TUESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1819.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE. P. R.

WHEREAS in divers parts of Great Britain, meetings of large numbers of His Majesty's subjects have been held upon the requisition of persons who, or some of whom, have, together with others, by seditious and treasonable speeches addressed to the persons assembled, endeavoured to bring into hatred and contempt the Government and Constitution established in this realm, and particularly the Commons House of Parliament, and to excite disobedience to the laws and insurrection against His Majesty's authority:

And whereas it hath been represented unto Us, that at one of such meetings the persons there assembled, in gross violation of the law did attempt to constitute and appoint, and did, as much as in them lay, constitute and appoint a person then nominated, to sit in their name and on their behalf in the Commons House of Parliament; and there is reason to believe that other meetings are about to be held for the like unlawful purpose:

And whereas many wicked and seditious writings have been printed, published, and industriously circulated, tending to promote the several purposes aforesaid, and to raise groundless jealousies and discontents in the minds of His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects:

And whereas We have been further given to understand, that, with a view of the better enabling themselves to carry into effect the wicked purposes aforesaid, in some parts of the kingdom, men, clandestinely and unlawfully assembled, have practised military training and exercise:

And whereas the welfare and happiness of this Kingdom do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon a due submission to the laws, a just reliance on the integrity and wisdom of Parliament, and a steady perseverance in that attachment to the Government and Constitution of the Realm, which has ever prevailed in the minds of the people thereof; and whereas there is nothing which We so earnestly wish as to preserve the public peace and prosperity, and to secure to all His Majesty's liege subjects the entire enjoyment of their rights and liberties:

We, therefore, being resolved to repress the wicked, seditious, and treasonable practices aforesaid, have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, solemnly warning all His Majesty's liege subjects to guard against every attempt to overthrow the law, and to subvert the Government so happily established within this Realm, and to abstain from every measure inconsistent with the peace and good order of society, and earnestly exhorting them at all times, and to the utmost of their power, to avoid and discountenance all proceedings tending to produce the evil effects above described:

And We do strictly enjoin all His Majesty's loving subjects to forbear from the practice of all such military training and exercise as aforesaid, as they shall answer the contrary thereof at their peril.

And We do charge and command all Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Chief Magistrates of Cities, Boroughs, and Corporations, and all other Magistrates throughout Great Britain, that they do, within their respective jurisdictions, make diligent enquiry in order to discover and bring to justice the authors and printers of such wicked and seditious writings as aforesaid, and all who shall circulate the same; and that they do use their best endeavours to bring to justice all persons who have been or may be guilty of uttering seditious speeches and harangues, and all persons concerned in any riots or unlawful assemblies, which, on whatever pretext they may be grounded, are not only contrary to law but dangerous to the most important interests of the kingdom.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of July 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of August next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the 2d day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient, that the Order in Council of the twenty-eighth May last, prohibiting the export of any gunpowder or saltpetre, or of any sort of arms or ammunition from the ports of this kingdom to the places therein specified, should be extended to all the ports within the dominion of the King of Spain; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that the prohibition laid by the aforesaid Order, of the twenty-eighth May last, be, and the same is hereby, extended to all ports within the dominion of the King of Spain, and made subject to all the conditions, regulations, and restrictions specified in the said Order of the twenty-eighth May last:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Commission in the 2d or Cunningham and Cumnock Corps of Ayrshire Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Ayr.

John Ferrier Hamilton, Esq. to be Major-Commandant, vice Craufurd, resigned. Dated 12th May 1819.

Whitehall, August 7, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Edward-Hughes Ball, of Upper Brook-street, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Hughes, in addition to and after that of Ball, and also bear the arms of Hughes quarterly with those of Ball (Hughes in the first quarter), in testimony of the gratitude and affection which he bears to the memory of Sir Edward Hughes, Knight Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Admiral of the Blue Squadron of His Majesty's Fleet, and of Dame Ruth Hughes, widow and relict of the said Sir Edward Hughes, both deceased (from whom he derives considerable real and personal property); such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 9, 1819.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Fowler Steward, of Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, August 9, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Wednesday the 4th instant, a plantation, called the Brown Knorde, in the township of Broxton, in the county of Chester, the property of Thomas Tarleton, Esq. of Bolesworth Castle, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire, in four different places, and destroyed, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire the said plantation), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Tarleton, Esq. to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Admiralty-Office, July 30, 1819.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been graciously pleased, by his Order in Council of this date, to approve of a proposal made to His Royal Highness by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that for the future and until further orders, any Officer in His Majesty's Naval Service shall be allowed to hold and to enjoy the salary and emoluments of any public office under His Majesty's Government either at home or abroad, such public office not being in any Civil or Military Department of the Navy, provided the said salary and emoluments do not exceed three times the amount of the highest rate of half-pay of that rank of Officers to which he may belong; or provided the said salary and emoluments, together with the whole or any part of the said half-pay, shall not in the aggregate exceed four times the amount of the said half-pay, that is to say, if the amount of the salary and the emoluments of the situation shall exceed three times, but fall short of four times the amount of the half-pay, then the Officer holding such situation shall suffer such abatement from his half-pay as that the remainder, when added to the salary and emoluments of the public situation, shall make up the exact amount of four times his half-pay, but in no case to exceed that amount; this is to give notice thereof, and that the said arrangement, and the regulation thereupon, is to take effect from and after the 1st January 1819.—And a similar arrangement has been established for Officers on the half-pay of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces.

J. W. CROKER.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act or Acts, for making a navigable cut or canal from and through the parish and township of Womersley, to open into and communicate with the navigable River Don, near the bridge at Doncaster, both in the west riding of the county of York; with a navigable cut or canal to branch from and out of the aforesaid intended navigable cut or canal at or near Norton Bridge over the River Went, in the township of Norton, and to extend to and into the said River Don, at or near the outfall of the River Went, in the township of Cowick, within the said west riding; and which cut or canal, and branch, cut, or canal are intended to be carried into and through and over lands within the townships of Womersley, Stubs Walden, Norton Askern, Sutton, Burghwallis, Owston, Arksey, Sprotbrough, Bentley, Balne, Fenwick, Sykehouse, Snaith, and Cowick; within the parishes of Womersley, Campsal, Burghwallis, Owston, Arksey, Sprotbrough, Fishlake, and Snaith, or some of them, all in the said west riding of the county of York.

Dixon Holmes, Agent for the said intended canal.

Doncaster, 6th August 1819.

August 10, 1819.

THE truly unhappy party, connected with the Gentleman who left his home Thursday, July 15, intends, if possible, to leave London for Antwerp on Thursday next, August 12, 1819, where she most anxiously hopes to hear of the important object of her pursuit (as he values the safety and interest of his family), and is sure every cause of disquietude might be now immediately removed.

SARAH STORY, late of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, Widow, deceased (before her marriage Sarah Poole, daughter of Henry Poole, formerly of the same Town, Grocer, deceased), having by her will bequeathed the residue of her personal estate to be equally divided amongst such of her first and second paternal cousins (including first cousins once removed), as should be living at her death, which happened on the 3d of July 1819; all persons claiming to be related to the said Mrs. Story, in any of the said degrees, are hereby required forthwith to send their pedigrees, with copies of parish registers, or other legal evidence to support and verify such pedigrees, to Mr. Leeson, Solicitor, Thurland-Hall, in Nottingham.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Peter Statham and Jonathan Statham, of Ardwick, in the County of Lancaster, Dyers, Chapmen and Copartners, at the Star Inn, in Manchester, on Wednesday the 18th day of August instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, in the following lots, and subject to such conditions as shall be then and there produced;

Lot 1. The fee simple and inheritance of and in all that plot, piece or parcel of land, situate in Ardwick aforesaid, containing in length on the westerly or northwesterly side thereof 39 yards and 24 inches, and on the northerly side thereof 36 yards and 24 inches, on the easterly or southeasterly side thereof 63 yards and 27 inches, and on the southerly or southwesterly side thereof 28 yards and 21 inches, and containing in the whole, by admeasurement, 1460 square yards of land, superficial measure, or thereabouts; be the same more or less, and bounded on the westerly or northwesterly side thereof by a street of 12 yards wide, on the northerly side thereof by a street or passage of 2½ yards in breadth, and on the southerly or southwesterly side thereof by a street of 5 yards wide. And also all that erection or building used as a drying-stove and firing-house, with the two several cottages or dwelling-houses and stable erected and built and now standing on the said plot of land; together with the stove pipes in the stove.

The premises comprised in this lot are subject to a perpetual annual rent in fee of 36l. 10s. payable thereout.

Lot 2. The fee simple and inheritance of and in all that other plot, piece or parcel of land or ground, situate in Ardwick aforesaid (being formerly part of a certain field called the Bridge Field), and containing in length, on the southerly side thereof 52 yards and 24 inches, or thereabouts, and on the westerly end thereof 18 yards and 21 inches, or thereabouts, and in breadth, in an irregular line on the northerly and easterly sides thereof 72 yards and 6 inches, or thereabouts, and in the whole 1270 superficial square yards of land or ground, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, and bounded on the southerly side thereof by lands heretofore belonging to Thomas Birch, Esq., on the westerly end thereof by lands heretofore belonging to William Turner, Esq., and on the northerly and easterly sides thereof by the River Medlock.

And also the steam-engine-house, dye-houses, and other buildings, erected and now standing on the last described plot of land.

The premises comprised in the second lot are subject to a perpetual annual rent of 7l. 18s. 9d. heretofore reserved and made payable thereout to Thomas Birch, Esq. his heirs and assigns, and to another perpetual annual rent in fee of 84l. heretofore reserved and made payable thereout to Richard Entwisle, Esq. his heirs and assigns.

Lot 3. All that steam engine of twenty horses' power, with the millwright work and gearing erected and fixed and now being in the said engine-house, and the boilers, pans and shafts thereto belonging.

And also all and every the copper pans, iron pans, vats, winces, lead pipes and iron pipes, erected, fixed and set in or about the building comprised in lot 2.

Further particulars may be known on application at the Office of Mr. Walker, Solicitor to the Assignees, Essex-Street; or at the Office of Mr. Cloughton, Solicitor to the Mortgagee, Bow-Street, Manchester.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, by Mr. William Hobbs, by direction of the Assignees, before the major part of the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against William Mole and Richard Lockett, Common-Carriers, at the Packhorse Inn, Worcester, on the 20th of August instant, at Four o'Clock, in five lots.

Lot 1. A freehold house land tax redeemed with garden tastefully laid out and planted with shrubs and fruit trees, delightfully situate on Rainbow-Hill, lately occupied by Mr. Holland, the house is substantially built having a viranda in front, with lead flat and iron rails, and is fit for the immediate reception of a genteel family, being fitted up with marble chimney pieces, grates, copper furnaces, and other useful fixtures, and is well supplied with soft and spring water.

Lot 2. A substantial brick built gothic villa-nearly finished stuccoed front, delightfully situate on Upper Thistly Hill, near Worcester, commanding uninterrupted and pleasing views, a lofty brick wall enclosing a garden. The house is leasehold for three lives, and contains two parlours, a drawing room, five bed rooms, and every domestic office, with carriage drive approach and enclosed by folding gates.

Lot 3. A piece of excellent and very valuable-pasture land adjoining, known as the Golden Acre, held by lease under the Master of St. Oswalds Hospital.

Lot 4. A plot of garden ground admirably calculated for building on, partly freehold and part leasehold, situate on the most picturesque part of Rainbow-Hill, with a newly built summer-house, ornamented with a stained glass window.

Lot 5. A substantially built spacious warehouse contiguous to the canal Sansom-Street, Worcester, with counting-house and store-room annexed, extensive stabling and lofts, with a variety of rooms exceedingly eligible for a carrier, in which line it has long been established, or it is well calculated for any business where room is required; also a substantial built dwelling-house adjoining, containing a drawing-room, a parlour, a suitable number of bed-rooms, kitchen and requisite offices, in a good state of repair, fit for the immediate occupation of a respectable family, with a garden in front, now in the possession of Mr. Mole. The whole forms a most desirable property with every prospect of great emolument to a purchaser. Held under the Corporation of Worcester for forty-one years, renewable every fourteen at a chief rent of 11. 2s. 6d. per annum.

May be viewed and particulars had on application to Mr. Mole, Sansom-Street; of Mr. James, Messrs. Welles and Dickens, Mr. Hill, and Mr. Cameron, Solicitors, and of Mr. Hobbs, all in Worcester.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to three several Orders of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date respectively the 21st day of December 1818, the 24th day of March 1819; and the 26th day of June 1819, made in a cause entitled: Sleman against Hamlyn;

Certain freehold and leasehold estates and tythes late the property of William Sleman, Esquire, deceased, situate in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall, consisting of a newly erected freehold mansion house, called East Langstone, with all requisite outbuildings, gardens, and about 24 acres of excellent pasture land attached thereto situate in the Parish of Lamerton, in the County of Devon, now in the possession of Mr. Powell as tenant at will. Also the several freehold and leasehold farms called East Langstone, Barewalls, North-Brentor, Little Broad Town, and other lands containing altogether about 540 acres of arable, meadow, pasture and wood-lands, in a high state of cultivation, and within a very easy distance of lime kilns; and the outer down great or rectorial tythes of the said Parish of Lamerton; also a moiety or half-part of and in the profits to arise from that long established brewery known as the Tavistock Brewery, and of the stock in trade, brewing utensils, vats, hogsheads, casks and other articles to the said brewery and premises belonging; also a moiety or half-part of and in the following leasehold public houses, and the stabling and premises to the same belonging, viz. the Buller's Arms, King's Arms, and Ordnance Arms, the Dartmoor Inn, in the Parish of Whitechurch, the Dartmoor Inn, in the Parish of Lidford, and two dwelling-houses, one of which has two cottages attached thereto, and the other has lately been converted into three dwelling-houses, in the respective possessions of Richard Penrose and others, and James Radford and others, all which said leasehold public and other.

houses and premises are respectively situate in the aforesaid Borough of Tavistock, and the several Parishes of Marytavy, Milton-Abbott, Whitchurch and Lidford, in the aforesaid County of Devon; and also a moiety or half-part of and in the following freehold and customary public houses, stabling and premises, viz. the Petertavy Inn, situate in the Parish of Petertavy, in the said County of Devon, being freehold, and the Waterman's Arms, situate in the town of Calstock, in the County of Cornwall, being customary.

The said estates will be peremptorily sold with the approbation of Samuel Compton Cox, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, in 25 several lots, by Messrs. Strong and Martin, at the Bedford Arms Inn, in Tavistock aforesaid, on Wednesday the 25th and Thursday the 26th days of August 1819, the sale beginning each day at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis) in London, at the said Master's Chambers, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, and of Mr. Fairbank, Solicitor, Staple-Inn; also at the Offices of Messrs. Eales and James, Solicitors, and at the Old London Inn, Exeter; at the Offices of Messrs.
