Whitehall, January 22, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 10th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and wilfully kill and destroy two sheep and one lamb, which were grazing in a small close on the South side of Barrowby Turnpike Gate, in the parish of Barrowby, in the county of Lincoln, and four ewes in lamb, which were grazing in a great grass close near the abovementioned place, all the property of the Reverend Jonathan Kendal, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the parts of Kesteven, in the said county; and that the said offence was committed not for plunder, but from a principle of revenge to the said Mr. Kendal, who is a very active Magistrate for the said parts;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of TWENTY GUINEAS, by the said Reverend Jonathan Kendal;

And the further rewards of TEN POUNDS and TEN GUINEAS, to be paid on conviction, by Mr. Manners and Mr. Newcome, the Clerks and Treasurers to the Grantham Associations for the Prosecution of Felons.

Admiralty-Office, January 15, 1819.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been most graciously pleased to authorise the Court of Assistants of the Sea Officers Widows' Charity, to grant pensions to Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, without restriction as to the amount of their income, and notwithstanding they now are or may have been remarried, provided they shall appear to be proper and deserving objects of the public bounty; this is to give notice thereof, in order that Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, who have hitherto been excluded from the Charity by reason of the amount of their income, or in consequence of having remarried, and may now be desirous of applying for the pension, may prefer their claim by letter to me at this Office.

And notice is further given, that all Widows of Naval Officers already on the Pension List, may obtain the new forms of affidavit by letter to me, or by personal application at the Admiralty-Office, and the Offices of the Resident Commissioners of the Navy at the several Dock-Yards.

J. W. CROKER.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.
