Notice to Edward Thomas Heslop and George Heslop (Grandsons of Edward Matterson, deceased), and their Children.

Whereas Edward Matterson, late of the City of York, Gentleman, deceased, did by his will, dated the 16th day of November 1809, give and bequeath to certain Trustees, therein named, the residue of his personal estate, in trust for his two grandsons, Edward Thomas Heslop and George Heslop (both of whom are in the said will mentioned to be then abroad in the sea service), and their respective children, in such shares and proportions according to such rights and interests, and upon such events and contingencies, as in the said will are particularly mentioned; notice is, therefore, hereby given, that if the said Edward Thomas Heslop and George Heslop, or either of them, or the child of children of them, or either of them, will personally apply at the Office of Messrs. Russell, Thompson, and Russell, Solicitors, York, the nature and extent of the bequest made by the said will in trust for the said Edward Thomas Heslop and George Heslop, and their respective children, will be communicated and explained, and every information given relative thereto.

By order of the Trustees of the said Edward Matterson,
RUSSELL, THOMPSON, and RUSSELL.

SUMMONS BY EDICT.

By virtue of authority received from His Honour E. Samuel, Esq. President of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, dated 30th July 1819;

I, the undersigned, at the request of Peter Fairbairn and Francis Williams, Curators to the Insolvent estate of James Maxwell, deceased, of the Island of Barbadoes, do hereby summon, by edict, all known and unknown creditors or claimants against the Insolvent estate of James Maxwell, deceased, of the Island of Barbadoes, to appear at the bar of the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Sessions, to be held in the month of April 1818, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims against the above-mentioned estate, properly attested, to verify the same, and hear the objection that thereon shall be made, if need, and further to proceed according to law.

This summons by edict, published as customary.—Berbice, 31st day of July 1817.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to certain Orders of the Right Honourable the Vice Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of George Ridley, a Bankrupt, with the approbation of John Campbell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, on the premises, at the Hop Pole Inn, in the Market Town of Tenbury, in the County of Worcester, on Tuesday the 26th day of October 1819, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot;

A freehold estate consisting of a dwelling-house, premises, and appurtenances, called and known as the Hop Pole Inn, in Tenbury aforesaid, and two dwelling-houses adjoining, and also of certain pews and part of a pew in the Church of Tenbury aforesaid, late the property of the said George Ridley.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the Master's Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; at the principal Inns in Worcester, Tenbury, Bromyard, Leominster, and Ludlow; of Mr. W. Godson, and Mr. Robinson, Solicitors, Tenbury, Messrs. Lowe and Cowburn, Taunfield-Court, Temple, London; Mr. Elihu Jones, Solicitor, Ludlow; and Mr. Shuter, Solicitor, Millbank-Street, Westminster.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Turner versus Postans, with the approbation of James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Bell Inn, at Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, on Monday the 6th day of September 1819, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, in two lots;

A messuage or dwelling-house, most desirably situated on the west side of Winchcombe-Street, in Cheltenham aforesaid; together with part of the garden near thereto, and a plot of ground; containing in width 30 feet, and in depth 156, adjoining to the said messuage.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Vizard and Blower, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; of Messrs. Pruen and Griffiths, Solicitors, Cheltenham; and at the place of sale.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 10th day of June 1819, made in a Cause there depending, wherein the Right Honourable the Earl of Shaftesbury and the Right Honourable Robert Spencer (commonly called Lord Robert Spencer) are plaintiffs, and the Most Noble George Duke of Marlborough and others are defendants;

A freehold and copyhold estate, consisting of a capital manor-house and residence known by the name of Syon-Hill, situate in the Parish of Isleworth, in the County of Middlesex, and certain lands and premises contiguous thereto, late the property and residence of George Duke of Marlborough, deceased.
