TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1819.

Whitehall, May 12, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that divers outrages and depredations have been committed at Westbury, in the county of Salop, particularly on the property of Richard Topp, Esq; and that on the night of Thursday the 11th of March last, or early on the following morning, some evil-disposed person or persons did enter a cow-shed belonging to Mr. George Geary, agent to the said Richard Topp, and maliciously kill one cow, and dangerously maim another;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above particularized, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said George Geary, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the person or persons concerned in the felonies above particularized, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

In pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, made on Tuesday the 11th day of this present month of May, notice is hereby given, that application has been made to Parliament in the present session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering and enlarging the powers and provisions of several Acts of His present Majesty, "for amending and rendering more effectual several Acts for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places in the city and liberties of Westminster, and parts adjacent, and for putting certain streets therein mentioned, commonly called optional streets, under the management of parochial committees, and for other purposes," as far as respects a certain street called Holborn, and a passage called Middle-Row, in the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, above the Bars, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated the 12th day of May 1819.

Taylor and Reeves, Solicitors for the said Bill, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row.

Marshall's-Office.—Summons by Edict.

IN consequence of some inaccuracy in the names of some of the proprietors of plantation Kortberaad having crept in the Edictal Summons issued from this Office, under date of 3d October 1818, and having received legal authority from His Honour the late Acting President of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, for the purpose of issuing a correct Edictal Summons,

I, the undersigned, at the instance of Charles Kyte, as having been appointed, by the Honourable Court of Civil Justice, Trustee of plantation Kortberaad, do hereby, de novo, summon by edict—firstly, all known and unknown Creditors or claimants against plantation Kortberaad aforesaid; secondly, all known and unknown Creditors or Claimants against J. I. de Mey, his former wife Henrietta Base, her children, Hendrik Alexander Krigger and Christina S. I. de Mey, and his late wife, Frances Bartlett de Mey (born Bussell), her infant children, Emma Bussell de Mey and Frances Delia de Mey, proprietors of the aforesaid plantation Kortberaad, to appear at the bar of the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, to be held in the month of April 1819, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly attested and in due form, against the aforesaid plantation Kortberaad, and the proprietors thereof; whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the ourth and last edict, will be proceeded against the defaulters according to law.

This summons by edict published as customary.—Berbice, 30th January 1819.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

WILLIAM GILDART, of Yoxall, in the County of Stafford, Builder and Joiner, having assigned his personal estate and effects to Jenny Hall and Francis Gildart, Butcher, both of Yoxall aforesaid, for the benefit of themselves and all other the Creditors of the said William Gildart, who shall signify their consent to accept a dividend to arise therefrom by executing the said assignment: notice is hereby given, that the said assignment is left for the purpose of being executed by the Creditors of the said William Gildart, at the Office of Mr. Dyott, Solicitor, in Litchfield. All persons standing indebted to the said William Gildart, are requested immediately to pay their debts to the said Jenny Hall and Francis Gildart, or proceedings will be commenced against them for enforcing the payment thereof. Litchfield, May 12, 1819.
