TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1819.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of His Majesty's Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two pennyweights of fine silver, and eighteen pennyweights of alloy to the pound troy; and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy; and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of crowns (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above mentioned (every such crown piece having for the obverse impression, the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. D. G. Britanniarum Rex, F. D." and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the image of Saint George, armed, sitting on horseback, attacking the Dragon with a sword, having broken his spear in the encounter, the said device being placed within the ennobled Garter, bearing the motto, "Honi soit qui mal y pense;" and on the edge of the piece, in raised letters, "Decus et tutamen, anno regni," the year of the reign being in Roman numeral letters), has been delivered from His Majesty's Mint to the Bank of England, and will continue to be issued therefrom for the use of His Majesty's subjects; We have, therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall, from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the said Kingdom, that is to say, such crown pieces as of the value of five shillings in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the third day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of April 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT
Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 37, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince

Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 19th of March 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, dated the 4th of last month, in the words following, viz :

“ Whereas by an Act of the fifty-eighth year of His present Majesty, intituled “ An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole,” it is provided, that, for the encouragement of persons who may attempt the said Passage, or approach to the Northern Pole, but not wholly accomplish the same; the said Commissioners may, by their Memorial, propose to His Majesty in Council, to direct and establish proportionate rewards to be paid to such person as aforesaid, who shall first have accomplished certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach:”

And whereas it appears that the progress of discovery has already advanced on the Eastern Coast of America, and within the Arctic Circle, as far as 90 degrees West Longitude, or thereabouts, from Greenwich; and Northwards has not yet arrived, according to any well authenticated accounts, so far as 81° of North Latitude:

We, your Memorialists, beg leave most humbly to represent these particulars for your Royal Highness's consideration, and to submit, with all humility, whether your Royal Highness may not be graciously pleased to establish the following scale of rewards, to be allotted according to the intentions of the Act:

1.—To the first ship belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, or to His Majesty, that shall reach the Longitude of 110° West from Greenwich, or the Mouth of Hearne's or Coppermine River, by sailing within the Arctic Circle

£5,000.

To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of

130° West from Greenwich, or the Whale Island of Mackenzie, by sailing within the Arctic Circle - £10,000

To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 150° West from Greenwich, by sailing Westwards within the Arctic Circle - £15,000

The Act having already allotted to the first ship that shall reach the Pacific Ocean by a North West Passage the full reward of - £20,000

2.—To the first ship, as aforesaid, that shall reach to 83° of North Latitude - £1,000

To 85° - £2,000

To 87° - £3,000

To 88° - £4,000

The Act having already allotted to the first ship that shall reach to or beyond 89° the full reward of - £5,000”

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent having taken the said Memorial into consideration was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to sanction and approve of, and doth hereby sanction and approve of, the scale of rewards proposed in the said Memorial.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818;

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Leith has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Leith is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of October 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that a proper and sufficient number of pilots of the Cinque Ports, not less than eighteen at any one time, and in succession from time to time without intermission or any unnecessary delay, shall at all seasonable times, by day and night, constantly ply at sea, or be afloat between the South Foreland and Dungeness, to take charge of all ships and vessels coming from the westward:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of England, and for the regulation of boatmen employed in supplying vessels with pilots, licensed under the said Act, so far as relates to the coast of Kent, within the limits of the Cinque Ports," after reciting, amongst other things, the said Act, passed in the fifty-second year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by any Order or Orders made for that purpose, and published by Proclamation in the Gazette, to suspend so much of the said therein-recited Act as directs the Cinque Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances in the said therein-recited Act specified, either for any period His Majesty shall think proper, and to be in such case specified in such Order or Orders and Proclamation, or until any further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said therein-recited Act into effect and execution, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures, in relation to such specified number of pilots constantly plying at sea, and clauses and regulations for enforcing the same, shall, upon the issuing of such Proclamation, remain and continue, so suspended.

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has deemed it expedient to suspend the carrying into execution the said part of the said first recited Act, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said first recited Act, as directs the Cinque-Port pilots constantly to ply at sea and be afloat between the distances in the said first recited Act specified, shall be suspended; and the same is hereby suspended, until further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be issued for again carrying the said provision of the said first recited Act into effect and execution.

Jas. Buller.

Carlton-House, May 4, 1819.

The Prince Regent has been graciously pleased to appoint Arthur Wellesley Torrens, Esq. Page of Honour to His Royal Highness in Ordinary, vice Frederick William Culling Smith, Esq. promoted.

Crown-Office, May 4, 1819.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT,

Borough of Westbury.

William Leader Maberly, Esq. in the room of Ralph Franco, Esq. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of Wednesday the 7th of October last, a stack of hay, the property of the Rev. Moyle Breton, L. L. D. of Kennington, in the county of Kent, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stack of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Moyle Breton, to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. — The above reward to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

Whitehall, April 2, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Thursday the 5th of November last, two stacks of hay, the property of Mr. James Wall, of Ashford, in the county of Kent, standing near the barn and buildings upon his land, called the Bridge Land, situate in the parish of Willesborough, in the said county, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed, by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stacks of hay on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. James Wall; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered by the inhabitants of Ashford, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. — The above rewards, to be paid on conviction by G. Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford, in the county of Kent.

CAUTION TO TIMBER-MERCHANTS AND OTHERS.

Navy-Office, May 3, 1819.

Whereas it has been represented to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, that several Timber-Merchants and other persons are in the habit of having a mark put upon their timber, which assimilates to the King's mark, the Broad Arrow; now the said Principal Officers and Commissioners do hereby give notice, that all timber which may be discovered with the King's marks upon it, although it may be claimed by individuals, will be liable to seizure.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, April 21, 1819.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 5th of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner the Honourable Sir George Gray, Bart. will put up to sale, in the Pay-Office, in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, Junk and Rope in Paper-Stuff, Colours with Tablins, Boltrope, Rounding, Rattling and Seizing, White Oakum, &c. &c. &c. all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, April 21, 1819.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice that they are ready to receive proposals from such persons as may be willing to tender for a quantity of

Saltpetre Bags,

now in His Majesty's Stores at the Royal Powder Mills, Waltham Abbey, amounting to about one hundred and twenty tons.

No tender will be noticed for a less quantity than five tons; and it is expected that purchasers will pay for the bags to the Ordnance Storekeeper on the spot upon delivery.

The bags may be inspected upon application to the respective Officers of the Ordnance, at Waltham Abbey, by all persons making application for that purpose.

All tenders must be delivered at the Office of Ordnance, in Pall-Mall, on or before Wednesday the 5th day of May next, but no proposal can be admitted after twelve o'clock on the same day.

By order of the Board;

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
