

Address and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled."

" At a time when ill designing and turbulent men are actively engaged in inflaming the minds of their fellow subjects, and in endeavouring by means the most daring and insidious to alienate them from their allegiance to His Majesty and the established Constitution of the Realm, it is on the vigilance and conduct of the Magistrates that the preservation of the public tranquillity must in a great degree depend; and a firm, faithful, and active discharge of their duty cannot but give them the strongest claim to the support and approbation of their Sovereign and their Country."

" With the circumstances that preceded the late meeting at Manchester you must be unacquainted, and of those which attended it you appear to have been incorrectly informed."

" If however the laws were really violated on that occasion by those to whom it immediately belonged to assist in the execution of them, the tribunals of this country are open to afford redress; but to institute an extrajudicial inquiry under such circumstances as the present would be manifestly inconsistent with the clearest principles of public justice."

Carlton-House, September 17, 1819.

This day the Baron de Strierneld, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Sweden, had a private audience of the Prince Regent, to deliver a letter from his Sovereign; to which he was introduced by Lord Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Carlton-House, September 16, 1819.

This day His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to invest Rear-Admiral the Honourable Sir Henry Blackwood, Bart. and Rear-Admiral Sir John-Poo Beresford, Bart. with the ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of the Prince Regent, Rear-Admiral the Honourable Sir Henry Blackwood was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Royal Highness, preceded by Sir George Nayler (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of state was thereupon delivered to the Prince Regent, and Sir Henry Blackwood was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Royal Highness's hand

Then His Royal Highness the Duke of York and of Albany, First and Principal Knight Grand Cross of the Order, having received from the Officer of Arms the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, presented them to the Prince Regent, who was pleased to invest Sir Henry Blackwood with the same.

The Rear-Admiral having again had the honour to kiss the Prince Regent's hand, and having received from His Royal Highness the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

Rear-Admiral Sir John-Poo Beresford, Bart. was then introduced and invested, with the same ceremonies, but was not knighted upon this occasion, having formerly received that honour.
