By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth-ninth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 25, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to fix a rate, and direct the disposal of freight-money for the conveyance of specie and jewels on board His Majesty's ships and vessels," it is enacted, "that from and after the eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all freight-money to be paid for the conveyance on board any of the ships and vessels of His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, of gold, silver, and jewels, or of any other article which may be by special order received on board the said ships and vessels, and for which freight shall be payable, shall be paid at such rate, and distributed and applied for such purposes, and divided to and amongst such persons, in such proportions, and after such manner as His Majesty, his heirs, and successors shall from time to time think fit to order and direct by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued for that purpose; and that no freight-money or reward shall hereafter be demanded, paid, received, or detained by, to, or for the use or on account of any person or persons for the conveyance on board of any of the ships and vessels of His Majesty, his heirs, or successors, of any gold, silver, or jewels, or any other article which may be by special order received on board the said ship or vessel, and for which freight shall be payable, other than for the purposes, and by the person or persons, in the proportion, at the rates, and in the manner so to be paid and allowed by Proclamation or Proclamations; and that all bargains, contracts, covenants, and agreements made or entered into for the payment of any freight-money for or in the name or on the account of

" freight for the conveyance of gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, on board of any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, at any rate, or for any other purpose, or by or to any other person or persons, or in any other manner or proportions than as aforesaid, shall be, and the same are hereby, declared to be utterly void ;"

We do, therefore, in pursuance of the powers so vested in His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, by this Our Royal Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, think proper to order and direct, and We do hereby order and direct, that all gold, silver, and jewels, or other articles received as treasure by special order, conveyed in His Majesty's ships and vessels in the care and charge of the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, shall be liable to the payment of freight, whether such treasure belong to the Crown or to other parties.

That on the delivery of any gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, laden on board of any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, for which freight may or shall be payable as aforesaid, or according to the provisions and directions hereinafter contained, a receipt or bill of lading, or receipts or bills of lading, shall be made and signed by the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, describing the quantity or value of such gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, and the terms on and extent to which such Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel so receiving the said gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles, on board his said ship or vessel, shall be liable or responsible for the same, in case of loss or damage thereof, to which by law he might be liable, in form or to the effect following :

[Here insert bill of lading in the usual form.]

And it is hereby stipulated and agreed between the said _____ and the shipper and owners and consignees of the said _____, that in case of loss or damage happening to the said gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel as aforesaid shall not be holden liable or responsible for more than three fourths of the amount of such loss or damage.

That the rates at which freight shall be paid for public and for private treasure respectively, and in peace or war respectively, and for different voyages, shall be as follows, viz.

Between any two ports in Europe on this side Gibraltar (Gibraltar included), and including also the Azores, Madeira, or Canaries

Between any two ports on the same foreign station, the navigable distance between which shall not exceed six hundred leagues, the Mediterranean Sea, Gibraltar included, being considered as one foreign station

Between any port in Europe out of the Mediterranean, and any port in the Mediterranean beyond Gibraltar, or any port on the West Coast of Africa, including Simon's Bay, or any port on the East side of America, North or South, or the West India or other Islands on the American Coast, including Bermuda and Newfoundland; or between any two ports in the same foreign station, the nearest navigable distance between which shall exceed six hundred leagues, or between any two ports on different stations not otherwise ordered

Between any port in the European or Atlantic Seas, North of the Equator, and any port beyond the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn

That in case of any difference on any question arising out of the above scale, or omitted in the said scale, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall have authority to decide what the freight shall be under the said scale, or adhering as nearly as possible in cases not specified, to the spirit and principles of the said scale.

That on the shipment of gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles received on board as treasure by special order, the rate of freight per centum according to the above scale shall be endorsed on the bill or bills of lading, or receipt or receipts of the Officer receiving the charge thereof, such endorsement or endorsements to be signed by the said Officer; but in case of any difference of opinion abroad, or when immediate reference cannot be had to the Lords of the Admiralty, it may be expressed, "at such rate as the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall decide."

When treasure belonging to the Crown shall be shipped in any of His Majesty's ships or vessels with a commissary or conductor specially charged with the care thereof, the Officer commanding such ship or vessel shall not be required to give any receipt, nor to sign any bill of lading, and such Officer shall not receive any freight on account thereof, nor be liable to make good any loss or damage which may happen to the same.

That the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall have authority to direct at what time, and for what time, and within what limits the war freight shall be payable on private treasure received by special order.

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the whole amount of the said freight when received shall be divided into four parts and distributed as follows, subject to the proviso hereinafter mentioned, one-fourth to the Admiral or Admirals if more than one on the station, or in the squadron to which the ship receiving treasure on board may belong.

Two-fourths to the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, who shall give his receipt or sign the bill of lading for the treasure, and one-fourth to Greenwich-Hospital for the use of that institution.

That when there shall be more than one Flag-Officer on the station, the said one-fourth part shall be divided and distributed amongst the several Flag-Officers on the station in the following proportions, viz.

If there be but two Flag-Officers, the Chief shall have two-third parts of the said one-fourth, and the other shall have the remaining third part; but if the number of Flag-Officers be more than two, the Chief shall have only one-half, and the other half shall be equally divided amongst the junior Flag-Officers; but if there be no Flag-Officers on the station, or that the ship or vessel be not under the orders of a Flag-Officer, then that the Captain or Officer commanding the ship or vessel shall have three-fourths, and Greenwich-Hospital one-fourth, provided that such Admiral or Admirals shall not be entitled to claim his or their respective share or shares in such freight-money otherwise than on condition that he or they shall, before the gold, silver, jewels, treasure, or other articles as aforesaid shall be put on board such ship or vessel, have respectively given notice in writing to the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, or his agent, or have entered or cause to be entered in a public order book on board the ship of the Commander in Chief, or the senior Flag-Officer commanding on the station or in the squadron to which such vessel belongs; or in case of a junior Flag-Officer absent from the Commander in Chief, unless such junior Flag-Officer shall have notified under his hand to the Commander in Chief to be entered in the said Order Book an engagement, in writing, in form or to the effect following;

I, A. B. am desirous of partaking in the advantages with the risks attendant thereon, arising out of the conveyance of freight of treasure in any of the ships or vessels of the squadron (or in the particular ship as the case may be). And I hereby engage to make good to the Captain or Captains, Officers or Officer, commanding such ships or vessels respectively (or ship or vessel as the case may be), such part of any loss or damage for which he or they may be liable in respect to the gold, silver, treasure, or other articles so carried on freight, and which he or they respectively shall have actually paid and satisfied, as shall be in proportion to the share or interest in the said freight money to which I may be entitled. And that such share or shares of the Admiral or Admirals as aforesaid, to which he or they shall not be entitled on the conditions hereinbefore expressed, shall go and belong to the Captain or Officer commanding the ship or vessel in which the gold, silver, treasure, or other articles shall be carried on freight as aforesaid.

That in the event of loss or damage happening to the gold, silver, jewels, or other articles so received on freight exceeding the total freight-money, Greenwich Hospital shall not be entitled to receive any sum on account of such freight; and in cases in which the loss may not amount to the whole of the freight money, Greenwich Hospital shall be entitled only to its proportion of the balance of freight-money over and above such loss or damage.

That Commodores, with Captains under them, and Captains of the Fleet, are to be considered agreeably to the rules of the service, as Flag-Officers, and Commodores, without Captains under them, shall with respect to freight be also considered as Flag-Officers, when in the command of a station.

That when the Captain or Commander, or his agent, shall have received the freight, he shall pay over to the senior Flag-Officer, and to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, without delay, their respective shares, and the Captain shall be held responsible to both for any loss which may occur, through his neglect or delay, in receiving or paying the same; but if there be any question or difficulty as to the payment, he is to apprise the Senior Flag-Officer and the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital respectively, of the causes of such delay.

That the Captain or Officer commanding, on receiving any treasure on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, shall transmit to the Senior Flag-Officer, when such Captain or Officer commanding shall be under a Flag-Officer, and in every case to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, and to the Secretary of the Admiralty, a return of the amount of such treasure, and of the freight paid or to be paid thereon.

That when the treasure shall, during the voyage, be transhipped into one or more ships, the freight shall be divided, pro rata itineris, among the Admirals and Captains and who may be entitled to share therein according to the services performed by the different ships respectively; and if any difficulty or dispute shall arise respecting such division or distribution, any party interested therein may refer the same to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; and the decision or orders of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or any three of them, as to such division or distribution shall be final and conclusive thereon.

That in order to prevent any doubt or misunderstanding as to the rate or distribution of freight on gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, received on board flag-ships, or any other of His Majesty's ships and vessels, and to prevent any private agreements inconsistent with these regulations all Flag or other Officers are expressly forbidden to receive on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels any gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, upon any agreement or condition different from these regulations, or to take, demand, or receive any sums, other than those established by these regulations.

That these rules and regulations shall be in force from the day on which they shall be received by His Majesty's Officers, and be thenceforward taken and understood to be the established rule and custom of His Majesty's naval service on the several particulars to which they refer till they shall be revoked or otherwise altered by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by Us.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient, that the Order in Council of the twenty-eighth May last, prohibiting the export of any gun-powder or saltpetre, or of any sort of arms or ammunition from the ports of this kingdom to the places therein specified, should be extended to all the ports within the dominion of the King of Spain; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that the prohibition laid by the aforesaid Order, of the twenty-eighth May last, be, and the same is hereby, extended to all ports within the dominion of the King of Spain, and made subject to all the conditions, regulations, and restrictions specified in the said Order of the twenty-eighth May last:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Benjamin Elliott, of Portsmouth, in the county of Hants, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, July 26, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about ten o'clock in the evening of Friday last, the 23d of July instant, William Birch, a special constable of Stockport, in the county palatine of Chester, had in his custody at his dwelling-house, in the Church-gate in Stockport aforesaid, Joseph Harrison, schoolmaster, of that town, charged with seditious practices; and that three men, at present unknown, went to the said dwelling-house, and while the said William Birch was engaged in conversation with them respecting the said Joseph Harrison, one of the three men fired a pistol at the said William Birch, and the bullet, with which the said pistol was loaded, lodged in his breast, and little hopes are entertained of his life;

His Royal Highness, for the better and more speedy apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony aforesaid, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said pistol), who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, His Royal Highness is further pleased to promise to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the persons concerned in the said felony, the rewards following; that is to say, for the person who actually fired the said pistol, the sum of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS; and for either of the other two persons who were present at the firing of the said pistol, the sum of FIFTY POUNDS: to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

SIDMOUTH.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that various attempts have been made to set fire to several buildings and other property in the village of Exming, in the county of Suffolk, and that several anonymous letters have been written and dropt containing threats to the above effect; and also, that on the night of the 18th day of this instant July, the outhouses belonging to Mr. Edward Hancock, of Exming aforesaid, were set on fire, and property to a great amount destroyed thereby; and that there is every reason to believe that the same was the act of some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony last mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire the said outhouses), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

The said reward to be paid by Mr. Albertus Pars, at Exming, on behalf of the inhabitants of Exming, and the several insurance offices interested in the preservation of the property.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.

*Dock-Office, Liverpool,
 July 23, 1819.*

Notice is hereby given, that the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks intend to offer for sale, by public auction, at the Dock-Office, in Liverpool, on Friday the 20th day of August next, at one o'clock, assignments of the rates and duties of the said Docks, according to the provisions of the Act of the fifty-first of George the Third, to the amount of £20,000, in sums not less than £100 each, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, payable half-yearly in London or in Liverpool; as may be most agreeable to the purchasers.

John Foster, Secretary.

It being at length discovered that the Gentleman, who left his home on Thursday evening the 15th of July, intends, unhappily, to make a long absence; this is most earnestly to entreat his immediate return, or communication where he may be heard of, as he values the existence of an afflicted family; and that his unfortunate wife M—a is a wretched lost creature, unless he immediately returns to her, or points out a way for her to join him; that she fears no difficulties; and that the only hope of his giving her a channel through which she can directly correspond with him, supports her.

Winchester, July 22, 1819.

ALL persons having any demand on the estate of the late Rev.
