SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 1819.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of His Majesty's Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two pennyweights of fine silver, and eighteen pennyweights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy; and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of crowns (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above mentioned (every such crown piece having for the obverse impression, the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. D. G. Britanniarum Rex, F. D." and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the image of Saint George, armed, sitting on horseback, attacking the Dragon with a sword, having broken his spear in the encounter, the said device being placed within the ennobled Garter, bearing the motto, "Honi soit qui mal y pense;" and on the edge of the piece, in raised letters, "Decus et tutamen, anno regni," the year of the reign being in Roman numeral letters), has been delivered from His Majesty's Mint to the Bank of England, and will continue to be issued therefrom for the use of His Majesty's subjects; We have, therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall, from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the said Kingdom, that is to say, such crown pieces as of the value of five shillings in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the third day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of April 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 19th of March 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, dated the 4th of last month, in the words following, viz :

" Whereas by an Act of the fifty-eighth year of His present Majesty, intituled " An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole," it is provided, that, " for the encouragement of persons who may attempt the said Passage, or approach to the Northern Pole, but not wholly accomplish the same; the said Commissioners may, by their Memorial, propose to His Majesty in Council, to direct and establish proportionate rewards to be paid to such person as aforesaid, who shall first have accomplished certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach:"

And whereas it appears that the progress of discovery has already advanced on the Eastern Coast of America, and within the Arctic Circle, as far as 90 degrees West Longitude, or thereabouts, from Greenwich; and Northwards has not yet arrived, according to any well authenticated accounts, so far as 81° of North Latitude:

We, your Memorialists, beg leave most humbly to represent these particulars for your Royal Highness's consideration, and to submit, with all humility, whether your Royal Highness may not be graciously pleased to establish the following scale of rewards, to be allotted according to the intentions of the Act:

1.—To the first ship belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, or to His Majesty, that shall reach the Longitude of 110° West from Greenwich, or the Mouth of Hearne's or Coppermine River, by sailing within the Arctic Circle

£5,000.

To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 130° West from Greenwich, or the Whole Island of Mackenzie, by sailing within the Arctic Circle - £10,000

To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 150° West from Greenwich, by sailing Westwards within the Arctic Circle - £15,000

The Act having already allotted to the first ship that shall reach the Pacific Ocean by a North West Passage the full reward of - £20,000

2.—To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach to 83° of North Latitude - £1,000

To 85° - £2,000

To 87° - £3,500

To 88° - £4,000

The Act having already allotted to the first ship that shall reach to or beyond 89° the full reward of - £5,000"

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent having taken the said Memorial into consideration was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to sanction and approve of, and doth hereby sanction and approve of, the scale of rewards proposed in the said Memorial.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into, and export from, such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy

Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, and during the continuance of the Act above recited, until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and the port of Saint John, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort, bread, biscuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort, pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said ports any of the said articles either to the United Kingdom or to any other of His Majesty's possessions:

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the ports of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and Saint John, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grind-stones, or other produce or manufacture of the said provinces, and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever, which shall have been legally imported into the said provinces; provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the ports above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 24, 1819.

The Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household has appointed the Reverend Francis Dyson, M. A. Rector of South Tidworth, Hants, Chaplain in Ordinary to His Majesty, in the room of the Reverend Dr. William Morice, deceased.

Foreign-Office, April 24, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to approve of Mr. Jacob Mark, as Consul at Cork for the United States of America.

Crown-Office, April 24, 1819.

MEMBERS returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Tipperary.

The Honourable Francis Aldborough Prittie, of Corville, in the said county of Tipperary, in the room of the Honourable Montagu Mathew, deceased.

Borough of Camelford.

John Stewart, of the Albany, in the city of Westminster, Esq. and Lewis Allsopp, of Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. the last election for two Burgesses for the borough of Camelford having been determined to be void.

Whitehall, March 10, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Maximilian-Dudley-Digges Hammond, of Hamptons, in the parish of West Peckham, in the county of Kent, Esq. second son of William Hammond, of St. Alban's-Court, in the same county, Esq. by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of the Reverend Osmond Beauvoir, Clerk, and of Anne his wife, daughter of John Boys, of Hode-Park, also in the said county of Kent, Esq. by Elizabeth his wife, who was sister of Thomas Dalison, of Hamptons aforesaid, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may assume and from henceforth use the surname of Dalison only, instead of that of Hammond, and may also bear the arms of Dalison; pursuant to the last will and testament of his late kinswoman, Frances-Isabella Master, of Yoke's-Place, in the parish of Mereworth, in the said county of Kent, deceased, who was widow and relict of Richard-Daniel Master, also of Yoke's-Place, and sole surviving daughter and heir of Thomas Dalison above named; the said arms of Dalison being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 20, 1819.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Alfred Edward Coren, of Market Deeping, in the county of Lincoln, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, April 23, 1819.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Joseph Wilson, of Whitehaven, in the county of Cumberland, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Thursday the 5th of November last, two stacks of hay, the property of Mr. James Wall, of Ashford, in the county of Kent, standing near the barn and buildings upon his land, called the Bridge Land, situate in the parish of Willesborough, in the said county, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stacks of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. James Wall; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered by the inhabitants of Ashford, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. —The above rewards to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of Wednesday the 7th of October last, a stack of hay, the property of the Rev. Moyle Breton, L. L. D. of Kennington, in the county of Kent, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stack of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Moyle Breton, to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. —The above reward to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Whitehall, January 22, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 10th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and wilfully kill and destroy two sheep and one lamb, which were grazing in a small close on the South side of Barrowby Turnpike Gate, in the parish of Barrowby, in the county of Lincoln, and four ewes in lamb, which were grazing in a great grass close near the abovementioned place, all the property of the Reverend Jonathan Kendal, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the parts of Kesteven, in the said county; and that the said offence was committed not for plunder, but from a principle of revenge to the said Mr. Kendal, who is a very active Magistrate for the said parts;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

A reward of TWENTY GUINEAS, by the said Reverend Jonathan Kendal;

And the further rewards of TEN POUNDS and TEN GUINEAS, to be paid on conviction, by Mr. Manners and Mr. Newcome, the Clerks and Treasurers to the Grantham Associations for the Prosecution of Felons.

REVOCATION OF A LICENCE.

Navy Pay-Office, London,
April 22, 1819.

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth of His present Majesty, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to

Mr. Samuel Lazarus, of No. 11, Castle-Place, Castle-Street, Whitechapel, London, on the 28th June 1817, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me, on the ground of not having duly accounted to George Smith, late of His Majesty's ships Pomone and Furieuse, for prize-money received for him, after being repeatedly called upon so to do.

Frederick John Robinson, Treasurer.

CONTRACT FOR TAR, PITCH, AND TALLOW.

Navy-Office, April 13, 1819.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 28th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Yards, or any one or more of them, with all or any of the following articles, viz.

Stockholm or Archangel Tar.
Stockholm, Archangel, or British made Pitch.
Russia Tallow.

Distributions of the articles, with forms of the tenders, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sums following, for the due performance of the respective contract, viz.

For the contract for Tar, £50 per 100 barrels.
Pitch, £70 per 100 barrels.
Tallow, £1000.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR HEMP.

Navy-Office, April 13, 1819.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 29th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Petersburgh or Riga Hemp.

A distribution of the hemp, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, April 21, 1819.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 5th of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner the Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart. will put up to sale, in the Pay-Office, in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, Junk and Rope in Paper-Staff, Colours with Tabling, Boltrope, Rounding, Rattling and Seizing, White Oakum, &c. &c. &c. all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Valuable Mill and Dwelling-Houses, &c. in Burnley.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the Chancery Court of Lancashire, in a Cause wherein Richard William Moxon and others are Plaintiffs, and John Hartley and others are Defendants, before Thomas Starbuck Shuttleworth, Esq. Deputy Registrar of the said Court, or whom he shall appoint, at Mr. Schofield's, the Black Bull Inn, in Burnley, in the County of Lancaster, on Friday the 21st day of May 1819, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced, and in the following or in such other lots as may be then agreed upon.

Lot 1. All that substantial and commodious freehold cotton-mill, situate and being at Goodham-Hill, in Burnley aforesaid, containing about forty yards in length, and twenty-three yards in breadth, together with a steam engine of twenty-two horses power, upright shafts, drums, wheels, gears, and other utensils of every description belonging thereto, subject to a lease of the said premises for a term of years, seven of which were unexpired on the 18th day of February last; and also subject to the covenants and agreements made and entered into with the lessee of the term.

The mill adjoins to and is abundantly supplied with water from the River Calder and is situate in the Town of Burnley, and at a very short distance from the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, which affords considerable advantages for carrying on the cotton business.

No. 17471.

Lot 2. All those two cottages or dwelling-houses, situate and being in Water-Street, in Burnley aforesaid, with the appurtenances thereto belonging; now in the occupation of Christopher Gibson and Christopher Taylor.

Lot 3. All those two other copyhold cottages or dwelling-houses (divided into four), situate and being in Cannon-Street, in Burnley aforesaid, with their respective appurtenances in the occupation of Richard Pickersgill, James Read, John Crook, and Alice Ashworth.

Lot 4. All those several other copyhold cottages or dwelling-houses and premises, situate on the north side of a certain street in Burnley aforesaid, called Cross-Street, with the respective appurtenances thereto belonging, and in the occupation of Lucy Sagar, John Graham, Richard Read, Widow Rawlinson, and William Ingham.

Lot 5. All that copyhold plot or parcel of building ground, situate and being on the north side of Cross-Street, in Burnley aforesaid, with a brick building erected on part thereof, now used as a blacksmiths shop and stable, together with the liberty and privileges of placing timber and wood in the gable end of a certain dwelling-house and building, standing and being at the east end of the said plot or parcel of ground.

This plot of building ground adjoins to the River Calder aforesaid, and is conveniently adapted for erecting a mill or factory thereon.

The whole of the copyhold property is within the manor of Ightenhill, and is subject to a small annual quit rent and fines certain.

Lot 6. The leasehold interest in a certain term of years, seven of which will be unexpired on the 25th day of May next, of and in all that messuage or dwelling house, with the workshop over the same, garden, and other outbuildings and appurtenances therewith occupied, now in the possession of Mr. William Chaffer and Mrs. Hargreaves.

Further information and particulars may be had at the Office of the said Deputy Registrar, in Preston; of Mr. Tillotson, Solicitor, in Colne; of Mr. J. Shaw, Solicitor, in Burnley; and of Mr. John Hartley, Cord-Manufacturer, Burnley; who will shew the above-mentioned premises.
