

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 14. to Thursday August 17. 1682.

Warsaw, July 25.

OUR Letters from Moscow give the following account: That the late Czar Alexis, who Married with a Polish Lady, having by her means taken a great Affection to the manners and customs of this Nation, and designed to introduce them among his own Subjects, the more to civilize them, had thereby raised a great hatred in the Boyars, and other great Men, against him, who resolved to Poyson him and his Queen, and effected it by the means of a Jew. He had two Brothers, the eldest Named John, of about 20 Years of Age, who had the same Mother, and was born blind of one Eye; the other Named Peter, about nine Years old, was by a second Venter, and his Mother, the Princess Natalia, was living. The Czar being dead in 15 Hours, after suffering great Torments, the Chancellor Armon Seigewits, who was newly returned from his Banishment in Siberia, and was now become the first Minister, joyning with the Princess Natalia, and several Boyars and other great Men, proclaimed the young Prince Peter Czar; and at the same time the Princess Sophia, Sister to Prince John, General Kowanski, and many others, espoused the cause of the Elder Brother, and drew the Guards to their side, by perswading them that the late Czar was Poysoned, and that there was a design likewise to destroy them; whereupon the said Guards rose, and fell upon the Boyars and others that had proclaimed Peter, and made a great Slaughter: Among those that were killed were Chancellor Sergeiuss, the Father and two Brothers of the Princess Natalia, General Rodamansky, General Seremet, who fought the great Battle against the Tartars in 1661, the famous General Dolibourouki, with his Brother, and two Sons, the two Boyars that were lately Ambassadors at the Dyet here, and several other great and eminent Men: After which, Prince John was proclaimed Czar, but without deposing Prince Peter, so that there were two Czars, who were both Crowned the 24th of the last Month. Czar Alexis left a young Son, of whom it seems no notice was taken, being yet in the Cradle.

Since this account, we have fresher Letters, which say, That Czar John has caused his Brother, and his young Nephew, the Princess Natalia, and several others that were in Interests contrary to his, to be killed.

Vienna, Aug. 9. Yesterday in the Evening arrived here, an Officer from Hungary, with an account that the Imperial Troops were drawing together in the Island Schus, and that they had already a Body of 7 or 8000 Men there. Yesterday arrived likewise the Post from Hungary, and the Letters we received by it said, That the Turks had sent 3000 Men to the assistance of Count Terkeley, who attacked the City of Caschau. Count Caprara, who is to command in chief the Imperial Forces in Hungary, parts from hence on Tuesday next; a considerable Sum of Money being provided to take with him. The Statcs of Tirol have sent Deputies hither, to represent to the Emperor the great burden they lie under, on account of Quartering of Soldiers, and to pray some redress therein. Here is arrived an Envoy from the Elector of Brandenburg, whose business is said to be to desire his Imperial Majesty to accept of the conditions proposed by the French Ambassadors at Francfort; that so a firm and lasting Peace being established between the Empire and the Crown of France, his Imperial Majesty, and the Princes of Germany, may be at leisure to turn their Force against the common Enemy of Christendom, the Turks, against whom, his Electoral Highness does particularly offer, in that case, to assist the Emperor with his Forces.

P. S. There are Letters from some places, not far from Caschau, that say they heard no more Shooting, which made them believe that the Rebels were withdrawn, or that they had made themselves Masters of the place.

Ratisbonne, Aug. 13. The Deputy of Brandenburg continues to declare, That the Elector his Master thinks it very advisable at this time to accept of the Conditions proposed many Months since by the French Ambassadors at Francfort; (if better cannot be obtained) rather than to hazard a new War; and the Deputies of the Elector of Cologne, and the Elector Palatine, seem to be of the same mind: But those of Lunenburg, and of many other Princes, declare their Masters to be of a contrary opinion, and complain very highly of the Proceeding of the Deputy of Mentz at Francfort, who being Director of the Assembly of the Deputies of the Empire, has refused to declare the resolution they some time since took, upon the Reply of the French Ambassadors, and desire there may be a Remedy provided in this matter, saying, That otherwise they will not admit the said Deputy of Mentz to be Director of their Assembly for the future.

Francfort, Aug. 13. The Deputy of Mentz does still refuse to publish the resolution which the Deputies of the Empire took some time since, in order to the making a Duplique to the last Reply of the French Ambassadors, (which it is his part to do, as Director of their Assembly) and the Deputies of Austria, Bamberg, Saxe-Weimar, and Lunenburg, have protested against this Proceeding of the Deputy of Mentz.

Strasburg, Aug. 14. There passes at present nothing of moment in these Quarters, and we hear not of any motion of the Imperial or French Troops, both remaining very quiet in the places where they are posted.

Cologne, Aug. 14. The 12th Instant the Sieur Tambonneau, Envoy from France imparted to our Magistrates the News he had received of the Dauphiness being brought to bed of a young Prince. The Electors Dowager Palatine arrived two days days since at Aix-la-Chapelle, and parted again the day following for the spa. Our Magistrates go on with Disbanding the Troops they lately raised.

Cologne, Aug. 14. The Magistrates of Liege have written a very respectful and submissive Letter to his Electoral Highness, who was at first very well pleased with it, and would have returned an Answer to it; but understanding afterwards that the Commons had publicly declared their dislike of what their Burgermasters had done, as well with relation to the said Letter, as the Powers and Instructions they had resolved to give the Deputies they were sending hither, his Electoral Highness changed his intention, and will not make any Answer to the said Letter till they are better agreed among themselves; and in the mean time his Electoral Highness has declared Prince William of Furstemberg (Bishop of Strasburg) Stadtholder or Governour, under his Electoral Highness, of the Country of Liege. From Strasburg they write, That the French are going to separate the Camps they have in Alsace, and that they will begin with that at Landau. And from Vienna we have an account, that the Rebels in Hungary did very vigorously attack the City of Caschau, but that the Governour hoped, not only to defend it, but likewise to recover the Citadel; and that the Imperial Troops which had had their Quarters in Tirol, were on their march towards Augsburg.

Hague, Aug. 22. The French Ambassador gave in a Memorial, two days since, to the States, wherein he endeavours to make good his Pretention concerning the manner of his reception at his Audience, and yesterday he had a Conference with the Deputies of foreign Affairs thereupon; but it seems the matter is not yet adjusted, for we do not hear that any time is appointed for the said Audience. In the mean time his Excellency causes great Preparations to be made of Fire-works, &c. against Tuesday next, when he will give a great Entertainment on the occasion of the Birth of the young Duke of Burgundy. From Berlin we have advice, That the Elector of Brandenburg is sending Chancellor Brandt for Sweden, to endeavour to persuade that King to come into the Alliance concluded between his Electoral Highness and the King of Denmark.

Paris, Aug. 22. The 18th and 19th Instant the Ambassadors, and other Foreign Ministers residing at this Court, had their Audiences of their Majesties, the Dauphin, the Duke of Burgundy, and the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, to perform their Compliments upon the Birth of that young Prince. It is said that on the 15th of the next Month the King intends to go to Nostre Dame de Charres, to acquit himself of his Vow upon the Birth of his Grandson; That from thence he will go to Chambor, and afterwards to Fontainebleau. Monsieur de Louvois is, as we are informed, preparing for a Journey to Alsace, and from thence it's said he will pass through the Franche-Compe for Italy. We cannot yet certainly learn what Progress the Cardinal d'Estree has made in his Negotiation at Rome: It is said he meets with great difficulties, and that on the 26th past he had an Audience of the Pope, which lasted many hours. The Duke of Savoy, we hear, continues very ill.

Falmouth, Aug. 10. The eighth Instant came in here the Exeter of London, William Shaw Master, from the West-Indies, and the Providence of Scar- borough, bound with several Passengers for Pennsylvania.

Plimouth, Aug. 11. His Majesties Ships the Woolwich, the Centurion, and the Lark are still here, with the Merchant Ships under their Convoy. Some of the Fleet attempted to Sail yesterday morning, but the Wind proving contrary, they returned the same day.

Deale, Aug. 13. Yesterday about Noon passed by to the Eastward of the Goodwin about 50 Sail of Dutch Merchant Ships, bound for the Streights; and this Afternoon about 30 of them came into the Downs, being forced therewith by the contrary Winds.

Whitehal, Aug. 17. Yesterday about seven a Clock in the Morning her Royal Highness, was safely delivered of a Daughter, at St. James's, and about Noon his Royal Highness, having received the News of it, came to Town from Windsor.

This Morning His Majesty came likewise to Town, to visit her Royal Highness, who, Thanks be to God, is in a very good state of Health. and after Dinner His Majesty returned again to Windsor.

This Afternoon the young Prince was constituted by the Lord Bishop of London, by the Names of Charlotte, Mary, his Grace the Duke of Ormond being Godfather, and the Countess of Arundel, and the Countess of Clarendon, being Godmothers.

Advertisements.

ON Monday the fourth of September, at Eight in the Morning precisely will be exposed to public Sale, by Candle, at Masons-hall in Basinghall-street, about 500 Pieces of very fine Spanish Cloth, and some other English Manufacture, chiefly accommodated to the French and English Drapers, which are put into about 140 Lots, and were lately the Goods of Mr. Matthew Randall, being Apprized from 10 to 16 s. per Yard: Which Goods may be seen at Blackwell-hall, and will be shew'd there by Meibustins Tattler, on Monday the 28th Instant, and so every day that Week from eight to twelve in the Morning, and from two till six in the Afternoon, where Printed Papers of each respective Lot, both for Quantity, Price, and Advance, will be shew'd, and if desired, delivered to such as intend to buy, by the said Meibustins Tattler, who may be spoken with at the Hall keepers House in the said Hall.

Whereas at a meeting of many persons concerned, a Committee was appointed to take care of, and manage the Effects recovered out of the Wreck of the ship 5 Aug 22 chant; These are to give notice, That an Inventory necessary to be Subscribed by all that are Interessed in the said Ship, to improve the said Committee to proceed and act therein, is prepared, and remaineth at Mrs. E. Fris Coffee-House in Burchin-Lane, where a person will daily attend from Eight of the Clock to Twelve in the Forenoon, and from Three to Six in the Afternoon, to take the Subscriptions, until the same be finished.

S Tolen or Strayed, on the sixth Instant, out of the Crown of Mr. Mark Le 112, in Tornay-Fens, in the Isle of Ely, in the County of Cambridge, four Mares and Foles, and a brown Gelding, two of the Mares being between 14 and 15 hands, of a dark brown colour, no white about them, only one of them has a little Star; the other two are about 14 hands, one of them a dark brown bay, no white about her, the other a light bay, with a Blaze, and all her Feet white; the Gelding having a Blaze and a Snip, and being about five years old. Whoever gives notice of them to the said Mr. Mark Le 112, or to Mr. Samuel Crouch at the Princes Arms at the corner of Ropes-head-Alley, next Cornhill, shall be very well Rewarded.

S Tolen or Strayed, the 29th of July last, out of the grounds of Ralph Parkeburn, of Chilliam in the County of Kent, a black Gelding, 15 hands, 9 years old, having a Navel-gaul, and standeth crippled with his potters joints; Also a bay Gelding about 14 hands high, six years old, the near Foot behind white, blind of the far eye, a Star in his Forehead: As likewise a red roan Mare, with a long Tail, about seven years old, and above 14 hands high. Whoever gives Notice of them to Mr. John Dawling, at the Crispin and Crispiana in Southwark, shall be well Rewarded.