

liament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of August next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the second day of November next.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Gentlemen whose names are subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and as a duty we owe to ourselves and the country at this momentous crisis, to express our detestation of the wicked and atrocious attempts of seditious and disaffected subjects in various (though from us remote) parts of His Majesty's dominions, now openly and avowedly meditating the subversion of our Laws and Government, and the annihilation of one of all distinctions of rank and the sacred rights of property.

Convinced as we are of the mischievous and criminal designs, and machinations of those who, under the specious pretext of reform and liberty, are industriously circulating blasphemous and seditious publications, with the view of poisoning the minds of the unwary, and of detaching them from their duty to God and their allegiance to their Sovereign, we feel it incumbent upon us, to repeat to your Royal Highness, the solemn assurance of our fidelity and loyalty to the King, our firm adherence to the Constitution, and our determination to enforce to the utmost of our power, the due execution of the laws against all who, by their writings or otherwise, shall endanger the public tranquillity by their endeavours to excite the ignorant and the poor to acts of sedition and violence.

Given under our common seal, in our Guildhall, on this 24th day of September 1819; Edmund Preston, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the inhabitants of the Hundreds of Blackheath and Little and Lessness, in the county of Kent, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of most loyal attachment to the Person and Government of our beloved Sovereign; and grateful acknowledgment of the continued maintenance and protection of our religious and civil rights and liberties, through the whole course of his patriotic and benignant reign, and the no less patriotic and salutary Regency of your Royal Highness.

Appreciating as Britons the Constitutional right of the subjects of this realm to meet in a peaceable manner for the orderly discussion of their grievances and petitioning for redress, we view with indignation and abhorrence the glaring abuses of those disaffected persons who, of late, under the pretext of exercising this invaluable privilege, have convened meetings by inflammatory placards and advertisements, where they have marched under the banners of sedition, and addressed their followers in language manifestly intended to produce tumult and insurrection.

By means such as these, by other more private and insidious measures, and under the specious affectation of reform, doctrines have been propagated amongst the ignorant and unwary, directly calculated to confound the distinctions of civil life, and destroy the sacred institutions of our ancestors, through the instrumentality of treason and rebellion, for which, as it appears, large parties of the deluded populace have actually been trained by military drillings in bye places.

Fully aware of the revolutionary tendency of such proceedings, and sensible of the manifold blessings derived to us, through Divine Providence, from the excellent Constitution under which we live, we do resolve, that we will severally and collectively use our most strenuous endeavours to maintain it inviolate, by supporting a due execution of the laws against all those who may in any respect attempt its subversion; and by opposing ourselves, on all occasions and in every lawful way, to the principles and practices of the seditious, and the acts and machinations of all such persons as shall, in any manner whatever, strive to disturb the public peace, or endanger the safety of His Majesty's Government.

[Transmitted by J. R. Williams, Esq. Colonel Robert Campbell, and John Förster, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Commission in the Staffordshire Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Vice-Lieutenant of the County of Stafford.

Bolton Peel, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Grundy, resigned.

Commissions in the Shrewsbury Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Salop.

Lieutenant Baker to be Captain, vice Peale, resigned. Dated 15th September 1819.

Cornet Best to be Lieutenant, vice Baker. Dated as above.

Charles Lloyd, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Bent. Dated as above.