After our hearty commendations, having considered the foregoing scheme of the fourth lottery for the year 1818, to be drawn pursuant to the provisions of an Act, passed in the 58th year of His present Majesty's reign, we do hereby signify to you our consent and approbation thereof.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 27th day of March 1819, N. VANSITTART.
LOWTHER.
JOHN BARRY.

To the Commissioners of the Lottery.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Thursday the 5th of November last, two stacks of hay, the property of Mr. James Wall, of Ashford, in the county of Kent, standing near the barn and buildings upon his land, called the Bridge Land, situate in the parish of Willesborough, in the said county, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stacks of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. James Wall; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered by the inhabitants of Ashford, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. —The above rewards to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of Wednesday the 7th of October last, a stack of hay, the property of the Rev. Moyle Bretton, L. L. D. of Kennington, in the county of Kent, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stack of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Moyle Bretton; to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. —The above reward to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Navy-Office, March 26, 1819.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 15th of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon, Commissioner Cunningham will be ready, at his Office in His Majesty's Yard at Woolwich, to receive tenders from such persons as may be willing to hire for a certain sum,

The privilege of selling Ale, Beer, Porter, Bread, Cheese, and other small articles, in the Tap-Room in His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Woolwich; subject to regulations and conditions, which may be known by applying at the Commissioner's Office, in the said Yard.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock on the said 15th day of April next; nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.
