Valuable Mill and Dwelling-Houses, &c. in Burnley.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the Chancery Court of Lancashire, in a Cause wherein Richard William Moxon and others are Plaintiffs, and John Hartley and others are Defendants, before Thomas Starbuck Shuttleworth, Esq. Deputy Registrar of the said Court, or whom he shall appoint, at Mr. Schofield's, the Black Bull Inn, in Burnley, in the County of Lancaster, on Friday the 21st day of May 1819, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced, and in the following or in such other lots as may be then agreed upon.

Lot 1. All that substantial and commodious freehold cotton-mill, situate and being at Goodham-Hill, in Burnley aforesaid, containing about forty yards in length, and twenty-three yards in breadth, together with a steam engine of twenty-two horses power, upright shafts, drums, wheels, gears, and other utensils of every description belonging thereto, subject to a lease of the said premises for a term of years, seven of which were unexpired on the 18th day of February last; and also subject to the covenants and agreements made and entered into with the lessee of the term.

The mill adjoins to and is abundantly supplied with water from the River Calder and is situate in the Town of Burnley, and at a very short distance from the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, which affords considerable advantages for carrying on the cotton business.

Lot 2. All those two cottages or dwelling-houses, situate and being in Water-Street, in Burnley aforesaid, with the appurtenances thereto belonging; now in the occupation of Christopher Gibson and Christopher Taylor.

Lot 3. All those two other copyhold cottages or dwelling-houses (divided into four), situate and being in Cannon-Street, in Burnley aforesaid, with their respective appurtenances in the occupation of Richard Pickersgill, James Read, John Crook, and Alice Ashworth.

Lot 4. All those several other copyhold cottages or dwelling-houses and premises, situate on the north side of a certain street in Burnley aforesaid, called Cross-Street, with the respective appurtenances thereto belonging, and in the occupation of Lucy Sagar, John Graham, Richard Read, Widow Rawlinson, and William Ingham.

Lot 5. All that copyhold plot or parcel of building ground, situate and being on the north side of Cross-Street, in Burnley aforesaid, with a brick building erected on part thereof, now used as a blacksmiths shop and stable, together with the liberty and privileges of placing timber and wood in the gable end of a certain dwelling-house and building, standing and being at the east end of the said plot or parcel of ground.

This plot of building ground adjoins to the River Calder aforesaid, and is conveniently adapted for erecting a mill or factory thereon.

The whole of the copyhold property is within the manor of Ightenhill, and is subject to a small annual quit rent and fines certain.

Lot 6. The leasehold interest in a certain term of years, seven of which will be unexpired on the 25th day of May next, of and in all that messuage or dwelling house, with the workshop over the same, garden, and other outbuildings and appurtenances therewith occupied, now in the possession of Mr. William Chaffer and Mrs. Hargreaves.

Further information and particulars may be had at the Office of the said Deputy Registrar, in Preston; of Mr. Tillotson, Solicitor, in Colne; of Mr. J. Shaw, Solicitor, in Burnley; and of Mr. John Hartley, Cord-Manufacturer, Burnley; who will shew the above-mentioned premises.
