KINLOCH BEQUEST.

Whereas, William Kinloch, Esq. late of Calcutta, did, by his last will and testament, bearing date the 7th day of March 1812 (after providing for sundry legacies), bequeath the residue of his estate to be vested in the public funds; directing that the annual interest thereof, together with a sum equal to one-fourth part of the interest, should be paid annually to poor and disabled Scotchmen in distress, who may have lost their legs, arms, eyesight, or otherwise wounded in the Army or Navy, in the service of their country; and whereas, the High Court of Chancery, by a Decretal Order, dated the 27th day of June 1818, have found that the Scottish Hospital of the Foundation of King Charles the Second, is the charitable institution meant and intended by the testator, as trustees for the distribution of the fund; and have directed that the intention of the said testator shall be carried into effect, under certain regulations stated in the Decree; notice is hereby given, that applications will be received, addressed to the Secretary of the Kinloch Bequest, at the Scottish-Hall, London, on or before the 30th day of June next ensuing, from all poor and disabled Scotchmen in distress, who may have lost their legs, arms, eyesight, or otherwise wounded and maimed in the service of their country; and it is particularly requested that none but such as come under that description will apply.

By the aforesaid Decretal Order, the in-pensioners of both Greenwich and Chelsea are excluded from applications; as are also all persons having an income, from whatever source derived, exceeding 20l. per annum.

And the relief to be afforded from this fund will be granted to the most distressed objects duly who shall be selected, by annuities not exceeding 8l. nor less than 4l. per annum, payable at two periods in the year, viz. one half on the 5th day of August, and one half on the 5th day of February in each year.

All applications for participation in this charity must be accompanied with a certificate of the following particulars, signed and declared to, upon personal inspection and interrogation, by the Minister and Elders or Churchwardens of the parish wherein the applicant resides, and to whom his instructions or certificates from Chelsea or Greenwich Hospitals must be exhibited.

1. The name of the applicant.
2. The place of his residence and address.
