SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1819.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of His Majesty's Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two pennyweights of fine silver, and eighteen pennyweights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy; and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of crowns (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above mentioned (every such crown piece having for the obverse impression, the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. D. G. Britanniarum Rex, F. D." and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the image of Saint George, armed, sitting on horseback, attacking the Dragon with a sword, having broken his spear in the encounter, the said device being placed within the ennobled Garter, bearing the motto, "Honi soit qui mal y pense;" and on the edge of the piece, in raised letters, "Decus et tutamen, anno regni," the year of the reign being in Roman numeral letters), has been delivered from His Majesty's Mint to the Bank of England, and will continue to be issued therefrom for the use of His Majesty's subjects; We have, therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall, from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the said Kingdom, that is to say, such crown pieces as of the value of five shillings in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the third day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of April 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 19th of March 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, dated the 4th of last month, in the words following, viz:

"Whereas by an Act of the fifty-eighth year of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole,' it is provided, that, 'for the encouragement of persons who may attempt the said Passage, or approach to the Northern Pole, but not wholly accomplish the same; the said Commissioners may, by their Memorial, propose to His Majesty in Council, to direct and establish proportionate rewards to be paid to such person as aforesaid, who shall first have accomplished certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach:'"

And whereas it appears that the progress of discovery has already advanced on the Eastern Coast of America, and within the Arctic Circle, as far as 90 degrees West Longitude, or thereabouts, from Greenwich; and Northwards has not yet arrived, according to any well authenticated accounts, so far as 81° of North Latitude:

We, your Memorialists, beg leave most humbly to represent these particulars for your Royal Highness's consideration, and to submit, with all humility, whether your Royal Highness may not be graciously pleased to establish the following scale of rewards, to be allotted according to the intentions of the Act:

1.—To the first ship belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, or to His Majesty, that shall reach the Longitude of 110° West from Greenwich, or the Mouth of Hearne's or Coppermine River, by sailing within the Arctic Circle £5,000

To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 130° West from Greenwich, or the

Whale Island of Mackenzie, by sailing within the Arctic Circle £10,000

To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 150° West from Greenwich, by sailing Westwards within the Arctic Circle £15,000

The Act having already allotted to the first ship that shall reach the Pacific Ocean by a North West Passage the full reward of £20,000

2.—To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach to 83° of North Latitude £1,000

To 85° £2,000

To 87° £3,000

To 88° £4,000

The Act having already allotted to the first ship that shall reach to or beyond 89° the full reward of £5,000

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent having taken the said Memorial into consideration was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to sanction and approve of, and doth hereby sanction and approve of, the scale of rewards proposed in the said Memorial.

Shire of Banff.

The Right Honourable James Earl of Fife, &c. &c. of the Kingdom of Ireland.

County of Monmouth.

The Honourable Granville Charles Henry Somerset, commonly called Lord Granville Charles Henry Somerset, of Troy-House, in the said county of Monmouth.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Thursday the 5th of November last, two stacks of hay, the property of Mr. James Wall, of Ashford, in the county of Kent, standing near the barn and buildings upon his land, called the Bridge Land; situate in the parish of Willesborough, in the said county, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stacks of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. James Wall; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered by the inhabitants of Ashford, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The above rewards to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of Wednesday the 7th of October last, a stack of hay, the property of the Rev. Moyle Bretton, L. L. D. of Kennington, in the county of Kent, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stack of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Moyle Bretton, to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Whitehall, January 22, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 10th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and wilfully kill and destroy two sheep and one lamb, which were grazing in a small close on the South side of Barrowby Turnpike Gate, in the parish of Barrowby, in the county of Lincoln; and four ewes in lamb, which were grazing in a great grass close near the abovementioned place, all the property of the Reverend Jonathan Kendal, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the parts of Kesteven, in the said county; and that the said offence was committed not for plunder, but from a principle of revenge to the said Mr. Kendal, who is a very active Magistrate for the said parts;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of TWENTY GUINEAS, by the said Reverend Jonathan Kendal;

And the further rewards of TEN POUNDS and TEN GUINEAS, to be paid on conviction, by Mr. Manser and Mr. Newcome, the Clerks and Treasurers to the Grantham Associations for the Prosecution of Felons.

Payment of Prizes, Third Lottery 1818.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
April 10, 1819.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares thereof in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the third lottery 1818, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Monday the 3d day of May next, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to one o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets of the said lotteries, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for better dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the benefit tickets from No. 1 to No. 5000, at one seat, and the benefit tickets from No. 5001 to No. 10,000, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, and adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each of the said lists to write the name and proper addition of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Friday the 7th day of May next, at twelve of the clock at noon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to observe, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that tickets brought to this Office for payment, the checks of which are torn or destroyed, will not be entered for payment without a bond being given to indemnify the said Commissioners for granting certificates for the same.
