

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of Wednesday the 7th of October last, a stack of hay, the property of the Rev. Moyle Breton, L. L. D. of Kennington, in the county of Kent, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stack of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Moyle Breton, to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. —The above reward to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Whitehall, January 22, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 10th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and wilfully kill and destroy two sheep and one lamb, which were grazing in a small close on the South side of Barrowby Turnpike Gate, in the parish of Barrowby, in the county of Lincoln, and four ewes in lamb, which were grazing in a great grass close near the abovementioned place, all the property of the Reverend Jonathan Kendal, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the parts of Kesteven, in the said county; and that the said offence was committed not for plunder, but from a principle of revenge to the said Mr. Kendal, who is a very active Magistrate for the said parts;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of TWENTY GUINEAS, by the said Reverend Jonathan Kendal;

And the further rewards of TEN POUNDS and TEN GUINEAS, to be paid on conviction, by Mr. Manners and Mr. Newcome, the Clerks and Treasurers to the Grantham Associations for the Prosecution of Felons.
