SATURDAY, JANUARY 23, 1819.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday the 21st day of January 1819.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent to express to you the deep regret which He feels in the continuance of His Majesty's lamented indisposition.

In announcing to you the severe calamity with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit the Prince Regent, the Royal Family, and the nation, by the death of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom, His Royal Highness has commanded us to direct your attention to the consideration of such measures as this melancholy event has rendered necessary and expedient with respect to the care of His Majesty's sacred person.

We are directed to inform you, that the negotiations which have taken place at Aix-la-Chapelle, have led to the evacuation of the French territory by the allied armies.

The Prince Regent has given orders, that the Convention concluded for this purpose, as well as the other documents connected with this arrangement, shall be laid before you: and He is persuaded, that you will view with peculiar satisfaction the intimate union which so happily subsists amongst the Powers who were parties to these transactions, and the unvaried disposition which has been manifested in all their proceedings for the preservation of the peace and tranquillity of Europe.

The Prince Regent has commanded us further to acquaint you, that a Treaty has been concluded between His Royal Highness and the Government of the United States of America, for the renewal, for a further term of years, of the Commercial Convention now subsisting between the two nations, and for the amicable adjustment of several points of mutual importance to the interests of both countries; and, as soon as the ratifications shall have been exchanged, His Royal Highness will give directions that a copy of this Treaty shall be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Prince Regent has directed that the estimates for the current year shall be laid before you.

His Royal Highness feels assured, that you will learn with satisfaction the extent of reduction which the present situation of Europe, and the circumstances of the British empire, have enabled His Royal Highness to effect in the naval and military establishments of the country.

His Royal Highness has also the gratification of announcing to you a considerable and progressive improvement of the Revenue in its most important branches.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Prince Regent has directed to be laid before you such papers as are necessary to shew the origin and result of the war in the East Indies.

His Royal Highness commands us to inform you, that the operations undertaken by the Governor-General in Council against the Pindarries were dictated by the strictest principles of self defence; and that in the extended hostilities which followed upon those operations, the Mahrattah Princes were in every instance the aggressors. Under the provident and skilful superintendance of the Marquess of Hastings, the campaign was marked in every point by brilliant achievements and successes; and His Majesty's forces, and those of the East India Company (Native as well as European), rivalled each other in sustaining the reputation of the British arms.

The Prince Regent has the greatest pleasure in being able to inform you, that the trade, commerce, and manufactures of the country are in a most flourishing condition.

The favourable change which has so rapidly taken place in the internal circumstances of the United Kingdom affords the strongest proof of the solidity of its resources.

To cultivate and improve the advantages of our present situation will be the object of your deliberations; and His Royal Highness has commanded us to assure you of His disposition to concur and co-operate in whatever may be best calculated to secure to His Majesty's subjects the full benefits of that state of peace which, by the blessing of Providence, has been so happily re-established throughout Europe.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince

Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

SIR,

WE, the devoted servants of your Royal Highness, the Bishop of the Diocese of Winchester, the Reverend the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Winchester, with the other Members of the said Church, the Chancellor and Archdeacons of the said Diocese, together with the Clergy of the same, the faithful and dutiful subjects of His Majesty, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the sincerest expressions of sorrow and regret upon the melancholy occasion which has deprived us of the long-felt blessing we enjoyed in the fostering care and valuable example of your Royal Mother and our Most Excellent Queen.

Blessed is the nation, and happy the people, amongst whom all the relative duties of social life are exemplified in the conduct of their rulers; and whether we look at the pious endeavours of a gracious King, the Father of his People, at the affectionate exercise of love and duty displayed in the maternal tenderness of a virtuous Queen, or contemplate the bright examples of filial duty and affection in every branch of your august Family, from whence can we draw a more faithful picture of the special blessings which we have so long enjoyed to our great and perfect comfort.

We beg to assure your Royal Highness that we are deeply impressed with a sense of this our envied lot, and that our prayers will not cease for the continuation of the same; and that prosperity, virtue, and happiness may be the glorious distinction of our favoured and well protected nation to the latest posterity.

B. Winton.

[Transmitted by the Bishop, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with feelings of sincere condolence and sorrow upon the recent severe loss which the British nation has experienced in the demise of the late illustrious Queen of England.

When we review the period of Her late Majesty's life, when we find it distinguished and adorned in every stage by Christian virtues, when we recur more particularly to her unobtrusive and extensive charities, we feel assured that your Royal Highness possesses, in the hour of affliction, that true consolation which must ever flow from the contemplation of the excellencies of a beloved Parent.

Fulfilling the high and important duties of a Queen with grace and dignity, she has bequeathed to the British nation a bright and invaluable example of conjugal affection and maternal tenderness; and we can assure your Royal Highness that we duly estimate and sincerely deplore the greatness of the loss which we have experienced in her death, whilst our hearts are filled with grateful emotions when we reflect upon the benefits which this country has derived from the continued contemplation of a life of uninterrupted and exemplary piety.

We further beg leave to express our unalterable loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, Family and Government, nor can we refrain from adverting to the gratification which we, in common with the nation at large, have experienced in witnessing the filial affection and devotion displayed by your Royal Highness towards our lamented Queen during the whole of her severe and protracted illness, and we confidently trust that the same Divine Providence, which has thought fit to deprive us of so great a living example of Christian piety, will support your Royal Highness under the severe domestic loss which it has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, in His Superior Wisdom, to impose upon your Royal Highness, and the Royal Family.

Signed, at the request and on the behalf of a County Meeting. Robert Peach, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Winchilsea, K. G. Lord Lieutenant of the County, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

The Highland Society of Scotland, incorporated by royal charter, assembled in a general meeting, humbly offers to your Royal Highness its sincere condolence on the late afflicting event of the death of Her Majesty; a Princess endeared to the country, not only by those qualities important to her public situation, but by her constant exercise of all those private and domestic virtues which shed so much useful lustre on the Throne, as their example has so beneficial an influence on the corresponding manners and morals of the people.

Amidst the affliction of this event, it must be consolatory and gratifying to your Royal Highness to know how much the country has felt the excellence of your Royal Highness's filial attentions to your august Parent, through a long and protracted illness; attentions not less soothing in their recollection, than amiable in their performance. It has been the privilege of your illustrious House to receive from the people the tribute of the affections as well as the homage of loyalty; a feeling which affords the best pledge for the security of the Throne, and the surest proof of the freedom and the happiness of its subjects.

Signed, by desire and in presence of the Meeting, Charteriz Wemyss and March, Edinburgh, 12th January 1819.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Wemyss and March, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Town of Penzance, in the County of Cornwall, being duly assembled for that purpose, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the offering of our sincere condolence, and to express our warmest sympathy in the grief your Royal Highness must feel at the lamented death of Her Majesty your illustrious Mother.

The powerful example afforded by Her late Most Excellent Majesty in that piety and virtue which she uniformly displayed during her long life, reflected splendour even on a Throne, gave that high tone of morality and decorum which all acknowledged, to the exalted station which she filled, and upheld the best interests of domestic as well as of public life.

We embrace this opportunity of expressing our attachment to our venerable and afflicted Sovereign and His illustrious Family; we acknowledge, with gratitude, the many benefits we enjoy under the august House of Brunswick, and fervently hope your Royal Highness will long be spared to the wishes of a great and loyal people.

[Transmitted by Viscount Falmouth, the Recorder, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's very dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and other inhabitants of the Borough of Helston, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of sincere condolence on the loss which your Royal Highness has sustained by the death of Her late Majesty your illustrious Parent.

While we submit to the chastening dispensations of Providence, and grieve for the loss of so bright an ornament of female virtue, we are grateful to Heaven that such an example has been presented to these realms, and earnestly pray that its influence may continue to act as powerfully as it has been found to operate for more than half a century.

We deeply sympathise with your Royal Highness, and the several Branches of your Royal House on this afflicting dispensation of Providence, and beg to assure you of our warm attachment to the august House of Brunswick, praying to the Great Disposer of Events to bless your Royal Highness with health, happiness, and prosperity.

By order of Meeting.

John Trevenen, Mayor.

Dated Helston, December 29, 1818.

[Transmitted by John Borlase, Esq. an Alderman of the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Baillics, and Common Council of the Burgh of Calton of Glasgow, in Council assembled, feel it our duty humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and to offer our tenderest sympathy on the late afflictive dispensation of Providence, by which our venerable Sovereign, whom we love and revere, has been deprived of an ever watchful and affectionate protector; your Royal Highness of the best of parents; and our country of the most correct, exemplary and virtuous Queen, who has so long adorned the British Throne.

That your Royal Highness, the hereditary representative of so many princely virtues, may long reign to promote the peace, the prosperity, and the glory of a free and happy nation, is our earnest prayer.

Signed by the Provost, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council, this 4th day of January 1819.

Robert Struthers.
