

tain, any such tools or utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the preparing, working up, or finishing of the woollen or silk manufactures, or any part of such tools, he shall, for every offence, forfeit all such tools, or parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's warehouses, all such tools or utensils prohibited to be exported, as such officer shall find on board any vessel not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all tools so seized shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce shall be to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his vessel, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the penalties inflicted upon persons exporting the tools; and, if the vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his employment, and be incapable of any employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any entry outward, or sign any cocket or sufferance for the shipping or exporting of any of the said tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his office, and be incapable of any office under His Majesty.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like penalties and forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to persons packing or putting on board any vessel, not bound directly for some port in Great Britain or Ireland, any machine, engine, tool, press, paper, utensil, or implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the cotton, steel, or iron manufactures of this kingdom, or any part or parts of such machines or implements, or any models or plans thereof; and all Captains of ships and other persons receiving or being in possession of any such articles, with an intent to export the same to foreign parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of tools and utensils used in the woollen and silk manufactures.

General-Post-Office, June 23, 1819.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having directed that persons should be invited to deliver in plans and elevations for the proposed erection of the New Post-Office; notice is hereby given, that such plans and elevations will be received by the Postmaster-General, at their Office in Lombard-street; and such architects as are desirous of forming and delivering designs for the above purpose, may have access to the calculations and plans now in this Office.

£300 will be given as a premium for the best plan and elevation which shall be furnished—£200 for the second best; and £100 for the third best. The plans are to be delivered in, on or before the 1st September next.

By command of the Postmaster-General,
Francis Freeling, Secretary.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.

*Dock-Office, Liverpool,
June 23, 1819.*

Notice is hereby given, that the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks intend to offer for sale, by public auction, at the Dock-Office, in Liverpool, on Friday the 16th day of July next, at one o'clock, assignments of the rates and duties of the said Docks, according to the provisions of the Act of the fifty-first of George the Third, to the amount of £20,000, in sums not less than £100 each, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, payable half-yearly in London or in Liverpool, as may be most agreeable to the purchasers.

John Foster, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, July 2, 1819.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 16th instant, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

Stoves, Ranges, and other articles, for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Stoves, Ranges, &c.;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 16th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Craw, Secretary.
