Whitehall, June 11, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto George Lewis Newnham of Knightsbridge, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. and unto the Honourable Sarah Newnham his wife, eldest daughter and coheir of the Right Honourable Cuthbert late Baron Collingwood, Vice Admiral of the Red Squadron of His Majesty's Fleet, deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that they may, in compliance with the earnest wish and desire of the said Baron Collingwood, and in testimony of the respect and affection which they bear to his memory, take and use the surname of Collingwood, in addition to and after that of Newnham; that he the said George Lewis Newnham may bear the arms of Collingwood quarterly with those of his own family; and that such surname and arms, together with the Honourable augmentations granted by His Majesty to the said Baron Collingwood and his descendants, in commemoration of the glorious victory off Cape Trafalgar, on the 21st day of October 1805, may be taken, used, and borne by the issue of the marriage of the said George Lewis Newnham, and Sarah Newnham; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And His Royal Highness has also been pleased to order that this royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Caution against purchasing pretended Claims upon Government, on account of Supplies furnished or Services rendered to the British Army in the Peninsula.

Whereas it has been represented to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that frauds have been committed by various persons pretending to sell certificates or other documents, in support of claims upon His Majesty's Government for supplies furnished or services rendered to the British Army in the Peninsula; notice is hereby given, that the period for the presentation of claims of this description has long since expired; all persons are, therefore, cautioned against purchasing any such claims or documents.

CONTRACT FOR RIGA FIR TIMBER AND HAND MASTS.

Navy-Office, June 10, 1819.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 23d instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Yards with
