TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1819.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick, beg to assure your Royal Highness how sincerely we sympathize in your Royal Highness's affliction, and in the general sorrow occasioned by the melancholy event which has deprived the empire of a most virtuous Queen, and your Royal Highness of a most affectionate Mother.

Though we are aware that, under such a weight of woe, consolation can come from Him alone, whose power is infinite, and whose ways are inscrutable; still we trust, that when time and submission to the Divine Will shall have softened your affliction, your Royal Highness's feelings will be gratified by the recollection of how deeply the nation participates in every event which concerns your illustrious House.

Richard Taylor, High Sheriff.

Limerick, February 6, 1819.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, entreat permission to approach your Royal Highness with an offer of our most sincere condolence, and to express our heartfelt grief at the lamented decease of Her Gracious Majesty, the late Queen Charlotte of this Realm.

The unexampled exercise of virtue, piety, and many excellencies, so eminently displayed by Her late Majesty, and which, for a period of almost sixty years shed an unextinguishable lustre over this nation, call forth an anxious desire to evince our respect and veneration for Her Majesty's blessed memory.

We avail ourselves of this opportunity to express our unalterable attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Family.

Thos. Botfield, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Powis, Lord Lieutenant of the County, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness, humbly desire to express to your Royal Highness our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the death of Her late Majesty the Queen. An event well calculated to excite the lively sympathy and regret of all ranks of people in this kingdom, no less on account of the many amiable virtues displayed by Her Majesty during her long and useful life—than of the beneficial effect which so illustrious an example in the first rank of human society is calculated to produce upon all that are subordinate.

We participate in all those feelings which this event is calculated to excite in the bosom of your Royal Highness, and of the other members of the Royal Family. And it is our sincere prayer that your Royal Highness may enjoy, along with those soothing reflections which arise from your dutiful conduct during Her Majesty's protracted illness, every consolation which the memory of her distinguished worth can furnish.

Signed, in our presence and by our appointment, at Thurso, this 30th day of January 1819, by

B. Williamson, Preses.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this realm; such persons shall be incapable of taking any legacy, or of being an executor or administrator, or of taking any lands, &c. within this kingdom, by descent, devise, or purchase, and shall forfeit all lands, goods, &c. within this kingdom, to His Majesty's use, and shall be deemed alien, and out of His Majesty's protection.

Upon complaint made, upon oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any person is endeavouring to seduce any such artificer, or that any such artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's dominions, for the purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his warrant to bring the person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the oath of one witness, or by confession, that he was guilty of any of the said offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such person shall refuse to give security, the Justice may commit him to gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions. And if any such artificer shall be convicted, upon indictment, of any such promise, contract, or preparation to go beyond the seas, for the purpose aforesaid, he shall give such security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till security given.

If any of the above offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by indictment or information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such offence be committed in Ireland; the person so convicted shall, for every artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewartry wherein such offender shall be convicted for twelve calendar months, and until forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent offence of the same kind, the persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewartry wherein such offender shall be convicted, for two years, and until such forfeiture be paid.

If any person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any ship or boat, not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such tools or utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the preparing, working up, or finishing of the woollen or silk manufactures, or any part of such tools, he shall, for every offence, forfeit all such tools, or parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's warehouses, all such tools or utensils prohibited to be exported, as such officer shall find on board any vessel not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all tools so seized shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce shall be to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his vessel, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the penalties inflicted upon persons exporting the tools; and, if the vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his employment, and be incapable of any employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any entry outward, or sign any cocket or suffrance for the shipping or exporting of any of the said tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his office, and be incapable of any office under His Majesty.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like penalties and forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to persons packing or putting on board any vessel, not bound directly for some port in Great Britain or Ireland, any machine, engine, tool, press, paper, utensil, or implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the cotton, steel, or iron manufactures of this kingdom, or any part or parts of such machines or implements, or any models or plans thereof; and all Captains of ships and other persons receiving or being in possession of any such articles, with an intent to export the same to foreign parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of tools and utensils used in the woollen and silk manufactures.

" To James Pattison, Esq. Chairman of the Court of Directors of the Honourable East India Company.

" Sir,

" I have waited with anxious expectation the arrival of the bonds and accounts referred to in the concluding paragraph of my letter to the Court of Directors of the 29th May last, which, were they here, would prove, that while the amount of my transactions with the Zemindar of Vizianagram has been grossly exaggerated, the character of those transactions has been greatly mistaken; but as those documents, although Mr. Collector Smith appears to have been instructed to prepare attested copies and translations of them, so long ago as the month of November 1817, have not, to the present late period, arrived, and as I am desirous of submitting my conduct, on an occasion which has been much misrepresented and but little understood, to the Proprietors of East India Stock, previous to offering myself to their notice as a Candidate at the approaching General Election, I have to solicit the favour of you, Sir, to appoint a day for laying before a General Court of Proprietors those papers which have already arrived from Madras, and to which, by your Secretary's letter of the 1st May last, I was permitted to have access, together with such others as I may produce in justification of my transactions with the Zemindar of Vizianagram.

" I have the honour to be,

" Sir,

" your most obedient servant,

" Robert Campbell.

" Argyll-Street, February 4, 1819."

The papers before mentioned, which are on the records of the Court, will be ready at this House for the inspection of the Proprietors, on Wednesday next the 10th instant, and those which Mr. Campbell has signified his intention to produce, will be ready for inspection on Friday the 12th instant.
