A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 25, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to fix a rate, and direct the disposal of freight-money for the conveyance of specie and jewels on board His Majesty's ships and vessels," it is enacted, "that from and after the eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all freight-money to be paid for the conveyance on board any of the ships and vessels of His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, of gold, silver, and jewels, or of any other article which may be by special order received on board the said ships and vessels, and for which freight shall be payable, shall be paid at such rate, and distributed and applied for such purposes, and divided to and amongst such persons, in such proportions, and after such manner as His Majesty, his heirs, and successors shall from time to time think fit to order and direct by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued for that purpose; and that no freight-money or reward shall hereafter be demanded, paid, received, or detained by, to, or for the use or on account of any person or persons for the conveyance on board of any of the ships and vessels of His Majesty, his heirs, or successors, of any gold, silver, or jewels, or any other article which may be by special order received on board the said ship or vessel, and for which freight shall be payable, other than for the purposes, and by the person or persons, in the proportion, at the rates, and in the manner so to be paid and allowed by Proclamation or Proclamations; and that all bargains, contracts, covenants, and agreements made or entered into for the payment of any freight-money for or in the name or on the account of freight for the conveyance of gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, on board of any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, at any rate, or for any other purpose, or by or to any other person or persons, or in any other manner or proportions than as aforesaid, shall be, and the same are hereby, declared to be utterly void;"

We do, therefore, in pursuance of the powers so vested in His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, by this Our Royal Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, think proper to order and direct, and We do hereby order and direct, that all gold, silver, and jewels, or other articles received as treasure by special order, conveyed in His Majesty's ships and vessels in the care and charge of the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, shall be liable to the payment of freight, whether such treasure belong to the Crown or to other parties.

That in case of any difference on any question arising out of the above scale, or omitted in the said scale, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall have authority to decide what the freight shall be under the said scale, or adhering as nearly as possible in cases not specified, to the spirit and principles of the said scale.

That on the shipment of gold, silver, or jewels, or other articles received on board as treasure by special order, the rate of freight per centum according to the above scale shall be endorsed on the bill or bills of lading, or receipt or receipts of the Officer receiving the charge thereof, such endorsement or endorsements to be signed by the said Officer; but in case of any difference of opinion abroad, or when immediate reference cannot be had to the Lords of the Admiralty, it may be expressed, "at such rate as the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall decide."

When treasure belonging to the Crown shall be shipped in any of His Majesty's ships or vessels with a commissary or conductor specially charged with the care thereof, the Officer commanding such ship or vessel shall not be required to give any receipt, nor to sign any bill of lading, and such Officer shall not receive any freight on account thereof, nor be liable to make good any loss or damage which may happen to the same.

That the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall have authority to direct at what time, and for what time, and within what limits the war freight shall be payable on private treasure received by special order.

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the whole amount of the said freight when received shall be divided into four parts and distributed as follows, subject to the proviso hereinafter mentioned, one-fourth to the Admiral or Admirals if more than one on the station, or in the squadron to which the ship receiving treasure on board may belong.

Two-fourths to the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, who shall give his receipt or sign the bill of lading for the treasure, and one-fourth to Greenwich-Hospital for the use of that institution.

That when there shall be more than one Flag-Officer on the station, the said one-fourth part shall be divided and distributed amongst the several Flag-Officers on the station in the following proportions, viz.

If there be but two Flag-Officers, the Chief shall have two-third parts of the said one-fourth, and the other shall have the remaining third part; but if the number of Flag-Officers be more than two, the Chief shall have only one-half, and the other half shall be equally divided amongst the junior Flag-Officers; but if there be no Flag-Officers on the station, or that the ship or vessel be not under the orders of a Flag-Officer, then that the Captain or Officer commanding the ship or vessel shall have three-fourths, and Greenwich-Hospital one-fourth, provided that such Admiral or Admirals shall not be entitled to claim his or their respective share or shares in such freight-money otherwise than on condition that he or they shall, before the gold, silver, jewels, treasure, or other articles as aforesaid shall be put on board such ship or vessel, have respectively given notice in writing to the Captain or Officer commanding such ship or vessel, or his agent, or have entered or caused to be entered in a public order book on board the ship of the Commander in Chief, or the senior Flag-Officer commanding on the station or in the squadron to which such vessel belongs; or in case of a junior Flag-Officer absent from the Commander in Chief, unless such junior Flag-Officer shall have notified under his hand to the Commander in Chief to be entered in the said Order Book an engagement in writing, in form or to the effect following, to wit:

I, A. B. am desirous of partaking in the advantages with the risks attendant thereon, arising out of the conveyance of freight of treasure in any of the ships or vessels of the squadron (or in the particular ship as the case may be). And I hereby engage to make good to the Captain or Captains, Officers or Officer, commanding such ships or vessels respectively (or ship or vessel as the case may be), such part of any loss or damage for which he or they may be liable in respect to the gold, silver, treasure, or other articles so carried on freight, and which he or they respectively shall have actually paid and satisfied, as shall be in proportion to the share or interest in the said freight money to which I may be entitled. And that such share or shares of the Admiral or Admirals as aforesaid, to which he or they shall not be entitled on the conditions hereinbefore expressed, shall go and belong to the Captain or Officer commanding the ship or vessel in which the gold, silver, treasure, or other articles shall be carried on freight as aforesaid.

That in the event of loss or damage happening to the gold, silver, jewels, or other articles so received on freight exceeding the total freight-money, Greenwich Hospital shall not be entitled to receive any sum on account of such freight; and in cases in which the loss may not amount to the whole of the freight money, Greenwich Hospital shall be entitled only to its proportion of the balance of freight-money over and above such loss or damage.

That Commodores, with Captains under them, and Captains of the Fleet, are to be considered, agreeably to the rules of the service, as Flag-Officers, and Commodores, without Captains under them, shall with respect to freight be also considered as Flag-Officers, when in the command of a station.

That when the Captain or Commander, or his agent, shall have received the freight, he shall pay over to the senior Flag-Officer, and to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, without delay, their respective shares, and the Captain shall be held responsible to both for any loss which may occur, through his neglect or delay, in receiving or paying the same; but if there be any question or difficulty as to the payment, he is to apprise the Senior Flag-Officer and the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital respectively, of the causes of such delay.

That the Captain or Officer commanding, on receiving any treasure on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, shall transmit to the Senior Flag-Officer, when such Captain or Officer commanding shall be under a Flag-Officer, and in every case to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, and to the Secretary of the Admiralty, a return of the amount of such treasure, and of the freight paid or to be paid thereon.

That when the treasure shall, during the voyage, be transhipped into one or more ships, the freight shall be divided, pro rata itineris, among the Admirals and Captains and who may be entitled to share therein according to the services performed by the different ships respectively; and if any difficulty or dispute shall arise respecting such division or distribution, any party interested therein may refer the same to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; and the decision or orders of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or any three of them, as to such division or distribution shall be final and conclusive thereon.

That in order to prevent any doubt or misunderstanding as to the rate or distribution of freight on gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, received on board flag-ships, or any other of His Majesty's ships and vessels, and to prevent any private agreements inconsistent with these regulations all Flag or other Officers are expressly forbidden to receive on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels any gold, silver, jewels, or other articles as aforesaid, upon any agreement or condition different from these regulations, or to take, demand, or receive any sums, other than those established by these regulations.

That these rules and regulations shall be in force from the day on which they shall be received by His Majesty's Officers, and be thenceforward taken and understood to be the established rule and custom of His Majesty's naval service on the several particulars to which they refer till they shall be revoked or otherwise altered by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by Us.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Gentlemen whose names are subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Magistrates, Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of the parish of Tynemouth, in the county of Northumberland, beg leave, at this crisis when designing and seditious men are endeavouring to subvert the laws and alienate the affections of the people from His Majesty's Government, to express to your Royal Highness our abhorrence of such attempts and our attachment to His Majesty, his illustrious House, and the established Government of the country.

That some classes of the community may at this period be suffering considerable privations we do not wish to conceal, but we feel confident that it is not by the inflammatory speeches and seditious publications which are now demoralising the people, that these sufferings can either be relieved or removed, but on the contrary, that by such conduct the present temporary pressure may be rendered a lasting evil.

Feeling that, in times like the present, it is the duty of every well-wisher to his country publicly to declare his adherence to the established Government, and to assist to the utmost of his power its efforts for the preservation of the public peace, we beg leave to state to your Royal Highness our determination to enforce the due execution of the laws against all who, by their writings or otherwise, shall endanger the public tranquillity.

[Transmitted by Charles Charleton, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, in Synod assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of unshaken loyalty and profound respect.

Sensible as we are of the invaluable blessings which we enjoy under the happy Constitution of Church and State, established by the good Providence of God in this Realm, we contemplate with deep sorrow and indignation the insidious arts which are employed by designing men, who, under a pretence of patriotism and zeal for freedom, are labouring to withdraw the affections of their fellow subjects from His Majesty's Person and Government, and to involve the country in all the horrors of anarchy and civil war. We are the more grieved and shocked at their proceedings that they appear to be attempting (we trust in God vainly) to shake the principles of our countrymen with regard to that Divine Religion, which we consider as the best boon of Heaven to mankind,—which is the consolation and hope of our own hearts, and which it is our endeavour to inculcate upon the people under our pastoral care. We are happy, at the same time, to observe that these principles have made no progress within our own bounds.

We beg leave to express our steady attachment to the British Constitution, and pray that, under the fostering care of the present reigning family, it may be preserved inviolate to the latest posterity against the machinations of foreign and domestic foes. We are, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries.

Signed in our name and at our appointment, by John Nivison, Moderator pro tempore.
Dumfries, October 19, 1819.

PARLIAMENT.

County of Longford.

Sir George Ralph Fetherston, of Ardagh, in the county of Longford, Bart. in the room of Sir Thomas Fetherston, Bart. deceased.

Whitehall, October 25, 1819

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of the 20th instant, two small bullets were fired through the window of the house of Mr. Edmund Coppin, situate in Melbourn-place, in the town of North Shields, in the county of Northumberland; and a pistol was fired in the direction of Mr. John Fenwick's house, in the same place, and the window of Mr. Thomas Fenwick's house adjoining was broken; and that about nine o'clock of the same night, the window of the house of Mr. George Hall, situate in Dortwick-street, in the same town, was also broken; the said Edward Coppin, John Fenwick, and George Hall, having respectively served as jurors on an inquest, held on the body of a person then recently dead;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the outrages above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired in each of the above mentioned instances), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, viz.

The sum of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS, voted at a general meeting of the inhabitants of the parish of Tynemouth, in the county of Northumberland aforesaid, to be paid by Mr. Richard Barker, Clerk to the Magistrates acting for the east division of Castle Ward, residing in the said parish; and

A further sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS, to be paid by Mr. John Fenwick and Mr. Edmund Coppin, two of the persons above mentioned.

Whitehall, October 23, 1819.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that early on the morning of the 14th instant, two men broke open and entered a room behind the Bull's Head public-house, in Bradshawgate, in Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, in which were deposited the arms and accoutrements of part of the 15th (King's) Hussars, and there took and loaded two pistols with ball cartridges, and upon being disturbed by the soldiers, one of the said men fired a pistol at and wounded one of the soldiers in the hand, and both the said men then made their escape, leaving the pistols behind them;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the principal person concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to the other of them (not being the person who actually fired the said pistol), who shall discover his accomplice therein, so that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The above reward to be paid on application to the boroughreevé and constables, or to Messrs. Broadman and Merry, solicitors, in Bolton aforesaid.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners, of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such otto of roses should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such otto of roses should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such otto of roses in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.
