Whitehall, April 13, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that extensive depredations have lately been committed in the neighbourhood of Westbury, in the county of Salop, particularly on the property of Richard Topp, Esq. of Whitton, by setting fire to a house, and maliciously cutting down and otherwise destroying timber trees, to a considerable amount;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said house, and cut down and destroyed the said trees), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Richard Topp, Esq. to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the person or persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Thursday the 5th of November last, two stacks of hay, the property of Mr. James Wall, of Ashford, in the county of Kent, standing near the barn and buildings upon his land, called the Bridge Land, situate in the parish of Willesborough, in the said county, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stacks of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. James Wall; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered by the inhabitants of Ashford, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. —The above rewards to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jenmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.
