SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1819.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 25, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to fix a rate, and direct the disposal of freight-money for the conveyance of specie and jewels on board His Majesty's ships and vessels," it is enacted, "that from and after the eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all freight-money to be paid for the conveyance on board any of the ships and vessels of His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, of gold, silver, and jewels, or of any other article which may be by special order received on board the said ships and vessels, and for which freight shall be payable, shall be paid at such rate, and distributed and applied for such purposes, and divided to and amongst such persons, in such proportions, and after such manner as His Majesty, his heirs, and successors shall from time to time think fit to order and direct by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued for that purpose; and that no freight-money or reward shall hereafter be demanded, paid, received, or detained by, to, or for the use or on account of any person or persons for the conveyance on board of any of the ships and vessels of His Majesty, his heirs, or successors, of any gold, silver, or jewels, or any other article which may be by special order received on board the said ship or vessel, and for which freight shall be payable, other than for the purposes, and by the person or persons, in the proportion, at the rates, and in the manner so to be paid and allowed by Proclamation or Proclamations; and that all bargains, contracts, covenants, and agreements made or entered into for the payment of any freight-money for or in the name or on the account of freight for the conveyance of gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, on board of any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, at any rate, or for any other purpose, or by or to any other person or persons, or in any other manner or proportions than as aforesaid, shall be, and the same are hereby, declared to be utterly void;"

We do, therefore, in pursuance of the powers so vested in His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, by this Our Royal Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, think proper to order and direct, and We do hereby order and direct, that all gold, silver, and jewels, or other articles received as treasure by special order, conveyed in His Majesty's ships and vessels in the care and charge of the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, shall be liable to the payment of freight, whether such treasure belong to the Crown or to other parties.

That on the delivery of any gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, laden on board of any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, for which freight may or shall be payable as aforesaid, or according to the provisions and directions hereinafter contained, a receipt or bill of lading, or receipts or bills of lading, shall be made and signed by the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, describing the quantity or value of such gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, and the terms on and extent to which such Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel so receiving the said gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles, on board his said ship or vessel, shall be liable or responsible for the same, in case of loss or damage thereof, to which by law he might be liable, in form or to the effect following:

[Here insert bill of lading in the usual form.]

And it is hereby stipulated and agreed between the said _____ and the shipper and owners and consignees of the said _____, that in case of loss or damage happening to the said gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel as aforesaid shall not be holden liable or responsible for more than three fourths of the amount of such loss or damage.

That the rates at which freight shall be paid for public and for private treasure respectively, and in peace or war respectively, and for different voyages, shall be as follows, viz.

Between any two ports in Europe on this side Gibraltar (Gibraltar included), and including also the Azores, Madeira, or Canaries

Between any two ports on the same foreign station, the navigable distance between which shall not exceed six hundred leagues, the Mediterranean Sea, Gibraltar included, being considered as one foreign station

Between any port in Europe out of the Mediterranean, and any port in the Mediterranean beyond Gibraltar, or any port on the West Coast of Africa, including Simon's Bay, or any port on the East side of America, North or South, or the West India or other Islands on the American Coast, including Bermuda and Newfoundland; or between any two ports in the same foreign station, the nearest navigable distance between which shall exceed six hundred leagues, or between any two ports on different stations not otherwise ordered

Between any port in the European or Atlantic Seas, North of the Equator, and any port beyond the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn

That in case of any difference on any question arising out of the above scale, or omitted in the said scale, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall have authority to decide what the freight shall be under the said scale, or adhering as nearly as possible in cases not specified, to the spirit and principles of the said scale.

That on the shipment of gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles received on board as treasure by special order, the rate of freight per centum according to the above scale shall be endorsed on the bill or bills of lading, or receipt or receipts of the Officer receiving the charge thereof, such endorsement or endorsements to be signed by the said Officer; but in case of any difference of opinion abroad, or when immediate reference cannot be had to the Lords of the Admiralty, it may be expressed, "at such rate as the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall decide."

When treasure belonging to the Crown shall be shipped in any of His Majesty's ships or vessels with a commissary or conductor specially charged with the care thereof, the Officer commanding such ship or vessel shall not be required to give any receipt, nor to sign any bill of lading, and such Officer shall not receive any freight on account thereof, nor be liable to make good any loss or damage which may happen to the same.

That the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall have authority to direct at what time, and for what time, and within what limits the war freight shall be payable on private treasure received by special order.

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the whole amount of the said freight when received shall be divided into four parts and distributed as follows, subject to the proviso hereinafter mentioned, one-fourth to the Admiral or Admirals if more than one on the station, or in the squadron to which the ship receiving treasure on board may belong.

Two-fourths to the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, who shall give his receipt or sign the bill of lading for the treasure, and one-fourth to Greenwich-Hospital for the use of that institution.

That when there shall be more than one Flag-Officer on the station, the said one-fourth part shall be divided and distributed amongst the several Flag-Officers on the station in the following proportions, viz.

If there be but two Flag-Officers, the Chief shall have two-third parts of the said one-fourth, and the other shall have the remaining third part; but if the number of Flag-Officers be more than two, the Chief shall have only one-half, and the other half shall be equally divided amongst the junior Flag-Officers; but if there be no Flag-Officers on the station, or that the ship or vessel be not under the orders of a Flag-Officer, then that the Captain or Officer commanding the ship or vessel shall have three-fourths, and Greenwich-Hospital one-fourth, provided that such Admiral or Admirals shall not be entitled to claim his or their respective share or shares in such freight-money otherwise than on condition that he or they shall, before the gold, silver, jewels, treasure, or other articles as aforesaid shall be put on board such ship or vessel, have respectively given notice in writing to the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, or his agent, or have entered or caused to be entered in a public order book on board the ship of the Commander in Chief, or the senior Flag-Officer commanding on the station or in the squadron to which such vessel belongs; or in case of a junior Flag-Officer absent from the Commander in Chief, unless such junior Flag-Officer shall have notified under his hand to the Commander in Chief to be entered in the said Order Book an engagement, in writing, in form or to the effect following;

I, A. B. am desirous of partaking in the advantages with the risks attendant thereon, arising out of the conveyance of freight of treasure in any of the ships or vessels of the squadron (or in the particular ship as the case may be). And I hereby engage to make good to the Captain or Captains, Officers or Officer, commanding such ships or vessels respectively (or ship or vessel as the case may be), such part of any loss or damage for which he or they may be liable in respect to the gold, silver, treasure, or other articles so carried on freight, and which he or they respectively shall have actually paid and satisfied, as shall be in proportion to the share or interest in the said freight money to which I may be entitled. And that such share or shares of the Admiral or Admirals as aforesaid, to which he or they shall not be entitled on the conditions hereinbefore expressed, shall go and belong to the Captain or Officer commanding the ship or vessel in which the gold, silver, treasure, or other articles shall be carried on freight as aforesaid.

That in the event of loss or damage happening to the gold, silver, jewels, or other articles so received on freight exceeding the total freight-money, Greenwich Hospital shall not be entitled to receive any sum on account of such freight; and in cases in which the loss may not amount to the whole of the freight money, Greenwich Hospital shall be entitled only to its proportion of the balance of freight-money over and above such loss or damage.

That Commodores, with Captains under them, and Captains of the Fleet, are to be considered, agreeably to the rules of the service, as Flag-Officers, and Commodores, without Captains under them, shall with respect to freight be also considered as Flag-Officers, when in the command of a station.

That when the Captain or Commander, or his agent, shall have received the freight, he shall pay over to the senior Flag-Officer, and to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, without delay, their respective shares, and the Captain shall be held responsible to both for any loss which may occur, through his neglect or delay, in receiving or paying the same; but if there be any question or difficulty as to the payment, he is to apprise the Senior Flag-Officer and the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital respectively, of the causes of such delay.

That the Captain or Officer commanding, on receiving any treasure on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, shall transmit to the Senior Flag-Officer, when such Captain or Officer commanding shall be under a Flag-Officer, and in every case to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, and to the Secretary of the Admiralty, a return of the amount of such treasure, and of the freight paid or to be paid thereon.

That when the treasure shall, during the voyage, be transhipped into one or more ships, the freight shall be divided, pro rata itineris, among the Admirals and Captains and who may be entitled to share therein according to the services performed by the different ships respectively; and if any difficulty or dispute shall arise respecting such division or distribution, any party interested therein may refer the same to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; and the decision or orders of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or any three of them, as to such division or distribution shall be final and conclusive thereon.

That in order to prevent any doubt or misunderstanding as to the rate or distribution of freight on gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, received on board flag-ships, or any other of His Majesty's ships and vessels, and to prevent any private agreements inconsistent with these regulations all Flag or other Officers are expressly forbidden to receive on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels any gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, upon any agreement or condition different from these regulations, or to take, demand, or receive any sums, other than those established by these regulations.

That these rules and regulations shall be in force from the day on which they shall be received by His Majesty's Officers, and be thenceforward taken and understood to be the established rule and custom of His Majesty's naval service on the several particulars to which they refer till they shall be revoked or otherwise altered by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by Us.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise to the Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, for apprehending smugglers, in such manner as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint," reciting, that by the laws now in force for the prevention of smuggling, it is lawful for the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, and they are thereby required, in certain cases, to award, to every Officer or other person arresting any person for breach of those laws, so that he shall be convicted or committed to prison on account thereof, any sum not exceeding twenty-pounds for each man so convicted or committed to prison; and that it is expedient that His Majesty should be empowered, in certain cases, to direct the distribution of such reward, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, in such manner as He shall be pleased thereby to appoint; and, therefore, enacting that in all cases wherein the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, shall award any sum not exceeding twenty pounds as aforesaid to any Officer or Officers, non-commissioned Officers, petty Officers, seamen or privates of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or acting under the Orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for any person so arrested, convicted, or committed to prison as aforesaid, the same shall be divided and distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and Orders as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint.

In pursuance of the powers so vested in His Majesty, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to Order, and it is hereby Ordered, that the bounty money, awarded for the arrest of any person or persons, arrested, convicted, and committed to prison, according to the provisions of the laws above recited, by any Officer or Officers, non-commissioned Officers, petty Officers, seamen or privates of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or acting under the Orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be divided and distributed amongst such Officers, non-commissioned Officers, petty Officers, seamen or privates of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or acting under the Orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as aforesaid, according to the rules and regulations directed and provided by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of October one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures, as are or shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the Commanders, Officers and crews of any of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Royal Highness's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with.
Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 28d of July 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of August next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the second day of November next.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Gentlemen whose names are subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, justly appreciating the manifold advantages and incalculable benefits conferred by Divine Providence in the admirable Constitution under which we live, and fully sensible of the mild and paternal Administration which we enjoy under your Royal Highness and your illustrious House, have seen with the deepest concern and regret the attempts of certain desperate and deluded men to deprive their country of these inestimable blessings.

Under the perverted name of reform, proceedings are adopted and publications dispersed, whose obvious and only tendency is to unsettle the minds of His Majesty's subjects in regard to their religious faith, to undermine their loyalty, and to destroy and overturn the property and liberties of the people.

We confidently rely upon the vigilance and vigour of your Royal Highness's Government, to detect and punish those persons whose designs and proceedings are so hostile to the interest and welfare of their country. At the same time we request permission to approach your Royal Highness with the assurances of the unshaken loyalty of this ancient Corporation to your Person and Government, and of its attachment to our happy Establishment in Church and State, and we intreat you to believe, that as Magistrates and citizens we shall on all occasions be ready to support, to the utmost of our power, the Constitution, Laws, and Government of these realms.

Given under our common seal, in the Guildhall of the said town, this 5th day of October, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1819, Charles Jenmett, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Liverpool, High Steward, and Thomas Evance, Esq. Recorder, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks, humbly approach your Royal Highness with our dutiful assurances of loyalty and attachment. We are impressed with a due sense of the unalienable right of Englishmen to meet to petition either of the branches of the Legislature, in a legal and constitutional manner, in all cases implicating their rights and liberties, civil and religious. We cannot however but express our deep regret, that under the pretext of exercising this invaluable privilege, meetings have been convened by inflammatory placards and advertisements, and disaffected persons have addressed the multitude in language manifestly calculated to produce tumult and insurrection. By means such as, these opinions have been propagated among the ignorant and unwary, having a direct tendency to confound the distinctions of society, and destroy the sacred institutions of our ancestors.

We therefore humbly assure your Royal Highness of our detestation of such practices, and of our unshaken and devoted attachment to His Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Constitution of these Realms.

John Hedges, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor of Wallingford, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Lancaster, consider it a duty we owe to ourselves and to the country, to express our abhorrence of the wicked and seditious attempts of those, who openly and avowedly meditate the subversion of the Laws and Government of this kingdom, involving in their consequences the destruction of property and the horrors of a civil war.

Impressed with a conviction of the mischievous designs of persons who, under the pretext of reform and liberty, are actively circulating the most libellous and blasphemous publications, tending to corrupt the minds of the unwary, and to detach them from their duty to God and to their country, we feel it incumbent upon us, thus publicly and explicitly to declare our fidelity to the King, our firm adherence to the Constitution, and our determination to enforce the due execution of the laws against all who, either by their writings or otherwise, incite the ignorant to acts of violence, and thereby endanger the peace and security of the realm.

[Transmitted by the Mayor of Lancaster, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament in the manner therein mentioned; and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart. late Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Kent, hath been certified to me in writing under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county of Kent, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand, the 7th day of October 1819,

THE Court of Directors of the Corporation of the London Assurance hereby give notice, that the dividend warrants for the half year ending at Michaelmas last, will be ready to be delivered and paid on Friday the 15th instant, and will continue to be delivered and paid every day from eleven in the forenoon till three in the afternoon, Saturdays and holidays excepted.

John Laurence, Secretary.

Corporation of the London Assurance of Houses and Goods from Fire. Established by Royal Charter in the Year 1720, for making Assurances against Loss or Damage by Fire, and for assuring Lives. September 29, 1819.

Notice is hereby given to persons assured against fire by this Corporation, that printed receipts for the premiums due at Michaelmas, are now ready to be delivered at the London Assurance-House, Birchin-Lane, where attendance is given daily from ten o'clock in the morning till four in the afternoon, for assuring houses and other buildings, household goods, goods in trade, merchandize, ships in harbour, cargoes in ships and in lighters on rivers and canals, ships building and repairing, farming stock, &c. from loss or damage by fire; and also for assuring lives.

The proposals for assurance from fire and on lives are delivered at the Office.

Notice is likewise given, that the fifteen days allowed by the Corporation after the quarter day on policies of assurance from fire, will expire on the 14th October next.

By order of the Court of Directors,
John Laurence, Secretary.

CONTRACTS FOR STRAW.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, September 29, 1819.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Agent for Commissariat Supplies, to furnish for twelve months, from the 1st of November next, such quantities of as may from time to time be required at the barracks in the under-mentioned counties, may receive particulars of the contracts on applying at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five; to Deputy Commissary-General Young, at Edinburgh; and to the respective Barrack-Masters in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney; and deliver their tenders at this Office, marking thereon "Tender for Straw," until twelve o'clock on Tuesday the 19th of October.

Proposals are to be made separately for each county in South Britain, for the whole of the barracks in North Britain, and also for the whole of those in the three islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney; but no proposal will be noticed, unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, from a person of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering for the due performance of the contract.

If tenders are sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Notice to the Creditors of the late Captain J. G. Douglas.
London, October 7, 1819.

ALL persons having any demand on the estate of the late John Graham Douglas, Commander of the ship Phoenix, who died on or about the year 1808, are requested to send an account thereof to Mr. William Holborn, No. 8, Cloak-Lane, on or before Monday the 18th instant, otherwise they will be excluded the benefit of a dividend now making on said estate.

THOSE Creditors of John Fry the younger, late of South-Street, Finsbury-Square, Merchant, deceased, who executed a Deed of Assignment and Release, dated the 16th of December 1803, whereby all the property of the said John Fry was assigned to four inspectors therein named, are hereby informed that the said inspectors will meet on Tuesday the 2d day of November next, in order to make a further dividend of the estate and effects of the said John Fry, and that such dividend will be payable to the said Creditors on the said day, and on the first Tuesday in the months of December and January then next following, and may be received by applying at the George and Vulture Tavern, George-Yard, Lombard-Street, in the City of London, between the hours of One and Three o'Clock on the aforesaid days.

LONDON. At the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall, within the said City, on Monday the 13th day of September in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, before John Atkins, Esq. Mayor of the City of London, Sir James Shaw, Baronet, Thomas Smith, Esq. Joshua Jonathan Smith, Esq. Sir William Donville, Baronet, Aldermen of the said City, Sir John Silvester, Baronet, Recorder of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King; assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City; and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trespasses, and other Misdeeds committed within the said City;

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns hath, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain book, into which the states or account of the aggregate quantities, prices, and average prices of English barley, beans, pease, rye, wheat, rapeseed, and oats, bona fide sold and delivered from the 10th day of May last to the 7th day of August last, by each and every person carrying on the trade or business of a corn-factor in the City of London or suburbs thereof, have been made up, formed, computed, and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath verified upon his oath, that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed, and computed, to the best of his power, skill and judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true intent and tenor of the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and the general average prices of each of the said respective sorts of corn and grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, they do, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, viz.

Barley	1	16	11	Average price per quarter on the last six weeks.
Beans	2	2	5
Pease	2	8	6
Wheat	3	15	10
Rapeseed	4	6	3	Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.
Oats	1	6	10

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,

THOMAS-SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. White, by order of and before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Matthew William Sankey, of the City of Canterbury, Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, at the Guildhall of the said City of Canterbury, on Friday the 15th day of October instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, subject to the conditions of sale to be then and there produced.

All that messuage or tenement called the Ordnance Arms, with the premises and appurtenances thereunto belonging, in the occupation of Moses Hughes, situate, lying, and being at a place called Paradise-Pent, in the Town and Port of Dover, held by lease under the Warden and Assistants of Dover Harbour, for ninety-two years and six months from the 6th day of April 1813, at 1l. 9s. 8d. per annum.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Plummer and Son, or Mr. Peirce, or Messrs. Curteis and Kingsford, Canterbury.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Thomas Fisher and Thomas Ashmore, of Cheltenham and Winchcomb, in the County of Gloucester, Bankers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, at the White Hart, Winchcomb, on Thursday the 11th day of November next, between the hours of Four and Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, in two lots, viz.

Lot 1. All that substantial dwelling-house, with large yard, containing upwards of one hundred pits, garden, barbeds, stables, drying-lofts, bark-mills, lime-houses, and every other requisite for carrying on the business of a tanner, and now in the possession of Mrs. Ann Fisher, together with an undivided moiety of three cottages and gardens, near or adjoining thereto.

The above property is situated on the banks of the River Eyesbourne, and close to the Town of Winchcomb; and to a person wishing to embark in the tanning business a more favourable opportunity cannot occur, as the concern is now in full trade and the situation equal to any in the kingdom.

The purchaser may have immediate possession and the option of taking to the stock at a fair valuation.
