

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of July 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of August next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the 2d day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient, that the Order in Council of the twenty-eighth May last, prohibiting the export of any gunpowder or saltpetre, or of any sort of arms or ammunition from the ports of this kingdom to the places therein specified, should be extended to all the ports within the dominion of the King of Spain; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that the prohibition laid by the aforesaid Order, of the twenty-eighth May last, be, and the same is hereby, extended to all ports within the dominion of the King of Spain, and made subject to all the conditions, regulations, and restrictions specified in the said Order of the twenty-eighth May last:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Commission in the 2d or Cunningham and Cumnock Corps of Ayrshire Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Ayr.

John Ferrier Hamilton, Esq. to be Major-Commandant, vice Craufurd, resigned. Dated 12th May 1819.

Whitehall, August 7, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Edward-Hughes Ball, of Upper Brook-street, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Hughes, in addition to and after that of Ball, and also bear the arms of Hughes quarterly with those of Ball (Hughes in the first quarter), in testimony of the gratitude and affection which he bears to the memory of Sir Edward Hughes, Knight Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Admiral of the Blue Squadron of His Majesty's Fleet, and of Dame Ruth Hughes, widow and relict of the said Sir Edward Hughes, both deceased (from whom he derives considerable real and personal property); such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 9, 1819.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Fowler Steward, of Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, August 9, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Wednesday the 4th instant, a plantation, called the Brown Knorde, in the township of Broxton, in the county of Chester, the property of Thomas Tarleton, Esq. of Bolesworth Castle, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire, in four different places, and destroyed, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire the said plantation), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Tarleton, Esq. to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Admiralty-Office, July 30, 1819.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been graciously pleased, by his Order in Council of this date, to approve of a proposal made to His Royal Highness by the Lords Com-
