City of Limerick, in Common Council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness to offer our dutiful condolence upon the melancholy event, which has deprived this nation of a most amiable and virtuous Queen, and your Royal Highness of an attached and affectionate Mother.

We have observed with admiration, the filial duty evinced by your Royal Highness during the protracted illness with which it pleased the Almighty to afflict your Royal Parent; such attention could not have failed of softening the sufferings Her Majesty laboured under, which pleasing reflection will afford a source of lasting satisfaction to the benevolent mind of your Royal Highness.

By order,

Edward Parker, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the County of the City of Limerick.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Inhabitants of the County of the City of Limerick, beg leave to offer to you our sincere condolence on the late melancholy event which has taken from your Royal Highness a Mother, and from the empire its Queen.

The strict moral propriety which marked the renor of her life, and the pure excellence of those female virtues for which her conduct has been conspicuous, conferred a grace upon her character which station alone could not bestow: dignity and rank may command respect for the living, but it is virtue alone that weaves the unfading garland for the dead.

The filial attention displayed by your Royal Highness in the melancholy progress of your Royal Mother's illness, must have received in every feeling heart its full meed of applause, and it has been contemplated by us with deep veneration and respect.

Signed, on behalf of the Inhabitants of the County of the City of Limerick.

Francis Arthur, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Thomas Spring Rice, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Louth, assembled at the County Court-House, beg leave to address your Royal Highness with sentiments of the deepest sorrow at the melancholy event which has occurred in the death of Her late Majesty, our Most Gracious Queen. When we contemplate the many virtues which adorned her long life, and that bright example which she ever maintained on the Throne of Great Britain, we cannot but consider that a public calamity which has deprived the British empire of so zealous a guardian of the purity and morality of the country; but submitting to the Will of an All-Wise Providence we sincerely trust, that although she is removed from us, her life will ever remain as a bright example to those who may come after her, that they may learn from her conduct how necessary it is for the welfare of a great nation that the Court should strictly uphold those religious and moral virtues, which by it will be disseminated through all classes of society.

We are unwilling to trespass any longer on your Royal Highness except to renew our expressions of undeviating attachment and devotion to your Royal Highness's Person, and to His Majesty's Crown and dignity.

Signed on the behalf of the Meeting,

F. Fortescue, High-Sheriff.

Court-House, Dundalk, December 28, 1818.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, in Council assembled, beg permission to offer your Royal Highness our sincere condolence upon the great loss which your Royal Highness, your Family, and the Kingdom at large have sustained by the death of our late Gracious Queen Charlotte.

In an age of great dissipation and laxity of morals, she held forth a bright pattern of the amiable virtues of private life, and a dignified example of all that was proper in her exalted public station.

Much as we lamented Her Majesty's acute and protracted sufferings, your Royal Highness's dutiful attention to your afflicted Parent, gave us the most lively satisfaction, and without doubt greatly consoled Her Majesty in Her painful illness.

We deeply regret the continuance of the unfortunate malady which renders our venerable and revered Sovereign insensible of the melancholy event which deprived him of his beloved Consort, and filled all his loyal subjects with grief and sorrow.

Given under our common seal this 22d day of December in the year of our Lord 1818.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Worcester, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the County of Wigtown.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Wigtown, approach the Throne humbly to condole with your Royal Highness upon the recent demise of your Royal Highness's august Parent, Her late Majesty the Queen.

With feelings of profound respect and gratitude we retrace the circumstances of Her late Majesty's career as a Queen, a Wife, and Mother, and behold in it an illustrious example to those who are called by Providence to fill her exalted station.

We humbly trust it will afford some consolation to your Royal Highness's mind to reflect that the life of your august Parent was prolonged to a mature old age, soothed by the affectionate endearments of her children, and the esteem and love of her subjects; and that when at last the closing scene arrived, the grief of your Royal House has been freely shared by an affectionate and loyal people.

Signed, in name and by appointment of a Public Meeting held at Wigtown, the 30th December 1818.

J. Fane Agnew, Convener.

[Transmitted by the Convener, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Heritors and Burgeses of the Royal Burgh of Kinghorn, assembled at their Head Court.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Heritors and Burgeses of the Royal Burgh of Kinghorn, take the liberty of approaching your Royal Highness to express our sincere sympathy, and offer our condolence on account of the long protracted illness and death of Her Most Excellent Majesty the Queen.

And we avail ourselves of this melancholy occasion to renew to your Royal Highness our assurances of loyalty and attachment, and to express our hope that the House of Brunswick will long reign in the hearts of the people of the United Kingdom; and that the different Branches of which that illustrious House is composed may be long admired and beloved for their exemplary deportment, and for every other virtue by which an illustrious Family can secure the attachment of their subjects.

Subscribed in our name, and by our appointment, by William Moyes, Esq. our Magistrate, presiding at the Head Court, and sealed with our seal, at Kinghorn, the 30th day of December 1818 years. William Moyes, Bailey

[Transmitted by Sir Ronald C. Ferguson, K. C. B. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of that Body of Protestant Dissenters, commonly called the Associate (Burgher) Presbytery, in Edinburgh.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Associate Presbytery, in Edinburgh, assembled in our monthly presbyterial meeting, beg leave to present ourselves in your Royal Highness's august presence, along with those who mourn the death of your late Royal Parent, our Most Gracious Queen, and who offer to your Royal Highness their warmest Christian condolence in this hour of personal and public distress.

When we remember what Her late Majesty was, how general and diffusive a blessing, especially by exhibiting a pattern, whose mild influence, reaching alike the palace and the cottage, invited and encouraged all classes of society to follow her steps in the pursuit of "whatsoever things are pure and lovely, and of good report," we regard her residence in these islands, for a period of fifty-seven years, as an invaluable gift of the Almighty to the British empire, and must consider the severe stroke of Providence, in taking her from us, as a most afflictive event, and a source of universal sorrow.

It is our ardent prayer, that all ranks in these realms may be directed by the Good Spirit of God to make a wise improvement of this calamitous dispensation; that the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may preserve, and guide, and bless your Royal Highness; and that your Royal Highness, and every branch of your most illustrious House, may participate largely of those divine consolations which the Gospel of Jesus Christ administers "to them that mourn!"

We humbly beseech your Royal Highness to receive the renewed assurances of our attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and our inviolable resolution to cherish every loyal principle in the hearts of all those who place themselves within the compass of our instructions and example.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Edinburgh, this 5th day of January in the year of our Lord 1819.

James Peddie, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Lord Advocate of Scotland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in our County Hall assembled, desire to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of sincere sympathy and condolence on the death of Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte, your illustrious Mother; whereby the world has been deprived of a dignified pattern of female excellence uniformly displayed in the most exalted station, during a long life of conjugal and parental virtue.

Whilst we are aware that the sensibility of your Royal Highness must be deeply wounded by the final dissolution of the ties which bound your Royal Highness to an affectionate Parent, we feel assured that your Royal Highness will reflect, with pious gratitude, that Divine Providence permitted your Royal Mother to attain a mature old age, and to adorn the British Throne for the long period of fifty-seven years, by exhibiting and exemplifying all the social and domestic virtues.

The unwearied attention which your Royal Highness paid to your illustrious Mother, during her severe and protracted sufferings, has excited our warmest admiration; and we venture confidently to assure your Royal Highness that the filial affection, displayed by you on that occasion, has been most grateful to the feelings of a free, benevolent, and loyal people.

We are fully sensible how much the public calamity, arising from the affliction of our beloved Sovereign, has been alleviated by the able manner in which your Royal Highness has discharged the duties of the high office of Regent of these realms, and we most earnestly pray for the blessing of Heaven on your Person and Government.

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment, in our presence, at Kirkcudbright, the 22d day of December in the year 1818.

John Gordon, Preses.

[Transmitted by James Dunlop, Esq. M. P. for the Stewartry, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Councilmen of the City of Chester, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our condolence on the occasion of the lamented death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty the Queen, which has deprived the nation of a most illustrious example of female excellence in all the relations of domestic and public life.

We are truly sensible of the advantages and support which the cause of religion and the interests of morality derived from Her Majesty's strict and conscientious discharge of the arduous duties of her exalted station, and while we sympathise with your Royal Highness on this mournful occasion, we acknowledge with gratitude the goodness of Divine Providence in granting to Her Majesty a length of days beyond the ordinary duration of human existence. We reflect with satisfaction that Her Majesty in her last protracted illness was blessed with all the consolations which an habitual sense of religion, the recollection of a well spent life, and the unceasing attentions of filial piety could supply.

Given under our common seal this 5th day of January 1819.

By order,

Finchett, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by David Francis Jones, Esq. the Recorder, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Antient Royal Burgh of Inverkeithing.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Antient Royal Burgh of Inverkeithing, most dutiful and loyal subjects of His Majesty, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our most deep and heartfelt sympathy and condolence on the lamented death of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, an event by which your Royal Highness has sustained the greatest domestic affliction, and the nation an irreparable loss.

While we mourn under this severe calamity with which, in the dispensations of Providence, your august House, and His Majesty's loyal and affectionate subjects, have been visited, we look back with some consolation on the many eminent and distinguished virtues which adorned the character of Her Majesty, and set an example to the kingdom at large, the effects of which no time can efface.

The unremitting and tender affection displayed by your Royal Highness, and the other Members of your illustrious Family, to Her Majesty during her illness, so soothing to her under her protracted distress, has, if possible, increased those sentiments of esteem and admiration in which you are so deservedly held by a loyal and faithful people.

We humbly trust that your Royal Highness will permit us to embrace this opportunity of expressing our respectful and unshaken attachment to our venerable and revered Sovereign, and to your Royal Highness, under whom we have enjoyed so many blessings.

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment, and the seal of the Burgh affixed hereto, at Inverkeithing, this 26th day of December 1818.

Jas. Sad, First Magistrate.

[Transmitted by the Honourable Francis Ward Primrose, the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal people, the Deputy Lieutenants, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Clergy of the County of Sutherland, in general meeting assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne, and to make offer to your Royal Highness of our heartfelt sympathy and condolence on the death of your illustrious Mother, Her late Majesty.

Becoming, in early life, the Consort of one of the greatest and most powerful Sovereigns in the world, and sharing His Throne for more than half a century, her Majesty's constant and firm discharge, during the whole of that long period, of the high and important duties of a Queen, a Wife, and a Mother, most justly endeared Her to His Majesty's people—and her virtues will for ever live in their grateful memories.

We further beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that our attachment to and respect for your Royal Highness have, if possible, been strengthened and increased by our observance of your dutiful and affectionate conduct to your illustrious Parent, throughout the course of Her Majesty's protracted illness.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, at Dornoch, the 22d day of December, in the year 1818, by Robert Sutherland, Esq. of Drummoy, our Preses.

R. Sutherland, Preses.

Unto His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick, Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of North Berwick.

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of North Berwick, beg your Royal Highness's permission to lay before your Royal Highness the expression of our most unfeigned condolence on the death of Her Majesty, an event which has deprived the nation of its most illustrious example of female virtue both in public and domestic life, and has involved your Royal Highness and your illustrious House in extreme affliction. We humbly hope that your Royal Highness may, as we do, derive consolation from reflecting that Her Majesty's life, as it had been extended beyond the ordinary course of human existence, and spent in the constant practice of religion and virtue, so its termination was such as a life so spent was calculated to produce.

The example which has been exhibited to the world, what calmness and composure religion can impart at the close of life, and the filial piety displayed by your Royal Highness and your Royal Brothers and Sisters will, we hope, have a tendency to maintain and diffuse those moral and religious principles which are the surest basis of national happiness and prosperity.

We continue to assure your Royal Highness of our own zealous attachment to Royal Highness's Person, and to that Constitution, in Church and State, which has, under your illustrious ancestors, so eminently distinguished this highly favoured land; and we implore the King of Kings that it may continue to bless our children's children.

Signed in our name, and in our presence, by James Dalrymple, Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The dutiful and condoling Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, in a General Meeting assembled at Inverness, the 5th day of January in the year 1819.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, most humbly approach your Royal Highness with the offer of our sincere condolence on the recent afflicting loss which your Royal Highness and the nation at large have suffered in the death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty the Queen.

We participate in the sorrow which your Royal Highness must feel both as a Son and as a Sovereign for the loss of one who for so long a period dignified the exalted station to which Providence had called her,—who for more than half a century maintained the purity of the British Court,—and gave, in all the relations of a Christian, a Queen, a Wife, and a Mother, an example of virtue which prosperity never sullied, and which the severest adversity never shook.

That such an example may long shed its influence over the manners of our nation; and that your Royal Highness, and your illustrious Family may long reign over a free and virtuous people, is the sincere payer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Meeting, by,

A. Macdonell, of Glengarry, Preses.

[Transmitted by A. Mandonell, Esq. of Glengarry, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and affectionate subjects, the High-Steward, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Montgomery, humbly presume to tender to your Royal Highness our dutiful sentiments of condolence on the death of our Most Gracious Queen; and to testify our veneration for her unassuming but sterling virtues, which at once shed a lustre upon royalty, and a most salutary influence on the morals of a licentious age. Permit us further to express our admiration of your Royal Highness's amiable and filial attention to your august Parent, which has so justly called forth the national praise.

May you, Sir, be rewarded by a long continuance of health and prosperity, and by the affection of a people deeply indebted to your Royal Highness for your unremitted and successful exertions to promote their security, their happiness, and glory.

Given under our common seal this 9th day of January in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

By order of the Common-Hall.

Jones, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Bedford, entreat permission to lay before your Royal Highness the expression of our sincere condolence on the event which has plunged your Royal Highness in deep affliction, and deprived the nation of a most illustrious pattern of female excellence in all the relations of domestic and public life.

We are duly sensible of the advantage and support which the cause of religion and morality derived from Her late Majesty's strict and conscientious discharge of the duties of her exalted station.

But while we sympathize with your Royal Highness on this mournful occasion, we acknowledge with gratitude the goodness of Divine Providence, in granting to Her Majesty a length of days beyond the ordinary duration of human existence; and we reflect with satisfaction, that Her Majesty in her last protracted illness was blessed and soothed with all the consolations which the habitual feeling of religion, the recollection of a well spent life, and the unceasing attentions of filial piety could supply.

John Cooke, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Lord George William Russell, M.P. for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, Free Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Great Grimsby, most humbly request permission to offer your Royal Highness the sincere expression of our sympathy and condolence on the demise of Her late Most Excellent Majesty.

We respectfully assure your Royal Highness, that while we deplore, in common with the rest of His Majesty's affectionate and loyal subjects, the loss of a Queen, whose many virtues had for so long a period adorned the Throne of these realms, our attachment to the Royal House, and to the mild and constitutional Government which we enjoy under its auspices, is heightened by our admiration of the filial piety and tenderness which Her Majesty's protracted sufferings drew from your Royal Highness and other individuals of Her Majesty's Family.

That the Almighty may be pleased to mitigate the affliction of the Royal Family on this mournful occasion, and long preserve the life and health of your Royal Highness, is our anxious prayer.

Signed at the request and on the behalf of the Meeting, Geo. Babb, Mayor.

[Transmitted by N. Fazakerley and Chas. Jennyson, Esqrs, M. P. for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Bridport, in the County of Dorset, in Common Council assembled, humbly desire to condole with your Royal Highness on the severe loss recently sustained by your Royal Highness, the Royal Family, and by the nation, in the death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty the Queen.

Ever faithful to His Majesty, and grateful for the blessings which are enjoyed under the Government of his illustrious Line, we, in common with the people of the United Kingdom, feel a lively interest in whatever affects or concerns the Royal House, and unite in the general sorrow on the present melancholy occasion.

We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of our devoted attachment to the Royal Family; and we sincerely pray that your Royal Highness may long live to enjoy the affections of His Majesty's subjects, rendered prosperous and happy by a wise administration of the laws.

Given under our common seal, the 11th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1819.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the antient Town of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the lamented death of your Royal Highness's Mother, our late Most Gracious Queen.

Divine Providence has ever taught mankind, that human life and its comforts are given upon the condition of being afterwards taken away; yet seldom do we more sensibly feel the effect of this truth, than when realized in the loss of those persons whom the near ties of kindred, of dutiful regard, and just esteem, have rendered objects of our affectionate solicitude. On all those considerations, we deeply sympathize in the sorrowful feelings so strongly manifested by your Royal Highness on the decease of your late excellent and august Parent, the tenour of whose conduct has uniformly exhibited a distinguished example of those virtues which form the happiness of private life, and which give additional lustre to the splendours of a Court.

May the recollection of a faithful discharge of filial duties, and a pious resignation to the will of Heaven, afford your Royal Highness those consolations which only are availing; and may the Divine Favour be continued to your Royal Highness and the illustrious House of Brunswick to the latest generations.

Given under our common seal, the 1st day of January 1819,

Wm. Moorson, John Bell, Bailiffs.

[Transmitted by Viscount Normanby and Right Honourable Charles Manners Sutton, M. P. for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Bailiff, Recorder, Justices, and Commonalty of the Town and Liberties of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, humbly presume to approach your Royal Highness, to express our affliction and to tender our condolence on the late much lamented death of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

We offer with gratitude our just tribute of admiration for the many excellent virtues which distinguished Her late Majesty as a Consort, a Mother, and a Queen; and we are fully impressed with the conviction, that the influence of her bright example has eminently conduced to improve the morals, and encourage and exalt the religious feelings of the nation.

We should be wanting in our duty, if we omitted to testify our deep respect and veneration for your Royal Highness's filial attentions and unremitting tenderness to your Royal Mother, during a severe and protracted illness.

May your Royal Highness deign to accept our earnest wishes, that you may be long preserved to a free, loyal, and affectionate people.

Signed at the request and on the behalf of the Meeting, George Goodwin, Bailiff.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of Great Britain.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow beg leave to approach your Highness at this season of public calamity and sorrow; deploring, in common with our fellow subjects, the irreparable loss sustained by this nation in the death of your august Mother, our gracious and venerable Queen, we earnestly seize the present opportunity of tendering our most sincere but dutiful and respectful condolence with the filial affliction of your Royal Highness; at the same time indulging the pleasing hope, that the numerous and exalted virtues, as a wife and a mother, so invariably displayed by Her late Majesty, and which, in their splendid alliance with supreme rank, have, for more than half a century, afforded so bright and beneficial an example to every class of the community, may not even now be lost, but that their memory continuing to survive, may still exert the same salutary influence over public morals among future generations, and to the most remote posterity.

Through your Royal Highness we request permission to repeat the testimony of our profound loyalty and attachment to our afflicted but revered Sovereign: we repose implicit confidence in the hereditary virtues of your Royal Highness, and we earnestly pray that a Prince of the illustrious House of Brunswick may never be wanting to rule over a free, grateful and contented people.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, at Glasgow, the 1st day of January 1819, by Richard Millar, President.

[Transmitted by K. Finlay, Esq., M. P., and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Justice, Recorder, Vicar, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon, presume to approach your Royal Highness on the melancholy event which has occurred, by which your Royal Highness has been deprived of an invaluable parent, and the nation of one of its greatest ornaments.

We condole with your Royal Highness and beg to assure you that neither the virtues of the mother, or the amiable conduct of the son will ever be erased from our memories.

We sympathise most deeply with your Royal Highness; but whilst we are well aware of the severity of your affliction, we trust that affliction will be greatly soothed by the consciousness you must feel of having, by your affectionate conduct (a conduct which must more than ever endear you to the British people) afforded her the greatest gratification in her latter moments.

[Transmitted by Albany Savile, Esq., M. P. for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of unfeigned sorrow and condolence on the death of our late most gracious Queen, of blessed memory.

Her late Majesty's many and exalted virtues, her gracious and benevolent disposition, her anxious and maternal solicitude for all ranks of her subjects, have ever raised in our breasts the warmest feelings of gratitude and respect, and will render her memory dear to us for ever.

Her Majesty's conduct in all the relations of a very long and well spent life, was uniformly regulated by every principle of propriety, honour, and virtue, which can adorn and embellish the female character, and while, by her example and favour, she encouraged the practice of them, so she firmly discountenanced the deviation from them in others, and she has left a splendid, impressive, and highly useful pattern, for the imitation of this and of succeeding ages.

At the same time however, that we deplore the very melancholy event that has removed Her Majesty from the situation she had so long adorned, we are comforted by the knowledge that her sufferings, during a long protracted illness, and in the very hour of death, were soothed and alleviated by the unremitted attention and filial affection of your Royal Highness and her family around her; the recollection of this must be as satisfactory to your Royal Highness's mind, as the knowledge of it is gratifying to the nation.

We humbly beg leave to renew our assurances of loyalty and attachment to the King, and to your Royal Highness, and to express our wish, that your august Family may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and grateful people.

Philip Lybbe-Powys, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Monmouth, approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere condolence on the great loss which your Royal Highness, and the whole nation have sustained in the decease of Her late Majesty.

In common with your Royal Highness's other subjects, we are fully sensible of the grief and sorrow with which you, Sir, must have been afflicted, in being deprived of a Parent whose conduct as a Mother afforded an object for the admiration, and an example for the imitation of His Majesty's subjects.

We recognize with no ordinary feelings of gratitude the many virtues with which for fifty-seven years Her Majesty adorned the Throne of these realms, and we cannot but attribute to the protection that she ever afforded virtue, and the disapprobation which she always manifested to vice, that superior propriety and decorum of manners of which this country may justly boast.

To you, Sir, the recollection of the filial tenderness, with which you supported Her Majesty's declining years, and ministered the soothing of affection to the latest moment of Her Majesty's existence, must be highly consolatory; and we resign ourselves to this national calamity with well grounded confidence that Her Majesty's public and private virtues will be constantly brought to our recollection by the benefits His Majesty's dominions have derived from their effects, and by the regard which they have not failed to produce in the hearts and in the feelings of His Majesty's affectionate and loyal people.

In the name, and on behalf of the County.

Nathaniel Wells, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the sincerest expressions of condolence on the death of your excellent Parent, Her late Majesty, the Queen.

In thus uniting with our fellow subjects in every sentiment of regret and sorrow for the loss of this illustrious Princess, we are naturally led to advert to the many virtues which adorned her character, and which at the same time that they reflected a lustre on the elevated station which she has so long and so happily filled in this country, rendered the influence of her example the more extensively useful, and efficient in maintaining the purity of private morals, the preservation of which is the best foundation of public happiness.

Deeply impressed with these feelings, and justly sensible of the loss which this country has sustained, we trust, that the consciousness of that unremitted attention with which your Royal Highness, and the other branches of His Majesty's Family have uniformly performed every filial duty, during the continuance of a long and afflicting illness, will ever prove a source of the most consolatory satisfaction.

In the name, and on the behalf of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County.

Thomas George Apreece, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere condolence under the affliction with which your Royal Highness, in common with the other branches of the Royal Family, as well as with the whole people of these kingdoms, has been lately visited by the much lamented death of our illustrious Queen, your Royal Mother.

We are anxious to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of Her late Majesty, whose unvarying, conjugal, and parental affection exemplified and upheld those domestic virtues, for which the Inhabitants of this island are so justly celebrated.

As her exemplary conduct when living added lustre to the Crown, and constituted the happiness of our most gracious and beloved Sovereign, during the greater portion of his life, so we trust, that being now in the ordinary course of nature, taken from us, Her late Majesty is in the enjoyment of those rewards which are promised to the just.

We embrace this opportunity of renewing our expressions of unaltered attachment to your Royal Highness, and the constitution of these realms.

In the name, and on the behalf of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County.

Thomas George Apreece, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Cardiff, in Common Council assembled; and the Bailiffs, Portreaves, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Contributory Boroughs of Cowbridge, Swansea, Aberavon, Neath Kenfig, Lougher, and Lantrissant, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness the expression of our deep grief, and most sincere condolence on the late melancholy event which has deprived your Royal Highness, and all the other members of the Royal Family of a beloved Mother, and these kingdoms of a bright example of conjugal attachment, maternal affection, and of every public and private virtue.

Deeply indeed must every good and loyal heart lament the loss of one whose memory will be endeared to this country so long as morality shall be respected and religion revered, and by none of His Majesty's subjects will that loss be more sincerely deplored than by the Inhabitants of these Boroughs.

[Transmitted by Lord Patrick James H. C. Stewart, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, SIR,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Barnstaple, beg permission to approach your Royal Highness, with feelings of faithful attachment to your Person and Government, and of sincere condolence in the mournful dispensation which has lately visited your illustrious House.

When the good and worthy, in whatever rank, are withdrawn from this mortal scene, and death has set his seal upon their characters, common justice binds us to acknowledge their estimable qualities, and to pay them the honour which is their due. How much Sir, is this obligation increased towards the august Personage, whose character had such influence over national manners, and whose demise we now publicly deplore. Called by Providence in early life to a most exalted station, she discharged the important duties of it with a dignity proportioned to its grandeur. Through a long and eventful period, in an æra teeming beyond all others with difficulties and dangers, from the prevalence of vice and immorality, she inflexibly opposed the lustre of her example to their baleful influence, and in the encouragement of piety and religion, exhibited those virtues which best support the dignity of a Monarch's Court, shed the purest splendour on his Crown, and by conciliating the favour of Heaven, are most productive of a people's prosperity and happiness. That besides all this, she paid the most accurate and amiable regard to the various duties of domestic and conjugal life, under the most trying circumstances, is appreciated, and will long be remembered by the gratitude of the British nation.

In attempting Sir, to offer you consolation under the visitation which has torn from you forever, one of the first and dearest objects of your veneration, and to abate the anxiety of your filial sorrows, we have pointed to those moral and religious principles which adorned the long life of your Royal Mother, enabled her to sustain her protracted sufferings with calm resignation and Christian hope, and prepared her for a higher and better state of existence.

The consciousness of having discharged every filial duty, and paid every attention which the most anxious and watchful affection could suggest to alleviate the sufferings of a beloved Parent, must be a source of genuine comfort to you, whilst the sympathies of a loyal people cannot fail of soothing your emotions and cheering you under this afflictive dispensation. That your Royal Highness may soon recover your wonted tranquillity; that you may long be preserved to adorn the lofty station in which Providence has placed you, conferring upon us the benefits of a wise and constitutional Government, and repaid by the confidence and thanks of a united people, is among the warmest wishes of our hearts.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting,

Wm. Law, Mayor.

No 17442.

B

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Leith has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Leith is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that a proper and sufficient number of pilots of the Cinque Ports, not less than eighteen at any one time, and in succession from time to time without intermission or any unnecessary delay, shall at all seasonable times, by day and night, constantly ply at sea, or be afloat between the South Foreland and Dungeness, to take charge of all ships and vessels coming from the westward:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England, and for the regulation of boatmen employed in supplying vessels with pilots, licensed under the said Act, so far as relates to the coast of Kent, within the limits of the Cinque Ports," after reciting, amongst other things, the said Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by any Order or Orders made for that purpose, and published by Proclamation in the Gazette, to suspend so much of the said therein-recited Act as directs the Cinque Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances, in the said therein-recited Act specified, either for any period His Majesty shall think proper, and to be in such case specified in such Order or Orders and Proclamation; or until any further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said therein-recited Act into effect and execution, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures, in relation to such specified number of pilots constantly plying at sea, and clauses and regulations for enforcing the same, shall, upon the issuing of such Proclamation, remain and continue so suspended:

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has deemed it expedient to suspend the carrying into execution the said part of the said first recited Act, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said first recited Act, as directs the Cinque Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances in the said first recited Act specified, shall be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, until further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said first recited Act into effect and execution.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, January 5, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a wheat stack standing amongst several others, belonging to Mr. John Wolton, of Eyke, in the county of Suffolk, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed in the night of Monday the 28th ultimo, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said wheat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the rewards hereafter mentioned, are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Suffolk Fire Office;

And a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the said Mr. John Wolton.

Whitehall, January 5, 1819

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the body of Mr. John Thomas Taylor, son of Mr. Taylor, Surgeon, of Goswell-Street, in the parish of Saint Luke, in the county of Middlesex, has been found in the New River; and that there is reason to suppose the said John Thomas Taylor was, on Thursday the 10th day of December last, robbed, murdered, and thrown into the said river, near the Iron-Bridge, at the foot of Hornsey-Wood, in the Greew-Lanes, leading to Southgate, when, amongst other things, there was taken from his person a silver box cover hunting watch, maker's name "Joseph Mears, 1814," to which was attached a gold curb chain, a small gold seal, without any engraving; and another larger, with a white cornelian stone, the engraving, a tower, and a ship sailing;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually murdered the said John Thomas Taylor), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by J. M. Fisher, Esq. Solicitor, No. 10, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn, London.

Whitehall, January 2, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Monday the 21st of December last, the ship Mary, Williams, Master, from Limerick to London, ran on shore on the Goodwin Sands, when the greatest part of her cargo, consisting of butter, beef, pork, linen, &c. was taken out by boats belonging to Deal, Ramsgate, and the vicinity; and that by far the greatest part thereof has been secreted and stolen by persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall make a full disclosure of the facts, and shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices who may have been concerned in stealing the said property, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction of the said offender or offenders, by Mr. John Bennett, jun. Secretary to the Committee for managing the Affairs of Lloyd's, London.

Whitehall, December 22, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Wednesday the 16th instant, some evil disposed person or persons did feloniously and maliciously maim and wound two bull calves, the property of Mr. William Bound, of Hill Farm, situate at Henbury, in the county of Dorset, and also a cow the property of Thomas Pithor, residing upon the said farm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. William Castleman, Solicitor, Wimborne, in the county of Dorset.

Whitehall, December 7, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a stack of oats belonging to Mr. Thomas Hobson, of the Parish of Great Glenn, in the county of Leicester, was maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons, on the evening of Thursday the 3d instant, at a field barn in the said parish;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said oat stack on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the same. The said reward to be paid immediately after such conviction by the Constable of Great Glenn.

REVOCATION OF A LICENCE.

Navy Pay-Office, London,
January 15, 1819.

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth of His present Majesty, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to

Mr. Sampson Levy, at the Post-Office, Liverpool, and late of King-Street, Plymouth, on the 22d of March 1817, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me, on the ground of not having accounted to Mary Ann Hodgman, widow of Joseph Hodgman, late gunner of His Majesty's ship Triton, for prize-money received on his account, after being repeatedly called upon so to do, as also for having removed without giving me notice.

Frederick John Robinson.
