His Royal Highness is at the same time graciously pleased to declare, that the said non-commissioned officers, trumpeters, drummers, and private men, who upon examination, shall be found fit for service, shall receive the sum of one shilling and ten pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining station, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march, and shall be afterwards subsisted until allotted to a Veteran Battalion, at the following rates; namely, serjeants, trumpet-majors, and drum-majors, at one shilling and ten pence; and corporals, trumpeters, drummers, and privates, at one shilling per diem each, together with the usual allowance of one penny per diem for beer money.

His Royal Highness is also pleased to Order, that every man found fit for duty, shall on his joining the Veteran Battalion to which he shall be appointed, receive a bounty of one pound five shillings, or so much thereof as shall remain after supplying him with proper necessaries; and that every man when discharged, shall be allowed to reckon his service in the said Battalion in addition to his former service, and to receive such an increased rate of pension, as the entire period of his service may entitle him to claim under the regulations now in force.

It is also His Royal Highness's pleasure, that the men who upon examination shall be found unfit for any duty shall be dismissed, and be settled with at the rate of one shilling and ten pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining stations, calculated at the rate of ten miles for a day's march, and shall receive also the like allowance to carry them back to their homes; and that while detained for examination, they shall receive the same pay and allowances as the men found fit for duty.

Every out-pensioner appearing for examination, is hereby ordered and required to produce to the Examining Officer his instruction paper, and such out-pensioners as are not resident in their respective districts, or to whom it may be more convenient to appear for examination in any other, are hereby informed, that they are permitted to do so, provided they appear on some one of the days appointed above.

And it is His Royal Highness's further pleasure, that if any out-pensioners who are exempted from the present call under the terms of this Proclamation, shall nevertheless be desirous of volunteering their services, and shall present themselves for examination at any of the places of assembling, they shall, if found fit to serve, be received into a Royal Veteran Battalion with the same bounty, pay and allowances as the men who are included in the call.

And it is hereby notified, that all the out-pensioners hereby called upon to attend, who shall not appear at any of the times and places herein appointed, will be struck off the books of the out-pension of the said Hospital, according to the regulations under which such pension is granted, without any prospect of being restored thereto.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty.
PALMERSTON.

N.B. It is most earnestly requested, that all Officers Civil and Military, and all Magistrates and Ministers will exert themselves in circulating the above notification in their respective districts and parishes, in order that the out-pensioners interested in the communication of it, may not suffer from ignorance of its contents; and they will also have the goodness to explain to the out-pensioners, to whom this Order does not extend, that they are not called upon to appear at the present examination.
