

be proper and deserving objects of the public bounty; this is to give notice thereof, in order that Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, who have hitherto been excluded from the Charity by reason of the amount of their income, or in consequence of having remarried, and may now be desirous of applying for the pension, may prefer their claim by letter to me at this Office.

And notice is further given, that all Widows of Naval Officers already on the Pension List, may obtain the new forms of affidavit by letter to me, or by personal application at the Admiralty-Office, and the Offices of the Resident Commissioners of the Navy at the several Dock-Yards.

Navy-Office, January 30, 1819.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st October to the 31st December 1818, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

- On the 8th, 9th, and 10th of February, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.
- On the 11th, 12th, 15th, 16th, and 17th of February, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.
- On the 18th and 19th of February, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London; to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st December 1818, will commence paying on the 8th February; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made in the present session of Parliament, for leave to enlarge and extend the powers of an Act for making and maintaining a rail-way or tram-road from or from near the Prison of War in the Forest of Dartmoor, in the parish of Lydford, in the county of Devon, to a certain place called Crabtree, in the parish of Egg Buckland, in the county of Devon, and to extend the same from thence to certain Lime Rocks or Quarries at or near Prince Rock, in the parish of Charles, within the borough of Plymouth, in the county of Devon; and which extension of the said rail-way or tram-road from Crabtree as aforesaid, is intended to be made and pass in, through, and over certain lands in the parish of Charles, in the borough of Plymouth aforesaid.

Given under my hand, at Plymouth, in the county of Devon, the 4th day of February 1819,
