

persons who have now or shall hereafter during the prosecution of the said Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against the said William Carr, any claim or demand on or against the said William Carr, or his estate and effects, in consequence of the said late copartnership heretofore subsisting between the said John Finney and Anthony Ward both or either of them and the said William Carr, or on any other account or pretence whatsoever; and to consider of the propriety of authorising the said Assignees to dispose of the whole or any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or by private contract, either in credit or otherwise, and as to their taking such security for the price or purchase-money thereof at such date or dates, and in such manner as they likewise shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity with the said John Finney and Anthony Ward, both or either of them, or any other person or persons as aforesaid respecting the several matters heretofore set forth, or any other matter, cause, or thing whatsoever, for the recovery of any of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any such matter or thing heretofore set forth, or the claim of the said John Finney and Anthony Ward, both or either of them, in consequence of the said late copartnership, or on any other account whatsoever, or the claim of any other person or persons as aforesaid, or any matter, suit, dispute, or thing relating thereto, or to any other part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any ways concerning the same, and whether such suit or suits or claim are or is now commenced, prosecuted, or proceeded in, or shall hereafter be commenced, prosecuted, or proceeded in for all or any of the purposes aforesaid; and also as to the said Assignees paying, allowing, or making such reasonable satisfaction or compensation for the services, wages, or salary of all or any of the travellers, clerks, servants, shopmen, or assistants of the said Bankrupt heretofore in the service or employment of the said Bankrupt, or since retained and employed by the said Assignees, or who shall hereafter be so retained and employed by such Assignees in the estate and affairs of the said Bankrupt, and on the propriety of authorising a proper person or persons in the judgment or opinion of the said Assignees, or either of them, for the purpose of collecting together the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and the finishing of any unmanufactured goods, as also for the purpose of collecting and receiving the debts outstanding and due to the said Bankrupt's estate without such Assignee or Assignees being answerable or accountable for any loss or misapplication which may attend such agency or appointment (be or they not being wilfully prying or consenting thereto), and for the purpose of such Assignee or Assignees being authorised to make such allowance or compensation, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects as he or they should deem reasonable and proper for all or any of the several purposes aforesaid; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Smith, of the City of Bristol, Timber-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 20th day of August instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Stephens and Goodhind, situate in Small Street, in the City of Bristol aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the freehold, leasehold, and personal property, debts, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, in such lot or lots, and manner as to the said Assignee shall seem meet, and to his accepting such personal or other security from the purchaser or purchasers thereof respectively and from the debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate as he shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing an accountant to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and an agent to collect and get in the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to pay such accountant and agent respectively such remuneration as he the said Assignee shall think reasonable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee satisfying the wages now due to the servants of the said Bankrupt, or either and each of them; and also to the said Assignee satisfying any bill or bills of costs of the Solicitors to the Commission for business done by them antecedent to the teste of such Commission; and also to the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Porter, of the City of Bristol, and of Conham, in the Parish of Bitton, in the County of Gloucester, Barge-Owner, Coal-Merchant, and Manufacturer of Whiting, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 20th day of August instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Stephens and Goodhind, in Small-Street, Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and an agent to collect and get in the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to pay such accountant and agent respectively such remuneration as they the said Assignees may think reasonable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees prying to the Kennett and Avon Canal Company all and every sum and sums of money due to them for tonnage or otherwise in respect of or for certain barges and vessels belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, and for which one of the said barges hath been and is now detained; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees disposing of the stock in trade, household furniture, barges, vessels, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, separately or together, in any lot or lots, by public auction or private contract, or upon credit as they may deem most expedient and beneficial for the said Bankrupt's estate, and in such latter case to take and accept any personal or other security to be offered by the purchaser or purchasers thereof for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees manufacturing certain chalk belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate into whiting, and in order thereto to their the said Assignees employing any person or persons therein and thereabout, and paying and defraying the wages of such person or persons as to them the said Assignees shall seem meet; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees satisfying the wages now due to the servants of the said Bankrupt, or either and such of them; and also to their the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Ainsworth, of Little Bolton, in the County of Lancaster, Bleacher, Publican, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 21st of August instant, at Five in the Afternoon, at the Shakespeare Tavern, in Fountain-Street, Manchester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the leasehold interest in the bleaching works and premises situate in Little Bolton aforesaid, late in the occupation of the said Thomas Ainsworth by private contract or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Wallis, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 6th of September next, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, at the George Hotel, Cheltenham, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving up or fulfilling certain contracts for building entered into by the said Bankrupt with Major Beans and Mrs H. Hall; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Browne and Joseph Gregson, of Charles-Street, Grosvenor-Square, in the County of Middlesex, and of Duke-Street, Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster (trading under the firm of Browne and Gregson), Upholsterers and Cabinet-