By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the second day of November next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said second day of November to Tuesday the twenty-third day of said month; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-third day of November next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-third day of November next.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the eleventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by G. Robinson, Esq. has been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates, Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of Sunderland, Bishop-Wearmouth, Monk-Wearmouth, and their vicinity, deem it to be our duty at this time to approach your Royal Highness with the assurance of our unabated loyalty to the Person and Government of our beloved Sovereign, of allegiance to your Royal Person, and of our firm attachment to the Laws and Constitution of the country.

We observe with equal indignation and concern, the endeavours of unprincipled men to work on the minds of the unwary, and to destroy all religious and moral impressions, by publications replete with the most profligate falsehoods and impieties, and by schemes of innovation incompatible with the first principles of security and social order.

It is our firm determination to resist, to the utmost of our power, the malicious attempts which are made to propagate irreligion and discontent, to lead the people to assume a judicial power inconsistent with the plain maxims of equity, and repugnant to all the rules observed in the administration of justice in this country, and by these proceedings to insult the authority of Government.

Fully relying on the wisdom of your Royal Highness's Councils, and on the deliberations of the Legislature, we look forward with confidence to the adoption of measures which may arrest the progress of impiety and disaffection, secure to His Majesty's subjects the possession of their invaluable privileges, and transmit the Constitution, under which this empire has been raised to the highest rank among the nations of the earth, unimpaired to posterity.

On the 8th, 9th, and 10th of November, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 11th, 12th, 15th, 16th, and 17th of November, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th September 1819, will commence paying on the 8th November; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

THE Trustee on the said Robert Dempster's estate hereby intimates, that his accounts have been audited by the Commissioners; and that he has made up a state of the funds recovered and still outstanding, which, with the account of his intromissions, will lie at the Office of John Forsyth, Writer, in Forres, for the inspection of the Creditors, till the 2d day of December next; but from the state of the funds no farther dividend can at present be made.

Notice to the Creditors of James Clark, Rope and Sail-Maker and Ship-Builder, in Dunbar.

Dunbar, October 25, 1819.

AT a general meeting of the Creditors held upon the 2d September last, the Trustee laid before the meeting a state of the affairs and his accounts: his accounts were audited, and the Creditors ordered a final dividend, as it appeared that no further funds would be recoverable, excepting a claim of 21l. in London (which has since been paid), and the proceeds of a process of multiplepoinding between the Trustee and Peter Clark, the son of the Bankrupt, in which the Sheriff had pronounced three successive judgments, preferring the Creditors to the sum in medio and expences. But Peter Clark has intimated a bill of suspension, and has refused to submit the process to the determination either of mutual friends or lawyers; so that the Commissioners have found it impossible to make a final dividend at present, and have ordered an interim one at 5s. 6d. per pound. Intimation is, therefore, hereby given, that upon the 1st of December next, the Trustee will pay a dividend of 5s. 6d. per pound, at his Office here, to those Creditors who have lodged their accounts, with affidavits. A state of the affairs and scheme of division will lie in the Trustee's Office, for the inspection of all concerned, until the dividend takes place.

Wm. H. Ritchie, Trustee.
