WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Sir Charles Cockerell, Baronet, and also the petition of the several persons whose names are thereunto subscribed, on behalf of themselves and others, being legal electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the borough of Evesham, in the county of Worcester, severally complaining of an undue election and return for the said borough,

That, in consequence thereof, the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows;

“ That the right of election is in the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital and other Burgesses, Members of the Corporation :”

That for the sitting Member, William Edward Rouse Boughton, Esq. delivered in a statement as follows;

“ That the right is in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Freemen of the borough, and in the inhabitants of the borough, paying scot and lot :”

That upon the statement delivered in by the sitting Member, the said Select Committee have determined;

That the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the borough of Evesham, in the county of Worcester :

That upon the statement delivered in by the petitioners, the said Select Committee have determined;

That the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is the right of election for the said borough of Evesham :

I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of the Act, made in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled “ An Act for the further regulation of the trials of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in Parliament.”
